The Two Go Hand In Hand

Passage of the city income tax bill in council this past week was expected. In fact it has been known this would be the next step of the city administration since before the election.

Simultaneous with the announcement of the new tax comes the story of the befuddled financial affairs of the city brought on by failure of someone in the city hall to handle properly the refunding of certain bonds. We don't know whether it has definitely been established yet who is responsible. However, this is not the first time something of this nature has happened and the spending of money they didn't have has been a common practice of various city departments, all of which has been made possible through the system employed in a city charter that needs revision.

There has been a proposal presented to change the city charter to provide the establishment of a city finance director.

Certain groups have also made it known they will force the city income tax before the people in a referendum vote.

It would seem that these two questions should go hand in hand. There can be little question as to the need of the city for additional funds. However, with the placing of these funds in their hands the public should also have the right to know that they will be properly and wisely administered under a city finance director.

Now is the time to make certain changes in the charter.

Dapper Dan Likes Company

This department is in receipt of a letter from our neighbors, Fred and Betty Gabler, 1500 Wilson-rd, whereupon they state that mystery surrounds the disappearance of their 6 mos. old Dapper Dan, a fair complexioned duck with proficiency in swimming.

Frank Grooms reports seeing Dan last Tuesday evening near our dam, just south of Gablers'. Police haven't as yet been notified because there was no sign of "fowl" play. It was at first thought he might have been the victim of amnesia brought on by extreme worry over the approaching holiday.

It was a coincidence that in last week's Hilltop Record appeared an ad "Ducks For Sale," with our address under it.

The truth of the matter is that Dan has been well taken care of since his disappearance and has been with our flock of ducks all these days and nights. He was merely lonesome. But in view of the fact that Gablers were kind to five of our brood who daily visited their hen lot and ate their scratch food for several weeks we feel that Dan has a free meal ticket with us until such time as our neighbors feel inclined toward a duck dinner.

St. Nick Gets Good Advice

Somewhere on the Hilltop is a very loyal little community booster who believes in patronizing the local merchants first.

Last week she visited Santa Claus in a big, big downtown department store and the conversation that was broadcast over the loud speaker ran something like this:

"What do you want for Christmas?" asked Santa.

"I want a large doll from Seiller's," was the little girl's reply.

"Don't you want something from this store?"

"No. I want everything from Seiller's," she assured St. Nick.

Hearing Held On Storm Sewers Tues.

The decision on whether or not the Franklin County Commissioners will go ahead and order construction of a $46,000 storm sewer in the Rainbow Addition will be made at a meeting of the commissioners, Tuesday, Dec. 16, at 10 o'clock.

This was the outcome of a public hearing on the proposed improvement held in the commissioners' office Tuesday. At that time representatives of groups favoring and opposing the storm sewer presented petitions to the commissioners from residents and property owners in the area. About 35 persons attended the hearing.

Gale R. King, spokesman for the group, opposed to the storm sewer, presented a petition which he said bore signatures of owners of 137 of the 249 lots in the area and of the 27 acres not laid out in lots. The petition bore the names of 54 property owners, 41 of whom live in the area which would be affected by the sewer. Both sides said there are 94 home owners living in the Rainbow area.

John Ward, spokesman of the group favoring construction of the storm sewer, laid a petition before the commissioners which he said bore the signatures of 54 of the 94 home owners in the addition who favored the improvement.

Ward said the issue is one of health. "People look to get out of the mud they are now living in," he said. "If this sewer is not constructed now, the Board of Health may very well condemn the wells and the homes in which they live."

Opposed Cost Of Improvement

King based his objections partly on the ground of costs and said that a storm sewer laid before street improvements are made will be useless. He said the time to lay such a sewer would be when the streets are improved and sanitary sewers, water, and gas lines are also put down.

The commissioners decided to postpone a decision for two weeks to enable them to check the names on the petitions.

Commissioner C. R. Lauderbauch said the question is, "Is the improvement necessary and is now the time to do it?" He said the commissioners are not bound by law to make a decision based on the majority opinion of property owners in the area affected, but that they would like to do so.

This is the third time the improvement has been up for consideration. The original petition favoring the storm sewer was filed Oct. 22 by Leslie H Walters.

The sewer would be constructed of tile and would vary in width, having sections of 8, 10 and 18 inches. It would drain the area in the Rainbow Addition bounded by Eakin-rd on the south, the alley north of Whitehead-rd on the north, and Clarendon-av and Whitethorne-av on the west and east sides of the addition. Assessments for the improvement would run about $150 per 40-foot lot, the commissioner's office said.

HCC To Elect New Officers

The annual meeting of the Hilltop Community Council will be held Thursday, Dec. 11, at the Teen-Canteen, 2585 W. Broad-st, at 8 o'clock.

Election of officers for the ensuing year constitutes the major portion of the evening's business. The nominating committee, headed by E. B. Graham, principal of John Burroughs School, and assisted by Mrs. Edward F. Thompson and Mrs. Earl Abrams, will present a slate of officers. Further nominations are to be made from the floor.

Attorney Philip Stout, president of the group, will preside at the meeting, and will give his annual report on the progress of the council during the past year, with recommendations for the coming year.

Mrs. Ray Cave, chairman of the Christmas party committee, will announce her plans for the celebration to be held Dec. 27. All children of grammar school age are and will be invited. Under the supervision of a number of the leaders of the various PTA's, students of the schools will present a varied program of entertainment. The usual Christmas treat will be given each girl and boy attending.

Plans regarding the operation of the Teen Canteen during the coming year will be discussed.

Services Were Held For Mrs. Mary Gerth

Funeral services were held last Friday for Mrs. Mary E. Gerth, age 47, of 2373 Glenview-blvd, who died Nov. 25 in Mt. Carmel Hospital shortly after shooting herself with a .38-caliber revolver at her home.

Mrs. Gerth was despondent because of ill health, police said. She is survived by her husband, Lawrence W. Burial was at Union Cemetery.

He Heads Masons

J. W. Hilbert

At the annual election of officers of West Gate Lodge No. 623, F. & A. M., held Monday evening, Nov. 24, J. Warren Hilbert, 162 S. Southampton-av, was elected Worshipful Master for the ensuing year.

Other officers for the coming year are senior warden, George Levisay, 85 Algonquin-av, junior warden, J. Harold Oney, 37 Binns-blvd, treasurer, Howard Hamilton, 458 Kanawha-av; secretary, Malcolm C. Grove, 1540 Neil av, senior deacon, Russell Friend, 70 N. Powell-av; junior deacon, Harry B. Fell, 41 Huron-av; senior steward, Harry C. Weimer, 184 S. Westmoor-av; junior steward, Howard Hartranft, 478 Richardson-av; chaplain, Gaylon Shank, 621 Wrexham-av; tyler, William H. Pascoe, 283 S. Harris-av.

Lodge trustees for the coming year will be Ralph Jacobs, Ray Newlun and Carroll H. Vance.

The new officers were installed by installing officer, Gaylen Shank, assisted by L. B. Turner, marshal, and Lawrence Campbell, chaplain.

The new master was presented a gavel by the members of Westgate Hi-12 Craftsman Club.

A reception and dance honoring the new officers will be held at West Gate Temple Thursday evening, Dec. 4, at 8 o'clock.

Rome Woman Traffic Victim

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Maude Smith Cloman, 67, of New Rome, who was killed Sunday when she walked into the side of an auto in Route 40 near her home.

Sheriff's deputies said the auto was driven by William Rhyne, 34, 1251 Hildreth-av, who told them Mrs. Cloman ran against his car after she had dodged an eastbound auto which almost struck her.

Mrs. Cloman suffered head and internal injuries and died in an ambulance enroute to Mt. Carmel Hospital. Her death was the 28th traffic fatality in Franklin County outside Columbus this year.

She is survived by her husband, Adam Cloman, two daughters, Mrs. Arthur W. Kines and Mrs. Ruth Kasler, both of New Rome, a brother, Homer Spragg of Zanesville, four grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Interment was at Sunset Cemetery by the Jerry Spears Funeral Home. Rev. Elwood Rose conducted the services.

A seven-year-old boy suffered a possible fractured skull Monday night when struck by an auto at Columbian and Sullivant-avs, as he fled from a playmate during a game of chase.

Kenneth Whitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Whitman, 570 Reed-st, was the victim. Police said he ran from the northwest corner of the intersection into the path of an auto driven by Mrs. Bertha J. Minnix, 2200 Amherst-av. He was taken to Children's Hospital for treatment by the Fire Department emergency squad.

When an auto driven by Asil Morris, 32, West Jefferson, struck a trolley bus at Broad-st and Southampton-av Monday night, the driver of the car and a passenger, Eldon Thompson, 21, also of West Jefferson, suffered minor face injuries.

Police said the bus, driven by John Piatt, 20, 315 W. Fifth-av, was making a left turn into the W. Broad-st terminal.

Morris and Thompson were taken to Mt Carmel Hospital and Piatt also reported to the hospital for X-rays of possible left side and right knee injuries.

Five Are Treated By Inhalator Squad

Smoke from a basement fire at the home of Francis Taylor, 104 S. Richardson-av, partially overcame five persons Saturday night, necessitating treatment by the inhalator squad. None of the five was seriously injured although loss by fire was estimated at $300.

Treated by firemen were Taylor, 79; his wife, Effie, 75; their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ann Taylor, 52; and two grandchildren, Robert and Ruth Evans, 18 and 8.

Hilltop 'Y' To Be Discussed By CSA Group

Plans for the creation of a Hilltop Branch YMCA will be discussed at the next meeting of the Council of Social Agencies, according to William Kaufman, executive secretary of that group.

In a letter to H. A. Spyker, general executive of the YMCA dated Nov. 26, Mr. Kaufman said that his group "will be very happy" to receive a delegation in the interest of a Hilltop "Y". The date for the meeting has not been set.

Approval of the local project has already been given by the Metropolitan YMCA Board following a petition from the Hilltop Recreation Committee. It had the endorsement of numerous local organizations and individuals. It is understood that should the Council of Social Agencies approve the proposal it would then go to the Community Chest for budgetary consideration.

Mr. Spyker in discussing the matter before the Hilltop Kiwanis Club recently pointed out that a local YMCA would provide a program of activity for girls as well as boys. He explained that the work of the "Y" is becoming coeducational in nature. He said that at present there are 5,000 girls in training for YMCA work all over the country.

"Brace And Bit" Burglars Bound To Grand Jury

Two men and one woman, dubbed by police as the "brace and bit" burglars, were bound over to the grand jury in municipal court last week by Judge Fred L. Donnally. They were charged with committing 14 burglaries throughout the city, including several on the Hilltop.

The trio included Homer Gallion, 23, Reid Hotel, and Joseph Hine, 30, of 304½ N. High-st. Each pleaded guilty and was held under bond of $10,000. The woman, Alice Cyrus, 25, 304½ N. High-st, pleaded not guilty and was held in $3,000 bond.

Among the Hilltop and West Side establishments the trio allegedly broke into using a brace and bit to drill holes around the door locks were Schneizer's Restaurant, 3178 W Broad-st, G & W. Motor Sales, 3192 W Broad-st; Adams Grill, 362 S Glenwood-av; Victory Grill, 1180 W. Broad-st; and Pally's Lunch, 1402 Sullivant-av.

Thrush Rates 2 All-State 11's

Jack Thrush, triple-threat man on the gridiron and master of at least two other sports, rated an end position on the Associated Press All-Ohio High School Team for 1947.

Later he was selected for a position on the second team of the United Press all-state eleven.

The 175-pound senior not only punts, passes, place-kicks and carries the ball on end-around plays in football but was the city's top scorer in the 1947-48 basketball season and was selected to play in the all-American 1946 baseball game in Soldiers' Field. He will graduate at the end of the current semester.

Four other members of the undefeated and untied West team rated honorable mention on the all-state lineup. They were Chuck Weeks, a tackle; Curt Westerman, a guard; Jim Slager, quarterback; and Walter Hicks, halfback.

Thrush had played every position in the backfield before taking over the end position. His place-kick in the waning moments of the North-West game this year staved off defeat in the closest score of any Cowboy contest this season.

Seiller's, Economy Open Until 9 P. M.

Effective Dec. 11, Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad-st, and the Economy Variety Store, 2402 W. Broad-st, will remain open evenings until 9 o'clock until Christmas eve, when both stores will close at 6 o'clock.

The two stores will open each day at 9:30 a. m., thus providing additional shopping hours for Hilltop patrons.

Santa Claus will be on hand at Seiller's each evening to greet the children from 6 to 8 o'clock. He will have a gift for every boy and girl.

Due to a lack of a consistent program of store hours on the Hilltop, The Hilltop Record is unable to keep its readers informed on the hours of each individual store. However, the Record will gladly publish information as to store hours between now and Christmas where this information is made available.

Just call RA. 1125 and ask for the news editor.

VFW TO MEET

Westway Post 3441, VFW, will meet Friday night at the post headquarters, 2393½ W. Broad-st. Plans for a Christmas party will be discussed and a committee appointed.

Leading Sales Tax Stamp Collectors

Shown here are the two girls who collected the most sales tax stamps at West Junior and West Senior High Schools. On the left is Phyllis Philips, 7B, 253 N. Ogden-av, who turned in $3,100 worth of stamps. On the right is Jackie Wright, 12B, who led the senior high school with $1,240 worth of the receipts.

Christmas Gifts Needed for Patients

If you haven't yet left your Christmas gift for a patient at the Columbus State Hospital we would like to remind you that four conveniently located collection stations have been established on the Hilltop.

Gifts may be left at The Hilltop Record, 2465 W Broad-st, Seiller's, 2404 W Broad-st, Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av, and the Westgate Pharmacy, 3089 W Broad-st.

Such items as tobacco, writing materials, shaving cream, handkerchiefs, ties, candy and combs are suitable for men. Gifts for women may include cosmetics, costume jewelry, handkerchiefs, head scarfs and similar items.

Cowboy Five Wins Opener

West High School opened the 1947-48 basketball season Tuesday night by defeating Grandview 46 to 27 on the local court. In the preliminary game, the Cowboy Reserves downed the Bobcat Reserves 21 to 18 in a nip and tuck affair.

Coach George Williams takes his team to Springfield for a game tomorrow night. Saturday night finds the Cowboys treking to Portsmouth while Tuesday they take to the road again for a game at Logan. The City League opens next Friday night when Linden McKinley comes to West.

Walter Hicks took scoring honors for the evening as he scored from the floor six times and made good on one out of four free throws for a total of 13 points. Daniels was high for the Bobcats with five field goals for a 10-point total.

Scoring was well divided for the Cowboys, with Jack Thrush accounting for six points, Paul Theisen, 8, Wally Watkins, 2, Chuck Weeks, 8, Duffy Button, in the role of a substitute, sank one field goal and made good on both charity tosses.

CALL IS SOUNDED FOR ALUMNI CAGE CANDIDATES

George K. Hardy, president of the West High Alumni Association, this week sounded a call for basketball players to make up a team that will play the West Varsity on Dec. 16.

All former West players are invited to call George at his home between 5:30 and 6:30 p. m. any day this week. His number is RA. 7528.

2 Filling Stations Are Robbed Here

Two filling stations on the Hilltop have been broken into and robbed in the past 10 days, police reported this week.

Burglars broke a side window to gain entrance at the Stinson Shell Service, 2314 W. Broad-st, Nov. 29. About $80 was taken from the station which is owned by Harold Stinson, 148 Haldy-av.

On Nov. 24, Joseph Litle, owner of the Pure Oil Station, 2115 W. Broad-st, reported a side window had been broken and the combination torn off the safe, from which $250 was taken.

Detective Herman C. Beck and Sgt. George D. Baker are investigating the thefts.

Kiwanis Club To Hear Gauthier

George Gauthier, athletic director and former football mentor at Ohio Wesleyan University, will be the speaker at today's luncheon meeting of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club. The speaker is a lieutenant governor of Kiwanis.

Gauthier is one of the better known college coaches in Ohio, having coached the Bishop's football team for many years before giving up that part of his work a year ago.

The Kiwanis Club program today will center about the proposal that the club give the entire profits of their forthcoming newspaper sale to the Hilltop YMCA. After a discussion of the matter the club will vote.

"While we thank God for those things that are favorable, we should also remember God's benefits from whatever source they come," was the advice of Rev. Jacob Ashburn, pastor of the Oakley Avenue Baptist Church, in his Thanksgiving address before the local Kiwanis Club, Nov. 28.

Pointing out that rust causes steel to crumble and that hard blows make the metal harder, he explained that often the easy life causes the finer things in a person to disintegrate.

"Democracy, like Christianity, was born in trouble and thrives in troubled times. If democracy is lived and practiced by each of us we need no fear of Communism," he stated.

Services Yesterday For Insurance Man

Milton Day, 72, retired district manager of the Western and Southern Life Insurance Co. died Saturday at his home, 161 Lechner-av. With the insurance company 37 years, he retired in 1935 because of ill health. He was a member of Edgewood Chapel of the United Brethren Church.

Surviving are his wife, Hattie, a brother, Homer Day, Indianapolis; a half-brother, Howard Day, and his step-mother, Mrs. Emily Day, both of Johnstown, and two grandchildren.

Services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Burial was in Johnstown.

CIVIC GROUP TO MEET

The Wilson Heights Civic Association will meet at the Wilson School Monday at 8 o'clock for the regular monthly meeting.

Santa Answers Record Want Ad

The Record Classified Ads have come to the rescue many times in the past to supply a buyer for miscellaneous items.

Last week, however, it was called upon to provide a Santa Claus for Seiller's Department Store. And, believe it or not, there was a jolly old Saint Nick living right here on the Hilltop.

Which only proves what we've said many times, that whatever you need or whatever you have to sell, the Record Want Ads are the answer to your problem. Just call Ra. 1125 before 9 a. m. on Wednesday and give them a trial.

West High Girl Is Candidate For Award

Harriet Worthington

By Lois Waters

Harriet Worthington, 12A at West Senior High, 248 N. Ogden-av, has been selected as a candidate for the Bausch and Lomb Science Scholarship representing West for the year 1947, having rated the highest grades in science throughout her Senior High work.

The scholarship is worth $1500 and five scholarships will be presented by the scholarship committee of the University of Rochester in May, 1948, when 20 winners of the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Scholarship Award will gather at the university for two days of tests and interviews.

Harriet has been interested in this field since her beginning eighth grade science work. She has taken botany, chemistry, zoology and physiology. The problems arose over who should get the honor, Kathryn Mann or Harriet. Inasmuch as Kathryn has taken fewer scientific subjects, Harriet was selected as candidate for the award, according to teachers at West.

This girl not only has good grades in science but has been an honor roll student all through high school and is rated second in her class, with Kathryn Mann first.

Harriet's one and only ambition is to enter the Ohio State University College of Nursing at the completion of which she will merit a B. S. degree and will also become eligible to take the examination for a registered nurse. Her sister, Normalee Worthington, by the way, is a third quarter junior in nursing.

Harriet belongs to National Honor, "L" Society, Y-Teens and Job's Daughters.

When asked how she felt about the matter she said, "I was very much surprised and honored."

Scouters Discuss Plans At Camp

Methods for organizing senior scouting units and a scouting program for the coming year were discussed at a week-end outing of the organization and extension committee of the Southwest District at Camp Lazarus, Nov. 22 and 23.

After the business sessions a campfire was held at the exchange lodge and newcomers were initiated. Troops represented at the meeting from the Hilltop also put on stunts. They included Troops 86, 214, 33, 5, 131, 212 and 161.

Sixteen scouters from the Southwest District were present. They were Hubei Coontz, Cecil Pope, V. A. Barbee, Harry Crawford, Ray Benjamin, Dick Glass, Harold Ball, J. P. Harris, J. J. Martin, James McCready, Harry Drake, William Moore, Jack Mithoff, Fred Rudolph, Hoyt Rawley and Robert Woerner.

2 Women Arrested Here By Fed. Agents

Two women, wanted by federal agents on a narcotics charge, were arrested on the Hilltop Monday afternoon and night following a chase by auto and on foot.

The women gave their names as Lesly Lee Austin, 32, of 730 Neil-av, and Mrs. Gladys Benfer, 29, of Washington, D. C. They will be charged with theft and forgery of narcotic prescriptions to obtain morphine.

HBA To Elect Officers At Dec. Meeting

The annual election of officers and Christmas party of the Hilltop Business Association will be held at Glenwood Methodist Church on Tuesday, Dec. 9, starting at 7 o'clock.

Wives of members are invited and there will be a 50c gift exchange. Each person attending is asked to bring a gift marked for either man or woman.

At the business meeting of the club held Nov. 25 five new members were voted into membership, bringing the total membership addition for the year to 48. New firms are Dr. N. T. Miller, Thrift Finance, Tunison's Sohio Service and Schroeck's Service Station.

Nominations for the presidency of the HBA are Joe Goodwin, owner of Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av, and Ed Witherspoon, proprietor of the Better Home Center, 2776 W. Broad-st.

Candidates for other offices include Franklin Sparks of 2976 W. Broad-st, and John Hardy, 2457 Sullivant-av, first vice-president; Delbert Pack, 2394 W. Broad-st, and "Chubby" Distelhorst, 2445 W. Broad-st, second vice-president; J. P. Merriman 2404 W. Broad-st, and Dr. Fred Marsch, 2448 W. Broad-st, treasurer; Gus Johnson, 2578 Sullivant-av, Ira Claggett, 2630 W Broad-st, Dr. C. O. Ways of getting improved mail service on the Hilltop were discussed by members of the HBA in the business meeting. Instances of one delivery per day, late mail deliveries and delays at the postal windows of the Hilltop Station were cited by several of those in attendance. The civic committee was instructed to arrange a meeting with the postmaster at an early date to see what, if anything, could be done to speed up mail service in the community.

Route 40 Opened To Traffic Here On Monday

The south half of Route 40 just west of the city was opened to traffic Monday morning, providing a four-lane divided highway. Work on the improvement has been under way for almost a year.

Robert Werner, 187 N. Harris-av, state highway division engineer, said that dress grading and seeding of berms and the island dividing the two pavements has been held up because of inclement weather and may not be completed until the severe part of the winter is past.

The A. W. Burns Construction Co. had the contract. Work included cutting down the south half of the highway to the level of the north half, built several years ago, placing of storm sewers and surfacing with asphaltic concrete. The new section extends past the Georgesville-rd intersection and will provide access to the Fisher Body-Ternstedt plant as well as the new business development on the north side of Broad-st and the two drive-in theaters.

The completed highway provides for two lanes of traffic in each direction, divided by a narrow island. It provides additional traffic lanes for turning such as the Georgesville-rd intersection.

Sentenced To Reformatory

James A. Demorest, 26, of 391½ Whitethorne-av, was sentenced to the Ohio Reformatory last week by County Criminal Judge Myron B. Gessaman after Demorest appeared in court as a violator of probation granted on auto stealing charges.

He had been retired 12 years from his private work of architectural modeling.

Mr. Schlosser is survived by his wife, Mary; a son, Paul, at home; and two brothers, Paul and Lewis, both of Columbus.

High Requiem Mass was held at St. Aloysius Church Wednesday at 8:30 a. m. with burial in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Mrs. Mabel Kuhlman

Mrs. Mabel Mary Kuhlman, 62, formerly of 163 Whitethorne-av, died after a short illness Tuesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Johnston, Cincinnati.

Also surviving are two sons, William F. Kuhlman, Columbus, and Sgt. Louis B. Kuhlman, stationed at Wright Field, Dayton; a brother, Louis Costello, Ventura, Calif., and a sister, Mrs. Verh Garnett, Columbus.

The body can be seen at the Egan-Ryan Funeral Home. Burial arrangements are not complete.

Mrs. Sadie Adams

Funeral services were held Saturday for Mrs. Sadie Adams, 69, of 1086 Geneva-av, who died at her home Nov. 27 after a month's illness. The body was taken to Toledo for burial at Toledo Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Adams is survived by her husband, William H. Adams; three sons, Oliver, William H., Jr., and Marshall, all of Toledo; a daughter, Ruth Adams, at home, and three brothers.

Jackson W. Cook

Funeral services and interment were at Maysville, Ky., for Jackson W. Cook, 33, 1078 Geneva-av, who died at his home, Nov. 20, after a long illness.

Mr. Cook is survived by his wife, Doris E. Cook, and a stepdaughter, Wanda, both of 1078 Geneva-av.

Francis Aloysius Percy

Funeral services for Mr. Percy 78, who died at his home, 743 Ash-st, Sunday, were held in the Holy Family Church Wednesday morning with interment in St. Joseph's Cemetery by Jerry Spears.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Harry O. Boyd, 361 W. Hubbard-av, and Mrs. Gerald Mulligan, 3278 W. Broad-st; four sons, Raymond, 50 S. Eureka-av, Leo, 303 Cypress-av, John of Cleveland, and Albert of Oakland, Calif.; nine grendchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

STAMPER—We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends, relatives and neighbors who gave their kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during the illness and death of our dear husband, father and brother, Jess F. Stamper. Special thanks to Rev. Lutz for his consoling words, Mrs. Brophy, Agee and Grant for their message in song and music, and to Magnolia Lodge No. 20, F. & A. M., Arch City No. 774, B. of L. F. & E., pallbearers, and Spears Funeral Home for their efficient service.

Mrs. Stamper and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

GEORGE A. FROGGATT, JR.—We wish to thank our relatives, friends, neighbors and business places of the Hilltop for their kindnesses and beautiful floral offerings, the Jerry Spears Funeral Home for its efficient service, Rev. Gordon for his kind words and Mrs. Mary Walters for her beautiful singing, at the death of our father.

George and Herbert Froggatt and families.

CARD OF THANKS

The members of the family of the late John Henry Hallsteine wish to express their heartfelt thanks and appreciation to friends, neighbors, relatives, the Rev. Russell J. Olson, Spears Funeral Home and all those who were so kind in their expressions of sympathy during their recent bereavement.

Mrs. Florence Hallsteine and Family

John Burroughs Has Bazaar Today, Friday

The PTA is planning the annual bazaar for today, Dec. 4, and tomorrow. A ham dinner will be served Thursday evening in connection with the bazaar. The menu is tomato juice, celery, baked ham, sweet potatoes, slaw, peas, rolls and butter, coffee or milk, and ice cream. Dinner will be $1.30 for adults and 55c for children.

The menu for the noon luncheon today is milk, potato chips, wiener sandwiches, ice cream, and pop.

Some of the school classes have made posters to advertise the bazaar and dinner, for use in neighborhood store windows.

The seventh grade boys and girls are doing choral speaking. They are working on "The Night Before Christmas," directed by Mrs. Gene Koontz, the music teacher.

John Burroughs had used 45 tons of coal, through Nov. 26. It takes about three and three-fourths tons per week.

The seventh grade sewing classes are making aprons, the wood classes are making book ends. The girls work at John Burroughs on their sewing, but the boys go to West High each Monday morning for their wood work.

DEACONS TO MEET WED.

The Board of Deacons of Hope Memorial Presbyterian Church will meet Wednesday, Dec. 10, at the home of Rudy Schmidt, 143 N. Huron-av.

Charles Campbell Is Hospital Patient

Charles Campbell, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell, 91 E. Westmoor-av, underwent surgery twice last week at Grant Hospital in an attempt to relieve a colon obstruction.

He was admitted to the hospital two weeks ago and is expected to have a third operation before being released. He has suffered from the effects of this intestinal disturbance for a number of years without being positive of the nature of the ailment. Physicians believe that the third operation will clear up the trouble, his parents say.

Two seven-branch candelabrs softly lighted the St. John Lutheran Church Friday evening, Nov. 7, at 7:30, when Miss Alice Ann Foster and Mr. Phillip A. Smith, Jr., exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. C. T. Langholz. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Albert Lamb, 12 Wisconsin-av, and the groom is the son of Mr. Phillip A. Smith, Sr., 137 W. Norwich-av, and Mrs. Ftta Smith of San Bernardino, Calif.

The bride, given in marriage by her maternal grandfather, Mr. F. M. Davis, wore a gown of bridal satin. The tight fitting bodice was carried into the yoke of illusion in flower and leaf motifs and had a satin scalloped peplum in similar finish. The long fitted sleeves came to a point over the hands. The full skirt of three tiers of illusion over brocaded satin ended in a full circular train, and the finger-tip veil fell from a crown of illusion and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of shattered carnations and sweetheart roses with a white orchid center.

Mrs. James L. Wiler, as matron of honor, was attired in American Beauty taffeta. Mrs. Warren Gebler, Mrs. Robert Foster and Miss Bonnie Lear were bridesmaids in gowns of rose, all similarly styled with tight bodice, sweetheart neckline, and full skirts. Their arm bouquets were of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums, and all wore halos of pom-poms.

Flower girls were Sharon Skinner, cousin of the bridegroom, who wore turquoise blue taffeta, and Paulette Davis, cousin of the bride, whose dress was of peach taffeta. They carried arm bouquets similar to those of the attendants.

Best man for Mr. Smith was Mr. Robert D. Foster, brother of the bride, and seating the guests were Mr. James L. Wiler, Mr. Harry A. Collins, Mr. William Noie and Mr. Jeffery Hilson.

For the reception held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony, the bride's mother received the guests in a street length gown of royal blue with rhinestone trim and fashioned with a side drape. She wore black accessories and her corsage was of white gardenias. Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Jack Davis, Mrs. Fred Schmidt and Miss Jean Hawkins.

The bride graduated from Central High School and attended OSU. She is now associated with the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers.

Mr. Smith graduated from North High School and served five and one-half years in the Pacific theater of war with the U. S. Navy. He is now associated with the Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip A. Smith, Jr., are now at home to their friends at 1364 Livingston-av.

Oil Company Buys Historic Corner

The Gulf Refining Co., through its district manager, Boydon Jann, announced last week that it had purchased the northwest corner of Sandusky and Broad-sts from Winfield H. Shapter and plans to erect a large modern service station.

The property has been owned by the Shapter family for many years and has long been sought by commercial firms. It has a frontage of 178 feet on Broad-st and 99 feet on Sandusky-st.

The company plans to install the latest scientific automotive servicing equipment in the station. It will also have a salesroom where a complete line of Gulf oils, tires, tubes, batteries and auto accessories will be handled.

2 Church Leagues Organized Here

Play in the two Hilltop church basketball leagues will get under way at the Glenwood shelter house Jan. 5, Walter Gerber, organizer of the teams for the city recreation department, said today.

At a meeting in city hall Nov. 24, organization of the West Church Senior and Intermediate Leagues took place. Each league will have eight teams. One vacancy remains, however, in the senior circuit.

One outstanding change was made in the rules that will govern play this season. Each team in the church leagues may use not more than two players from the double A city leagues and then only if the players are members of the church on whose team they propose to play. Considerable confusion was apparent last year. Mr. Gerber said, over the eligibility of double 'A' league players who also played on church teams.

The senior league teams will play at the shelter house on Monday nights and the intermediate teams will play there on Tuesdays. First game in the senior league will be Monday, Jan. 5, and the intermediates will begin play Tuesday, Jan. 6.

The following churches will be represented by teams in the senior league: Glenwood, Salvation Army, Westgate Evangelical, West Park, Burgess U. B., Hoge Memorial, St. Aloysius and one other still to be selected. The Intermediate League will have teams from Hoge Memorial, Westgate, Glenwood, Avondale U. B., St. Aloysius, Salvation Army, West Park and Holy Family.

Lutheran Loops To Play Jan. 5

Play in the Lutheran Athletic Association Basketball League will get under way Jan. 5. Three senior and two intermediate loops will be operated. Some of the games will be played at John Burroughs gym.

In the Senior B league are St. Paul, Hope No. 2, Emmanuel, Martin Luther, Hilltop, Canal Winchester, Rome and Grove City.

The Intermediate D loop has Grace, Christ, Hope, Trinity, St. Paul and Emmanuel. The E league has Center, Clinton Heights, St. John, Bethlehem, St. Matthew and Hilltop.

LEGAL NOTICES

Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio, No. 122211—Victor Voeller, Administrator, with Will Annexed of the Estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 258 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. Margaret Voeller, 258 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Victor L. Voeller, 258 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Gleona Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney, Mrs. John Coleman, 2648 Fremont Road, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Sadie Young, 267 East Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Buell, 668 High Street, Worthington, Ohio; Mrs. [redacted] Russell, Cleveland, Ohio; Frank Snable, whose address is unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, Will Snable, Lima, Ohio, Defendants.

James Courtney and Barbara Courtney, whose last known place of residence is 1357 Lucile Ave., Los Angeles, 26, California, and Frank Snable, whose address is unknown, are hereby notified that on Feb. 10, 1947, Victor Voeller, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 258 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio, filed his petition in Cause No 122211 in the Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio; that they have been made parties defendant in said cause.

Plaintiff further says that on or about the 17th day of January, 1947, Barbara Gray died a resident of Franklin County, Ohio, leaving a Will which was admitted to p[illegible] by the Probate Court of said County and State on or about the 10th day of February, 1947, that thereafter administration proceedings were had as to the Estate of the said Barbara Gray, deceased, as more particularly set forth in the proceedings and the records of said Probate Court and that the Inventory and Appraisement has been filed in said Estate. Said Will is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Plaintiff says that the house mentioned in said Will on Linwood Avenue was sold in 1946.

Plaintiff further says that Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney died after the execution of said Will.

Plaintiff further says there was in the safety deposit box in the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch, Four Thousand One Hundred Forty Dollars ($4,140.00), Five (5) One Thousand Dollar ($1000.00) United States, Series G. Bonds and a Postal Savings of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). That there was in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, the sum of Two Hundred One Dollars and fifty-nine cents ($201.59). That Barbara Gray died seized in fee simple of the property located at 1070 City Park Avenue; that the insurance amounted to the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-six Dollars ($356.00) and has been paid to the Administrator herein.

That the said Barbara Gray died, leaving no heirs closer than first cousins; that Margaret Voeller, mentioned in said will, is a first cousin of said Barbara Gray, deceased, and that said Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Sadie Young, Mrs. Anna Buell, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Frank Snable and Will Snable are first cousins of the said Barbara Gray, deceased; that Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Gleona Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney and Victor Voeller are second cousins of said Barbara Gray, deceased.

That besides the property mentioned in said petition there is a diamond ring and household furnishings.

That there are important, difficult and doubtful questions respecting said Will and the disposition of said property under said Will and that plaintiff is in doubt as to the construction of said Will and as to the rights of parties in the distribution of the property under said Will, that plaintiff is in doubt about the following:

(1) As to whether the insurance is to go to Raymond Ayres, under the provisions of said Will?

(2) That plaintiff is in doubt, since the property on Linwood Avenue was sold prior to the death of said Barbara Gray, whether said devisees mentioned as to receive said property, are entitled to anything under said Will.

(3) That plaintiff is in doubt as to whether 1070 City Park Avenue is to go to the heirs of Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney, who were deceased prior to Barbara Gray's decease, or to Margaret Voeller or to become a part of the residuary estate and be divided among all the cousins mentioned herein.

(4) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether said insurance is to be paid to Margaret Voeller.

(5) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the $4140.00 in cash, which was in the safety deposit box of the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch; the five $1000.00, Series G, United States Bonds, also in said safety deposit box, the $500.00 Postal Savings, also in said safety deposit box, and the $201.59 in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, after the payment of debts goes to said Victor Voeller.

That if the Court should decide that the five $1000.00 Bonds do not go to Victor Voeller or any other part contained in said safety deposit box, out of which the debts of the estate are to be paid first, and to whom is the balance to go.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will and the disposition of the property under said Will and as to his duties in the premises and especially to the five questions raised in the petition herein and an order as to the duties of the plaintiff in regard to them.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before Jan. 24, 1948 or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

Esquire Vs. Allen Milk

It was like a "cat and dog" fight as Esquire and Allen Milk battled in one of the best team games of the year last Monday night. Before the evening started Esquire had a four game lead for first place with a 25 and 5 record and Allen Milk was in second place with a 21 and 9 record. A three game victory for Esquire would given them the league lead for quite a while and might have given Esquire the championship. As it happened Allen Milk won all three games, leaving Esquire with a slim one game lead. All together three games over 1000 were bowled. Allen Milk had games of 1015 and 1004 while Esquire rolled 1011.

Dick Ardle

In the first game, which was one of the best games rolled this season, Allen Milk nosed out the opponent 1015 to 1011. A "dog leg" coming in the tenth frame to Tom Wolfe was what decided the game. At one point in the game, the sixth frame, Esquire was leading by 9 marks but Allen Milk continued to mark while Esquire was having three misses, two splits, and a "dog leg" which crused their downfall. The second game was another good one as Allen Milk again rolled over 1000, 1004, while Esquire was rolling 939. The third game was a low scoring game with Allen Milk winning 826 to 801.

Carl Breckenridge had the high single game of the two teams with 242 while Milt Banning had the high three-game series, 626.

The box score of the two teams is as follows:

Allen Milk
Tom Ogier	195	187	139	521
Geo. Phillips	204	231	150	585
Fred Wolf	223	198	151	572
Carlos Clous	192	178	171	541
Milt Banning	201	210	215	626
	1015	1004	826	2845

Esquire
C. Br'kenridge	242	188	178	608
Dan Wolf	179	201	168	548
Tom Wolfe	157	160	163	480
Hube Seitz	225	191	130	546
Geo. Kanaval	208	199	162	569
	1011	939	801	2751

 * Bowler of the Week * ***

Milt Banning is our bowler this week. Milt bowls in the two best leagues at the Hilltop alleys. On Monday, in Recreation League, he is the anchor man on Allen Milk and carries a 176 average. Last Monday he rolled 626. On Thursday, in the Business Men's League, he bowls as anchor man on the Esquire team and carries a 187 average which is the second highest in the league. Last week he rolled 596.

 * Bowling Bits * ***

Our bowling gem goes to the ladies of the Seiller's Department Store team, who rolled over 2500 in the Thursday night league. It was one of the best series to be rolled by the ladies this year.

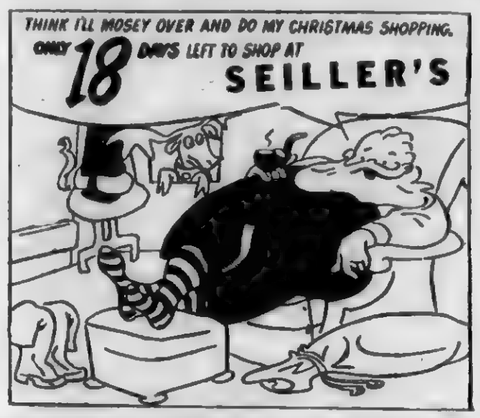
Feb. 27—Mound here.



Display Window Brings $100 Check

Clarence Fuhr, display man at Seiller's, 2404 W. Broad-st, received a check for $100 last week for having the winning display window in a national contest held in the fall. The display (pictured above) featured Springfoot boys' hosiery, a product of the Wilmington Hosiery Mills, Wilmington, Del.

The award was won over several hundred other contestants representing stores of similar size all over the country. It was the first national display contest won by Fuhr, although he won a War Bond contest during World War II and had previously won two other local contests.

The display man has been with Seiller's almost two years. Currently his Christmas display windows have been the center of interest of many persons passing the store. At present he lives at 100 N. Fifth-st but previously lived on Fairmont-av.

Dispatch Picks 6 West Players For All-High

The championship West grid eleven placed six boys on the Dispatch All High released by Lou Berliner last week.

Rated on the mythical all-city selection were Jim Slager, quarterback, Starling Hutt, fullback, Jack Thrush and Bill Buckingham at ends, Chuck Weeks, tackle, and Curt Westerman, guard. Westerman was again a unanimous choice and as a result rated the co-captaincy along with Dick Thomas of East.

Named to the second team were Fred Thumberg, guard, and Walter Hicks, the city's leading scorer, a halfback.

Joe Hostetter, tackle, Al Andrews, center, and Jerry Chinn, halfback, were given honorable mention.

The same six on the Dispatch first string rated the coaches' selection plus Hicks. The Journal placed Thrush, Westerman, Slager, Buckingham and Thumberg on its first eleven.

It was the first time in the history of the school that 12 players rated places on all-city selections.

Magly Field Among Finest

Night football at West High School has taken on big business proportions. A financial statement made public this week by Harry L. Zulauf, school business manager, shows that the gross take for the season exceeded $25,000. Of course overhead expenses, other school shares and city, state and federal taxes take a major portion of this income but there is still enough left over to do many things for the school in the way of athletics.

All of the profits from the season just past were needed to apply on the cost of the lights and to help maintain other non-profit athletics but the time will come when other tangible improvements can be undertaken. Already under consideration are bleachers to help accommodate capacity crowds such as was experienced on three or four occasions this year. The temporary bleachers used this year were rented and will in all probability be rented again for next year but this is not an ideal situation. Investment in additional seating facilities for three or four thousand spectators would be much appreciated by those who pay at the gate.

For some time now the West High Boosters Club has been planning to erect a press box on top of the concrete stadium. Only the lack of money kept it from becoming a reality this year but there is a good possibility that this may be done before another season rolls around.

Magly Field has one of the best lighting facilities to be found anywhere. The addition of the bleachers would be another step in the direction of making the field one of the best equipped in the state. Hilltoppers can well be proud of the facilities made possible at West High School and those that are to come in future years.

Last Roundup

They closed the books on the 1947 football season at West High School last Tuesday night so this will probably be the last piece I will be doing on football for a while. It's been a great year on the Hilltop and it's been lots of fun following and writing about a swell bunch of fellows like the championship Cowboys.

The banquet in the school cafeteria, attended by 300 proud boys, their parents and business people, was a fitting climax to a successful year. The decorations were the nicest we've seen at a West football dinner. Much of the credit for a fine job goes to Art Miller and his art pupils.

In large block letters behind the speaker's table were the words "WELCOME CHAMPIONS." The score of each of the 10 games this year was prominently displayed on cards at either end of this line. The name of every player and coach was printed on cards displayed all around the cafeteria. Immediately back of the speaker's table was a life-size figure of a football player and immediately in front of the speaker was the coveted Harley Trophy, emblematic of the city grid crown.

Phillip Stout presided as master of ceremonies. The crowd was in a carefree spirit from the start. Even the invocation by Dr. Joseph Shellhaas was punctuated with laughter when some one failed to control a loud hiccough just as he was nearing the end of his prayer. Dr. R. J. Miller, president of the Hilltop Business Association, hosts to the football players, welcomed the players and their parents. Principal Irvin F. Young expressed the thanks of the school for the many contributions made by local groups and individuals during the year.

Fred Thumberg, speaking for the entire team, presented Coach Mack Pemberton and his assistants, Fred Heischman and Dave Randall, with tie clasp sets.

No One Happier

"No one could be happier than I am tonight," Coach Pemberton said as he presented the members of his undefeated and untied team. He first introduced the members of the reserve squad who will for the most part constitute next year's team. Then he handed out miniature gold footballs to 23 players and four managers. Jerry Chinn, the 24th player, could not be present because of illness so his football was given to his father.

Players receiving the championship tokens were Chuck Weeks, Danny Miles, Paul Theisen, John Young, Tom Greene, Dick Hershberger, Al Andrews, Carl Naumoff, Joe Hostetter, Bob Smith, Skip Stout, Robin Schmidt, Fred Thumberg, Gene Boothe, Wilbur Ehlers, Bob Horch, Bob Wolfe, Bill Buckingham, Walter Hicks, Jim Slager, Curt Westerman, Starling Hutt and Jack Thrush.

Managers receiving the football were Bruce Langdon, Dick Holyeross, Dick Husch and Bill Ridenhour. In addition to the three coaches, the miniature pigskins were also presented to Principal Young and Dr. C. O. Cramer, the team physician.

A high point of the evening came when Coach Pemberton announced that Jack Thrush had been selected for a position on the all-state mythical eleven chosen by the Associated Press.

Hilarious Half Hour

Principal speaker for the evening was undignified Rev. Lawrence Hall, associate pastor of Christ Episcopal Church in Cincinnati. Laying aside all clerical restraint, the former Englishman rolled 'em in the aisles for 30 minutes with his Ed Wynn falsetto voice inflection and his rapid-fire humor. Injecting only half a dozen serious thoughts all evening, Rev. Hall emphasized "He who is without humor is without hope."

Tagging his half hour talk "Pass A Laugh Along," the Episcopal clergyman interspersed slight of hand with his humor. Warming up to his subject, the speaker was alternately on his tip-toes, scooting down behind the speaker's table, and up on his chair. He ended up by standing on the table as he told his last half dozen stories and snipped off pieces of his necktie.

Typical of his numerous stories on fellow Englishmen was this one about the man who boarded a double-decker bus.

After annoying the bus driver over the absence of seats in the downstairs section, and other inconveniences, the driver finally suggested he go up on the upper deck where he knew there were plenty of seats. The disgruntled passenger did as he was told but returned down the stairs hurriedly in a matter of minutes.

"Now don't tell me that there are no vacant seats up there," shouted the exasperated driver.

"Seats be hanged," roared his passenger, "there isn't even a driver up there."

A fire which broke out in the apartment of Charles Busick, 377½ Lechner-av, caused damage amounting to $10,000 in the building. Twelve families were routed from their rooms.

Bob Richardson, for two years fullback on the West High championship grid teams of '36 and '37, was named honorary captain of the undefeated and untied 1937 unit at the "Victory Dance," which was held Thanksgiving eve in the school gym.

The members of the Hilltop Business Men's Association began yesterday to give tickets with each 25c purchase, which will be used in a grand drawing on Dec. 29. More than $500 in prizes will be awarded.

Arthur N. Miller, 623 S. Harris-av, bagged a 275 pound deer, last Thursday in Lake of the Woods, Ontario, where he and his wife have lived since September.

Starling News

THANKSGIVING
By Patti Winer

Wednesday, Nov. 26, Starling Junior High School gave two assemblies. The first was for the 8A's, 9B's and 9A's. The second was for the 7B's, 7A's and 8B's. The Rev. Brobst, pastor of St. Mathew's Lutheran Church, spoke on the subject of Thanksgiving. Songs of Thanksgiving were sung by the audience.

BOOK WEEK
By Barbara Harrison

The theme for Book Week was "Books for the World of Tomorrow." Monday morning, Nov. 24, Starling's members of the library staff had a meeting and a ceremony. Betty Baker was awarded a pin for the longest service of helping in the library. The other members of the staff of our library were given ribbons for their excellent service. The library has nearly 50 new books for Book Week.

LIBRARY TEA PARTY
By Barbara Harrison

This tea was held for teachers of Starling Junior High School who are celebrating book week along with other schools and libraries. Nearly 45 people were present. The tea was served by candlelight. Six 9B members of the staff served the tea. Those who served as hostesses are as follows: Betty Baker, Carolyn Twitty, Shirley Morris, Nancy Pavey, Deloris Dennis, Charlotte Renner. A teachers' meeting was held afterward.

Cowboy Capers

By Jean Williams and Edith Wilkins

Here it is Dec. 4 and basketball season has started again. The team will travel to Springfield this Friday night. Here's hoping we do as well in basketball as we did in football.

As 3:30 drew to a close we found VIOLET WARD nervously awaiting her grade card. Not afraid are you, Violet?

DICK HAM surely has his troubles. We're referring to the episode in dramatics class the other day.

If anyone wants a problem solved the man to see is HAROLD ROWE. He knows all the answers.

Seen: FRANK GNARO trying to think of a better way for the city to get money, other than the new income tax.

Why is it "POODIE" HUTT is so popular in the seventh period P. O. D. class. It seems as though he gets called out almost every day.

Teachers were found very disgusted Monday morning, because of the passing of senior class pictures for autographs. It seems KATIE KLEIN had the most, and BOB JONES was trying to find out how she did it.

BEVERLY CRAMER appears to be the only girl we could find sporting a gold football.

Found in 231 is DICK BORROR madly typing away at his L. tin.

We find our varsity basketball team this year includes JACK THRUSH, PAUL THEISEN, WALTER HICKS, CHUCK WEEKS and WALLY WATKINS. They started against Grandview Tuesday night.

Where did CHARLENE GILMORE get the ring she has been wearing lately. It couldn't be from a certain JOHNNY, could it?

At last MARY ANN MITCHELL'S dream has come true. She made all A's on her grade card.

RAY NOBLE became quite irritated in senior math the other day; it seemed when he went to answer, four other boys did too.

JOANNE PALMER will have a new address next February. She will be living in Springfield, where she will become a nurse.

See you at the Springfield game Friday night.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

The volunteer firemen of Prairie Township Fire Station want to thank their many friends, who attended their recent dance at the Galloway Community House as it was a big success. Since every one had such a good time, it was decided to have another, Jan. 8.

The regular members of the Young Married Club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schroeder Saturday night.

Mrs. Ella McKendree, her sister, Miss Georgeanna Emerson, Mrs. James Whalen and two children of Buena Vista, attended a birthday celebration for Mrs. W. S. McCoy, 2591 Summit-st, last week.

The James Snyder family, Maple-dr, spent last Sunday in Mansfield at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Copeley. This last week her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Shain, of Tippisco Lake, Holley, Mich., have been visiting at the Snyder home.

The Shaner family of Rome-Hilliards-rd spent the week-end in Detroit, visiting with Mr. Shaner's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut, Maple-dr, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ray Caldwell, S. Ogden-av, Sunday night. On Thanksgiving they entertained with a family dinner for their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Knisley and son, John, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Landon and son of Lima, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Jr., and son.

Last Sunday the Junior High Fellowship Group of Columbia Heights Church and Wesley Church were entertained by the young folks of North Broadway Methodist Church. Rev. Elwood Rose of Columbia Heights Church spoke to the combined groups.

At the meeting of the Men's Community Forum held in the Columbia Heights Church Saturday night, Frank Calland, Bob Denman, Ed Garretson, W. G. Lamb, Jim Snyder and Henry Warner were elected members of the steering committee. This committee will appoint its own officers and will plan the program for the year ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Sr., had their family home for Thanksgiving Day as usual. On account of sickness in the G. H. Nole family (Mildred Sheets) they were unable to attend. Those present included W. G. Lamb and family (Marjorie Sheets), Buena Vista; Elton Kaderly and family (Bee Sheets), Fairacres, Galloway, and John David Sheets and family, Alton.

The Ruth Circle met at the home of Mrs. Sheets Monday night for its regular meeting. The regular business was conducted and it was found that the Circle would be able to remember its little charge in the Worthington Methodist Home.

Five boys from Troop 131, Boy Scouts, spent a Saturday night recently at Camp Lazarus. These boys had just completed the patrol leaders' training course. They are Jim Lamb, Eddie Eberhard, David Warner and David Russel. Their scoutmaster, Dick Glass, was on hand.

Priscilla Warner, Lee Allan Mitchell, Bob Wycker and Jean Wycker, all students at Otterbein College, were home over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Ella Rutherford, who has been visiting at the home of the Henry Warners, is now spending a few days with John Warner and family, Columbus.

Mrs. John Rings of Lennox-av, who has been sick for several weeks, is showing slight improvement.

Judy Rings, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rings (Floral Co.), who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is much better although she has not been out of the house at this writing.

It seems that small communities are tied together with the same string and, for that reason, when tragedy strikes one of its members, all are really affected. Such is the case in the accidental death Sunday night of Mrs. Adam Cloman, Lawrence-av. She was crossing the street in New Rome when she was struck down by a car. She died on the way to the hospital. Now is the time for Rome to talk "Stop-Go" lights or safety signs.

The Galloway Boosters Club will be entertained at the Columbia Heights Church Friday night, Dec. 5, with the annual turkey dinner.

A cafeteria supper is being planned in connection with the bazaar that is being sponsored by the Monitors Class Saturday evening. Members have been working very hard for several weeks and have a nice selection of Christmas gifts for display.

The annual Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. B. C. Sheets Dec. 17. It will be a pot-luck affair and a white elephant exchange gift among the members, along with the gift to be sent to the State Hospital.

The entire Breckenridge family of Maple-dr spent Thanksgiving in Cincinnati with their son, Marshall, and family. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Rumfield and son, Derrel, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Breckenridge and two children spent the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Breckenridge, Maple-dr.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio, No. 128211—Victor Voeller, Administrator, with Will Annexed of the Estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. Margaret Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Victor L. Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney, Mrs. John Coleman, 2649 Tremont Road, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Sadie Young, 847 East Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Buell, 668 High Street, Worthington, Ohio; Mrs. Margaret Russell, Cleveland, Ohio; Frank Snable, Lima, Ohio; Will Snable, Lima, Ohio, Defendants.

James Courtney and Barbara Courtney, whose last known place of residence is Los Angeles, California, and Frank Snable, whose last known address is Columbus, Ohio, are hereby notified that on Feb. 10, 1947, Victor Voeller, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio, filed his petition in Cause No. 128211 in the Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio; that they have been made parties defendant to said cause.

Plaintiff further says that on or about the 17th day of January, 1947, Barbara Gray died a resident of Franklin County, Ohio, leaving a Will which was admitted to probate by the Probate Court of said County and State on or about the 10th day of February, 1947, that thereafter administration proceedings were had as to the Estate of the said Barbara Gray deceased, as more particularly set forth in the proceedings and the records of said Probate Court and that the Inventory and Appraisement has been filed in said Estate. Said Will is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Plaintiff says that the house mentioned in said Will on Linwood Avenue was sold in 1946.

Plaintiff further says that Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney died after the execution of said Will.

Plaintiff further says there was in the safety deposit box in the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch, Four Thousand One Hundred Forty Dollars ($4,140.00), Five (5) One Thousand Dollar ($1000.00) United States, Series G, Bonds and a Postal Savings of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). That there was in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, the sum of Two Hundred One Dollars and fifty-nine cents ($201.59), that Barbara Gray died seized in fee simple of the property located at 1070 City Park Avenue; that the insurance amounted to the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-six Dollars ($356.00) and has been paid to the Administrator herein.

That the said Barbara Gray died, leaving no heirs closer than first cousins; that Margaret Voeller, mentioned in said will, is a first cousin of said Barbara Gray, deceased, and that said Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Sadie Young, Mrs. Anna Buell, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Frank Snable and Will Snable are first cousins of the said Barbara Gray, deceased; that Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney and Victor Voeller are second cousins of said Barbara Gray, deceased.

That besides the property mentioned in said petition there is a diamond ring and household furnishings.

That there are important, difficult and doubtful questions regarding said Will and the disposition of said property under said Will and that plaintiff is in doubt as to the construction of said Will and as to the rights of parties in the distribution of the property under said Will, wherein plaintiff is in doubt about the following:

(1) As to whether the insurance is to go to Raymond Ayres, under the provisions of said Will?

(2) That plaintiff is in doubt, since the property on Linwood Avenue was sold prior to the death of said Barbara Gray, whether said devisees mentioned as to receive said property, are entitled to anything under said Will.

(3) That plaintiff is in doubt as to whether 1070 City Park Avenue is to go to the heirs of Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney, who were deceased prior to Barbara Gray's decease, or to Margaret Voeller or to become a part of the residuary estate and be divided among all the cousins mentioned herein.

(4) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether said insurance is to be paid to Margaret Voeller.

(5) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the $4140.00 in cash, which was in the safety deposit box of the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch; the five $1000.00, Series G, United States Bonds, also in said safety deposit box, the $500.00 Postal Savings, also in said safety deposit box, and the $201.59 in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, after the payment of debts goes to said Victor Voeller.

That if the Court should decide that the five $1000.00 Bonds do not go to Victor Voeller or any other part contained in said safety deposit box, out of which the debts of the estate are to be paid first, and to whom is the balance to go.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will and the disposition of the property under said Will and as to his duties in the premises and especially to the five questions raised in the petition herein and an order as to the duties of the plaintiff in regard to them.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before Jan. 5 or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

Elementary School Happenings

Highland Avenue

Highland Avenue School is starting its winter roundup for new 1B children on Dec. 9. It will continue through the rest of the month. Parents who have children who will reach the age of six before Aug. 31, 1948, may enroll their children for the February class.

The school nurse will be at the school on Tuesdays from 1 p. m. to 3:30 p. m. and on Thursdays from 10:30 to 12. All parents planning to enter their children should contact the principal and make an appointment to have the children examined by the nurse.

Mrs. Booth's fourth grade class is studying the lives of great composers. They have made little notebooks shaped like violins. The class has learned a little prayer called "Thanks," by Felix Mendelssohn. They learned that he also wrote "The Christmas Carol," "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," and many others. Very recently the class wrote stories about Mozart's opera, "The Magic Flute." They are now learning "Sleep and Rest," also by Mozart. Next they will begin study of Ludwig Beethoven.

Sherril Singer, room four, announced that his team, "The Highland Broncos," planned to meet the "Atomic Five" in a basketball game yesterday afternoon at Glenwood Park. Robert Delph is captain of the Atomic Five. The lineup was:

H'land Broncos		Atomic Five
Jim Stone	f	Ralph Burke
H. Commeans	f	Robert Delph
Ralph McGinnis	g	R. Bowman
Sherril Singer	g	Dick Burke
Wm. Thompson	c	Joe Bowman

The John Burroughs PTA will hold its annual Christmas bazaar today and tomorrow, Dec. 4 and 5.

There will be displays of needlework, doll clothes, potted plants and plaques. Candy, baked goods, canned goods, potato chips, pop, ice cream and white elephants will be on sale. There will be a fish pond, Girl Scout, Brownie and Cub Pack booths.

A ham dinner will be served Thursday evening (today). Serving will be from 5:30 to 7:30, with adult dinners at $1.30 and children's 55c.

Movies will be shown the school children today, noon only, for 5c.

Scout Official Assigned Here

Clifford Matthews

The new field executive of the Southwest District Boy Scouts of America is engaged in his first professional scouting venture. Assigned to the local post in October, Clifford Matthews replaces Gil Bolin, who has been moved up to the Northwest District.

Although this is his first professional assignment in scouting, Matthews has spent five years in scouting as a boy and later as assistant to his father who was a scoutmaster. For the past two summers he has directed summer camp activities. World War II put an end to his volunteer scouting work in 1942 when he enlisted in the armed services.

Assigned to signal communications with the army, the new scout official spent two years in Italy in the Mediterranean Theater. He received three battle stars—Rome, Arno and North-Apenine Mountains. He was discharged in December, 1945, and returned to complete work on his BA degree at Muskingum College. He was graduated from that school last June.

Matthews is married. He and his wife, Helen, expect to establish their home on the Hilltop in the very near future. They are from Pittsburgh.

Hilltop Talent Is Used At Pro Games

When the Columbus Mariners, the Columbus entry in the All-American Basketball League, met the Youngstown Cubs on the K. of C. floor Sunday night, Nov. 30, Frank Ongaro, popular young West Side accordionist, entertained the fans between halves of the feature game.

Jinx Witherspoon, the talented young petite blonde singer of the Hilltop, will entertain the fans this coming Sunday night, Dec. 7, when the Columbus Mariners play the Wheeling Puritans from Wheeling, W. Va. The main feature starts at 8:15 with a preliminary game scheduled at 7:15 at the K. of C. Hall.

The Columbus Mariners have 18 home games scheduled on Sunday nights.

6th Anniversary To Be Observed Dec. 7 to Dec. 14

Rev. Lorenz

The sixth anniversary of the founding of Westgate Methodist Church will be celebrated with a week of special events starting Sunday, Dec. 7. It was on that day — Pearl Harbor Day — six years ago, that the first meeting of the congregation was held in the auditorium of West High School. This will be the first anniversary celebrated in the new church.

Two special services will be held Sunday morning and evening and each evening through Dec. 14, the anniversary of the start of the Sunday School.

Dr. Alton will preach at the 10:30 a. m. service Sunday with the Hilltop Women's Chorus presenting a sacred concert at the evening service followed by a religious picture.

On Tuesday night, Rev. Harris B. Anthony, pastor of the Warren Avenue Nazarene Church, will preach and the church choir will sing. On Wednesday night the Joy Bell Ringer will present a sacred concert at the church fellowship. Thursday evening Rev. Harold Dutt will preach and a double quartet will sing. Rev. W. Howard Schoof, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, will deliver the sermon Friday night.

A family basket dinner will be a highlight of the homecoming planned for Sunday, Dec. 14. Rev. James F. Lorenz is pastor of the church, located at 345 S. Brinkerav. Services are being held in the basement part of a new building to be erected at that location at some future date. This first step in the building program was erected at a cost of approximately $65,000.

Father-Son Dinner To Be Held Friday

An illustrated lecture on "Way Out West" will be given by Dr. E. T. Bodenberg, professor of biological science at Wittenberg College, at the annual father-son banquet at 6:30 p. m. Friday in Hilltop Lutheran Church.

The annual event of the church is sponsored by the brotherhood. Herbert Williams, 133 Guernseyav, is general chairman of the arrangements.

The father-son welcome and response will be given by Neil McMillen and his son, Ned.

Special music will be furnished by the Hilltoppers, made up of Ronald Grenell, Walter Grenell, Jr., John Rieker and Tom Becker. Group singing will be led by Harold Beckett, choir director, with Clarence Bird as accompanist.

Rev. Carl Driscoll will be toastmaster.

The Tena Wagner Missionary Society of the church will serve the dinner.

Christmas Programs Planned At Glenwood

The pastor of Glenwood Methodist Church, Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas, will preach each Sunday morning in December on the following topics:

Dec. 7—"This Is the Victory."
Dec. 14—"The Journey of the Soul."
Dec. 21 — "The Christmas Peace."
Dec. 28—"The Crisis of the New Year."

The following special programs will be presented each Sunday evening at 7:30:

Dec. 7—The young people will present a Christmas play, "The Supreme Gift," in Motter Hall, under the direction of Annis Turner.

Dec. 14—The choir will render the Christmas portion of Handel's "Messiah" with Mrs. Charles W. Walton, director, and Mrs. Clyde D. Moore, organist.

Dec. 21—A Christmas program will be presented in Motter Hall by the children's departments of the Church School.

Dec. 28—Sermon by the pastor, "I Resolve," and the Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Nelson Jhensen, will sing.

The pastor will give Bible lectures each Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, on the following topics:

Dec. 10—"Now Are We the Sons of God."
Dec. 17—"What It Means to Seek God."
Dec. 24—"Let This Mind Be In You."
Dec. 31—"Ways to Happiness."

"The Nativity" To Be Presented At Burgess On Sunday Evening

"The Nativity," the story of the birth of Jesus as told in the Gospel of Luke, will be presented in a sound motion picture to be shown at the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church Sunday evening at 7:30. The entire service will be given over to the picture, a hymn-a-log and carol singing.

The service is open to the public. No admission charge will be made.

Edgewood Chapel Wins "Sing" Banner

Edgewood Chapel United Brethren (Old Constitution) Church won the Hilltop Hymn Sing attendance banner Sunday night in a song service held at the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church. There were 120 persons present representing nine local churches.

On Dec. 14, the Hilltop Hymn sing will cooperate with the music committee of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club in the annual carol sing at a church to be announced in next week's paper. Last year Glenwood Church was filled to capacity for this evening of Chrismas carols.

Full details will be carried in next week's Hilltop Record concerning this service.

Columbus Boy Choir To Give Concert Here

The nationally famous Columbus Boy Choir will present a concert in the auditorium of West High School Feb. 4. It will be one of the few concerts presented locally this season.

erine Hughes, Mary Raymond,
This unusual musical treat is being sponsored by the Fidelis Class of Hoge Memorial Church, according to Norman Line. Proceeds will be applied on the church's building fund, he said.

Glenwood People To Present Play

The young people of Glenwood Methodist Church will present a one-act Christmas play, "The Supreme Gift," Sunday evening, Dec. 7, at 7:30. The play is under the direction of Annis Turner and will be given in Motter Hall.

In the cast are Ruth Gildersleeve, Norma Canter, Peggy Hastilow, Kenny Evans, Bobby Sandusky, Ned Moore and David Ely. Jack Galloway is the violin soloist.

Circle 1 of the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church met at the home of Gladys Anderson, 680 S. Hagueav, on Tuesday. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Spangler, Nora Rawn and Marie Thume. There was a gift exchange.

SEILLER'S
2404 TO 2412 WEST BROAD STREET

Briggsdale and Brown Road

By Mrs. Harry C. Dewalsg

Mrs. Catherine King, Cincinnati, spent the Thanksgiving week-end with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harley O'Day, 2066 Eakin-rd. They all spent Thanksgiving Day with friends in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakey Bapst and sons, Chambers-av, were Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Sheridian in Osborne, Ohio.

Mrs. John R. Briggs of Briggsdale returned to her home Saturday from Grant Hospital.

Mrs. James Jackson, Whitethorne-av, and Mrs. Earl Atkinson of Linden were co-hostesses at a stork shower Saturday night given in honor of Mrs. Waustella McNabe of Briggsdale. The party took place at Mrs. Jackson's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, 1865 Harrisburg-pk, were guests Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Case, W. Park-av.

Mrs. Catherine Mouser, age 85, 1454 Brown-rd, who died in White Cross Hospital was buried last Wednesday in Green Lawn Cemetery. Mrs. Mouser was a life-long resident of this vicinity and is survived by a daughter and one brother.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wing, 1344 Greenleaf-rd, are the parents of a son born Nov. 21, at St. Ann's Hospital.

Conservation Group To Meet Friday Night

Members of the Alton Grange have been invited to meet with the Hilltop Conservation Club at the November meeting to be held in the basement of the Hilltop Sporting Goods Co., 2461 W. Broad-st, tomorrow night. The meeting is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

Included on the program will be a sound movie on some phase of conservation work.

The immediate objective of the Hilltop Club, according to the president, Robert M. Draper, 75 N. Roys-av, is cooperation with farmers west of the city in a conservation program. The plan would involve conservation of natural resources, wild life, fish and game. It would include providing shelter and feed for wild life and elimination of stream pollution detrimental to native fish.

The meeting is open to the public without charge.

Raymond E. Thomas Hurt While Hunting

Raymond E. Thomas, 25, of 1053 W. Broad-st, became a hunting casualty last week when he was shot in the leg by a companion while hunting. He was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Sheriff's deputies said Thomas and Ernest Spence, 776 W. State-st, were hunting together north of the O'Shaughnessy Dam when the accident happened.

Football At West High Grosses $25,237 This Year

Installation of lights at Magly Field last summer plus a championship team accounted for a gross gate receipt of $25,237.47 at West High School, Harry L. Zulauf, business manager for the school, reported last week. The unprecedented football revenue made possible retirement of a major portion of the $19,500 it cost to install the lighting system.

The federal, state and city governments claimed $4,116.63 of this figure—enough to completely outfit the football team with new equipment.

Magly Field ticket sales brought in the major portion of the revenue. Local turnstiles clicked to the tune of $21,703.75.

Games played with other City League schools netted the Cowboys $3,083.72 in gate shares; out of town games, under contract, resulted in a $450.00 take.

On the red side of the ledger game expenditures proper totaled $11,858.58, leaving net receipts of $13,378.89, Mr. Zulauf said.

For operation of games it cost the school $2044.56. Additional expenditures include federal taxes, $3,720.36; city and state taxes, $396.27; shares to visiting schools, $5,097.39; contracts to visiting schools, $600.00.

Other season expenditures totaled approximately $23,000.00; with $1,500 for football equipment, $1,000 for other athletic equipment, $1,000 for general administration, $19,500 for lighting system, score board, and other field equipment.

The complete accounting, according to Mr. Zulauf, shows the following:

Game receipts (exact figures):
Total ticket sales	$21,703.75
Games away—
gate shares	3,083.72
Games away, c'tracts	450.00
Total Receipts	$25,237.47
Game expenditures (ex. figures):
Operation of games	$2,044.56
Federal Taxes	3,720.36
City and State Taxes	$ 396.27
Shares to visiting Schools	5,097.39
Contracts—Visiting Schools	600.00
Total Expense	$11,858.58
Net Game Receipts (11 games)	$13,378.89
Total Season Receipts (Approx figures):
Previous Balance	$ 5,600
Net gain on Ticket Sales	13,375
Donations from Hilltop Business Assoc.	275
Hilltop Kiwanis Club	200
Alumni Association	200
Boosters Club	1,350
Loans	6,000
Total	$27,000
Season Expenditures Approx. figures):
Football Equipment	$ 1,500
Other Athletic Equip't.	1,000
General Administration	1,000
Lighting System, Score Board and other Field Equipment	19,500
Total	$23,000
Athletic Balance Nov. 24	$4,000
Obligations—Loan Bonds	6,000
Net Debt, Nov. 24	2,000

It should be kept in mind, Mr. Zulauf said, that football and basketball receipts support the entire spring sports program of track, baseball, golf and tennis. The major portion of this expense, however, is borne by football receipts, he added.

Scales Attends Baseball Dinner

Larry G. Scales, 603 S. Eureka-av, attended a banquet in Cincinnati last Saturday honoring the national champion team in the American Legion junior baseball competition.

Scales is Ohio Department chairman of the Legion's Junior Baseball Commission and was recently appointed to that position for his eighth consecutive year. He has been connected with the Legion's baseball program for 18 years.

The team that was honored represented the Robert E. Bentley Post in Cincinnati. It successfully won district, regional, and sectional series before winning the national championship at San Francisco. This is the second time a team representing the Bentley Post has won the national championship.

Representatives from organized baseball and colleges and universities also attended the banquet.

Not much has been going on at the Canteen due to the cold. With heavy winter coats on you'll find a few loyal members of the Canteen either gathered around the fire in the photography room or playing pool or pingpong. You'll find PAT HORN and JEAN MORGAN dancing to keep warm, and besides it's great pastime.

Our worries of cold are almost over at the canteen because work was started on the old furnace Dec. 1. These working were West Dennis, Johnny Fauth, Gene Jacques, Phil McDonaugh and Mel Griggs. It is hoped that the work will be finished by the end of this week.

On Sunday, Dec. 14, another Camera Club Party will be held, only this time more fun is in store. Why don't you join in on the good time?

By the way, plans are in the making for the best party yet. You know all the fun you have had at previous parties? Well, this one tops all. It is the New Year's Eve Party to be held at the Canteen. As the time grows near I will be able to let you in on most of the plans.

Dancing lessons will soon be offered at the Canteen. It is up to us to put it over. All of the 12A's know the man who called the dances at their 12A party; he has kindly offered his services to the teens of the Hilltop, but will teach only if a sufficiently large number are interested.

VIRGINIA STONE seems mighty interested in the game of pool. Could it be because it's a boys' game?

ED SPARKS showed up at the Canteen Friday night. His excuse? Oh yes, to see "JAKE."

The Junior Red Cross of Sterling had its membership drive from Nov. 17-22. Each pupil gave one cent or more for membership to the Junior Red Cross. He was then given a Red Cross membership card and a pin by the Red Cross representative of his homeroom.

Ask GUY CELLI what his last resort is on the evenings when he has to be home at 9:30. Truthfully, I think he had to watch his little brother, or at least teach him some more football tactics.

If you see PATTI LaVALLE around, ask her her reason for not coming down very often. I believe I know, but it's not for printing, she says.

Many old faces are missing from the Canteen lately, but the hope is that we'll soon be seeing you when we have some heat.

We should accustom the mind to keep the best company by introducing it only to the best books. —Sydney Smith.

Christmas A High Spot In The Lives Of Columbus State School Patients Here

By Bob Wiener

Christmas trees and parties in every cottage, special music and religious programs, and a gift for everyone will help make the Yuletide season a little brighter for the patients at the Columbus State School on W. Broad-st.

Through the efforts of Dr. Forest L. Keiser, superintendent, and his wife, gifts for all the patients have been given at Christmas since 1924. Such items as hose, handkerchiefs, combs, perfume, belts, sweaters, dolls and small toys are bought each year by Mrs. Keiser. The purchasing job is a big one and she begins it in the summer time. Many of the items are bought in large enough quantities to take advantage of wholesale prices and Mrs. Keiser spends a lot of time in buying the gifts.

Not a penny of the money used to buy these gifts comes from the taxpayers. It is obtained through the sale of needlework and other items made at the school. The money thus collected is placed in what is called the "industrial amusement fund." This fund was started by Dr. Keiser in 1924 when he loaned $50 to purchase materials so the patients could make needlework articles. The money received from the sale of these first articles resulted in Dr. Keiser getting his loan back in short order. The fund has been growing ever since. Today there is a gift shop in the administration building at the school where such articles may be purchased by visitors and the general public.

In addition to the sale of needlework and handicraft items the fund is bolstered from the sale at the school of soda pop, newspapers—both old and new—and candy.

Before the war, Dr. Keiser said, the fund realized over $2500 each year from the sale of needlework articles at the Ohio State Fair. This was discontinued during the war but Dr. Keiser hopes to resume this practice again at next year's fair.

2500 Gifts Received

In addition to the gifts which are given to every patient through the amusement fund, about 2500 gifts are received each year from parents and relatives of patients at the school.

This year 40 Christmas trees will be received from the Apple Creek State School. These are available as a result of a refor-

Our New Diametric Precision Balancer

is the finest wheel balancing device known

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT WHEEL BALANCE:

- LONGER TIRE LIFE The age of a tire is no indication of its accurate balance. Even new tires are notoriously out of balance. Correct balance can double the life of your tires!
- SAFETY Improper wheel balance means imperfect steering control. The hazards of modern driving make positive steering control an absolute necessity. Balanced wheels help you avoid accidents, save you considerable expense, and MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE!
- SMOOTH PERFORMANCE Balanced wheels give you smooth; comfortable driving even with an older model car. Proper balance will save your new car from rapid depreciation caused by vibration and pounding.
- ECONOMY The constant throw, vibration and pounding of unbalanced wheels leads to costly repairs. Expensive parts (transmission, universal joints and bearings) take a terrific punishment, even at moderate speeds. BALANCED WHEELS CUT REPAIR BILLS!

estation project at that institution a few years ago. Each department and cottage will have two or three of the trees decorated and lighted with all the trimmings.

Christmas at the Columbus State School is also a time for special religious and music programs. Protestant religious services are held each year on the Sunday preceding Christmas, while Catholic services are held on Christmas morning.

On Sunday, Dec. 21, a 60-voice chorus will present a musical program in the auditorium featuring a cantata, "Chimes of the Holy Night," a story of the birth of Christ. Christmas carols will be sung with a different background setting for each carol. The chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Munsey, sang before the Hilltop Kiwanis Club last spring and has also made appearances at the State Fair and the Orient State School. In addition, it is one of the main groups participating in the concert given at the school each spring.

A Christmas program at which Handel's "Messiah" will be sung by the girls' chorus is scheduled for Dec 23. The school orchestra of 20 musicians will play at this program.

Christmas carols will be sung on Christmas Eve by the girls' chorus as it visits all the cottages and departments. Dr. Keiser fondly recalls the Christmas Eve 17 years ago when he was a patient at Grant Hospital and a similar group from the school came to a place beneath his window and sang carols. He has missed Christmas at the institution only twice in the last 40 years.

Christmas festivities will be concluded on Christmas Day with a big turkey dinner complete with all the trimmings. Everyone will get candy. No visitors will be allowed at the school on the day.

Fire Prevention Bureau Lists Stove Precautions

Four safety rules for the use of gas heaters were outlined by the Fire Prevention Bureau last week.

1. The heater should never be vented to the same flue as a coal furnace. Sparks in the flue will cause an explosion.

2. When using a gas heater in a closed room, keep a window slightly open for ventilation. If fumes consume all the oxygen in a room, the flame will die and the deadly gas escape.

3. Never use copper or rubber tubing for a heater connection. Always use rigid iron gas pipes.

4. A gas heater should have a chimney flue or vent.

As you grow ready for it somewhere or other, you will find what is needful for you in a book.

Kiwanis Club Deserves Community Commendation

Action of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club in making the net receipts from the advertising and sale of their first annual Christmas newspaper available for the new Hilltop YMCA deserves the commendation of the entire community.

Here is an organization that not only talks about worthwhile civic endeavors but by such a token as this actually does something. "We Build" is the slogan of Kiwanis. Here indeed is positive proof of the fact.

Hilltoppers with a vision have long felt the need of a well established and properly supervised program for youth. Such activities of this nature to date have sufficed insofar as they went but with a growing community there must also be that vision necessary to see that nothing is spared to give our children the best of opportunities in this field.

Nearly 30 local organizations have given their vote of approval to the local committee appointed to proceed with establishment of a Hilltop Branch YMCA. This committee has spent many hours in getting the organization to the actual formative stages.

But the Hilltop YMCA is about to become a reality . . . soon after the first of the year it is expected that the program will actually get under way with the hiring of an executive secretary and location of quarters.

Cost of carrying on such a program must be carried in large part by people of the Hilltop. Money is therefore needed now. Expenses of the new organization will start early in 1948. The fine contribution to this project made possible by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club is indeed welcomed at this time.

Other such gestures are in order. Other organizations and individuals in the community are asked to get behind the movement to provide our youth with this fine program.

Individuals have a fine opportunity to help at this time by their willingness to buy a copy of the Kiwanis Christmas paper next Thursday evening, Dec. 18, when a Kiwanian newsie calls at your door. Special contributions may be made through members of the Y committee at any time.

Soon after the actual Y program is set up the local board has planned to proceed with future developments of a program to provide the Hilltop Y with an adequate building and good equipment.

In any event, the program is now under way. Far-seeing residents of this community who believe in their Hilltop and want it to maintain its record of being the outstanding community it is, will see that the Hilltop Y is a reality.

The Hilltop can well appreciate the fine bit of cooperation given this project by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

13 Club Party Sunday

Members of the 13 Club are to have their annual Christmas party Sunday at the Elks Hall. This year, as for the past several years, the club has conducted the sale of a case of merchandise and it nets considerable money.

All the funds from this sale are used in bidding for the first copy of the Charity Newsies paper each year and it runs up into several hundred dollars. So by that token their entire efforts are turned into a charitable cause.

Nice work, men, and keep it up . . . and while you are at it . . . have a good time!

Here and There: As we see it Jim Rhodes' campaign for State Auditor has been officially launched with the editorial appearing in the Wellston Sentinel lauding him as the man for the job . . . All is in readiness for that big party down at Bob Henery's Superior Drug, Whitethorne and Broad, this eve, and the first 200 women to come to the store after 2 p. m. will get an additional free gift . . . That large poinsettia on display in our office is from Yost Florist and is about the prettiest thing of the season . . . The Kiwanis installation party will be semi-formal . . . Goodwin Named President Of Hilltop Business Assn.

Joe Goodwin

Joe Goodwin, proprietor of Goodwin Drugs, Sullivant and Hague-avs, was elected president of the Hilltop Business Association at the meeting of the organization Tuesday evening at Glenwood Methodist Church. He will take office Jan. 13, succeeding Dr. R. J. Miller.

Other officers named were: Franklin Sparks, first vice-president; Delbert Pack, second vice-president; J. P. Merriman, treasurer; Ira Claggett, Dr. C. O. Cramer and Lowell Sullivan, trustees.

A special gift was presented to Dr. R. J. Miller for his services during the past year. Presentation was made by H. G. Deems. Two solos were presented by Allyn Snoddy, accompanied by his wife. Following the dinner Santa Claus (Bill Coon) distributed gifts to each person. Wives of members were guests.

The association voted to sponsor a concert by the Columbus Civic Concert Orchestra some time early next year, with net proceeds of the affair to be given to the new Hilltop YMCA.

The civic committee of the HBA had a meeting with Nathan A. McCoy, Columbus postmaster, Monday morning relative to improved postal service on the Hilltop. Mr. McCoy promised the group that a study of the local situation would be made with the idea of making any needed improvements.

Thieves Rob Sandwich Shop

Thieves operating in the late afternoon or early evening Sunday took $40 in change from the cash register of Helen's Sandwich Shop, 2415 W. Broad-st, and took an undetermined amount of nickels and dimes from the juke box and cigarette machine.

The work was done some time between 2 and 7:30 p. m., when a doughnut salesman, who had a key to the place, discovered the theft. Entry was gained by forcing a basement door.

The same night several locks were broken as thieves ransacked the VFW headquarters at 2393½ W. Broad-st. Although several doors were forced in a systematic search of the place, nothing of value was missing.

Burglars who broke into the White Furniture Store, 635 W. Broad-st, Sunday night, succeeded in getting only $5 in loose change, police reported this week. When they attempted to open the safe by knocking off a doorknob, they discharged a tear gas cylinder which spread fumes around the room and stopped any further efforts to open the safe.

Police also reported this week that several robberies have been committeed by two boys between 15 and 17 years of age. Their method of operation is to call at a house and ask if there are any old newspapers the owner wishes to get rid of. If he says "yes," these boys say they will come back later. If no one answers, they will break into the dwelling and steal anything of value. Any one who becomes suspicious of persons soliciting old newspapers is asked to notify the police department immediately.

Westgate Electric Is Open Evenings

Westgate Electric, 2855 W. Broad-st, will remain open until 9 o'clock each evening from now until Christmas, Don Rice, manager of the store, announced this week. The store will also remain open on Wednesday afternoons.

A wide selection of electrical merchandise is being featured in the newly remodeled appliance shop.

BUYS BROAD ST. PROPERTY

Hazel Bercaw and her mother, Mrs. Clara B. Mullins, recently purchased the eight-room frame dwelling at 2880 W. Broad-st and are having it extensively remodeled preparatory to making it their residence. The property, containing 64 feet of Broad-st frontage, is immediately east of the Westmont Theater.

The house was purchased from Harry Haney and Harley Sapp, who were represented by O. H. Craft. Estella Burnside represented the purchasers.

Christmas Copy Should Be In Early

The approach of Christmas occasions a reminder to church and other local organizations which may be planning to run special programs in keeping with the season.

Due to limited space, it is important that all such programs be submitted at the earliest possible date. As an example, any special Christmas story for next week's Hilltop Record should be in the office not later than Saturday morning of this week.

The Christmas issue, containing dozens of Christmas greeting ads, will be published on Tuesday, Dec. 23, instead of Thursday because of the holiday. Likewise the New Year's issue will come out on Tuesday, Dec. 30.

Immunization Is Under Way In Schools

Children who will be entering school for the first time at the beginning of the second semester, Feb. 2, will have to have a smallpox vaccination and diphtheria immunization, the Board of Education ruled last week.

The ruling will apply to children enrolling in the first grade and 22 parent-supported kindergartens throughout the city. Children, before entering school, must present evidence of having had smallpox or a successful vaccination, and must also provide a physician's statement showing successful immunization against diphtheria, the board said.

Exemption from both vaccination and immunization will be granted on presentation of a physician's certificate declaring the child unfit for such treatment, or a statement signed by a parent or guardian stating "conscientious objection on principle."

Vaccinations and immunizations must be secured from the family physician, Superintendent George Roudebush said. The schools will not provide this service. Indigents may receive free service at Children's Hospital or the City Health Department clinics.

Examinations Ready

Hours when children who will be entering either kindergarten or first grade for the first time in February may secure their physical examinations were announced this week by principals of the four Hilltop elementary schools.

Parents of children who will enter the West Broad Elementary School should call Matilda Stuart, principal, for an appointment. Physical examinations will be given Tuesday mornings or Thursday afternoons.

Miss Stewart reported there are now 57 children in the kindergarten, 26 of whom will be eligible to enter the first grade at the beginning of the second semester. First grade registration so far totals 30 pupils, she said.

E. B. Graham, principal of the John Burroughs School, announced a nurse will be at the school for physical examinations Tuesday from 10:30 a. m. to 3:15 p. m., and from 9 to 12 on Thursdays. At the West Mound Elementary School a nurse will be present from 9 to 10:30 a. m. on Tuesdays.

Mr. Graham reported only seven pupils are registered so far for the kindergarten at John Burroughs School for the second semester.

At the Highland Avenue School Principal Frank Mason reported physical examinations will be given Tuesdays from 1 to 3:30 p. m., and Thursdays from 10:30 a. m. to 12.

In order to enter the first grade in February, children must have their sixth birthday by Aug. 31, 1948. Entrance to kindergarten for the second semester requires that the child will reach his fifth birthday by the same date.

VFW Will Have Christmas Party On Friday, Dec. 19

A Christmas party for members of the Westway Post 3441, VFW, and its auxiliary will be held at post headquarters, 2393½ W. Broad-st, at 8 p. m., Friday, Dec. 19.

Members not having children of their own are encouraged to bring one underprivileged child. Santa Claus will be present to hand out presents to the children. Entertainment will be given by pupils from the Keith School of Dancing.

Post Commander Charles Geddes and Auxiliary President Madge Weimer head the committee in charge of the party. They are being assisted by John Kackley, post entertainment committee chairman, and Mrs. Birgie Ballinger, auxiliary entertainment chairman.

This is the 1947-48 basketball squad at West High School that opened its season on Dec. 2. It contains four lettermen from last year's team.

The second row has Chuck Weeks, Don Speakman, Duffy Burton, Paul Theisen and Connie Potts.

C & S Opens New Store Tomorrow

Gus Johnson

Charles Lane

The C & S Dime Stores, Inc., today announce the grand opening of a new store at 1432 Sullivant-av. Doors will open at 8:30 a. m. Friday with free gifts, in addition to special introductory values promised to all who attend on Friday and Saturday.

Gus J. Johnson, 32 N. Westmoor-av, finished construction of the new building, which also houses the A. H. Butler Furniture Co. and an Isaly store, in the early spring of this year, but was unable to open the dime store previous to this date because of difficulties in obtaining proper interior fixtures.

The building also is used as a warehouse to supply two other C. & S. stores at 2578 Sullivant-av and 2772 W. Broad-st.

Charles F. Lane joined the personnel of the C. & S. stores in February, 1946, and is now secretary of the newly-formed corporation.

Mrs. Margaret Ruffing, 170 Clarendon-av, suffered second degree burns on the upper part of her body from scalding when she upset a teapot in her home Monday afternoon. The emergency squad took her to Dr. Schentz's office for treatment.

Community Council To Elect Officers

Election of officers for the coming year will be held at a meeting of the Hilltop Community Council at 8 o'clock tonight, at the Teen Canteen, 2585 W. Broad-st.

A slate of officers will be offered by the nominating committee, headed by E. B. Graham, principal of John Burroughs School, and assisted by Mrs. Edward F. Thompson and Mrs. Earl Abrams. Further nominations may be made from the floor.

Philip Stout, HCC president, will give his annual report on the progress of the council during the past year, with recommendations for the coming year.

Plans for a Christmas party on Dec. 27 will be announced by Mrs. Ray Cave, chairman of the committee in charge.

A community carol sing will be held for all local Girl Scout and Brownie troops at the John Burroughs School, Dec. 19, starting at 3:30 p. m. Approximately 20 troops are expected to be represented.

In addition to the singing there will also be folk dancing.

Jahn To Head Mentorwood Lodge Here

Elmer R. Jahn, 875 Brown-rd, was elected chancellor commander of Mentorwood Lodge, No. 770 Knights of Pythias, for the ensuing year, at a dinner meeting held Dec. 2 at the lodge.

Other newly elected officers are Jesse Schaller, vice-chancellor; Harry Hoffhines, prelate; George Rings, m. of w.; Robert Muncie, m. at a.; O. E. Spencer, secretary, E. L. Dunavent, financial secretary; Ralphy Beiber, treasurer; Robert Hern, inside guard, and Edward Gleeson, outside guard.

Harry Salzgaber was named the trustee for a three-year term.

After the election of officers, an oyster dinner was served the group.

West High Student Is Buried Monday

Funeral services were held in Glenwood Methodist Church Monday afternoon for Charles Campbell, 18-year-old West High School student, who died in Grant Hospital Thursday. The boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell, 91 S. Westmoor-av. His father is owner of Campbell's Pharmacy, 2766 W. Broad-st, and secretary of the Hilltop Business Association.

Young Campbell, who suffered from an intestinal ailment, had not been in good health since he was a small boy. Two operations had been performed in recent weeks to alleviate the condition but to no avail. In addition to his parents, he is survived by an older brother, Fletcher, and a grandmother.

Dr. Joseph Shellhaas, pastor of Glenwood Methodist Church, of which Charles was a member, officiated. He had been treasurer of the Youth Fellowship of the church. Burial was in Sunset Cemetery by Floyd Born.

Kiwanis Paper To Benefit "Y"

Carol Sing Set For Sunday Night

The Hilltop Kiwanis Club will join with the Hilltop Hymn Sing group Sunday night to sing Christmas carols. The song service will be held at the Hoge Memorial Church starting at 8 p. m.

Last year a similar service filled Glenwood Methodist Church to capacity. The service is set to follow the regular Sunday evening services held by many local churches.

Directing the carol sing will be Rev. W. Howard Schoof, pastor of Immanual Baptist Church. He has charge of the bi-weekly hymn sing program and is a member of the local Kiwanis Club. W. Hayden Jones, director of music at Hoge Memorial Church as well as the Kiwanis group, will have charge of special music for the occasion.

The service is open to the public.

Wins Scouting Award Here

Harry Crawford

Harry Crawford, 2373½ W. Broad-st, scoutmaster of the Hilltop Lutheran Church Boy Scout Troop, Sunday was given the highest award of the Lutheran Church—Pro Deo et Patria—for his service to the church.

The presentation of the citation, made by Howard Hoffman, assistant scoutmaster, and of the medal, made by Gil Bolin of the Franklin County Boy Scout Headquarters, took place at the Sunday morning service in the Hilltop Church. Rev. Russell J. Olson, pastor, conducted the service.

The award was voted by the National Lutheran Committee on Scouting at Minneapolis.

W. E. Grenell is chairman of the Hilltop Lutheran Church Scout Committee.

Crawford has been engaged in the scouting program ever since the age of 12. He has served as scoutmaster of Troop 212 since June, 1946. He served in the U. S. Army three and one-half years, part of the time in the European Theater. He was discharged with the rating of sergeant.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford have a nine-month-old son, Paul.

Christmas Issue To Be Sold Dec. 18

The Hilltop Kiwanis Club last week became the first local organization to come to the support of the proposed Hilltop Branch "Y", now in the process of being formed. In a special meeting the group voted to make available proceeds realized from publication of a Kiwanis Christmas newspaper. Profits from both advertising and paper sales will go to the support of the "Y" fund.

The special Christmas edition is new with the Hilltop club and it is hoped it may become an annual event.

The Christmas paper, a 16-page tabloid, will contain news about the club and its activities, as well as plans for the Hilltop Branch "Y" and advertising messages. It will go on sale Thursday, Dec. 18, when the group has a dinner meeting at 6:30 p. m. at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st. Kiwanis members will visit Hilltop homes with copies of the paper for sale. Residents are asked to support the "Y" program by any contribution they see fit. Individual copies can be purchased for any amount the contributor cares to give. It is expected the sale price will range from 25c to $25.

It is believed that numerous residents of the Hilltop in accord with the YMCA will be interested in making substantial contributions for this purpose. All funds will go 100 per cent for the Hilltop "Y". Any person making a substantial contribution may request and will be issued a receipt.

The committee in charge of getting out the paper is headed by Jim Miles. Working with him are Charles Reichelderfer, C. C. Hartley and Sam Alford.

It is pointed out that it will be impossible for the Kiwanians to call on every home on the Hilltop Thursday evening. If you are especially anxious to make a contribution to the Y at this time you may call Ra. 1125 and a Kiwanian will be certain to see you.

Members of the Hilltop Recreation Committee will have a meeting Wednesday noon at the Central YMCA to discuss plans for development of the Hilltop Branch "Y". On Friday, Dec. 19, the committee will meet with the Council of Social Agencies to present a budget for the first year's operating expenses and ask for funds to cover this operation.

Judge Stewart Is Brotherhood Speaker

Judge James Garfield Stewart, a member of the Ohio Supreme Court and a former candidate for governor of Ohio, is scheduled to address the first dinner meeting of the new Hillcrest Community Brotherhood Tuesday, evening Dec. 16.

The meeting will be held in the basement of the Hillcrest Baptist Church, 2480 W. Broad-st, starting at 6:30 p. m. Reservations may be made by calling Harold Cunningham, FR. 8-5439. O. H. Craft, 2801 W. Broad-st, is chairman of the program committee.

The brotherhood was organized recently with Dr. R. J. Miller, 2493 W. Broad-st, as its president. It has a membership goal of 150 men and invites men of the church and other men of the community not affiliated with any church to share in its fellowship. It is planned to have seven to nine meetings per year.

Jerry Tallman is vice-president of the new organization. Other officers and committee heads are as follows: E. C. Balo, secretary; Franklin Sparks, treasurer; O. H. Craft, program; Jake Ferguson, reception; F. G. Kent, booster prizes; Harold Cunningham, membership; Ed Neider, constitution committee; Paul Kent, objectives; Carroll Balo, publicity; Carl Kuntz, church relationship; Hook Ward, house committee; and John Aston, music.

tion may be secured from Jim Shields, president, or Mr. Radcliffe at the Monday rehearsals.

13 Here To Help Charity Newsie Drive

Thirteen Charity Newsies from the Hilltop will be taking part in the annual Newsie Paper Sale to be conducted Saturday, Dec 13, but they're not in the least superstitious. Realizing the community's interest in this 100 per cent charitable cause, they are expecting this to be one of the largest paper sales thus far.

Three of the men will take up stations in the Hilltop area while others have assignments in other parts of the city. Local paper salesmen will be LeRoy Weigand, 3181 W. Broad-st, Max Gutkind, 476 S. Burgess-av, and C. Carlton Hartley, 1370 Wilson-rd.

Helping with distribution of the papers in his 33-year-old Ford, dubbed "The Silver Streak," will be Newsie Ted Vollman, 75 Whitethorne-av.

Other Newsie members include Robert L. Durham, 199 S. Brinker-av, James W. McDevitt, 462 S. Huron-av, Roy M. McGhee, 105 S. Ogden-av, Paul E. Miller, 528 Columbian-av, Fred Morits, 90 N. Warren-av, A. T. Vollman, 209 Binns-blvd, Louis Holzbacher, 87 S. Algonquin-av, Harry Fleming, 104 N. Warren-av, Judge Edward C. Turner, 4309 W. Broad-st, and J. C. Harrington, 3327 W. Broad-st.

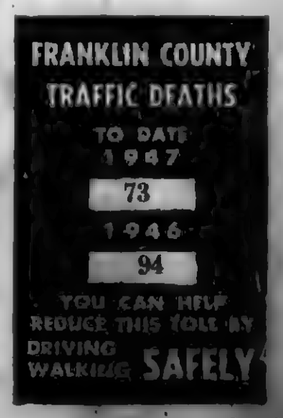
Hartley, publisher of The Hilltop Record and The Greenfield Times, will be peddling papers for the fifth time. He joined the Newsie organization in 1940 before going into the service and missed two years while in uniform. He will call on many of the business firms as well as contact persons on the streets and busses.



Those having contributions that they wish to make in advance may call any of the local Newsies at their homes or business places.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAMS—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Ora A. Williams, of West Jefferson, O., who passed away one year ago, Dec. 14, 1947.

In our hearts fond memories linger,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear Mother,
That we do not think of you.

Sadly missed by daughter, Mary Hockman, granddaughters and great-granddaughter.

Robert Morris Chapt. To Meet On Tuesday

Robert Morris Chapter, 372, OES, will hold its next regular meeting Tuesday evening, Dec. 16, at 7:30, with Agnes Wolfe, worthy matron, and John Wolfe, worthy patron, presiding.

There will be initiatory work and a Christmas program.

Members are asked to bring contributions for the basket to be presented to a needy family.

Edgewood Missionary Group To Meet Dec. 17

The Women's Missionary Association of the Edgewood Chapel United Brethren Church will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Davis, 1163 E. 15th-av, Wednesday, Dec. 17, at 7:30 p. m.

Following the business meeting there will be a Christmas party for all friends and members and their husbands.

Mrs. Olena Rothwell and Mrs. Olen Gould are in charge of the program.

Brownie Troop 203 Plans Party Dec. 14

St. Mary Magdalene School will be the scene of the Christmas party sponsored by the Brownie Troop 203, Sunday, Dec. 14.

The affair will be held from 2 to 4 p. m. All mothers of fourth grade Brownies are invited to attend.

The girls will exchange 10c gifts and will present their mothers with a gift they have made.

LOCAL MAN IN PLAY

Eugene Paul, 142 N. Ogden-av, is playing one of the leading roles, that of James, in the Village Little Theatre's production of "Family Portrait," which is being presented in the sanctuary of First Community Church, 1320 Cambridge-pl, Dec. 17, 18 and 19, at 8:30 p. m. Mrs. Paul is serving as a member of the property committee.

Hoge Mission Group To Meet On Dec. 18

The Women's Missionary Society of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church will meet Dec. 18 at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. W. Langhorst, 38 N. Huron-av. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. S. Carter, Mrs. F. V. Johnston and Mrs. M. H. Allison.

The program is being planned by Mrs. Ray Cave and the devotional "Act in the Living Present" will be led by Mrs. William Riley.

Sodality Plans Christmas Party

The Rosary Altar Sodality of St. Mary Magdalene Church will hold its annual Christmas party at 8 p. m., Thursday, Dec. 11, at the school hall.

Mrs. Thomas Schwan has been named chairman and Mrs. Frank Christ will serve as co-chairman.

A star review of wedding gowns will be presented and there will be an exchange of gifts.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. William Hawe.

Wilson Civic Group Discusses Needs

About 15 persons attended the meeting of the Wilson Heights Civic Association at the Wilson School Tuesday night. A report was given by a committee which investigated the possibility of the township laying drainage ditches through the Gibson Park area. The committee was told by the township trustees that the matter would have to go through the office of the county commisisoners.

It was also reported that the county engineer's office is making a survey on the feasibility of extending city water service to the area. The survey will take from two end one-half to three months to complete.

West Broad Street School

A joyous atmosphere pervades the school this week. The halls are brightly decorated and large murals painted by the children have been hung throughout the school, depicting the Christmas story. Two large Christmas trees with glowing lights softly illuminate the front hall. Christmas carols and other music are sung by the children or played on the record players at the beginning and at the close of school.

On Friday, Dec. 12, the children in grade 1A, under the direction of Miss Mary Birch, will present a Christmas operetta, "Jane's Surprise."

Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 16, the children from the kindergarten will present a program of music and dramatizations, and the movie "'Twas the Night Before Christmas" will be shown.

The Christmas program and assembly will be held Friday, Dec. 19. The pageant, "The Nativity," accompanied by appropriate Christmas carols will be presented. Every child in the entire school will participate.

Cub Pack 56 Gives Out Awards Here

At the last meeting of Cub Pack 56, sponsored by Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, awards were given as follows: Richard Dorr, bobcat pin; Donald Rhoades, service star; Tony Minor, bear badge; Joe Brenot, bear badge, and David Apel, gold arrow.

Den No. 1 is welcoming Dick Baseman as a new member and Den No. 3 welcomes Robert Dolder and Fred Williams. Den No. 3 also welcomes Tom Gregory and Jim Martin.

The three dens are to enjoy basketball this winter. Each Thursday evening at 6 o'clock, the boys are being given instructions in the church gymnasium and later there will be competition between the dens.

Capt. Carson To Be Honored Saturday

A testimonial dinner at the Fort Hayes Hotel, Saturday night, will honor Capt. Carl C. Carson, 69, 375 Belvidere-av, who will retire Dec. 31 after 26 years as a member of the New York Central Railroad police.

Capt. Carson, a former Columbus police officer, has been chief of the Ohio Central Division of the railroad police since October, 1939. He was a Columbus police officer from 1911 to 1921 before taking a job with the railroad.

Officials of the New York Central will come from New York, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Cincinnati, as well as from Columbus, to pay tribute to the retiring officer. Jack Crowley, assistant superintendent, will act as toastmaster.

E. H. REEVES, 38 N. Harris-av, plans to move Monday to 255 S. Chase-av, where he will make his home.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME

Damage estimated at $350 was the result of a fire, Tuesday, at the home of John L. Neil, 159 S. Wayne-av. Mr. Neil, a 57-year-old invalid, succeeded in crawling part way to safety after the blaze broke out in the basement. He was assisted by his two daughters, Beatrice and Mrs. Rhea English, who then sought the aid of a passing coal truck driver and later the fire department, which quickly put out the blaze.

Two Are Hurt In Accidents

Arthur L. Brown, 550 Columbian-av, was reported "improved" this week at White Cross Hospital after suffering multiple injuries in an automobile accident Saturday night.

Brown was driving south in Olentangy River-rd between Fifth and Third-avs when his automobile was in a head-on collision with one driven by George A. Speece of Delaware, homeward bound from a movie with his wife and two small children.

Brown suffered possible fractures of the skull, right leg and right arm and internal injuries. Speece received possible fractured ribs and face cuts. Mrs. Speece suffered cuts on her hands and knees and the children escaped with minor cuts.

The accident victims were taken to White Cross Hospital for treatment.

James Paugh, 35, 1741 Little-av, was reported in "good condition" this week at Mt. Carmel Hospital after being struck by a car on the 3C highway Sunday night.

Paugh had just alighted from a Grove City bus near Eakin-rd and was crossing the highway when he was struck by an automobile driven by Fred Hysell, 242 Buttles-av, according to sheriff's deputies.

He suffered multiple head lacerations and a possible skull fracture.

Pins Are Awarded To 17 Cub Scouts

Cub Scout Pack 86 of John Burroughs School awarded one-year pins to 17 cubs at their regular pack meeting held Nov. 26 at the school. The pack was organized in November, 1946, and held the first meeting Dec. 20. R. M. Lloyd is chairman.

Cubmaster William Davis awarded the pins to Jack Alexander, James Brady, William Bryant, Philip Christ, Norman Davis, John Fisher, John Giuffre, James Gregsory, Donald Jhensen, Robert Kern, Robert Lloyd, Charles Mueller, Ralph Nigh, Scott Pence, John Stetler, Daniel Timmons and Clyde Wilson. Mr. Davis also awarded achievement badges and gold and silver arrows to all boys who had earned them and he personally commended each boy for his efforts.

Scott Pence was given a special attendance award for his 100% perfect attendance at all den and pack meetings throughout the year.

A Christmas party will be held Dec. 17, to which each boy is asked to bring some article of food for a good-will offering to be given to a needy family.

Jack Sensenbrenner, district chairman of the Boy Scouts, will be the speaker at this meeting.

Cub Pack Plans Christmas Party

The committeemen and den mothers of Cub Pack 43 met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Knipp, 525 S. Wayne-av, for their regular meeting and made plans for a Christmas pot-luck party Thursday, Dec. 18.

E. H. Schuman, cubmaster for the past year, handed over his books to the newly elected officers, J. W. Bowers and Harry Knipp, co-cubmasters; George Lamneck, secretary; Jesse Calvert, treasurer; and Arthur Anderson, program. Parents of this pack are cordially invited to attend.

West Downs Logan 64-26

A trio of Cowboy cagers ran close competition for scoring honors Tuesday night as West defeated Logan by a topheavy score of 64 to 26 on the latter's court.

Leading the barrage of Cowboy baskets were Don Speakman with 12 points, Chuck Weeks, 11, and Walter Hicks with 10. Ten West players broke into the scoring column as they set up a first quarter lead of 15 to 3.

The win gave Coach George Williams an even break in four games played to date. Thus far the Cowboys have won from Grandview and Logan while dropping close contests to Springfield and Portsmouth. West will open its City League play on the local court Friday night when Linden McKinley comes to the Hilltop.

Paul Theisen scored four buckets for eight points while Jack Thrush was held to two baskets and three free throws for seven tallies in the Logan game. The score by periods was as follows:

West	15	32	52	64
Logan	3	12	17	26

HOGE SCOUT TROOP HAS WINTER CAMP

At the week-end camping trio held at Camp Lazarus, Nov. 29-30, by Boy Scout Troop 172, sponsored by Hoge Memorial Church, second class cooking and fire building tests were passed by Tommy Bryant, Lee Biddison and Bob Faistl.

Twelve boys and four officers attended this camping and hiking week-end. On Sunday morning, Richard Beem conducted a Sunday School service with "How Much Do I Know About the Bible" as his topic.

Jack Hostetter is scoutmaster of Troop 172.

2 Homes Open To Public Sunday

Stewart and Neff, Inc., 8 W. Gay-st, announced this week that the first two houses have been completed in the Gibson Park Addition and will be open for inspection Sunday barring any unforeseen delay.

The houses are located at 1654 and 1658 Rosemont-av, near the Harrisburg Pike.

The homes contain four rooms and a utility room and are designed to sell for less than $5,000. They have a deep well with provision to use city water once it becomes available in that area. The houses are built by Ker Dickerson, W. Broad-st and Oakley-av.

Mr. Neff, of the real estate firm, said that other units in the 170-lot development would be started just as soon as it could be determined what loan commitments could be arranged. It was necessary to complete these units before details of the financing could be determined, he said.

Crossing Repairs Requested

A letter has been sent to the Pennsylvania Railroad asking that firm to make needed repairs on the N. Hague-av crossing, a spokesman in the county commissioners' office said this week.

The request was made by the county civil engineer. Failure of the railroad to act will result in the county doing the repair work and sending a bill for the costs to the railroad, the spokesman said.

West Cagers Drop Two Close Games

To Meet Linden Here Friday Nite

A pair of close contests were dropped by George Williams' Cowboy cagers in out-of-town engagements over the week-end.

On Friday night West was nosed out by a 43 to 41 count on the Springfield gym in a rough and tumble affair. On Saturday night the Cowboys again met defeat, this time by a one-point margin in a nip and tuck affair that ended with a 44-43 count at Portsmouth.

The schedule for the remainder of this week and next is as follows:

Dec. 12—Linden at West.
Dec. 13—at Newark.
Dec. 16—Alumni at West.

West is scheduled to go to Logan on Tuesday of this week for its third away-from-home contest in a row. (See section A for an account of this game.)

Paul Theisen was high-point man for the Cowboys in the Springfield game, piling up five buckets and four free throws for a total of 14 points. He was closely followed by Jack Thrush with four field goals and five chirrity tosses for 13 tallies. Norman lead the Springfield attack with 16 points.

West held a slight edge through most of the three early periods but could not stem a fourth rally staged by Springfield.

Fred Heischman's Reserve team took the Springfielders by a 32 to 39 score in the preliminary.

The score by quarters in the varsity contest was as follows:

Springfield	10	17	27	43
West	10	19	33	41

Lose to Trojans

A free throw by "Corky" Sparks of Portsmouth broke the tie and provided the Trojans with a 44-43 decision on the Ohio River court Saturday night.

Jack Thrush hit his scoring stride in this game but was evicted in the first period via the personal foul route after having racked up 19 points. Nine of the tallies were registered from the free throw stripe but it was generally poor performance by West on charity tosses that cost the game. The Cowboys missed nine out of 10 free throws in the fourth quarter.

Chuck Weeks also left the game on fouls in the third period in a very closely officiated game. The winners were prevented from tallying a field goal in the final period. Portsmouth cashed in on fouls as the Trojans registered 18 free throws. Lentenheimer piled up 16 points for the winners.

The score by periods was as follows:

West	11	25	34	43
Portsmouth	12	26	37	44

Across The HILLTOP ALLEYS

By Dick Ardle

The big news around the bowling alleys this week is the "Third Annual Men's Match Game Tournament" which is being held at the Riverview Alleys. Most of the keglers were slightly mystified at their failure to "find" the alleys. There were only nine keglers who were over the 600 mark as compared to the thirty who topped this same mark last year.

Dick Ardle

The big gun of the first round was Charley Haas, one of the owners of the Haas Brothers Market here on the Hilltop, who rolled games of 267, 236 and 232 for 715, a new all-time tournament record. Charley previously had established the old record of 714 on the same alleys last year. Better known as the "Soda Pop Kid," since he bowls on both Vess and Whistle Cola teams, Charley had 21 strikes and only one open frame, that being a split.

The biggest upset of the round was the elimination of Milt Banning, last year's champ, who rolled only 440 as his opponent, James Moss, came through with 551.

Other Hilltoppers who were winners were George Kanavel who defeated Luke Witwer, 497-481. Bud Kline, who bested Tom Dickens, 578 to 545. Kenny Shaw, who rolled 582 to outdo C. Ballinger's 494. Jay Hyatt and Dwight Walker tried to "give" each other the match with Dwight Walker being the most generous. He blasted 446 to Jay's 454. Joe Kennedy, Tom Ogier, Harvey Cowgill and Ted Amore were also winners.

Hilltoppers who didn't fare so well were Dave Angel, who was defeated by L. McCracken, 524 to 457, and Hube Seitz, who lost to Bob Brown, 576 to 496. Red Dehl was also a loser as he was defeated by Henry Rybicki, 578 to 489.

 * Bowler of the Week * ***

Kenny Shaw is our bowler this week. Kenny rolls on Monday and Wednesday nights in the Recreation and Suburban Leagues. On Monday nights he bowls for the David Davies team and carries a 188 average, which is the third best average of the league, while Wednesday nights he rolls for the Hilltop Van team and is the fifth place averager with 179.

 * Bowling Bits * ***

Our bowling gem is divided between three of the top women bowlers here on the Hilltop. They are Ruth Perry, Rosemary Spires and Helen Neeshan. Rosemary Spires and Helen Neeshan both rolled two series of better than 500, Rosemary getting 537 and 508, while Helen was getting 515 and 508, which is quite a gem itself, but Ruth Perry came up with three series better than 500, 502, 505, 537.

These ladies deserve a hand and we are hoping they will keep up the good work.

 * Honor Roll * ***

Rea-Bow

By Mrs. Frances Chapman
881 Clarendon Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe, 856 Midland-av, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Saturday, Dec. 6.

A large number of the residents of Rea-Bow community attended the social Saturday evening. Everyone enjoyed the square dancing and the music played by the Gallagher Brothers. Also attending the community social were Emma Gallagher, Hack DeLong, Cecil Parrett, Virginia Bonnette, Darrance Kroninger, Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald and Harry Miller, who was visiting his cousin, Mrs. Robert Cartwright.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brokamp visited with Mr. Brokamp's father and mother at New Rome Saturday evening.

The Rea-Bow Improvement Association is sponsoring a Christmas party Monday, Dec. 22. Chairman for entertainment is Mrs. Thelma Irvin, assisted by Mrs. Alice Brokamp. The children practice every Sunday afternoon and Wednesday evening.

The Rea-Bow Rangers took a trip to Ohio State Museum a few weeks ago and are planning many more interesting trips for the future. The boys passed their first test and are now Second Class Rangers.

The final hearing on the storm sewers for Rea-Bow community is to be held at the courthouse Tuesday, Dec. 16. Sixty property owners out of the 96 residing in the community have signed for this improvement. Each signer of the petition for storm sewers is displaying a sign on his house, "We Have Signed For Drainage."

With the sick: Mrs. Hobart Kidd is recovering from an illness. Mrs. Pearl Dixon had a minor operation. George Wolfe has recovered from an attack of flu which he suffered last week.

Arthur Drake, 60, of 2649 Sullivant-av, he fell from a boxcar at the Leonard and Ohio-ave yards, police reported. He was taken to Grant Hospital.

Kindergarten Group Will Have Party

The John Burroughs Kindergarten Christmas program will be held Dec. 18 at 1:15 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Immediately following the program a Christmas party will be held in the kindergarten room. The children will exchange gifts. Each boy should bring a present suitable for a boy and the girls should buy a gift for another girl.

All the kindergarten mothers are invited to the party and program.

The pre-school group will have several vacancies in February when some of the pupils enter elementary school. Any child who is five on or before Aug. 31, 1948, is eligible for admittance in February. Anyone desiring to enroll his child is asked to contact Mrs. Clarence Tritsch, Ra. 4244, or Mrs. W. C. Hineman, Jo. 1111.

At present the kindergarten has 50 pupils enrolled.

Elizabeth Speckman is the children's teacher. She is hired in conjunction with the school board, however the entire kindergarten program is sponsored by the mothers.

Book Week Display Brings New Friend

The Book Week celebration held at the Hilltop Branch Library, 24 N. Hague-av, Nov. 17 through Nov. 25, brought a new friend and happiness to James Lytle, who had entered his post card collection in the displays.

The Hilltop Record of Nov. 20 had listed Jimmy's name and hobby. Last week he received a letter from Mrs. James J. Ring, a former resident of the Hilltop for 40 years, now of Bradenton, Fla., who had read in her issue of the Record that James collected post cards. Enclosed in the correspondence were several cards displaying pictures of the animals in the Ringling Brothers Circus, now in winter quarters at Sarasota, Fla.

During the Book Week activities at the library, a total of 1353 children visited there. They attended in 36 classes from West Broad, Highland Avenue, St. Aloysius and Concordia Lutheran Schools.

The Hilltop Branch Library will be closed all day Dec. 24 and 25, and also Dec. 31 and Jan. 1. The regular schedule, 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. daily, and 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. on Saturdays, will be followed.

Arizona is a leading mining state. Its principal mining products are copper, gold and silver.

6th Anniversary Celebration To Close Sunday

A family basket dinner Sunday noon will climax the one-week special services being held in connection with the sixth anniversary of the founding of Westgate Methodist Church. The dinner is being sponsored by the Sunday School that met for the first time on Dec. 14, 1941. The church's anniversary was observed last Sunday.

Judge Cecil J. Randall will be the speaker.

Tonight Rev. Harold Dutt, pastor of the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church, will be the speaker. Rev. W. Howard Schoof, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, is scheduled to speak on Friday night at special anniversary services. Rev. James F. Lorenz is pastor of the church, located at 345 S. Brinker-av.

At present only the basement part of the church building exists. It is serving as a worship center and a place for the social activities of the congregation. The present facilities were dedicated a year ago last Sunday with Bishop Lester Smith presiding.

The church had its beginning in the auditorium of West High School, where the congregation held its services up until a year ago. At some future time the worship auditorium, a chapel, kindergarten and church offices will be erected on the present foundation.

West Mound School Program Is Friday

West Mound

An original play written by children, "Mrs. McGregor Changes Her Mind," will be presented with the annual Christmas program by the children of West Mound School Friday evening, Dec. 12, at 7:30 o'clock. Due to limited space at the school, this Christmas program will take place at the Hilltonia Evangelical United Brethren Church, 522 Columbian-av. The public is invited. This play has three acts and the Christmas scenes are shown in the third act—the shepherds, manger scene and the presentation of gifts by the wise men. The music will be sung by the Angels' Choir and the West Mound School Chorus. The 90 children enrolled at the school will take part.

This past week the school has been presented with a Victor sound projector by the PTA. It is a great treat to the children to have this new projector. The PTA has also bought the children swings, slide and a jungle gym recently.

At the West Mound School the children, from beginners through the fifth grade, are becoming more and more interested in books. The idea is to interest children in reading for recreation from the very beginning, by organizing library clubs. The plan of each club is to include a sponsor (usually a mother) and six children, preferably from different age levels. The sponsor is responsible for getting the club members to the library and planning activities with the little group in her home or one of the other six homes. The older children in each club will help the younger ones. The youngest ones will be mostly interested in picture book reading and preprimers.

Despite the wealth of reading materials available in this day, there are children occasionally who come from a non-reading home. This plan helps to create a love for reading and to develop the "library habit." This plan will be carried out at West Mound in 1948. Four mothers have already organized their groups and are making plans for the coming year.

Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo., are two of the largest railroad centers in the U. S.

Burgess Installs New Pipe Organ

Work of installing a new Schantz Pipe Organ was started last week at the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church. A room is being prepared for the installation of the pipes at the present time and it is expected that the console will be put in and ready for use by the middle of January.

The cost of the organ and its installation is ottimated at approximately $7,000, Church officials said. Rev. C. F. Lutz is pastor of the church. Mrs. Ruth Grant, 478 S. Harris-ev, the pianist for several years, will serve as organist.

In honor of those who made the Supreme Sacrifice for their country, Sunset Cemetery is erecting the beautiful MEMORIAL SHRINE pictured above.
This shrine will be placed in one of the many beautiful sections of what is now acknowledged to be the most attractive cemetery in the Columbus area.
If you are planning to bring a loved one back from overseas, you owe it to him, as well as to yourself, to visit Sunset Before making your selection for his final resting place.
Lots in this Memorial Section are now available to all who have been in any branch of our armed services, and to their families. All lots are reasonably priced, and if so desired, may be purchased on a dignified payment plan with no interest charges added.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Mary McKenna of Avondale, who has been visiting her brother in Lima, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. E. G. Barnecut.

The Henry Warner family drove to Hammersville Sunday with Mrs. Ella Rutherford, D. C. Warner's sister, where she will visit with relatives before returning to her home in New York State.

Mrs. Eva Sager, daughter of Mrs. Belle Boucher, Pasadena-av, had a family dinner in honor of her mother's 80th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hylon Smith, Fairmont-av.

Tim Lamb, Buena Vista-av, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, will be home from school for several days, although he is getting along alright.

The Monitors' Class wants to thank its many friends who attended its bazaar and cafeteria supper at the Columbia Heights Church Saturday night. The ladies looked after the bazaar and the men took charge of the kitchen and supper. The affair was a sell-out. The Monitors also thank those who helped from other organizations.

The Jolly Twelve Sewing Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Snyder, Maple-dr.

Although the Volunteer Firemen of Prairie Township have a few more classes to attend, they made their first "run" Sunday morning, when a fire was noticed in the Alton Methodist Church. Everything was soon under control and services went on in the church the same as usual.

The Rome Study Club will have a progressive supper Monday, Dec. 15. Members will start from the home of Mrs. E. C. Sheets, Sr., then go to the home of Mrs. Ralph Clements, and the last place will be the home of Mrs. O. G. Riebel, where the evening in general will be spent.

Lt. Col. John Regan, husband of Betty Kidwell, of the Beacon Light Golf Course, spent several days visiting here last week. Mr. Regan is attending government school in Panama City and his wife will be with her mother until after Christmas. When Heatons found that she would be here that length of time, she was asked to come back to her old position to help out during the Christmas rush.

Mrs. Huffman of Rome-Hilliards-rd entertained about 20 Rome councilors of the county extension service at her home last Thursday. Those who attended represented Canal Winchester, Gahanna, Rome, Amlin, Edwards Community and Hilliards.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith, Norton-rd, have been sick for several weeks with flu. They are now able to be up and around the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hauer of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Miller of Darby-rd spent Saturday visiting at the home of Allan Burns.

2 Are Nominated By Board ' Trade

Stanley Smith of the Smith Chemical Co. and John Mulholland of St. Vincent DePaul were nominated for the presidency of the West Side Board of Trade at a meeting of the group last week. The election will be held on the first Tuesday night in January.

Others nominated for office were William Mawhirter, first vice-president; John Enders, second vice-president; William Ewald, treasurer; and John Thomas, secretary. Eleven other members were slated for positions on the board of directors.

The need for additional police protection on the West Side was discussed.

Dr. Whitehead Is Donor To Jersey Organ Fund

Dedication of a new pipe organ in the Jersey Presbyterian Church near Pataskala Sunday morning is largely the result of the leadership and gifts of a Hilltop physician.

He is Dr. Howard Whitehead 2239 W. Broad-st, a charter member of Glenwood Methodist Church and a practicing physician on the Hilltop for 54 years. His gifts to the Jersey church are in memory of his parents, William and Paulina Wirt Whitehead, and his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Ezekiel Whitehead, all former members of the church that will also celebrate its 125th anniversary on that day.

E. L. Corwin, president of the church board, did not disclose the amount of Dr. Whitehead's contribution but he did say that it was his challenge to the church membership that led to the new organ and the addition of two new rooms for Sunday School use.

A bronze plaque will commemorate the Whitehead family. Dedication of the Durst, two-manual organ, complete with chimes, harp and tower amplifying system, will be at 11 a. m. This will be followed by a church dinner. At 2:30 p. m. the church will be rededicated. A 7:30 service will follow in the evening.

Dr. Whitehead, who practices and advises others to become tithers, has made several substantial contributions to Glenwood and other churches and schools.

Kiwanis To Have Christmas Paper For Sale At Homes December 18

Funds To Go To Aid "Y" Program Here

First annual Hilltop Kiwanis Edition of The Hilltop Record will go on sale next Thursday evening. At that time members of the local club will visit Hilltop homes throughout the community to sell the paper, proceeds of which will go to aid in the Hilltop YMCA program which will get under way soon after the first of the year.

When a Kiwanian newsie comes to your door it is the hope of the local club that you will respond with some kind of a contribution. You may purchase a paper for any amount of money you care to give—5c to $500.

Regardless of the size of your contribution, the entire amount will be used for boys' and girls' work on the Hilltop throughout the new YMCA.

Net funds raised from advertising in the edition as well as the ads on this page in today's Record will also go toward the fund.

The Hilltop Kiwanis Club is the first local group to come to the assistance of the "Y" and it is hoped that this drive will net a very large amount of money. The YMCA committee also has expressed the desire that other civic groups of the Hilltop and West Side join in some kind of money raising efforts in order to see the new YMCA program off to a good start.

Present plans call for the election of the Hilltop YMCA Board soon after Jan. 1 and soon thereafter the group will select a full time paid YMCA secretary. The man selected for this position will have at least five years' experience in this type of work and will be capable of getting the program organized here very soon.

After headquarters have been established here the YMCA will also select other paid personnel to assist in the program and money will also be appropriated for the proper materials and help to carry out a successful youth program.

It is pointed out that the YMCA program will be shared by girls as well as boys, since the branch programs definitely carry on just as much of a program for girls as it does for boys.

Kiwanis Issue Not Put In Mails

First annual Kiwanis Christmas Edition sponsored by the Hilltop Kiwanis Club will contain a resume of activities of the local club since its inception three years ago and will outline plans for the future activities.

In view of the fact that this is a special supplement for a special project in the community this edition will not be mailed to regular subscribers of the Record.

They Show Kiwanis Colors

What Do You Bid For The First Paper?

How would you like to be the person to have the honor of buying the first Hilltop Kiwanis Christmas Edition?

If you would like to make a substantial gift to the Hilltop YMCA why not be a bidder on the first paper to be sold?

At the meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday evening, Dec. 18, at 6:30, just previous to the start of the sale, the first three copies of the edition will be sold to the highest bidders.

Bidding will be open to Kiwanians and the public in general. Anyone desiring to enter a bid may have any Kiwanian bid for him or may call The Hilltop Record, Ra. 1125, and arrangements will be made to pick up the contribution and make the bid.

Anyone desiring to make a substantial contribution to the fund may make the presentation of that amount or make a bid on the first three papers by being present at the club meeting that evening at 6:30. Arrangements should be made by calling C. C. Hartley at Ra. 1125 or any member of the Kiwanis Club.

MARVALON
The New and Amazing Plastic Covering Material!

MARVALON HAS DOZENS OF DECORATIVE USES

Marvolon's gay colors and cheery checks look smart in any room. You'll love it for kitchen, breakfast room, dinette and bridge tables — for cupboard and closet shelves, drawer linings, play pen pads, place mats, aprons, garment bags, shoe bags, valances, lamp shade covers. Marvalon's so crisp, so fresh, so lovely — and neither steam, water, nor grease can wilt its charm.

SIX ADVANTAGES OF MARVALON

1. Soft and pliable—yet amazingly durable. Edges won't ravel or fray.
2. Waterproof—alcohol-proof. Even fruit acids won't hurt Marvalon's finish.
3. Stainproof—soil and spots (even ink!) wipe right off with a damp cloth.
4. Proof against heat (up to 250 degrees) and cold. Won't crack, peel or blister. Marvalon is odorless, too.
5. Easy to cut and sew — easy to pink and scallop — and easy to fold into crisp, smart pleats!
6. Color-fast—neither sun nor soap can fade Marvalon's clean, bright colors. They're permanent—versatile. And the checks and solid colors combine easily, in many decorative ways!

Glenwood Shelter House Center Of Winter Sports

A varied recreation and athletic program is now in progress for Hilltop young people at the Glenwood Shelter House. Many types of indoor sports and games are available, according to an announcement of activities for the winter season obtained this week.

Herb Creyton, boxing instructor at Ohio State University, is currently training about 20 boys between the ages of 16 and 20 for the Golden Gloves boxing tournament next March. Anyone interested in learning the sport, whether or not he intends to enter the Golden Gloves, may go to the shelter house Monday nights between 7 and 8 o'clock.

A craft class for young people from 8 to 12 years of age is held each Monday and Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5 p. m. This group is under the direction of Betty Rush, an OSU graduate and supervisor of girls' activities at Glenwood. The class is currently making Christmas cards. After Christmas the young people will work at clay modeling, painting, making pot holders, puppets, etc. All supplies are furnished free by the city recreation department.

Junior Police Meet

Meeting at the shelter house every Monday night from 6 to 8 are the Junior Police, under the supervision of an officer from the Columbus Police Department. In addition to learning and practicing safety, one of the aims of this group is the curbing of juvenile delinquency.

A pre-season basketball league for boys in the 16 to 18 age group will wind up its play about Jan. 1. This league was organized by Jerry Jeroux, recreation director at Glenwood, and includes nine teams of Hilltop boys. There is a 10-man eligibility limit for each team. These teams play on Monday and Wednesday nights from 8 to 10.

A weekly dance for teen-agers is held every Thursday from 7 to 10 p. m. Music is furnished by records on the shelter house's own player. Attendance at these dances has been averaging about 50 persons, according to Jeroux, and all Hilltop young people are invited. Admission is free.

On Saturday mornings, Jeroux conducts a basketball clinic for boys of all ages. Rules of the game are discussed and demonstrations of basket shooting and various types of playing are given.

Free play periods are held every afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m. Activities available include basketball, ping-pong, shuffleboard, volleyball, checkers, and other small games.

Volleyball League Planned

At the present time efforts are being made to start a city-wide shelter house volleyball league for girls. About a dozen girls have signed up for the Glenwood team, of which Lois James is the captain. Practice is held on Wednesday nights from 7 to 8.

In addition to these activities a number of outside groups use the Glenwood facilities. The Highland Avenue School basketball team practices Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 4 to 5. After Jan. 1 the Catholic elementary school league will use the gym for two basketball games, two days a week. City recreation department, church basketball leagues and at least one independent league will use the gym every night beginning in January.

Briggsdale and Brown Road

By Mrs. Harry C. Downing

The Christmas bazaar to be given by the Wilson PTA will begin at 7 p. m. tomorrow. There will be plays, music, a drawing, the auction, refreshments and door prizes. The affair is in charge of Mrs. H. le Cline.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pope, 148 Brown-rd, are the parents of a son born Dec. 3 in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

The Briggsdale Room Mothers' Club will meet next Wednesday when Mrs. Hazel Stevenson, 2276 Harrisburg-pk, will be hostess at a pot luck dinner. There will be a Christmas gift exchange during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willcox Jr. and son, Bobby, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown and family of Zanesville.

Miss Lois Ann Kinnamon and Robert L. Becker were married Oct. 26 in the Indianola Presbyterian Church. Little Judy Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevenson, Jr., 2276 Harrisburg-pk, was flower girl. George Kinnamon Jr., brother of the bride served as one of the ushers. The new Mrs. Becker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kinnamon, 2272 Harrisburg-pk. Mr. Becker's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Becker, 2207 Harwitch-rd. Both the bride and groom are graduates of Ohio State.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goodrich 1905 Jackson-av were hosts to their 500 Club Saturday evening at their home. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weimer, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dilfaver and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee are newcomers in the neighborhood. They are living with Mrs. Mary Goodrich, 1901 Jackson-av. Mr. Lee will be manager of the Interstate Motor Truck Co. in Grandview.

Mrs. Potts, sixth and seventh grade teacher at Wilson was absent from school last week because of illness from a strep throat.

Mrs. Alfred Robertson and Mrs. George Goodrich attended the meeting of the Columbus and Franklin County Council of the PTA last Thursday.

"The Nativity" was the title of the movie shown last Friday evening at the Wilson PTA meeting. Christmas carols were sung by the fifth grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin are parents of a baby daughter, born Nov. 29, in White Cross. Mrs. Rankin is the former Kathleen Mansfield of Jackson-av.

Miss Elizabeth Wasson, 1598½ Harrisburg-pk, was hostess at a bridal shower in her home for 30 guests on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2. Guest of honor was Miss Martha Beck, 271 n. Ogden-av, who will become the bride of Mr. L. R. Myers of West Jefferson, on Dec. 31.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones and John, Jr., 1712 Harrisburg-pk, attended this wedding of Elizabeth Wittack to Jay Davis in the Christian Church in Mt. Sterling on Thanksgiving evening. Mr. Davis is a nephew of Mrs. Jones.

Junior Broncos Take 33-11 Win Over Starling

Coach "Red" Lehman's Junior Broncos from West Junior High School outclassed a scrappy Starling team on the West hardwood court Friday afternoon in the first game of the season by a count of 33 to 11.

Bronco height was a big factor in the victory. Ellingsworth tallied eight times from the floor and made good on two free throws for a total of 18 points. His range made it difficult for Starling players to guard him effectively without fouling. Potts was the second high-point man of the afternoon, accounting for nine points and doing a good job of ball handling throughout.

Fenstimacher, captain for Starling, led his team with three buckets for a total of six points.

With a safe lead established, Coach Lehman substituted liberally, using a total of 15 boys during the 24 minutes of play.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio. No. 122411. Victor Voeller, Administrator with Will Annexed of the Estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. Maurice Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Victor L. Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney, Mrs. John Coleman, 2648 Tremont Road, Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Sadie Young, 247 East Rimond Street, Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Anna Buell, 468 High Street, Worthington, Ohio, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Cleveland, Ohio; Frank Snable, whose address is unknown to plaintiff and owned with ownership otherwise not ascertained, Will Snable, Ohio, Defendants.

James Courtney and Barbara Courtney, whose last known place of residence is 1567 Lucile Ave., Los Angeles, 23, California, and Frank Snable, whose address is unknown, are hereby notified that on Feb. 16, 1947, Victor Voeller, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio, filed his petition in Cause No. 122411 in the Probate Court of Franklin County, Ohio, that they have been made parties defendant in said cause.

Plaintiff further says that on or about the 17th day of January, 1947, Barbara Gray died a resident of Franklin County, Ohio, leaving a Will which was admitted to probate by the Probate Court of said County and State on or about the 16th day of February, 1947, that thereafter administration proceedings were had as to the Estate of the said Barbara Gray deceased, as more particularly set forth in the proceedings and the records of said Probate Court and that the Inventory and Appraisement has been filed in said Estate. Said Will is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Plaintiff says that the house mentioned in said Will on Linwood Avenue was sold in 1946.

Plaintiff further says that Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney died after the execution of said Will.

Plaintiff further says there was in the safety deposit box in the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch, Four Thousand One Hundred Forty Dollars ($4,140.00), Five (5) One Thousand Dollar ($1000.00) United States Series G Bonds and a Postal Savings of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). That there was in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, the sum of Two Hundred One Dollars and fifty-nine cents ($201.59), that Barbara Gray died seized in fee simple of the property located at 1070 City Park Avenue; that the insurance amounted to the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-six Dollars (.$356.00) and has been paid to the Administrator herein.

That the said Barbara Gray died, leaving no heirs closer than first cousins, that Margaret Voeller, mentioned in said will, is a first cousin of said Barbara Gray, deceased, and that said Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Sadie Young, Mrs. Anna Buell, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Frank Snable and Will Snable are first cousins of the said Barbara Gray, deceased; that Raymond Ayres William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney and Victor Voeller are second cousins of said Barbara Gray, deceased.

That besides the property mentioned in said petition there is a diamond ring and household furnishings.

That there are important, difficult and doubtful questions respecting said Will and the disposition of said property under said Will and that plaintiff is in doubt as to the construction of said Will and as to the rights of parties in the distribution of the property under said Will, that plaintiff is in doubt about the following:

(1) As to whether the insurance is to go to Raymond Ayres, under the provisions of said Will?

(2) That plaintiff is in doubt, since the property on Linwood Avenue was sold prior to the death of said Barbara Gray, whether said devisee mentioned as to receive said property, is entitled to anything under said Will

(3) That plaintiff is in doubt as to whether 1070 City Park Avenue is to go to the heirs of Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney, who were deceased prior to Barbara Gray's decease, or to Margaret Voeller or to become a part of the residuary estate and be divided among all the testator mentioned herein.

(4) The plaintiff is in doubt as to who their said insurance is to be paid to Margaret Voeller.

(5) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the $4140.00 in cash, which was in the safety deposit box of the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch; the five $1000.00, Series G United States Bonds, also in said safety deposit box, the $500.00 Postal Savings, also in said safety deposit box, and the $201.59 in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, after the payment of debts owing to said Victor Voeller.

That if the Court should decide that the five $1000.00 Bonds do not go to Victor Voeller or any other part contained in said safety deposit box, out of which the debts of the estate are to be paid first, and to whom is the balance to go.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will and the disposition of the property under said Will and as to his duties in the premises and especially in the five questions raised in the petition herein and an order as to the duties of the plaintiff in regard to them.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before Jan. 24, 1948 or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

Hilltop Parents' Drive Extended

The Hilltop Parents' Association membership drive has been extended through the months of December and January, it was announced this week following a meeting last month. Captains and workers are asked to report at the church each Monday at 7 p. m.

The kindergarten will climax its fall program with a St. Nicholas Tea Tuesday, Dec. 23, from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. at the home of the teacher, Mrs. Ruth Perkins, 163 S. Wayne-av. A mothers' activity group will be organized at this time.

The group piano and singing class met eight times last month. This group meets Monday and Wednesday from 3 to 5:40 p. m. Charlotte Johnson is the teacher. There are still three openings. The sewing and knitting class will not meet until after the holidays.

The workshop class meets regularly every Saturday from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. Prof. H. H. Woods is in charge. The Hilltop Branch of the Y Indian Guides will not meet until Jan. 16 at 8 p. m. Le Mar Ellis is in charge.

The first program and production of the dramatics group was presented Nov. 21 to a full house. The director was Irene Madden, assisted by Rose Brown.

Elizabeth Shaw, director of activities, and her assistant, Kenneth Williams, are members of a committee who have secured the use of the John Burroughs gym for basketball practice every Friday from 6:45 to 10:30 p. m. Girls and women play from 6:45 to 8:15; boys from 8:15 to 9, and the men from 9 to 10:30 p. m.

The parents' group will meet Dec. 18.

BURNED IN OVEN BLAST

Gary Sherman, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sherman, 93 S. Oakley-av, suffered first degree burns on the chest and right arm last week when fire flashed from the oven of the kitchen stove. He was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital where he was taken by police.

Bids Are Opened For Sandusky-St. Bridge Project

Bids for work on the Sandusky Street Bridge project were scheduled to have been opened yesterday in the office of Murray D. Shaffer, state highway director. Total cost of the new bridge and changes in railroad tracks made necessary to avoid track crossings is estimated at $2,208,000.

The project has been in the discussion and planning stage since before World War II. It is expected that work will be started shortly after the first of the year.

Last year the Pennsylvania Railroad signed an agreement for removing three grade crossings, the last obstacle in the way of launching the improvement.

Sneak Thief Takes Savings Of Mrs. Foy

A thief entered the home of Mrs. Pearl Foy, 1590 W. Broad-st, early last week and stole the long-saved money with which she had hoped to buy herself a washing machine and toys for her nine-month-old granddaughter, Kathy Loy Foy.

Entering through an unlocked rear door while the family was downtown, the thief ransacked the house and took the savings, $65 in dimes, $4 in nickels, and $1.50 in pennies, which he found in a bedroom vanity drawer.

Memorial Fund Honors Memory of Dr. Cramer

No more fitting tribute could be paid to the memory of Dr. C. O. Cramer than that of the establishment of the Hilltop YMCA Fund in his name.

Dr. Cramer's death was a great shock to this community and the city at large. In my 22 years in this community I have known of no other man who had more friends. He was highly respected by his profession and men and women in all walks of life.

Much has been said in tribute to him and many a local citizen mourns the loss of a capable, fair minded civic leader.

He had long expressed the desire to make possible a well organized program of recreation for young people of the Hilltop. He had been instrumental in the forwarding of the Hilltop YMCA activity. It was his ambition to see that the establishment of a fine Y branch here became a reality.

Some of his patients came forward with the suggestion that a Y memorial fund be established in his memory. Since the announcement of such a plan several dozen people have contributed liberally. Each day the fund continues to grow.

No finer tribute could be paid to the memory of so fine a citizen. He would have appreciated knowing that his work is to be carried on.

Pre-Holiday Notes Thanks to all who gave so generously to the Charity Newsies sale last Saturday . . . Now open up your hearts again and help the Hilltop YMCA by purchasing a copy of the Kiwanis newspaper when the Kiwanian newsboys come to your door this Thursday nite . . . But if a Kiwanian misses you, just call Re. 1126 Friday a. m. and we will deliver a paper to you and pick up your donation . . . Ed Witherspoon is back home from the hospital but still won't be going ice skating or sledding for a while . . . Curt Roberts agrees that was a good turkey dinner at Glenwood a week ago but he still had to have the gizzard . . . Herb Williams' father underwent an eye operation in Mt. Carmel a week ago . . . Leroy Bergman, 318 S. Wayne, won a wristwatch and merchandise in a sportsmen's contest over WHKC last Monday . . . That's a nice looking front on the Esquire Men's Shop and the whole thing was painted by Bud Worley . . . Dorothy Merz and our boy Bob Wiener plan to middle aisle it comes June . . . Curt Roberts, Noble Allen and Noble, Jr., back from Pa., each totin' a deer . . . And H. H. Herron proudly displaying a deer from the top of his auto too . . . Is our face red for not mentioning Janice Hardy in the Hardy Shopall supplement this week, but anyway, step up to the soda fountain, boys, and ask that Janice give you the lowdown on what the day's best flavor is.

The Gay Philosopher's Son Makes His Debut

This past week The Gay Philosopher's Son made his debut around the Hilltop and is prominently displayed in several business houses on the Hilltop Record 1948 calendar.

Last year The Gay Philosopher drew widespread comment. His son is causing an equal amount of commotion this year already and in some instances the old man and the son are being displayed together.

The Gay Philosopher's Son looks tough . . . and for a long time that was all he needed in order to be the ring leader and boss guys around. But finally came the day when the fellows got fed up! . . . "And whaddaya know?" Dey sanged up on me when I wuz on the way to Susie Simpkin's birthday party. Me wid a white collar an' necktie on for the foist time, an' a flower in my buttonhole. 'Tain't fair—I tell you! Just wait til I catch those ginks, one at a time . . ."

Forcing a grin, in spite of that colorful shiner he picked up in the free-for-all, The Gay Philosopher's Son admits he has learned early in life that you can't be the boss all the time. And that it's better to tackle your troubles one by one, and lick 'em, than to take on more than you can handle and get knocked cold.

We hope the young man will bring you a smile.

Flowers of the Week

A choice bouquet of flowers fresh from Rosebud Floral goes to Mrs. Colleen Welde, new vocal instructor at West High School, for the impressive Christmas program she and her voice pupils presented in the school auditorium last Thursday. We hear it was tops.

JACQUES IMPROVES

Dorrell Jacques, 74 S. Terrace-av, has been confined to his home by illness since early last week. A real estate broker, Mr. Jacques collapsed a week ago, Tuesday, while showing two clients a house. He was reported in an improved condition this week.

Hilltop Kiwanians To Sell Christmas Paper Tonight

Approximately 80 members of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club will turn back the calendar more years than many of them would care to admit to become newsboys again just for tonight.

The occasion is the first in what is expected to become an annual Christmas edition of The Hilltop Record. All proceeds from the sale of the newspaper and advertising contained therein will go into a fund being created to finance the establishment of a Hilltop Branch "Y".

Kiwanians will gather at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st, at 6:15 p. m., for a dinner meeting prior to starting a house-to-house sales campaign. Each man will be identified by a card on his hat labeling him "Hilltop Kiwanis Newsboy."

First three papers to be sold will be auctioned off to the highest bidders.

The special Christmas paper, a 16-page tabloid, will contain news about the club and its activities as well as plans for the Hilltop Branch of the YMCA expected to get under way shortly after the first of the year. Copies may be purchased for any amount the contributor cares to give. It is expected that the sale price will range from 25c to $25.

Realizing that it will be impossible for the "newsboys" to reach every home in the community, persons not contacted are asked to phone The Hilltop Record, RA. 1125, or any member of the Kiwanis Club. Arrangements will be made gladly to pick up contributions the following day.

All receipts from this particular venture will go into the "Y" fund. The Kiwanis Club thus becomes the first organization to lend financial support to the community center. Close to 30 organizations in all have endorsed the proposed "Y".

Following tonight's paper sale campaign, members of the local club will reassemble at the Sparks-Kent Super Market, 2976 W. Broad-st, for a checkup and refreshments.

Hardy Opens New Shopping Center

A store filled with Christmas foods, drugs and gift items is having its formal opening this week. It is the new Hardy's Shopall on Sullivant-av at Eureka-av.

An eight-page tabloid section (a part of today's Hilltop Record) tells the complete story of the recently expanded shopping center operated by John Hardy. It contains a modern meat department, fruits and vegetables and staple goods in addition to a completely stocked drug store.

Self serve or clerk service is available. The drug store, managed by Rempel Russell, features a modern soda fountain.

VFW Auxiliary Gives 3rd Piano

A Christmas gift that can be used every day in the year was presented to patients of the Columbus State Hospital this week.

The gift, an upright piano, was presented by the auxiliary to Westway Post 3441, VFW. It was the third piano thus given to the hospital this year in addition to a record player and 10 albums of records.

Mrs. Madge Z. Weimer, 442 S. Powell-av, auxiliary president, and Mrs. Emma Russell, 350 N. Sylvan-av, hospital and rehabilitation chairman, were on hand to make the presentation.

The piano was delivered Saturday through the courtesy of Hilltop Van and Storage Co. Mrs. Ethel Reynolds, 430 N. Hague-av, director of recreation for the hospital, accepted the gift and told how much enjoyment had been received from the previous gifts.

Besides these contributions, the auxiliary has given many Christmas cards and magazines to the patients during the year. Ladies of the group also adopted a ward for the blind in the Dayton Veterans' Hospital.

Split Gobblers One Way To Beat High Prices Here

Housewives who want to beat the price of turkeys and who still do not want to buy a large bird for Christmas can take advantage of the "split turkeys" being offered at a number of Hilltop meat counters.

A consensus of turkey prices that will prevail within the next week showed today that small hen turkeys, ranging from about eight to 12 pounds, will sell for between 80 and 85 cents a pound while large toms over 18 pounds will average between 69 and 77 cents per pound at most stores.

The Hilltop meat dealers who split turkeys will sell the split birds at the same price per pound at which the whole bird is sold. Thus, a tom turkey selling for 77 cents a pound, whole, will sell for the same price per pound when split.

The saving to the housewife by buying a split turkey is effected in this way: If a 12 pound hen turkey is bought at 82 cents a pound, the price would be $9.84. If a 24 pound tom turkey, selling at 72 cents a pound is split in half, the 12 pound half would cost only $8.64, thereby making a saving of $1.20.

A local butcher pointed out that there is more meat on a 10 pound half turkey than on a 10 pound full turkey because the larger birds have less bone in proportion to their size. This amounts to a further reduction in price of a few cents.

Several Hilltop meat markets said they have had little or no demand for half turkeys so far but that they would split turkeys on request. Others reported that the supply of turkeys is plentiful this year, although the price is considerably above that of last year. That is one of the main reasons why the split turkeys are being featured by several local butchers. Exact turkey prices are available elsewhere in today's Record.

The Hilltop stores which split turkeys and sell them at the whole bird price include the Fox Food Shop, 2422 W. Broad-st; Caporetto's Super Market, 2906 Sullivant-av; Westgate Supersette Market, 3253 W. Broad-st; Frownfelter's Market, 122 S. Terrace-av; Tiny's Market, 2758 Sullivant-av; Schulte Food Market, 1671 W. Mound-st, and Eszman's Market, 2526 Sullivant-av.

Three merchants said they would sell split turkeys if they have a ready customer for the other half. They include the Sparks-Kent Super Market, 2976 W. Broad-st; Jerry Watson's Market, 3117 W. Broad-st; and Distlehorst's Market, W. Broad at Eureka-av.

Boy Scout Troop 214 is selling Christmas trees at two locations on the Hilltop. They may be purchased at Reis Pure Oil Station, Hague and Sullivant-avs, or Murphy's Mobil Oil Station, W. Broad-st at Westgate-av.

Proceeds from the sale will help to finance troop activities during the new year.

Rea-Bow Dispute Goes Into Court

Feelings have been running high within the Rea-Bow Improvement Association recently—so high, in fact, that an "ousted" member has filed a suit for $50,000 damages.

Charles C. Beckwith, 898 Clarendon-av, through his attorney, Gale R. King, filed a suit for that amount in Common Pleas Court last Friday against the trustees of the organization. Beckwith claimed he was ousted as a member of the civic group whom he charged had "entered into a secret combination and conspiracy to boycott and injure him."

Attorney King said he asked, on behalf of his client, for a permanent restraining order against the trustees to prevent them from continuing their social "boycott" of Mr. Beckwith.

Named as defendants in the suit were 14 of the 17 trustees of the organization, including Leslie Graham who served as presiding officer of the "court", which ousted Mr. Beckwith from the association, Sept. 25.

Also named as defendants were Ernest Kidd, vice-president; Clara May Kidd, treasurer; and W. W. Richardson, corresponding secretary, and 10 other trustees.

Wolfe Not Named

George Wolfe, president of the association, was not named in the suit, which was not filed against the Rea-Bow Improvement Association, a corporation, but against the individuals who served on the trial jury.

Beckwith was one of seven members of the civic group who were brought to "trial" for "disloyalty." Wolfe explained that the by-laws of the association make any member who makes "disparaging statements against the association" subject to a trial and, if found guilty, the member is liable to expulsion from the association. Beckwith was the only member so expelled. James Hurles was "acquitted," and five others had their membership cards suspended.

Wolfe said today that if the suit was an attempt to create friction within the organization it has had the opposite effect. It has served only to solidify the organization, he said.

Meanwhile, the county commissioners announced this week that the hearing on the proposal for a storm sewer in the Rainbow addition, originally scheduled for this week, has been postponed for 30 days.

Commissioner Harry T. Vigor said a new proposal to lay streets in the addition has been made by the county engineer and that storm sewers could be constructed at the same time. Both of the groups now favoring and opposing the storm sewer have been approached regarding this proposition and their spokesmen said they will sound out opinion on it this week.

Auxiliary Gives Piano To Hospital

The true Christmas spirit is being carried out this year by the Westway Auxiliary, VFW, as members present a piano for the enjoyment of patients of the Columbus State Hospital. It is the third piano given this year.

Death Of Dr. C. O. Cramer Is Shock To The Community

Dr. Cramer

Few events in recent years have shocked the Hilltop community as did the news of the death last Thursday morning of Dr. C. O. Cramer.

A prominent physician and civic leader, Dr. Cramer died of a heart attack early Thursday morning at his home, 188 S. Westmoor-av. He was 43. News of his death came as a shock to his hundreds of friends in every walk of life. It was the subject of conversation in every public place on the Hilltop and rapidly reached downtown offices where Hilltoppers are employed.

It is estimated that more than 1500 persons viewed the body at the Spears Funeral Home from Thursday evening up until the time of services at 2:30 p. m. Saturday. Those who came included business and professional associates, those of means and many in rags, patrons, friends and neighbors ranging in ages from babes in arms to some who had to be helped up the steps because of the infirmities of old age.

Only a few hours after his death was reported, a Cramer Memorial Fund was created to raise funds for the Hilltop Branch YMCA, a project Dr. Cramer had headed since a Hilltop Recreation Committee was set up last spring. Originally suggested by some of those who would ordinarily have sent flowers, it was felt the money could be put into a cause where his work could be remembered.

On Board of Health

In addition to heading the local "Y" committee, Dr. Cramer was serving as a member of the Columbus Board of Health, an appointment he received last March.

He began his practice of medicine in 1933 at 2446 W. Broad-st. In a few years it had grown to such extent that he built his own medical center at 3191 W. Broad-st. His medical career was interrupted in 1942 when he accepted a commission as a captain in the Army Medical Corps. It was during this period of service, while a member of the medical staff of a New Orleans army hospital that he first suffered a heart attack. For a number of weeks he was a patient in the Fort Hayes Hospital here in Columbus and was later treated in a Cleveland hospital before being discharged in November of 1944.

For several months he was forced to remain inactive because of his heart condition. Later he resumed his medical practice in a limited way, restricting himself to office appointments only. Despite his physical condition, he became active again in the Hilltop Business Association, the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, later accepting the board of health appointment. In addition to all this he served as team physician for the 1947 West High School championship football team. On the night of the testimonial dinner, Dr. Cramer was awarded a miniature gold football along with the players and coaches and no one experienced greater satisfaction at the accomplishments of the team than he did that night.

His work with the local committee that led to the virtual assurance that a branch YMCA would be located on the Hilltop took many hours of his time during recent months. But for his untimely death, he would have served as spokesman for the local group at a meeting of the Central YMCA on Wednesday of this week and again before officials of the Council of Social Agencies on Friday.

Other business, social and religious affiliations included the West Gate Lodge of Masons, Scottish Rite, Aladdin Temple of the Shrine, the American Medical Association, the Ohio State Medical Association, the University Club, Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, and the Glenwood Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Kathryn Cramer; a daughter, Marilyn, at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Cramer, 396 Martha-st; a sister, Mrs. James Noxon, 174 E. Maynard-av, and three brothers, Rev. Harold H. and Ralph Cramer, both of Boston, Mass., and Russell Cramer of Amlin.

Due to the large number of other relatives, services Saturday had to be on a restricted basis. Burial was in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

Cramer Memorial Fund Is Started To Aid In Establishing YMCA Here

Only a few hours after the death Thursday morning of Dr. C. O. Cramer, 43, prominent Hilltop physician and civic leader, a memorial fund was started in his name for the benefit of the Hilltop Branch "Y" expected to be in operation early in 1948.

By Wednesday noon of this week the total money reported in the Cramer Memorial Fund was $460.

The suggestion for the memorial came from one of Dr. Cramer's patients. As he expressed it, "I believe the doctor would rather have us put our money in a living memorial rather than in flowers." Mrs. Cramer shared the same view and the fund was started.

Other members of the Hilltop Recreation Committee, of which Dr. Cramer had served as chairman, said this week that the memorial fund would be kept active for an indefinite time to allow others who are interested in seeing a YMCA on the Hilltop an opportunity to contribute.

Contributions in any amount are being received by H. G. Deems at the First Federal Savings & Loan Association, 2360 W. Broad-st. All money thus received will go into the proposed community center.

Dr. Cramer had headed the campaign, backed by approximately 30 civic and religious groups on the Hilltop, to bring a branch "Y" to the community as one solution to the juvenile delinquency problem. Favorable action on a petition to that effect was taken by the Metropolitan YMCA Board several weeks ago. This week the Council of Social Agencies is expected to pass favorably on the local committee's request.

Christmas Issue Early Next Week

Because of the Christmas holiday on Thursday of next week, news copy and all advertising material must be in The Hilltop Record office by not later than Saturday evening, Dec. 20. The deadlines will be as follows:

All church announcements, Saturday noon; other news items and all display advertising copy, 5 p. m. Saturday; classified advertising, 9 a. m. Monday, Dec. 22.

The same deadlines will be observed next week for the New Year's issue to be published on Dec. 30.

The Record office will close at noon on Wednesday.

Sewer Survey Is Underway West of City

Results of a survey being made by the Franklin County sanitary engineer's office on sewer needs in the Josephine-av and Broadlawn areas will be ready in about two weeks, according to George Matson, county commissioner, at 87 N. Warren-av.

Tentative approval has already been granted for construction of an eight-inch sanitary sewer along Josephine-av, but the commissioners are awaiting the results of the survey to see if it would not be better to install a larger sewer, which would serve as a main trunk line. A larger pipe would benefit residents of the fast-growing area west and north of Josephine-av and also include the area on W. Broad-st in which a new shopping center is now under construction.

Mr. Matson pointed out that construction of only an eight-inch sewer on Josephine-av would not be of sufficient size to serve the Broadlawn area. Construction of a larger sewer would spread the cost of the project among all the residents who would be served and would not cost the residents on Josephine-av, who initiated the proposal, any more money than would the eight-inch sewer.

The Josephine-av residents are the only ones who have thus far approved the project. They initiated the proposal to construct a sanitary sewer through a petition to the county commissioners early in November.

The survey now under way will determine whether there is sufficient fall in the area from W. Broad-st to Sullivant-av to permit construction of a sewer larger than eight inches. A much larger number of homes and business places could be served by a larger sewer, said Mr. Matson, and it would take care of future sanitary needs of the rapidly growing area.

The Josephine-av sewer will also put an end to the pollution in Westgate Park, Mr. Matson said.

Schools To Start 16-Day Vacation

Students attending most of the educational institutions in the city will receive one of their longest Christmas vacations in years. A full 16 days of vacation will be the rule at all public and parochial schools and at Capital and Ohio State Universities.

Classes at these schools will end tomorrow, Dec. 19, and will not be resumed again until Monday, Jan. 5. At Concordia Lutheran School classes will end at the close of the day, Dec. 23, and will be resumed Jan. 5.

Many Hilltop students in colleges throughout the country began coming home this week for the extended Christmas vacation. At Ohio State University several Hilltoppers will receive their degrees at the autumn quarter commencement exercises tomorrow, while at Capital University the first semester will be resumed after the holidays.

A number of Hilltop stores and business establishments, ordinarily closed on Wednesday afternoons, will be open but will close in time to allow their employees ample time to prepare for their Christmas holiday.

The Hilltop Branch Library will be closed all day Dec. 24 and 25, and also Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

Station Operator Gets Check For $100

Morgan Murphy, operator of Murphy's Service Station, Westgate and Broad-st, became $100 richer this week as a result of one of his customers winning a major prize in a nation-wide letter writing contest.

In a special ceremony at the station Tuesday, officials of the Fram Filter Company presented a brand new Mercury automobile to Miss Margaret Bernhard, 680 Chesterfield-rd. For having the winning customer, Murphy received the check for $100.

The letter written by Miss Bernhard was rated third in the contest that was backed by $100,000 in prizes.

Mechem Open 'Til 9 P. M.

Mechem Shoe Company, 2460 W. Broad-st, will stay open each evening (starting Friday) until 9 o'clock, until Christmas.

Rawlings To Head Hilltop Community Council In '48

Cy Rawlings

Cyrus O. (Cy) Rawlings, 821 Chestershire-rd, was elected president of the Hilltop Community Council for the coming year at a meeting of the council at the Teen Canteen last Thursday.

Other officers named were Leonard Echols, 291 S. Richardson-av, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av, corresponding secretary; Frank Mason, 1308 W. Third-av, recording secretary; and Charles P. Maus, 70 N. Westgate-av, treasurer.

Installation of the new officers will take place at the regular January meeting of the council, Jan. 8, at the Teen Canteen.

The new president has been active in Hilltop Boy Scout affairs. At present he is Scoutmaster of Troop 39 of the West Park Methodist Church.

Echols is well known in local school and church circles. He is employed in the state insurance department.

An active worker in the Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. Abrams is also councillor for the West Broad Street Elementary School.

Mason Heads School

Mason is principal of the Highland Avenue Elementary School, while the treasurer, Charles P. Maus, is circulation and promotion manager for The Hilltop Record. Mr. Maus served two terms as president of the HCC and was re-elected to the treasurer's position.

Also at last week's meeting Mrs. Roy Cave announced plans for the children's Christmas party to be held at 1:30 p. m., Dec. 27, at the Teen Canteen. All local grade schools and parochial schools will participate in the program. The usual Christmas treat will be served by the Girl Scouts.

Philip Stout, retiring president of the HCC, reviewed the work of the council and pointed with pride to its accomplishments. Among the items he discussed were the proposed Hilltop branch YMCA and improvements to Glenwood Park.

Phillips Retired

Leo Phillips

Sgt. Leo L. Phillips, 617 S. Ogden-av, a former chief of detectives in the Columbus Police Department, was retired last Thursday for physical disability and will leave shortly for a Florida vacation.

Sgt. Phillips, a longtime Hilltop resident, was one of the heroes of the robbery of the Hilltop branch of the Ohio National Bank on Feb. 4, 1938, when four bandits held up the bank and escaped with $3,542.

In a gun battle with the robbers at 183 Guilford-av the same afternoon, Detective Phillips was hit in the corner of the right eye by a bullet fired by one of the robbers. Two of the bandits were slain in the battle and a city detective was also killed. Two other police officers were wounded.

Phillips was appointed a patrolman in 1920, a detective in 1936, and chief of detectives in 1940. He resigned the latter position in 1945. He is a past president of the Fraternal Order of Police and a member of the Police Pension Board.

In ill health for the past year he had been on sick leave for the last three months. His wife, Alice, and son, Leo, Jr., will accompany him to Florida.

Scout Officials Outline Plans For Coming Year's Work

A program of activities for 1948 was drawn up by elected officers in the Southwest District Boy Scouts of America in a meeting held Sunday afternoon at the home of M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, 335 Guernsey-av, recently-elected chairman of the district.

A goal of 1200 scouts in the district in 1948 was set by those attending. A series of four district scouters' meetings were set up and plans were tentatively made for a scouter's training course to be held in the fall. Camping activities were also discussed.

Those attending the organization meeting were Cliff Mathews, new scout executive, James McCready, district commissioner, Harry Drake, organization and extension, Sam Alford and William Ewald, camping, Robert Miller, health and safety, Ray Eyerman, finance, John Apel, advancement, Dr. R. J. Miller, leadership and training, and Paul Wichterman, publicity.

Glenwood Park Plans Christmas Parties

Glenwood Park is completing plans for its annual Christmas party. The Christmas program will be held Monday, Dec. 22. Activities from 4 to 6 p. m. are planned for boys and girls, age 6 to 12 years.

The evening section of the party will begin at 7:30 and is planned for teen-age boys and girls. The entertainment committee, headed by Patty Hamilton and Lois Jones, has arranged a program for the evening. The program includes a dance. Free refreshments will be available.

Krause To Head 13 Club For '48

William Krause, 921 S. Richardson-av, was elected president of the 13 Club at the annual banquet held at the Elks Club Sunday afternoon.

Other officers chosen were Howard Minnameyer, vice-president; Charles Neeshan, secretary; LeRoy Weigand, treasurer. Executive board members named were Art Bishop, chairman, Don Burgoon, Harry Eaton, Homer Hagans, Ed McPherson, Oscar Murdock and Ray Percy, Sr. James Kennedy and William Lash were elected as alternate members of the board.

Appearing on the program at the dinner were George Hicks, president of Charity Newsies, and Don Weaver, editor of the Columbus Citizen. Approximately 50 persons were in attendance.

The 13 Club was high bidder for the first issue of the Charity Newsie paper again this year with a bid of $500. This makes the third consecutive year that the first paper went to the local organization.

H. L. Brokaw, 1475 Cordell-av, purchased "the 1947 merchandise."

3 Postal Windows Are In Use Here

With less than one week for Hilltoppers to complete their Christmas shopping and mailing, postal authorities urge that both greeting card and parcel post packages be mailed at the earliest possible time to insure delivery before the holiday.

The Hilltop Station Post Office is operating three windows for the convenience of customers during as much of the time as traffic warrants until Christmas, a spokesman at the local office said. The office will also remain open until 6 p. m. on Saturday this week.

While mail has been running heavy all this month, the seasonal upswing of Christmas mail did not hit the local office until early this week. Postal authorities are predicting a record volume of mail this year.

Mrs. Populin Is Head Of Mardi Club For '48

A pot-luck dinner was the feature of the second annual Christmas party of the Mardi Club, held at the home of Mrs. John Kelley, 648 S. Terrace-av. Table decorations were carried out in a Christmas motif. Gifts were exchanged and greeting cards were signed by the members to be sent former members out of the city. A report was given on the club's gift to a needy family, and dues were collected.

New officers were chosen to head the group for 1948 and Mrs. William Populin was name president and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, secretary and treasurer. Committees will be appointed at the next meeting.

A social evening of bridge followed, with Mrs. Otto Lausa winning first prize, Mrs. Emmett Arnold second, Mrs. Clyde Floyd third and Mrs. John Kelley the consolation prize.

Those present were Mrs. Dale Scott, Mrs. Clyde Floyd, Mrs. William Populin, Mrs. Emmett Arnold, Mrs. Harrold Walter, Mrs. Lee Henne, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mrs. Otto Lausa and the hostess.

Taylor-Skivers Vows To Be Read Saturday

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Ginny Skivers of Nelsonville to Mr. Gordon Taylor, son of Earl Z. Taylor, 388 S. Burgess-av, was announced last week.

The double-ring ceremony will be read in the East Broad Street Church of Christ by Dr. Floyd Faust, Saturday evening.

A program of nuptial music, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, with Carolyn Young as soloist, will precede the service.

Miss Skivers has asked Miss Evelyn Taylor, sister of the prospective bridegroom, to attend her, while Doa Sturdevant will act as best man.

The couple plan a week's trip to New York City following their marriage, and will make their home on S. Burgess-av.

Five New Members Taken By Twig 42

Five new members of Twig 42, Children's Hospital, were honored at a dinner at the Scioto Country Club yesterday evening at 7 o'clock. At the same time officers for 1948 were installed.

About Folks You Know

MRS. NEWTON THATCHER, 2966 Crescent-dr, was hostess last Tuesday to members of the British Women's Club. The women are all natives of the British Isles. They spent the afternoon singing carols. A tree was decorated for the occasion and a Christmas story was told.

Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher entertained Friday evening for the members of the Nemo Club. The ladies served their husbands a turkey dinner. The members include Mrs. F. P. Brown, Mrs. Roy Jenkins, Mrs. Delker, Mrs. C. W. Michels, Mrs. Otto Nuetzel, Mrs. Lohr and Mrs. H. W. Nelson.

MR. AND MRS. L. L. WARD, 845 Townsend-av, were hosts to a group of friends in their home Sunday. The guests at the dinner party included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rausch, Mr. and Mrs. George Bornheim, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zellar, and Mr. and Stan Dennis.

MRS. DELLA CLOUD and Mrs. Julius Horning of Findlay have returned home after spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cromer, 409 N. Harris-av.

FRANK PRIMMER, 35 N. Oakley-av, who has been seriously ill in University Hospital for the past three weeks, is slowly improving.

MRS. ROY D. PAVEY, 1749 Fishinger-rd, and Mrs. C. B. Hollingsead, 1748 Andover-rd, served as hostesses for the Christmas luncheon of the Lions Auxiliary of the Lions Club of Columbus. The luncheon was held at the Athletic Club Dec. 16.

MR. AND MRS. C. CARLTON HARTLEY, 1370 Wilson-rd, will be hosts to a group of employees and associates of The Hilltop Record, at the annual Christmas party, which will be held in their home Saturday evening.

Women's Chorus Will Have Party Monday

The Hilltop Women's Chorus will hold its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. James Camp, 188 S. Terrace-av, Monday, Dec. 22, at 8 p. m.

There will be an exchange of (Silent Note) gifts between the members and they will sing carols.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Glen Hamilton, Mrs. Harry Decker, Mrs. Grover Woodin and Mrs. Richard Gubsch.

Mrs. Lester Nichol Is Hurt In Collision

A collision at Fremont-st and Ogden-av last Saturdry evening between 7:30 and 8 o'clock caused serious injuries to at least one Hilltopper involved.

Mrs. Lester Nichol of Franklin, O., who was riding with her daughter, Mrs. Frances Zigler, 330 S. Ogden-av, received a severe cut on the back of her head and is still in Mt. Carmel Hospital. Mrs. Zigler was not treated but was a victim of shock. Both were thrown from the car onto the pavement by the impact of the crash.

The other auto was driven by Emil Kunzi, 456 S. Westgate-av, who was uninjured.

Mrs. Nichol came to Columbus for the Christmas holidays.

Sunset Literary Club will meet Monday, Dec. 22, at the home of Mrs. R. V. Benedict, 186 Belvidere-av. There will be a gift exchange. Mrs. W. W. Barlow and Mrs. Lafayette Woodruff will be in charge of the program. Mrs. H. E. Norris and Mrs. J. R. Sheiders will be the assisting hostesses.

The Record Want Ads are filled with bargains of every description every week.

Miss Vivian Barnhart To Marry Mr. Grebetz

Mr. and Mrs. Benn Barnhart, 688 S. Wayne-av, announce the engagement of their daughter, Vivian, to Mr. Charles Grebetz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grebetz, 1354 S. Third-st.

Miss Barnhart is a graduate of West High School and is employed by the Surface Combustion Corp.

Mr. Grebetz is a graduate of St. Mary's High School and is associated with the Integrity Supply Co.

A long, lanky, hatless individual in a state of joyful inebriation came sailing merrily into the city hall and dropped anchor before the window of the registrar of births and deaths.

"Good mornin', gentlemen," he sang out, "I wanna register the birth (hic) of twins."

"Why do you say 'gentlemen'?" asked the man behind the window. "Can't you see I'm alone here?"

"Alone?" shouted the astonished father. "Only one of you? Then I'd better go home and take another look. Maybe it isn't (hic) twins after all."

An elevator man grew weary of being asked the time of day, so he hung a clock in his cage.

Now, everybody asks him, "Is that clock right?"

Sandusky Project Bids Are Opened

The State Highway Department opened bids for the grade crossing elimination project on Sandusky-st Tuesday. A low bid of $875,000 was submitted by Vlaintine & Co., 1315 Edgehill-rd. The only other bid was made by the Baker & Hickey Co., 85 E. Gay-st, for $990,675.

The Highway Department had made an estimate of $965,800 as the cost of eliminating the city's worst traffic bottleneck. Before work can get under way, however, the bid must be approved by the Public Roads Administration in Washington because federal funds are involved.

Among the other bids opened Tuesday by the Highway Department was one for paving 4.5 miles of Route 104 in Franklin Township. Robert J. Dietzt & Son of Columbus bid $34,800 for the job, against an estimate of $35,150 made by the department.

She Celebrated 98th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Jane Ewing

Mrs. Mary Jane Ewing, 172 S. Richardson-av, who celebrated her 98th birthday Dec. 10, was honored at a family dinner party attended by nieces, nephews and other relatives last Sunday. In the afternoon an open house was held for her friends and neighbors.

More than 100 birthday cards and many gifts were received by Mrs. Ewing from friends all over the country on the occasion of her birthday.

Mrs. Ewing, a resident of Jackson, O., has made her home with a nephew, Walter C. Horton, for the past three years. Born in Jefferson Township, Jackson County, she spent all except eight years of her life in that vicinity before coming to Columbus.

Last Of Family

Known as "Aunt Jenny" to all her friends and relatives, Mrs. Ewing is the last surviving member of a family of four sisters and five brothers. A sister, Miss Ad- Horton, died a year ago at 86 years of age.

Although only 11 years old at the time the Civil War began, she remembers many things that happened during that time. Living in Jackson County during the war, she remembers the fear and terror that prevailed there when Morgan's Raiders roamed the countryside. She recalls vividly how the raiders burned the Jackson depot and how her uncle hid his horses to prevent their seizure.

Mrs. Ewing's husband served in the First Ohio Artillery during the war. Afterwards, he served two terms as sheriff of Jackson County. He died in 1904. A grandfather, Joseph Horton, was a soldier in the Revolutionary War.

Mrs. Ewing has been a member of the Jackson Methodist Church for 86 years. She has also been a member of the McGuffy Club in Jackson for many years.

Although more or less confined to her home now, she maintains an active interest in affairs of the world, reading all the Columbus papers and two Jackson County papers daily. In addition, she reads the Bible each day and keeps up a voluminous correspondence with her many friends throughout the country.

West Varsity Beats Alumni

The Alumni of West High School made things tough for the Varsity Five at the Cowboy gym Tuesday night, being nosed out by only two points. The final score was West, 50; Alumni, 48.

Coach George Williams is pointing his cage squad for its second league encounter with Central Friday night on the downtowners' court.

Paul Theisen led the scoring parade Tuesday night as he poured in nine buckets and a free throw for 19 points. Jack Thrush was second with 14 tallies and Walter Hicks accounted for 10. Bob Fette contributed 10 points for the grads, closely followed by Donn Haines with nine.

In the preliminary, the West Reserves defeated the Alumni by a 37-35 score.

The Varsity score at the end of each period was as follows:

West	11	19	35	50
Alumni	10	18	29	48

Sentiments Expressed By Local People Following Dr. Cramer's Death

The feelings of hundreds of Hilltoppers at the untimely death of Dr. C. O. Cramer are reflected in the following expressions submitted to The Hilltop Record voluntarily.

The first was written by Edgar Planck, president of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club of which Dr. Cramer was an active member. It was read before the local group at last week's luncheon meeting.

"After the invocation let us remain standing in silence as a tribute to one of our noble, most loyal, honest and conscientious members who has been called by his Maker. Dr. Cramer was not only a good Kiwanian, that was only a small part of his life. He was a devoted husband and father, loved by all of his friends and neighbors. He was the kind of a man who, from the time of his birth until he passed on, knew no other than right—the right of mankind which he knew and respected. The family has suffered a terrible loss, so has his community, his profession, his many, many friends, as well as the large number of organizations in which he has been active. Let us never forget a man like Dr. Cramer, because he was a jewel."

Dr. H. C. Shetrone, 3038 Crescent-dr, director emeritus of the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society, in a note to C. Carlton Hartley, publisher of The Hilltop Record, had this to say about Dr. Cramer:

"Dear Mr. Hartley:

"You and I, and all who knew Chester O. Cramer, mourn the passing of a great and good man.

"I have known no one who possessed in a full measure those admirable qualities which contribute to the ideal in human relations. As a husband, father, friend, neighbor and citizen, he set a pattern worthy of wide emulation.

"In this instance, the usual amenities, which are intended to assuage the grief of relatives and friends, are so inadequate. The best that one can say, perhaps, is that 'to live in hearts we leave behind, is not to die'.

"Those who were so fortunate as to share Dr. Cramer's close personal friendship will not soon forget the faith and courage with which he met life's vicissitudes. He shared with some others the belief that to live normally and honorably, and to make some sort of contribution to human welfare, are sufficient justification for living. One cannot but feel that with a reasonable minority of such men as Chester Cramer, the world eventually will escape from the dilemma in which it now finds itself.

"His personal contribution was great, indeed."

M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner, 335 Guernsey-st, a fellow Kiwanian and personal friend of Dr. Cramer, penned this tribute to the local physician in his hotel room in Dayton where he first learned the news of his death:

"Dear Chet:

"Pardon, if I don't call you "Doc" but I have always wanted to just call you by your first name and tell you face to face what a great guy you were—now, dag-gone it, you went and got yourself promoted so you will have to make this out the best way you can.

"I'm over here in Dayton, holding some State Civil Service exams and boy you could have knocked me over with a feather when I picked up the Columbus paper and read where you just up and left us. Please believe me when I say, I am going to miss you more than words could ever tell you (pardon the blot—one of my tears fell there), and boy, all the kids at West High are gonna miss you too—likewise the fellers in the West High Boosters and our Kiwanis gang.

"I don't mind tellin' you that you have left us in a hole, sorta like a giant oak toplin' over, and it's going to take years to replace, but we won't let you down. We're gonna work harder than ever to bring to pass your hopes for a better community to live in. Your untiring and unselfish interest in our youth will be our incentive to carry out your desires and wishes. It may take us a spell to do it but with the seed you have planted, it just can't help but grow into collective goodness for all us Hilltoppers and the ones yet to follow.

"Thanks a million (and these are such little words) for all you have sacrificed for us guys. The Good Book says that 'anyone who gives a cup of cold water in my name shall not lose his reward.' You have tipped over the barrel. It also says "Anyone who shall lose his life for my sake shall find it.' Yours must have been a triumphant entry because you put into every day life application of His command 'to serve your fellow men.' Gosh, I hate to say goodbye so I'll just say 'so long for a while.'

"Hope you will forgive me for not telling you sooner how much I like you but a feller gets busy and when he has time a lump comes in his throat and it just won't come out. You know how it is with us men. So a letter does help even tho I've been a long time sending it.

"Well, Chet, I just gotta close as it's midnight. Remember all of us fellers will be out doing what you started and I'll watch out for the kids at West High for you. Maybe we'll have another champion football team in your honor. If we don't, well, the kids will say 'Doc Cramer's a champion anyhow.' If you can spare a few minutes now and then, say a good word for us guys because we want to follow in the trail that you have blazed out for us.

Yours in Christian love,
M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner

"P. S.: We will be out next week selling 'Kiwanis Christmas editions' to raise money for the YMCA on the Hilltop which cost you so much in time and energy. You made it a success."

The executive board of the Women's Society of Hope Memorial Church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. W. Thomas, 307 N. Warren-st, Tuesday, Dec. 23, at one one o'clock.

Girl Scouts To Sing Carols Here Friday

Girl Scouts of local troops will join in a carol sing at John Burroughs School Friday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. Carols will be sung in the auditorium around a Christmas tree.

Mrs. Howard Reber will lead the singing with Mrs. H. C. Booth at the piano.

The Girl Scouts will welcome new troops recently organized at St. Mary Magdalene Church. This is the second in a series of song and folk dance festivals of this type. Good attendance is expected.

Thank You . . .

We sincerely thank you for your splendid response to the opening of our newest C. & S. Dime Store last week. We are very sorry that we could not accommodate every person with one of our free gifts, but the crowd of over 3,000 which visited the store on Friday and Saturday was beyond our expectations.

There are still plenty of honest-to-goodness values left on our shelves and all three stores are stocked to fit your Christmas gift needs as well as practical items for yourself and home.

We now feel certain that our three convenient locations will adequately serve the needs of the Hilltop and surrounding territory, and urge you, one and all, to visit our stores where you will be given nothing but the most courteous attention.

Cowboys Score Wins Over Newark, Linden; To Meet Central Friday Night

The West High Cowboys annexed two cage victories over the week-end to give them a standing to date of four wins and two losses as the play went into the opening of the City League.

On Friday night West won its first league game by downing Linden McKinley 55 to 47 on the Hilltop court. Saturday night Coach George Williams took his cagers to Newark where they chalked up a 51 to 42 victory. It was presumably the first time a West five had defeated the highly touted Newark squad and was the first Columbus team to turn the trick in some 20 odd years, according to local basketball followers.

The West Reserves, coached by Fred Heischman, won and lost. On Friday they emerged the winner over Linden in an overtime period by a 28 to 27 count. At Newark on Saturday they were humbled by a 24 to 12 score in a rough and tumble affair.

The cage calendar this week is as follows:

Friday—at Central.
Saturday—at Marion.

The Newark upset was highlighted by a strong defensive game on the part of the Cowboys and almost constant control of the backboards. Knox, the high-scoring Newark forward, was held to nine points.

The Cowboy scoring honors were virtually shared by all five starting players. Jack Thrush and Paul Theisen, each had 15 points, followed closely by Chuck Weeks with 10, Don Speakman with eight, and Walter Hicks with seven. It was the first defeat of the season for Newark.

The score by quarters was as follows:

West	7	15	31	51
Newark	14	26	39	42

In the Linden game the Cowboys started off with a comfortable lead which they held on until near the end of the third period. They were leading by a single point as the fourth quarter got under way but pulled out in front in the final four minutes of play to win easily by the 55-47 score.

Thrush took scoring honors collecting seven field goals and six free throws for a total of 20 points. Theisen had 13 and Hicks 10. Showalter led the attack for the losers with 18 points.

The score by quarters was as follows:

West	13	24	33	55
Linden	9	18	32	47

Eight teams were granted franchises in the Glenwood Independent Basketball League at an organizing meeting last week at the City Recreation Department.

A 10-player limit rule was adopted and each team will be limited to two Class AA players.

Across The HILLTOP ALLEYS

By Dick Ardle

26 Remain In Tournament

By the time you read this most of you will know who won the third annual men's match game tournament, but at present it is a mystery to every one. The only thing we are sure of is that last year's king, Milt Banning, was defeated in the first round.

Dick Ardle

At present there are 26 survivors, who will roll Saturday and Sunday, three rounds being rolled Saturday evening and the finals will be Sunday afternoon at 4:30, the two remaining stalwarts facing each other in the championship match at 5:30.

Out of the 26 survivors there are only Charley Haas and Jay Hyatt, who roll at the Hilltop alleys. Haas defeated K. Dennis, Sr., 624 to 457, and then went into the third round to defeat Bud Kline, another Hilltopper, 562 to 511. Jay Hyatt earned his way to the finals by defeating Tom Ogier, also a Hilltopper, 548 to 520, and then K. Dennis, Jr., 533 to 503.

Bud Kline and George Kanavel won their second round matches but were defeated in the third round. Kanavel couldn't find the "spot" as he rolled 386, the lowest score posted in the three Bowling News tourneys.

Ted Amore, Joe Kennedy and Tom Ogier were all defeated in the second roll.

All in all, the Hilltoppers have done fine so far and we wish all the luck in the world to the two remaining keglers, Jay Hyatt and Charley Haas.

• • Bowler of the Week • •

Our bowler this week is Charlie Vorce, who has been bowling more than half a century. He is a retired bowler but keeps right up-to-date on his favorite Suburban League doings while resting comfortably in bed at 109 N. Burgess-av. It is a great honor for me to write this since, when Charlie retired as an active bowler, I was asked to bowl on the Hilltop Van and Storage team which he captained for the past 16 years.

Charlie has twice shot 290 games and at one time maintained a 190 average.

Hilltop bowlers are invited to send him a cheerio note in the form of a Christmas card. You may not know him but this paper feels that such a gesture would make "Charlie's" Christmas a happy one.

• • Bowling Bits • •

Gen Graham turned in the bowling gem while bowling with the Wednesday night Hilltop Van team. She turned in games of 185, 185 and 255 for a grand 625 series. In her big game she started with a spare and then rolled seven strikes and concluded with two spares. Nice going, Gen.

Joe Holdrift turned in the 4-7-9-10 split last Wednesday. We noticed he had written Joe, Sr., on the score sheets and upon inquiring found that Joe's wife had presented him with a bouncing baby boy. A redhead!

LEGAL NOTICES

Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio. No. 122211 Victor Voeller, Administrator, with Will Annexed of the Estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 356 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. Margaret Voeller, 356 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Victor L. Voeller, 356 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney, Mrs. John Coleman, 2648 Tremont Road, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Sadie Young, 267 East Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Buell, 668 High Street, Worthington, Ohio; Mrs. Margaret Russell, Cleveland, Ohio; Frank Snable, whose address is unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, Will Snable, Lima, Ohio, Defendants.

James Courtney and Barbara Courtney, whose last known place of residence is 1351 Lucile Ave., Los Angeles 26, California, and Frank Snable, whose address is unknown, are hereby notified that on Feb. 16, 1947, Victor Voeller, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 356 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio, filed his petition in Cause No. 122211 in the Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio; that they have been made parties defendant in said cause.

Plaintiff further says that on or about the 17th day of January, 1947, Barbara Gray died a resident of Franklin County, Ohio, leaving a Will which was admitted to probate by the Probate Court of said County and State on or about the 16th day of February, 1947, that thereafter administration proceedings were had as to the Estate of the said Barbara Gray, deceased, as more particularly set forth in the proceedings and the records of said Probate Court and that the Inventory and Appraisement has been filed in said Estate. Said Will is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Plaintiff says that the house mentioned in said Will on Linwood Avenue was sold in 1946.

Plaintiff further says that Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney died after the execution of said Will.

Plaintiff further says there was in the safety deposit box in the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch, Four Thousand One Hundred Forty Dollars ($4,140.00). Five ($) One Thousand Dollar ($1000.00) United States, Series G, Bonds and a Postal Savings of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). That there was in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, the sum of Two Hundred One Dollars and fifty-nine cents ($201.59), that Barbara Gray died seized in fee simple of the property located at 1070 City Park Avenue; that the insurance amounted to the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-six Dollars ($356.00) and has been paid to the Administrator herein.

That the said Barbara Gray died, leaving no heirs, other than first cousins, that Margaret Voeller, mentioned in said will, is a first cousin of said Barbara Gray, deceased, and that said Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Sadie Young, Mrs. Anna Buell, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Frank Snable and Will Snable are first cousins of the said Barbara Gray, deceased; that Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney and Victor Voeller are second cousins of said Barbara Gray, deceased.

That besides the property mentioned in said petition there is a diamond ring and household furnishings.

That there are important, difficult and doubtful questions respecting said Will and the disposition of said property under said Will and that plaintiff is in doubt as to the construction of said Will and as to the rights of parties in the distribution of the property under said Will, that plaintiff is in doubt about the following:

(1) As to whether the insurance is to go to Raymond Ayres, under the provisions of said Will?

(2) That plaintiff is in doubt, since the property on Linwood Avenue was sold prior to the death of said Barbara Gray, whether said devisees mentioned as to receive said property, are entitled to anything under said Will.

(3) That plaintiff is in doubt as to whether 1070 City Park Avenue is to go to the heirs of Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney, who were deceased prior to Barbara Gray's decease, or to Margaret Voeller or to become a part of the residuary estate and be divided among all the cousins mentioned herein.

(4) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether said insurance is to be paid to Margaret Voeller.

(5) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the $4140.00 in cash, which was in the safety deposit box of the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch; the five $1000.00, Series G, United States Bonds; the $201.59 in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, after the payment of debts due to said Victor Voeller.

That if the Court should decide that the five $1000.00 Bonds do not go to Victor Voeller or any other part contained in said safety deposit box, out of which the debts of the estate are to be paid first, and to whom is the balance to go.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will and the disposition of the property under said Will and as to his duties in the premises and, especially to the five questions raised in this petition herein and an order as to the duties of the plaintiff in regard to them.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before Jan. 26, 1948 or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Twenty years ago Columbia Heights Church had its first wedding, when Ruth Johnson and Floyd Armstrong, now of Lennox-av, were married on Thanksgiving Day. Then there was a decided lull in such ceremonies until within the last 18 months, when there have been several. Marion Howell and Dick Rarey and Cleo Thoma and Stanley Griggs had very beautiful June weddings one year apart. Betty Kidwell of the Beacon Golf Course married Captain John Regan in a fill military wedding. Martha Breckenridge and Charles Coulter were married Saturday night and Ladonna Coulter and Alva Sampson were married Sunday afternoon.

Saturday night the altar of Columbia Heights Church was decorated with two seven-branch candelabra, Christmas green and poinsettias for the wedding of Martha Breckenridge, the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Breckenridge, Maple-dr, and Charles Coulter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulter, Pasadena-av. A little after 6:30 p. m. Ruth Breckenridge, the youngest sister of the bride, lit the candles. Only the immediate relatives of the two families witnessed the ceremony that was read by candle light. The bride wore a light gray wool jacket suit and a white corsage. She walked to the altar with her father, who gave her in marriage. Her attendants were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hane, brother-in-law and sister. Mrs. Hane wore a light blue wool jacket suit and pink corsage. The bride's mother wore brown silk, sequin trim with yellow corsage. Mrs. Coulter, the groom's mother, wore light gray with red corsage. Immediately after the ceremony, there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The annual banquet and achievement meeting of the Alton Advancers Livestock 4-H Club was held at the Columbia Heights Methodist Church Monday evening, Dec. 7. A most delicious dinner was served by the ladies of the church to 78 guests. Pictures were shown by K. D. Peterson of the County Agriculture Extension Department. The guest speaker was Herman Purdy of the Ohio State University animal husbandry department. Awards and certificates of completion were given the 18 members of the club by their leader, Harold Hart. The girls who helped make the banquet a success by waiting tables were Betty Stormont, Elizabeth French, Frances Hart, Shirley Schatz, Clarice Scheiderer, Revajean Nichols and Viola Saltzgaber.

Mrs. Dick Rarey, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Warner entertained at her home with a shower last Monday night, for Mrs. Alva Sampson (Ladonna Coulter). Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the guest of honor and delicious refreshments were enjoyed by 35 persons attending.

The Progressive Sunday School Class of Alton Church was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leach, Amity-pk, with a turkey dinner, with all the "trimmings" Friday night. There were 40 present.

Mrs. Bertha Kauffman, Maple-dr, mother of Mrs. Delmar Kunz, who has been sick for several weeks, is slowly improving from an attack of flu.

Mrs. Violet Giegel of Akron spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. R. E. Johnson, Maple-dr.

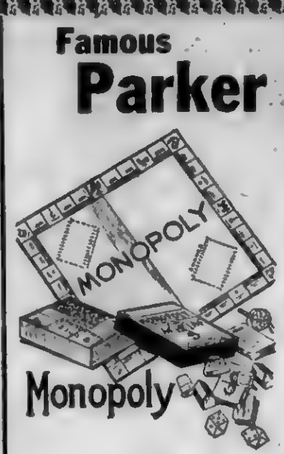
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Porter of New Carlisle spent Friday with Mrs. Blanch Porter, Maple-dr.

The late afternoon sun shone through the stained glass windows of the Columbia Heights Church and killed the light from the flickering candles that had been placed in the side windows of the auditorium, but on the opposite side the candles made a beautiful picture against the colored windows, where no afternoon sun shone through. The lighting of the candles throughout the church was taken care of by David Warner. Preceding the ceremony the half hour of music with Elma Lou Riebel at the piano and the several numbers sung by Mr. Bob Hahn were much enjoyed. It was the wedding of Ladonna Coulter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coulter, Pasadena-av, and Mr. Alva B. Sampson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sampson of near Hilliards. The bride was beautiful in heavy white satin made with a long train and wornover hoops. She carried a white prayer book and orchid. Her rhinestone necklace was a gift of the groom. She walked to the altar with her father, who gave her in marriage. Her attendants were Miss Priscilla Warner, Miss Dorothy Stauch and Miss Juanita Weber, who was maid of honor. The girls wore identical green taffeta silk dresses, wornover hoops made with panel front and back, with three tier flounced ruffles on each side, with fitted off the shoulder bertha. Their little hats were feathers of matching green. The bride's gift to her attendants was a necklace with rhinestone pendant. The ceremony was a double ring service. The best man was Mr. Kermit Walker. The ushers were Mr. Joey Coulter and Mr. John Riehl. The altar was decorated with palms, Christmas green and poinsettias. The church was beautiful throughout, with decorations of green and large white satin bows. There was a reception immediately following in charge of the Monitors, Mrs. Jack Elliott and Mrs. Schoonover, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Jean Newhouse and Miss Maribel Sampson, sisters of the groom, presided at the table. Mrs. Coulter's dress was wine wool, with feather togue to match and Mrs. Sampson's was brown with brown feather hat. The new Mr. and Mrs. Sampson left for a wedding trip and upon their return will be on a farm north of Hilliards.

Miss Jean Degen of Pittsburgh, fiancee of Joe Coulter, was here over the week-end at the Coulter home for the Coulter-Sampson wedding.

Mrs. Giehl and Mrs. Huffman attended the meeting of the Home Extension Service held in Urbana Thursday. Friday Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Huffman, Mrs. Growdon and Dorothy Munroe attended the meeting held in Gahanna. It was a pot-luck dinner and in the afternoon a Red Cross speaker from Japan told many interesting incidents and had a display of valuables from that country.

Cub Pack 31 of Rome held a pack meeting and Christmas party Friday evening, Dec. 12, in the Columbia Heights Methodist Church, with 33 persons present. The meeting started with a pot-luck supper, after which Henry Warner led the group in singing, accompanied by Rev. Elwood Rose at the piano. Rev. Rose then gave a very interesting travelogue. Each den presented a short skit. Short talks were given by Clifford Matthews, Dr. T. E. Nichols and Richard Glass, outlining their program for the coming year. The cubmaster, Malcolm Pennell, presented achievement awards to the Cubs and one new member, Marshall Hall. Application was made by five other boys to become Cub Scouts. At the close of the meeting, a Christmas treat was given the Cubs and other children present, by the sponsoring organization, the Rome PTA.



Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ball and family spent Sunday in Athens with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore. It was her mother's 75th birthday.

Highland Avenue

Mrs. Clark's girls have a sewing club. They meet at 1 o'clock every afternoon in room 2. The officers of the sewing club are Barbara Thomas, president; Joann Jordan, vice-president; and Virginia Miller, secretary. Other members of the club are Joyce Otis, Virginia La Follett, Ruth Wesley, Anita Bellomy, Barbara Calloway and Marie Faistl.

The pupils are buying records with money received from saving tax stamps this year. There are two tax saving teams. Ted Dean and Douglass Baus were elected captains of the teams.

Some of the boys and girls are giving a Christmas program Friday afternoon, Dec. 9. In the program are Barbara Calloway, Anita Bellomy, Joann Jordan, Ted Dean, Douglass Baus, Charles Cook, Shirley Morgan and Jane Lloyd.

Room 13 is having a good time in its Christmas card shop where the pupils pretend to buy and sell the cards.

Room 4 reports that the Highland Broncos beat the Atomic Five in a game of basketball at Glenwood Park Wednesday night. The score was 28 to 19.

W. Junior Loses To Crestview

By Dave Miller

West Junior High, which last week beat a weak Starling five 33 to 11, dropped a very close game to Crestview on the winners' court, 26 to 24.

The Red and White, coached by Red Lehman, started out good, but ended in a streak of bad luck on shots. The Juniors were leading by four points at the first quarter and by five at the halftime intermission. The first time the Buckaroos were ever headed was when a short bunny by Bob Weinrech ended the third quarter in Crestview's favor, 19 to 18.

Ray Wakeman, a boy who moved here from Springfield, O., led the scoring with 10 points, for West. Both Weinrech and Paul Thompson, of West, got nine tallies.

The Bob Burgett-coached northenders kept in good style, however, in the final quarter to clinch the contest. It was Crestview's second straight win. Crestview sank 10 out of 19 shots, and West 10 out of 41.

STARLING GIVES CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

By De Loris Dennis

Starling Junior High School will present a play entitled "Around Kelly's Christmas Tree," Friday, Dec. 19.

The play was written by a ninth grade dramatics class under the leadership of Virginia Dawson, Harold Doust, Barbara Emmitt, Colleen Hartman, Lily Riser, Shirley Shell, Mary Snyder, Wayne Vadikin, Lundy Williams, Patty Winer and Ruth Woerline.

At the beginning of the service the Boys' Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. William R. Clark, will sing "By the Manger" and "Birthday of a King."

During the service the audience will sing three Christmas carols entitled "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Silent Night" and "Joy To The World," under the supervision of Robert K. Rocky, who will also direct the school orchestra.

The costuming for the play is under the direction of Mrs. Helen Bauer, and the play is directed by Mrs. Verona Rothenbush.

The program will close with the English carol, "A Merry Christmas," sung by the Boys' Choir.

STARLING COLLECTS SHOE FUND

By Alice Williams

On Dec. 10 the students at Starling Junior High School contributed to the Shoe Fund.

The Shoe Fund is a city-wide school project to collect money, so that the children in our public schools who are kept home because they can't afford shoes may be supplied.

Starling had $27 to contribute to the general Shoe Fund. This was a very generous contribution for the students were asked to give only one cent to 10 cents.

Y-TEENS HOLD MEMBERSHIP CEREMONIAL

By Barbara Emmitt

On Dec. 18 the Y-Teens of Starling Junior High School will hold their annual membership ceremonial. This will be held in the chapel at the YWCA.

The purpose of this ceremonial is to recognize the new members. The Y-Teens, under the leadership of Francis L. Forbes, now have 56 members.

Anita Lauthutte will act as worship chairman. Pat Blair, vice-president of the Y-Teens, will give a speech and Donna Loudermilk will lead the responsive reading.

Jean Casey of the Y-Teens department at the YWCA, has charge of the arrangements.

Following the service, the Y-Teens will be hostesses for a mother and daughter tea, for which Miss Ganson, vice-principal of Starling, will pour.

Y-TEENS ENJOY CHRISTMAS PROJECT

By Carol Thrush

On Dec. 15 at Starling Junior High School the Y-Teens, under the supervision of Miss Forbes, decorated the large Christmas tree presented to the school by the PTA.

Directed by Miss King, the art teacher, the Y-Teens made many of the decorations for the tree. Under the tree will be placed white gifts, brought by the student body for the patients of the Columbus State School.

Capacity Crowd Attends "Sing"

The annual Christmas carol sing of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and the bi-weekly Hilltop Hymn Sing sponsored by the Hilltop Ministerial Association were held jointly Sunday at the Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The church was well filled for this annual program of Christmas music. The Hoge Church choir sang two numbers. Bob Nash was the accompanist on the organ for the hymn sing.

The next hymn sing will take place from 8 to 10 p. m., Sunday, Dec. 28, at the Westgate E. U. B. Church, 41 S. Powell-av.

"Messiah" Selections To Be Sung Sunday

Selections from the "Messiah" will be sung by the choir at the Christmas service of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, Dec. 21, at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Wold will speak on "The Danger of Missing Christmas." Children may be brought for baptism.

A Christmas program and party for the children of the Church School and their families has been planned for Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Lutherans Plan Candlelight Service

A candlelight service will be held at 11 o'clock Christmas Eve in Hilltop Lutheran Church.

A half hour of special Christmas music will be presented, beginning at 11 o'clock, by Mrs. Helen Plummer, at the organ, and her daughter, Patty Curl, at the piano.

The pastor, Rev. Russell J. Olson, will speak on "For Unto Us."

Special Christmas music will be sung by the choir.

Church Of Christ Program Is Friday

A Christmas musical program, arranged by Maurice Bowsher, will be presented at the Hilltop Church of Christ, Burgess-av and Olive-st, at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow (Friday) night.

Mr. Bowsher will play a group of Christmas carols on the organ for the prelude. Mrs. Bowsher will sing "Jesu Bambino" and "Nazareth" as solos.

Other vocalists who will sing solo numbers include Mrs. Clemont Bergman, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Cantione De Noel"; and Evan K. Reed, "Birthday of a King."

A piano solo will be given by Ralph Early, who will play "Silent Night, Holy Night." Mr. Early will team with Mr. Bowsher in a piano and organ duet, "Tree Sitter."

An organ solo featuring a medley of Christmas music will be played by Ruth Amley. Vernon Frederick will also give an organ solo, playing Irvins Berlin's "White Christmas." A clarinet solo, "March of the Kings," will be played by Richard Hickman. played by Richard Hickman.

Mrs. Raymond Burgess will recite a poem telling the Christmas story while Christmas carols are played in the background. She will also recite Clement C. Moore's "A Visit From St. Nicholas."

The church choir will sing "Anthem of the Sky," and the congregation will sing "Angels From the Realms of Glory," "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," and "Joy to the World."

The special Christmas services of the Hilltop Church of Christ on Sunday, Dec. 21, will feature a Decision Day service at 10:30 a. m. At this service a special invitation will be given to all members of the Church of Christ (Disciples) who are living on the Hilltop to transfer their membership to the local congregation.

The annual Christmas program for children will be given at 7:30 p. m., Sunday, in which all three Sunday School departments will participate and the children will receive their annual treat. The program is under the supervision of Mrs. E. O. Wilkes, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Dvart, junior superintendent, and Mrs. A. R. Pyke, beginner's department superintendent.

Cantata Will Be Given By Westgate Choir

Hospital Patient Is Listed As Suicide

Funeral services for Roy Drake, 36, a patient at the Columbus State Hospital, were held Wednesday at the Floyd Born Funeral Home.

Drake was found dead Sunday in a feed shed at the hospital with a bullet wound in his temple and another in his chest. Sheriff Ralph J. Paul called the death a suicide.

The patient had been allowed to use a .22-caliber rifle to shoot rats. The rifle was found a short distance from his body along with a letter addressed to his daughter, Mrs. Fanny Rudd, Meadville, Pa., in which he asked her not to buy him any Christmas presents, but use the money to care for his pet dog.

In the middle of the letter were inserted the words: "Cremate my body."

Besides his daughter, Drake is survived by two brothers, Ralph Drake, also of Meadville, and Theodore Drake, 984 Kleiner-av, and a sister, Mrs. Clinton Spangler, 717 S. Terrace-av. The body will be cremated according to his request.

1500 "Forgotten" Patients Will Be Remembered Here

By Bob Wiener

Ten years ago this Christmas a man and a woman walked through the wards at the Columbus State Hospital. They were watching the patients open Christmas presents received from friends and relatives. They saw also that many patients had no gifts at all. These patients either had no relatives or friends on the outside or they were just forgotten. They looked at their more fortunate companions with envious eyes. Christmas for them was not a joyous occasion.

The man and woman who saw these things were Dr. J. F. Bateman, the new superintendent, and his wife. They both realized that Christmas meant very little for those patients who were completely forgotten. They determined to do something about it and they did.

This year, for the ninth consecutive time, every patient at the hospital is sure of getting a gift because Dr. and Mrs. Bateman started the very next year collecting gifts for those who ordinarily would get none. The gifts have been made available through donations from Hilltoppers and others who have contributed small items and money each year.

Mrs. Bateman has taken an active interest in the welfare of the patients since she first saw, 10 years ago, that come of them were not remembered at Christmas. Now she collects the gifts that are contributed each year and buys gifts with the money that is donated. Some of the gifts are bought with proceeds obtained from the sale of needlework and handicraft items at the hospital. All of this money is placed in an "industrial and educational fund," which is used throughout the year for the entertainment of the patients.

1500 Forgotten By Friends

According to Mrs. Bateman, 1500 of the 2800 patients at the hospital are not remembered by friends or relatives at Christmas. It is for these persons that gifts are collected from Hilltoppers or bought with money from the "I and E" fund.

Every ward has its Christmas tree complete with decorations and colored lights. Sick wards have table top trees only. In addition the dining rooms, halls, and the club room are also decorated.

Numerous parties are held for the patients throughout the Christmas season. These are planned by Mrs. Ethel Reynolds, director of recreation. The biggest one to be held, Dec. 23, is for those patients who are "workers" at the hospital. There are about 700 patients who work voluntarily in the kitchen, wards, laundry, grounds, etc. At this party the men will get cigarettes and the women will receive candy.

Individual parties for workers in the various departments will be held during the week preceding Christmas. On Dec. 18, members of the Reams Club of Arlington will bring refreshments and hold a party for the hospital choir and the workers in the recreation department. An afternoon party for occupational therapy workers will be held Dec. 19, with a special program of music by an outside string quartet highlighting the entertainment.

A party for laundry workers will be held Dec. 20, with entertainment being given by Chapter 206, Women of the Moose. The Christmas party for sewing workers, who do the mending of sheets, pillow slips, clothes, etc., will take place Dec. 22. Another party on the same day will be given for kitchen and dining room workers.

Big Dinner Planned

On Christmas morning all the gifts sent in by relatives and friends and those bought through the "I and E" fund or donated by Hilltoppers will be distributed at the same time. Two men dressed as Santa Clauses make the distribution. At noon a big Christmas dinner with all the trimmings will be served to the patients. During the afternoon visitors will be permitted at the hospital.

Special Catholic and Protestant religious services will be held on the Sunday before Christmas, Dec. 21. A post-Christmas party and entertainment will be given, Dec. 29, by the Keith School of Dancing, with the Hammond Entertainers.

Although these parties help to brighten life at the hospital during the Christmas season, Mrs. Bateman said there is still a need for more gifts. She expressed her appreciation to Hilltop residents for the manner in which they have answered her appeal for gifts so far this year and in past years.

Anyone desiring to contribute a small gift may leave it at one of the four collection stations set up on the Hilltop. These are at The Hilltop Record, 2465 W. Broad-st; Seiler's, 2404 W. Broad-st; Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av, and the Westgate Pharmacy, 2089 W. Broad-st.

Our Readers Say

KINDS OF FOLKS

Editor, The Hilltop Record

There are those who live in some tomorrow, yesterday is gone and from today they borrow. There are those who weep when they ought to smile, and there are those who frown on the second mile.

There is the kind who will and the kind who won't, and the kind who do and the kind who don't. There are those who refuse and those who complain, when it is not within their realm to reign.

There are those who take what they ought to give, and there are those who die when they ought to live. There are those who are weak and those who are strong, there are those who drift with the wandering throng.

There are those who win and those who lose, the difference between is the way they choose. There are those who fail and those who succeed, the difference between is the tale of a deed.

We are in this game to win or lose, it is ours to decide, we can't refuse. O. H. C.

Columbus.

To The Editor:

It is a great tribute of respect to the departed to surround the temple of clay in which the real individual has lived with flowers. It is a comfort to the living relatives and friends to know that their departed loved one was held in such high esteem. While giving flowers on such occasions is a fine custom and one that should be continued, yet to the writer it seems far better to give flowers to the living while they can enjoy their fragrance and beauty. And again, why wait until people are dead to say nice things about them. Eulogies about the dead are fine things. Praise their virtues and bury their imperfections with the tentament of clay.

But why not praise the living as well as the dead? If someone has done something commendable, tell them so when they can hear the commendations.

I am thinking of our public servants. They should receive words of encouragement when unthinking citizens put them on the spot and then criticise them for trying to get out of the dilema which the people themselves voted on our public servants.

As a property holder and tax payer in Columbus, I want to commend the stand taken by our councilmen on the payroll tax question. It takes courage to vote unanimously on a question which was not one of their choice, but one which was forced upon them by the people, when faced with stern opposition.

I believe wholeheartedly in a democracy, such as our own government. I believe that everybody should have the right to vote. I spoke above of the unthinking citizens voting for or against some question without analyzing what the result would be. I wonder how many people who voted for the hour reduction of the firemen realized that they were reducing our fire protection efficiency 45 per cent. Already our fire protection was spread too thin owing to the growth of Columbus in population. Then in the face of this already thin protection to reduce it 45 per cent more by reducing the hour service 32 less of each fireman is something to think about. There is no doubt in the mind of the writer that many who voted favorably for this reduction are now opposing our councilmen who are courageously endeavoring to plug up this deficiency in fire protection by enacting an ordinance which will enable them to hire additional men to make up for the loss of hour service in the fire department.

It is for this that I want to commend our council for the stand they have taken in endeavoring to protect the citizenry of Columbus against loss by fire due to a too thinly spread fire protection.

Let me say here and now that I am opposed to high taxes, but when a tax is necessary for the general welfare of the public, let's have it. Furthermore, I have faith in the thinking public that if it comes to a showdown their votes will uphold the action of our councilmen.

Stamp It Out!

HILL TOPICS —By PW—

To paraphrase the words of a song that was popular a few years ago, "We've Got Bells That Jingle Jangle Jingle." Telephone bells, that is.

Here at the Record office we just had a third telephone line installed to better handle the increasing volume of incoming and outgoing calls. In spite of Kingfish's (Amos and Andy fame) opinion on last week's broadcast that Alexander Bell's invention (or was it Don Ameche?) is not here to stay, Ohio Bell extended its facilities by one more line. Now there's a continual ringing of bells, buzzing of buzzers and flashing of lights as we try to figure out which line to answer when something starts happening. The three signal lights are the latest addition to the system. They look almost like traffic signals except that they are mounted on the wall instead of hanging overhead and one of them is white instead of amber. So don't be discouraged if you have occasion to call in and get connected with the stereotyper's department instead of the society editor. We'll get used to the new contraption eventually.

Now what I would like to see is a traffic light installed in the aisleway next to my desk to slow down traffic from shop to office and vice versa.

The Open Hearth

The old open fireplace is almost a thing of the past as far as a means of heating is concerned but many are the folks around the Hilltop who recall the family circle that gathered there nightly. It was a part of the home life that can never be forgotten even though as a means of heating it never was very practical.

My uncle used to say that in cold weather you burn on one side and freeze on the other but he still prefers it to the closed heating stove in the center of the room. There's no romance in staring at a furnace register whilst toasting your shins, neither can you pop corn or roast chestnuts over the present day heating gadgets.

Like hundreds of others who were raised in the country, I learned the three R's in front of the open grate without the aid of a squawking radio program. Our diversion after the lessons were done for the evening was a game of checkers or dominos. There was usually some popcorn to be had for the popping and always a barrel of apples in the cellar. Once in a while some of the neighbors would drop in for a chat or we would be permitted to go visiting.

I'll never forget when one of our neighbors finally installed a pipeless furnace. My uncle said it would never work. I can still recall how we all marveled at the mass of hot air that emanated from the big register in the open hallway and wondered how hot it could get before the house would burn down.

Yes, the open fireplace has gone the way of the horse and buggy but some folks will ever treasure its memory.

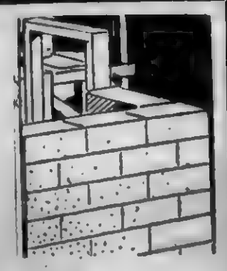
Big Bounce

Duke Reynolds, who fries the hamburgers at Helen's Sandwich Shop, claims at least three unusual accomplishments in athletics.



He has made a hole-in-one on the golf course and ran 100 yards for a touchdown on the gridiron but his most spectacular feat was performed on the basketball court. It all happened when Duke was playing with an intermediate church league at Crestview Junior High School. According to his story, he was dribbling the ball madly down the court when he was purposely tripped by an opponent. When he fell, the ball hit the floor so hard it bounced up and over one of the rafters in the ceiling, back down onto the hardwood court and back up for a perfect bucket. After much discussion, the basket was allowed on the grounds that it had not touched the ceiling.

That's what the man said.

"Y" Boys' Branch Expands Work

Under the direction of Dan Lotz, who recently joined the YMCA Boys' Branch staff, a very unusual program of physical education for boys is developing. Running and gymnastic skills, as well as proficiency in group and team games, are emphasized.

Special attention is being given to boys who lack cordination and are timid or shy because of their lack of skill.

Mr. Lotz is a graduate of Springfield College and completed a year of graduate work at George Williams College. In both institutions, he combined study of group work with physical education. He is assisted by Tom Carter, a physical education major at Ohio State, and by Joe Lahader, A student at Ohio State, who has taught gymnastics at the West Side YMCA in New York City.

Boys with outstanding skill are organized into a Junior Leaders' Club and assist in the gym and swimming class activities.

Also on the boys' branch staff is George Holbrook, a group work major at Ohio State, who instructs in all levels of aquatic skills, from beginning to life saving. His boys' swimming team is scheduling matches with similar YMCA groups in other Ohio cities. Mr. Lotz is also outstanding in the field of aquatics, having captained the swimming team at Springfield College and was a member of the New England A. A. U. championship relay team in 1941. Before coming to Columbus, he taught aquatics in the Chicago Southtown YMCA.

Many boys have taken advantage of this excellent program at the Central YMCA, at 40 W. Long-st. Parents desiring information may call AD. 1131.

Sneak Thieves Are Lifting Pocketbooks

Police again warned Christmas shoppers last week to watch their pocketbooks after a number of women reported thefts while they were in the downtown area.

Two Hilltop women were among the victims. Mrs. J. J. Reed, 611 Wrexham-av, reported her billfold containing $30 was stolen, while Barbara Tallman, 257 S. Terrace-av, lost $16 to a sneak thief who rifled her shoulder bag as she examined merchandise.

Mildred And Mose Williams Tell Of Interesting Trip

By Libby Downing

Sept. 14 was a "big day" in the lives of the Mose Williams' of 2581 Steele-av, because it meant beginning a trip which they had planned for several years and had even then postponed due to the curtailment of travel during the war.

Better known to Hilltoppers as Mildred and Mose, the Williams' spent nine weeks traveling in all, going north, south and west. At various stops along the way they visited with 10 young men who had served in the armed forces with their late son, Gayle V. Williams, who served during the war as a night fighter on the Independence.

Their first stop was in Indianapolis. They crossed the Mississippi River at Burlington, Ia., and the Missouri just north of Omaha. The "Old Mormon Trail" impressed them with its replicas of covered wagons. Columbus, Grand Island and Kerney, Nebr., followed in rapid succession. Just before reaching Cheyenne, Wyo., where they spent the evening, they visited the home of Buffalo Bill. "In Cheyenne," said Mrs. Williams, "all the street signs read 'boots, saddles, hats'."

Turning south, Denver, Colo., was the next stop. Just outside the city stands a billboard reading, "We Want Your Hide." Crossing the Rockies, they drove 158 miles to reach a point 88 miles from Denver, seeing the Big Thompson Canyon, Roosevelt National Forest, Estes Park, Rocky Mountain Park and Eagle Ridge. Yampa Valley afforded them an evening's lodging.

Frost appeared on the windshield at Steamboat Springs where the thermometer had dropped to 21 degrees (in September). Continuing to Craig, Colo., and through the desert, they arrived at Salt Lake City. Brigham Young and his 10,000 followers settled there after he had remarked, "This is the place!" This saying is on all the license plates. The Mormon Tabernacle was another awe inspiring sight according to the "wandering Williams'".

Ate Elk Steaks

In Pocatello, Idaho, where they visited friends, they enjoyed elk steaks for the first time.

On Sept. 23, they reached Yellowstone National Park, which very definitely was the highlight of their entire trip. They saw the Lower Geyser Basin, the Fountain Paint Pot, Fountain Geyser, Morning Glory Pool, Old Faithful, the Lake Shore Geyser, the Fishing Cone, the Dragon's Mouth (a mud volcano), and the Yellowstone Falls. They spent two days in the park.

They drove through Montana, then north to Spokane and visited Lockout Mountain Pass, toured Grand Coulee Dam and the Petrified Forest.

Seattle was next on the itinerary, with its Pontoon Bridge, City Market (displays of Japanese produce) and "wonderful weather." Mt. Ranier was another spectacle worthy of mention. They crossed to British Columbia by boat, lunched at the Empress Hotel and then went south through Tacoma and Olympia, following the Columbia River into Portland. They ventured to Mt. Hood from Portland, seeing fields of gladioli, dahlias and chrysanthemums.

Bonneville Dam, "The Bridge of the Gods," and Oregon City completed their northwest tour and they drove into California. In Yreka, Calif., they visited Rev. Kenneth Linton, a former Hilltopper. Crossing to Reno and Virginia City, Nev., they marveled at all the things reminiscent of the old "Roaring West" days.

On Tahoe Mountain they skidded in the snow for some time but without mishap.

Back in San Francisco, they dined at Omar Khayyam's. In the Mark Hopkins Hotel on Nob Hill they visited the "Top of the Mark", the top floor of the building, with glass windows from floor to ceiling. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Findlay, also former Hilltoppers. Something not to be missed was crossing the Golden Gate Bridge. They stopped in Palo Alto, the home of Stanford University. In Monterey they saw the Bird and Seal Rocks, and visited Carmel by the Sea (the rich man's paradise).

Visit Los Angeles

Los Angeles held them in tow for 11 days. They spent their time visiting Sid Grauman's Chinese Theatre, the Biltmore Bowl, Forest Lawn Cemetery, an Earl Carroll show, saw "The Drunkard," which has been running daily for 14 years, and ate at the Brown Derby. They visited Clem Bevans, elderly movie star, whom they had met when he visited in Columbus and dined at Chinatown.

They stopped at the Rose Bowl but due to the shooting of pictures were not admitted.

At Santa Anita race track they saw the bronze statue of "Sea Biscuit," then stopped at Tom Breneman's, the Farmers Market and the Cocoanut Grove. They visited three days at Laguna Beach; saw the San Juan Capistrano Mission, went to Long Beach, San Diego, ferried to Coronado, and from there visited Tiajuana in old Mexico.

They returned to Columbus by a southern route, passing through Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky, and ended their journey by spending their last night in Cincinnati before returning to the Hilltop Nov. 20.

Janis To Be Soloist With Philharmonic

Izler Solomon, director of the Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra, is announcing the return engagement of Byron Janis, 19-year-old pianist, who will make his third appearance as guest soloist with the Philharmonic on the regular Saturday night "Pop" concert program, Dec. 30, playing "Tschaikowsky's Concert No. 1" for piano and orchestra.

Burned In Blast

First and second degree burns were suffered Thursday by Arthur Leiberman, 25, when a defective oil furnace exploded. Following the explosion he drove his car to Mt. Carmel Hospital for treatment. He is a part-owner of the A & H Paint Co., 472 Brehl-av.

Leather stores now are selling a product which is said to prevent mildew and mold on book covers.

Impressive Christmas Program Is Presented By West Vocal Students

An impressive program interpreting the true spirit of Christmas was presented by the voice students at West High School Thursday night under the direction of Mrs. Colleen Welde, a newcomer to the teaching staff at the local school.

The program was unique for a public school presentation in that the religious atmosphere was maintained throughout without sacrificing entertainment for young and old alike. It was the type of program one would expect to hear from a church choir.

The cantata, "Childe Jesus," by Clokey and Kirk, opened the program. It was done with the stage in total darkness except for light streaming through a beautiful religious window backstage. Soloists were picked up with a weak spotlight upstage.

Richard Bowles sang the baritone recitative and doubled in a tenor role for a trio number. The production could have used several more male voices to good effect but it was nicely presented without a noticeable flaw. Charles W. Bennett accompanied the number at the console of an electric organ. Alice Mercer played the piano accompaniment.

At the end of the cantata, the audience found itself in a position of wanting to express its appreciation but hesitating to applaud for fear of being out of keeping with the religious setting.

The remainder of the program was a dream fantasy as told to two children by their grandfather on Christmas Eve. It was made up of carol selections, a trio and a solo. It ended with the increasingly popular "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," by Moore. This was sung by the massed choir in the background. Choir members were dressed all in white with only small electric candles for light. It presented a beautiful Christmas setting. The program was closed by the choir singing "Silent Night," by Gruber.

High spot of the fantasy numbers was Mary Lou Mangold, dressed as a street urchin while she sang Petro A. Yon's "Jesu Bambino." A trio composed of Alice Mercer, Martha Brown and Lois Stansell gave a fine rendition of "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Bill Hawes was convincing in his role of Grandfather while the two grandchildren were well played by Joe Gossett as Johnnie, and Phillis Hartsock as Susie. Don Eisele was the Santa Claus.

The stage settings, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Hall, were especially appropriate.

Local Deer Hunters Are In Auto Mishap

Four Hilltop men enroute to Pennsylvania on a deer hunting trip were victims of a freak accident at Cambridge last week.

As their auto, driven by Wesley P. Lucas, 21, 2950½ Valleyview-dr, was traveling east through Cambridge, the trailer of a truck owned by Suburban Motor Freight, Inc., broke loose ahead of them and sped down the steep hill at the Wheeling-av viaduct, striking the automobile at the bottom of the hill.

Lucas suffered a fractured left arm, facial cuts, and body bruises. His companions, Walter Mayer, 41, and Frederick Mayer, 21, 2339 Lenore-av, and Paul W. Simpson, 23, of 660 S. Richardson-av, all suffered cuts and bruises.

The men were taken to Swan Hospital in Cambridge and were released after treatment.

HARDY'S SHOPALL OPENING DEC. 19-20

Drug Store, Grocery In Shopall

Hardy's Shopall, corner of Eureka and Sullivant, opening this week-end, offers the public combined shopping facilities of an up-to-date grocery, meat market and drug store.

Entrance to the new store will be through the drug store side next to Eureka-av.

The drug store will carry a complete line of merchandise commonly sold in the modern drug store including cosmetics, gifts, drugs of all kinds.

Remple A. Russell, for many years a Hilltop pharmacist, will be on hand as registered pharmacist for the firm.

A line of magazines and papers will be featured on the news stand.

A modern soda fountain featuring all the taste delights of a well equipped fountain will be in operation through the store's open hours.

Three Free Deliveries Daily

Three deliveries daily will be offered Hardy patrons through the facilities of the Hilltop Delivery Service. This applies to either drugs or groceries.

Telephone number of the firm is RA. 1466 and RA. 2337.

Snow Crop Line Is Featured

Among the products that Hardy's Shopall at Eureka and Sullivant-avs will feature are Snow Crop Frozen Foods. There are 40 varieties of Snow Crop Frozen Foods to choose from and a large selection of fruits, vegetables, poultry and fish will be on hand. These frozen foods insure enjoyment of that "picked-this-morning-flavor" of sun-grown fruits and vegetables all year long.

Free Parking Is Offered Patrons

Parking, that increasingly important problem to all shoppers is available, free of charge to Hardy Shopall patrons. Just drive to the rear of the store and park the car while you do your shopping inside.

Merchandise Well Displayed In New Store

Eddie Says: Good Meat? You Bet!

New Store Offers Many Services

This supplement in The Hilltop Record serves as an invitation to residents of the community to attend the formal opening of the new Hardy Shopall, corner of S. Eureka and Sullivant-aves, this Friday and Saturday, Dec. 19 - 20.

John Hardy, 843 S. Eureka-av, and his father, Joseph Hardy, 124 Algonquin-av, partners in the firm, extend a cordial invitation to the public to see their new store.

The Shopall will combine the facilities of a modern grocery, meat market and drug store.

Attention is called to the advertisements of the firm in this special tabloid supplement featuring many specials for the week-end. In addition numerous awards will be made during the opening. Details may be secured at the store.

There will be special food demonstrations during the two days.

Free parking for Hardy patrons is available immediately in the rear of the store.

Either of the Hardys will be on duty each evening.

Ed Mynes, 1114 Champion-av, is in charge of the meat department.

Richard Anderson, 593 Butler-av, will be employed at the store during evenings.

Bob Price will have charge of the soda fountain in the evenings.

Free delivery is furnished patrons of the store through the Hilltop Delivery Service.

The store will be open daily from 8:30 a. m. until 10:30 p. m.

Free Prizes To Be Given Away

Several baskets of foods will be given to visitors to the new Hardy Shopall this week-end. John Hardy advised that he has several other prizes, details of which will be made known at the opening. All visitors are welcome to a chance for a prize, there being no obligation involved.

Semi-Self Serve Service

Hardy's Shopall offers semi-self serve service. You may help yourself or a clerk will wait on you if you desire.

The Hilltop Record office will close at noon Wednesday for the Christmas holiday and will reopen Friday morning.

Copy deadlines for next week's New Year's issue of The Hilltop Record will be the same as those observed this week. The paper will be published Tuesday morning, Dec. 30.

All church announcements must be in by Saturday noon, Dec. 27. All other news items and display advertising copy will be accepted up until 3 p. m. Saturday. Classified ads will be taken until 9 a. m. Monday.

Children's Party To Be Saturday At Teen Club

The youngsters of the Hilltop —twelve years of age and young- —will gather at the Hilltop Teen Canteen Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the Hilltop Community Council's third annual Christmas party.

A number of grade and parochial school students will take part in the community-wide event this year. A huge Christmas tree has been decorated by the members of the Teen Canteen, and members of the Camp Fire Girls, under the supervision of Mrs. A. R. Page, 65 N. Powell-av, will assist Santa Claus in passing out the Christmas treat.

Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st, this year's chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av; Mrs. O. E. Bradtute, 345 S. Ogden-av; Mrs. Roy W. Hustilow, 197 Midland-av; Charles P. Maus and Melvin Griggs, of the Canteen.

Mother Receives Son's War Honors

Last week a Hilltop mother received medals commemorating the heroic conduct of her son who was listed as one of the casualties of World War II.

Mrs. Talitha Biggs, 327 Wrexham-av, received the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, awarded posthumously to her son, Cpl. William A. Biggs, for meritorious service from May to July, 1945.

Cpl. Biggs was a radio operator on a B-25 reported missing in action after a bombing raid in July, 1945, against a Japanese-held island in the Pacific.

Mrs. Biggs also received the Good Conduct Medal, Air Crew Member Wings and a radio operator's badge awarded her son.

With only two days remaining before Christmas, the Hilltop prepares to celebrate one of the most sacred of all religious holidays.

While practically all churches and most civic and fraternal groups and schools have already presented programs in keeping with the spirit of Christmas, for most of the residents of the community the material aspects will far outweigh the spiritual observance. Most stores here as in other sections of the city and nation are reporting the largest Christmas buying spree on record.

All schools closed on Friday and will not reopen until Jan. 5, thus providing pupils with a full two weeks of uninterrupted vacation. For the hundreds of employes of the postal service and the retail stores of the city, the holiday can't arrive too soon. All last week the post offices were jammed with persons mailing packages and greeting cards. Coming as it did on top of an already heavy December volume of mail, there was no assurance that all of it could be delivered by Christmas Eve.

Here is the way Christmas is being celebrated in some institutions on the Hilltop.

Schools Have Programs

Every school in the community had some type of sacred observance of the Christmas season before classes were dismissed on Friday. Special assemblies with Christmas trees were the order of the day.

Churches and Sunday Schools in many cases had their programs last week or on Sunday. Several Christmas Eve programs are scheduled and some churches will have services on Christmas morning.

The Hilltop Branch Library will be closed all day Dec. 24 and 25, and again on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

Westway Post No. 3441, VFW, and its auxiliary had a big Christmas party at club headquarters, 2393½ W. Broad-st, on Friday night for all members and their families. Likewise the West High Band Parents Club entertained more than 500 young musicians and their parents at a party held at the school Wednesday evening.

A big party was put on for boys and girls of all ages at the Glenwood Shelter House Monday afternoon and evening.

Another party for the boys and girls of the community is being planned at the Teen Canteen on the afternoon of Dec. 27, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ray Cave is in charge of the party being put on by the Hilltop Community Council.

Patients Remembered

At the Columbus State Hospital 2600 patients will celebrate the Christmas season with trees and parties in every ward. There will be gifts and candy for every patient. Members of the staff have been busy for days wrapping gifts donated by Columbus residents for more than 1500 of the patients who are otherwise forgotten by friends or relatives. One of the biggest of the parties planned is that for the "workers", those patients who volunteer their services in the various wards, the kitchen, laundry, grounds, etc. This is held today. On Dec. 29 a post-Christmas party and entertainment will be given by the Keith School of Dancing with the Hammond Entertainers.

At the Columbus State School more than 40 Christmas trees are trimmed and ready to help spread joy throughout the grounds that are home to 200 boys, girls and adults. Here again, every patient will get at least one gift. Many of these must be provided from the "industrial amusement fund" or

Boothe, Hoelcher Are Selected As Class Speakers

By Casey

The newly elected speakers for the Jan. 28 commencement ceremony to be held at 8 p. m. in West High auditorium are Norris Boothe and Ruth Hoelcher.

Jack Thrush and Alice Mercer will serve as alternates in case of illness to the speakers.

Ruth will speak on "The Next Four Years," and Norris will speak on "The Power of Education." Each speech will be five minutes in length.

Tryouts were held Thursday, Dec. 18, during the third and fourth periods.

The contestants were judged on content and delivery by the following teachers: Lucian Copley, dramatics instructor; Myron T. Seifert, English and journalism teacher; Katherine Gress, English teacher; Mrs. Jane Thomas, English teacher; and Mrs. Mary Dugan, English teacher.

Sneak Thieves Are Lifting Pocketbooks

Police again warned Christmas shoppers last week to watch their pocketbooks after a number of women reported thefts while they were in the downtown area.

Two Hilltop women were among the victims. Mrs. J. J. Reed, 611 Wrexham-av, reported her billfold containing $30 was stolen, while Barbara Tallman, 257 S. Terrace-av, lost $16 to a sneak thief who rifled her shoulder bag as she examined merchandise.

Mildred And Mose Williams Tell Of Interesting Trip

By Libby Downing

Sept. 14 was a "big day" in the lives of the Mose Williams' of 2561 Steele-av, because it meant beginning a trip which they had planned for several years and had even then postponed due to the curtailment of travel during the war.

Better known to Hilltoppers as Mildred and Mose, the Williams' spent nine weeks traveling in all, going north, south and west. At various stops along the way they visited with 10 young men who had served in the armed forces with their late son, Gayle V. Williams, who served during the war as a night fighter on the Independence.

Their first stop was in Indianapolis. They crossed the Mississippi River at Burlington, Ia., and the Missouri just north of Omaha. The "Old Mormon Trail" impressed them with its replicas of covered wagons. Columbus, Grand Island and Kerney, Nebr., followed in rapid succession. Just before reaching Cheyenne, Wyo., where they spent the evening, they visited the home of Buffalo Bill. "In Cheyenne," said Mrs. Williams, "all the street signs read 'boots, saddles, hats'."

Turning south, Denver, Colo., was the next stop. Just outside the city stands a billboard reading, "We Want Your Hide." Crossing the Rockies, they drove 158 miles to reach a point 88 miles from Denver, seeing the Big Thompson Canyon, Roosevelt National Forest, Estes Park, Rocky Mountain Park and Eagle Ridge. Yampa Valley afforded them an evening's lodging.

Frost appeared on the windshield at Steamboat Springs where the thermometer had dropped to 21 degrees (in September). Continuing to Craig, Colo., and through the desert, they arrived at Salt Lake City. Brigham Young and his 10,000 followers settled there after he had remarked, "This is the place!" This saying is on all the license plates. The Mormon Tabernacle was another awe inspiring sight according to the "wandering Williams' ".

Ate Elk Steaks

In Pocatello, Idaho, where they visited friends, they enjoyed elk steaks for the first time.

On Sept. 23, they reached Yellowstone National Park, which very definitely was the highlight of their entire trip. They saw the Lower Geyser Basin, the Fountain Paint Pot, Fountain Geyser, Morning Glory Pool, Old Faithful, the Lake Shore Geyser, the Fishing Cone, the Dragon's Mouth (a mud volcano), and the Yellowstone Falls. They spent tw[o] in the park.

They drove through Mc[K] then north to Spokane and [the] Lockout Mountain Pass, [the] Grand Coulee Dam and the [Co]fied Forest.

Seattle was next on the [i]ary, with its Pontoon Bridg[e] Market (displays of Ja[p]ese produce) and "wonderful [Fer]er." Mt. Ranier was another [spec]tacle worthy of mention. [They] crossed to British Columbia [by] boat, lunched at the Empr[ess] tel and then went south t[o] Tacoma and Olympia, [to] the Columbia River Int[er]land. They ventured to M[t.] from Portland, seeing f[ields] gladioli, dahlias and chry[san]mums.

Bonneville Dam, "The [Gate] of the Gods," and Oreg[on] completed their northwe[st] and they drove into Ca[li]In Yreka, Calif., they visit[ed] Kenneth Linton, a form[er] topper. Crossing to Reno a[nd] ginia City, Nev., they mar[ve]all the things reminiscen[t of] old "Roaring West" days.

On Tahoe Mountain the[y] ded in the snow for so[me] but without mishap.

Back in San Francis[co] dined at Omar Khayyam's [in] Mark Hopkins Hotel on [Nob] they visited the "Top [of] Mark", the top floor of th[e] ing, with glass windo[ws] floor to ceiling. They visi[ted] Mr. and Mrs. Robert Find[ley] former Hilltoppers. S[ome]not to be missed was cro[ssing] Golden Gate Bridge. Th[ey] ped in Palo Alto, the [home] Stanford University. In [it] they saw the Bird and Se[a] and visited Carmel by [the] (the rich man's paradise)

Visit Los Angeles

Los Angeles held ther[e] for 11 days. They spent t[he] visiting Sid Grauman's [Chi]Theatre, the Biltmore B[owl] est Lawn Cemetery, an[d] roll show, saw "The D[esert] which has been running [for] 14 years, and ate at th[e] Derby. They visited Cleo[pa]elderly movie star, wh[om] had met when he visite[d] lumbus and dined at Ch[ez].

They stopped at the B[ow]but due to the shootin[g] tures were not admitte[d].

At Santa Anita race t[rack] saw the bronze statue of [Se]cuit," then stopped at T[om]neman's, the Farmers M[ar]the Cocoanut Grove. Th[ree] three days at Laguna B[each] the San Juan Capistran[o] went to Long Beach, S[an] ferried to Coronado, [and] there visited Tiajuana in [Mex]ico.

They returned to Col[o.] a southern route, passin[g] Arizona, New Mexic[o] Louisiana, Mississippi, [Ala]and ended their jo[ur]spending their last nig[ht] cinnati before returni[ng] Hilltop Nov. 20.

Janis To Be Soloist With Philharmonic

Izler Solomon, director of the Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra, is announcing the return engagement of Byron Janis, 19-year-old pianist, who will make his third appearance as guest soloist with the Philharmonic on the regular Saturday night "Pop" concert program, Dec. 20, playing "Tschaikowsky's Concert No. 1" for piano and orchestra.

Burned In Blast

First and second degree burns were suffered Thursday by Arthur Leiberman, 25, when a defective oil furnace exploded. Following the explosion he drove his car to Mt. Carmel Hospital for treatment. He is a part-owner of the A & H Paint Co., 472 Brehl-av.

Leather stores now are selling a product which is said to prevent mildew and mold on book covers.

Impressive Christmas Program Is Presented By West Vocal Students

An impressive program interpreting the true spirit of Christmas was presented by the voice students at West High School Thursday night under the direction of Mrs. Colleen Welde, a newcomer to the teaching staff at the local school.

The program was unique for a public school presentation in that the religious atmosphere was maintained throughout without sacrificing entertainment for young and old alike. It was the type of program one would expect to hear from a church choir.

The cantata, "Childe Jesus," by Clokey and Kirk, opened the program. It was done with the stage in total darkness except for light streaming through a beautiful religious window backstage. Soloists were picked up with a weak spotlight upstage.

Richard Bowles sang the baritone recitative and doubled in a tenor role for a trio number. The production could have used several more male voices to good effect but it was nicely presented without a noticeable flaw. Charles W. Bennett, accompanied the number at the console of an electric organ. Alice Mercer played the piano accompaniment.

At the end of the cantata, the audience found itself in a position of wanting to express its appreciation but hesitating to applaud for fear of being out of keeping with the religious setting.

The remainder of the program was a dream fantasy as told to two children by their grandfather on Christmas Eve. It was made up of carol selections, a trio and a solo. It ended with the increasingly popular "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," by Moore. This was sung by the massed choir in the background. Choir members were dressed all in white with only small electric candles for light. It presented a beautiful Christmas setting. The program was closed by the choir singing "Silent Night," by Gruber.

High spot of the fantasy numbers was Mary Lou Mangold, dressed as a street urchin while she sang Petro A. Yon's "Jesu Bambino." A trio composed of Alice Mercer, Martha Brown and Lois Stansell gave a fine rendition of "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Bill Hawes was convincing in his role of Grandfather while the two grandchildren were well played by Joe Gossett as Johnnie, and Phillis Hartsock as Susie. Don Eisele was the Santa Claus.

The stage settings, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Hall, were especially appropriate.

Local Deer Hunters Are In Auto Mishap

Four Hilltop men enroute to Pennsylvania on a deer hunting trip were victims of a freak accident at Cambridge last week.

As their auto, driven by Wesley P. Lucas, 21, 2950½ Valleyview-dr, was traveling east through Cambridge, the trailer of a truck owned by Suburban Motor Freight, Inc., broke loose ahead of them and sped down the steep hill at the Wheeling-av viaduct, striking the automobile at the bottom of the hill.

Lucas suffered a fractured left arm, facial cuts, and body bruises. His companions, Walter Mayer, 41, and Frederick Mayer, 21, 2339 Lenore-av, and Paul W. Simpson, 23, of 650 S. Richardson-av, all suffered cuts and bruises.

The men were taken to Swan Hospital in Cambridge and were released after treatment.

Store Has Well Displayed Vegetables

Here is another view of the new Hardy Shopall showing the vegetables and fruit display. Joseph Hardy is standing by ready to serve Hardy customers.

John Hardy Well Known Among Hilltop Business Men As Worker

John Hardy is a well known and popular groceryman on the Hilltop. He came to this community when he purchased his store in 1945 from C. H. Hamilton.

Previous to that time he had been in the coal business.

John was born at Rendville in Perry County and came to Columbus when his folks moved here when he was one and a half years old.

He attended Cathedral Grade School and later graduated from Aquinas High School.

He has been an active member of the Hilltop Business Association.

John comes from a family of store operators. His dad was in the confectionery business as was his grandfather. So operating a grocery is not new business to John.

When coal supplies were scarce during the war he decided to get into the grocery business and decided that the Hilltop was a fine place to locate. His step in enlarging his store here to include the drug department is proof of his faith in this community.

Tips for Lunch Boxes

Lunch boxes can be a real treat instead of merely providing another meal for the youngsters Make lunch time at school something for your child to look forward to. And here are a few suggestions to make lunches more interesting for the children.

Have an attractive container for the lunch. Buy one of the new metal boxes that come in bright colors and are equipped with thermos bottles, or fix up a little straw basket with the necessary items.

Always see that your child has something warm to eat at noon. You can use a thermos bottle for this purpose, or give him money to buy a hot dish at school. A hot dish aids digestion and makes the whole lunch taste better.

Don't get in a rut. Put on your thinking cap. Children get tired of the same thing every day.

Go slow on rich cake, doughnuts, and white bread. And use as much color as possible. It will make lunch time more fun, and food will actually taste better.

Johnnycake Recipe

What could be more welcome than freshly baked Johnnycake these cold winter days? This recipe is easy to make and ideal for those early morning breakfasts before you send the children off to school.

1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup wheat meal
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
¾ cup milk
4 tablespoons melted shortening

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, wheat meal and sugar. Combine eggs and milk. Add to flour mixture, add shortening, then mix only enough to dampen flour. Turn into greased pan, 9x9x2 inches, and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 30 minutes, or until done.

Record Office To Close Wed. Noon

The Hilltop Record office will close at noon Wednesday for the Christmas holiday and will reopen Friday morning.

Copy deadlines for next week's New Year's issue of The Hilltop Record will be the same as those observed this week. The paper will be published Tuesday morning, Dec. 30.

All church announcements must be in by Saturday noon, Dec. 27. All other news items and display advertising copy will be accepted up until 3 p. m. Saturday. Classified ads will be taken until 9 a. m. Monday.

Children's Party To Be Saturday At Teen Club

The youngsters of the Hilltop —twelve years of age and young- —will gather at the Hilltop Teen Canteen Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the Hilltop Community Council's third annual Christmas party.

A number of grade and parochial school students will take part in the community-wide event this year. A huge Christmas tree has been decorated by the members of the Teen Canteen, and members of the Camp Fire Girls, under the supervision of Mrs. A. R. Page, 65 N. Powell-av, will assist Santa Claus in passing out the Christmas treat.

Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st, this year's chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Earl Abrom, 100 N. Huron-av; Mrs. O. E. Bradfute, 345 S. Ogden-av; Mrs. Roy W. Hustilow, 197 Midland-av; Charles P. Maus and Melvin Griggs, of the Canteen.

Mother Receives Son's War Honors

Last week a Hilltop mother received medals commemorating the heroic conduct of her son who was listed as one of the casualties of World War II.

Mrs. Talitha Biggs, 327 Wrexham-av, received the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, awarded posthumously to her son, Cpl. William A. Biggs, for meritorious service from May to July, 1945.

Cpl. Biggs was a radio operator on a B-25 reported missing in action after a bombing raid in July, 1945, against a Japanese-held island in the Pacific.

Mrs. Biggs also received the Good Conduct Medal, Air Crew Member Wings and a radio operator's bridge awarded her son.

With only two days remaining before Christmas, the Hilltop prepares to celebrate one of the most sacred of all religious holidays.

While practically all churches and most civic and fraternal groups and schools have already presented programs in keeping with the spirit of Christmas, for most of the residents of the community the material aspects will far outweigh the spiritual observance. Most stores here as in other sections of the city and nation are reporting the largest Christmas buying spree on record.

All schools closed on Friday and will not reopen until Jan. 5, thus providing pupils with a full two weeks of uninterrupted vacation. For the hundreds of employes of the postal service and the retail stores of the city, the holiday can't arrive too soon. All last week the post offices were jammed with persons mailing packages and greeting cards. Coming as it did on top of an already heavy December volume of mail, there was no assurance that all of it could be delivered by Christmas Eve.

Here is the way Christmas is being celebrated in some institutions on the Hilltop.

Schools Have Programs

Every school in the community had some type of sacred observance of the Christmas season before classes were dismissed on Friday. Special assemblies with Christmas trees were the order of the day.

Churches and Sunday Schools in many cases had their programs last week or on Sunday. Several Christmas Eve programs are scheduled and some churches will have services on Christmas morning.

The Hilltop Branch Library will be closed all day Dec. 24 and 25, and again on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

Westway Post No. 3441, VFW, and its auxiliary had a big Christmas party at club headquarters, 2393½ W. Broad-st, on Friday night for all members and their families. Likewise the West High Band Parents Club entertained more than 500 young musicians and their parents at a party held at the school Wednesday evening.

A big party was put on for boys and girls of all ages at the Glenwood Shelter House Monday afternoon and evening.

Another party for the boys and girls of the community is being planned at the Teen Canteen on the afternoon of Dec. 27, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ray Cave is in charge of the party being put on by the Hilltop Community Council.

Patients Remembered

At the Columbus State Hospital 2600 patients will celebrate the Christmas season with trees and parties in every ward. There will be gifts and candy for every patient. Members of the staff have been busy for days wrapping gifts donated by Columbus residents for more than 1500 of the patients who are otherwise forgotten by friends or relatives. One of the biggest of the parties planned is that for the "workers", those patients who volunteer their services in the various wards, the kitchen, laundry, grounds, etc. This is held today. On Dec. 29 a post-Christmas party and entertainment will be given by the Keith School of Dancing with the Hammond Entertainers.

At the Columbus State School more than 40 Christmas trees are trimmed and ready to help spread joy throughout the grounds that are home to 200 boys, girls and adults. Here again, every patient will get at least one gift. Many of these must be provided from the "industrial amusement fund" or

By Casey

The newly elected speakers for the Jan. 28 commencement ceremony to be held at 8 p. m. in West High auditorium are Norris Boothe and Ruth Hoelcher.

Jack Thrush and Alice Mercer will serve as alternates in case of illness to the speakers.

Ruth will speak on "The Next Four Years," and Norris will speak on "The Power of Education." Each speech will be five minutes in length.

Tryouts were held Thursday, Dec. 18, during the third and fourth periods.

The contestants were judged on content and delivery by the following teachers: Lucian Copley, dramatics instructor; Myron T. Seifert, English and journalism teacher; Katherine Gress, English teacher; Mrs. Jane Thomas, English teacher; and Mrs. Mary Dugan, English teacher.

Sneak Thieves Are Lifting Pocketbooks

Police again warned Christmas shoppers last week to watch their pocketbooks after a number of women reported thefts while they were in the downtown area.

Two Hilltop women were among the victims. Mrs. J. J. Reed, 611 Wrexham-av, reported her billfold containmg $30 was stolen, while Barbara Tallman, 257 S. Terrace-av, lost $16 to a sneak thief who rifled her shoulder bag as she examined merchandise.

Mildred And Mose Williams Tell Of Interesting Trip

By Libby Downing

Sept. 14 was a "big day" in the lives of the Mose Williams' of 2581 Steele-av, because it meant beginning a trip which they had planned for several years and had even then postponed due to the curtailment of travel during the war.

Better known to Hilltoppers as Mildred and Mose, the Williams' spent nine weeks traveling in all, going north, south and west. At various stops along the way they visited with 10 young men who had served in the armed forces with their late son, Gayle V. Williams, who served during the war as a night fighter on the Independence.

Their first stop was in Indianapolis. They crossed the Mississippi River at Burlington, Ia., and the Missouri just north of Omaha. The "Old Mormon Trail" impressed them with its replicas of covered wagons. Columbus, Grand Island and Kerney, Nebr., followed in rapid succession. Just before reaching Cheyenne, Wyo., where they spent the evening, they visited the home of Buffalo Bill. "In Cheyenne," said Mrs. Williams, "all the street signs read 'boots, saddles, hats'."

Turning south, Denver, Colo., was the next stop. Just outside the city stands a billboard reading, "We Want Your Hide." Crossing the Rockies, they drove 158 miles to reach a point 88 miles from Denver, seeing the Big Thompson Canyon, Roosevelt National Forest, Estes Park, Rocky Mountain Park and Eagle Ridge. Yampa Valley afforded them an evening's lodging.

Frost appeared on the windshield at Steamboat Springs where the thermometer had dropped to 21 degrees (in September). Continuing to Craig, Colo., and through the desert, they arrived at Salt Lake City. Brigham Young and his 10,000 followers settled there after he had remarked, "This is the place!" This saying is on all the license plates. The Mormon Tabernacle was another awe inspiring sight according to the "wandering Williams".

Ate Elk Steaks

In Pocatello, Idaho, where they visited friends, they enjoyed elk steaks for the first time.

On Sept. 23, they reached Yellowstone National Park, which very definitely was the highlight of their entire trip. They saw the Lower Geyser Basin, the Fountain Paint Pot, Fountain Geyser, Morning Glory Pool, Old Faithful, the Lake Shore Geyser, the Fishing Cone, the Dragon's Mouth (a mud volcano), and the Yellowstone Falls. They spent two days in the park.

Janis To Be Soloist With Philharmonic

Izler Solomon, director of the Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra, is announcing the return engagement of Byron Janis, 19-year-old pianist, who will make his third appearance as guest soloist with the Philharmonic on the regular Saturday night "Pop" concert program, Dec. 20, playing "Tschaikowsky's Concert No. 1" for piano and orchestra.

Burned In Blast

First and second degree burns were suffered Thursday by Arthur Leiberman, 25, when a defective oil furnace exploded. Following the explosion he drove his car to Mt. Carmel Hospital for treatment. He is a part-owner of the A & H Print Co., 472 Brehl-av.

Leather stores now are selling a product which is said to prevent mildew and mold on book covers.

Impressive Christmas Program Is Presented By West Vocal Students

An impressive program interpreting the true spirit of Christmas was presented by the voice students at West High School Thursday night under the direction of Mrs. Colleen Welde, a newcomer to the teaching staff at the local school.

The program was unique for a public school presentation in that the religious atmosphere was maintained throughout without sacrificing entertainment for young and old alike. It was the type of program one would expect to hear from a church choir.

The cantata, "Childe Jesus," by Clokey and Kirk, opened the program. It was done with the stage in total darkness except for light streaming through a beautiful religious window backstage. Soloists were picked up with a weak spotlight upstage.

Richard Bowles sang the baritone recitative and doubled in the tenor role for a trio number. The production could have used several more male voices to good effect but it was nicely presented without a noticeable flaw. Charles W. Bennett accompanied the number at the console of an electric organ. Alice Mercer played the piano accompaniment.

At the end of the cantata, the audience found itself in a position of wanting to express its appreciation but hesitating to applaud for fear of being out of keeping with the religious setting.

The remainder of the program was a dream fantasy as told to two children by their grandfather on Christmas Eve. It was made up of carol selections, a trio and a solo. It ended with the increasingly popular "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," by Moore. This was sung by the massed choir in the background. Choir members were dressed all in white with only small electric candles for light. It presented a beautiful Christmas setting. The program was closed by the choir singing "Silent Night," by Gruber.

High spot of the fantasy numbers was Mary Lou Mangold, dressed as a street urchin while she sang Petro A. Yon's "Jesu Bambino." A trio composed of Alice Mercer, Martha Broun and Lois Stansell gave a fine rendition of "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Bill Hawes was convincing in his role of Grandfather while the two grandchildren were well played by Joe Gossett as Johnnie, and Phillis Hartsock as Susie. Don Elsele was the Santa Claus.

The stage settings, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Hall, were especially appropriate.

Local Deer Hunters Are In Auto Mishap

Four Hilltop men enroute to Pennsylvania on a deer hunting trip were victims of a freak accident at Cambridge last week.

As their auto, driven by Wesley P. Lucas, 21, 2950½ Valleyview-dr, was traveling east through Cambridge, the trailer of a truck owned by Suburban Motor Freight, Inc., broke loose ahead of them and sped down the steep hill at the Wheeling-av viaduct, striking the automobile at the bottom of the hill.

Lucas suffered a fractured left arm, facial cuts, and body bruises. His companions, Walter Mayer, 41, and Frederick Mayer, 21, 2339 Lenore-av, and Paul W. Simpson, 23, of 660 S. Richardson-av, all suffered cuts and bruises.

The men were taken to Swan Hospital in Cambridge and were released after treatment.

Make Your Own Fresh Doughnuts

Doughnuts and hot chocolate. Doesn't that sound like a delicious twosome to serve for refreshments on a crisp winter night? And fresh wholesome doughnuts that literally melt in your mouth are yours for the making. Why not try the following recipe for sour milk doughnuts. You may not win any prize ribbons for your baking skill, but you'll surely win the compliments and praises of your family and that's what counts.

Sour Milk Doughnuts
4½ cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoon soda
1½ teaspoons cream of tartar
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
3 eggs
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons shortening, melted
1 cup buttermilk or sour milk

Sift together flour, soda, cream of tartar, salt and nutmeg. Beat eggs until thick and lemon colored. Add sugar gradually. Add shortening and buttermilk or sour milk. Add flour mixture. Mix well. Roll out one-quarter inch thick on a lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Cut with a floured doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat at 375 degrees for three minutes, or until brown on both sides. Recipe makes about three dozen three-inch doughnuts.

A huge Christmas tree has been decorated by the members of the Teen Canteen, and members of the Camp Fire Girls, under the supervision of Mrs. A. R. Page, 65 N. Powell-av, will assist Santa Claus in passing out the Christmas treat.

Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st, this year's chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Earl Abrom, 100 N. Huron-av; Mrs. O. E. Bradfute, 345 S. Ogden-av; Mrs. Roy W. Hastilow, 197 Midland-av; Charles P. Maus and Melvin Griggs, of the Canteen.

Mother Receives Son's War Honors

Last week a Hilltop mother received medals commemorating the heroic conduct of her son who was listed as one of the casualties of World War II.

Mrs. Talitha Biggs, 327 Wrexham-av, received the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, awarded posthumously to her son, Cpl. William A. Biggs, for meritorious service from May to July, 1945.

Cpl. Biggs was a radio operator on a B-25 reported missing in action after a bombing raid in July, 1945, against a Japanese-held island in the Pacific.

Mrs. Biggs also received the Good Conduct Medal, Air Crew Member Wings and a radio operator's bridge awarded her son.

With only two days remaining before Christmas, the Hilltop prepares to celebrate one of the most sacred of all religious holidays.

While practically all churches and most civic and fraternal groups and schools have already presented programs in keeping with the spirit of Christmas, for most of the residents of the community the material aspects will far outweigh the spiritual observance. Most stores here as in other sections of the city and nation are reporting the largest Christmas buying sprea on record.

All schools closed on Friday and will not reopen until Jan. 5, thus providing pupils with a full two weeks of uninterrupted vacation. For the hundreds of employes of the postal service and the retail stores of the city, the holiday can't arrive too soon. All last week the post offices were jammed with persons mailing packages and greeting cards. Coming as it did on top of an already heavy December volume of mail, there was no assurance that all of it could be delivered by Christmas Eve.

Here is the way Christmas is being celebrated in some institutions on the Hilltop.

Schools Have Programs

Every school in the community had some type of sacred observance of the Christmas season before classes were dismissed on Friday. Special assemblies with Christmas trees were the order of the day.

Churches and Sunday Schools in many cases had their programs last week or on Sunday. Several Christmas Eve programs are scheduled and some churches will have services on Christmas morning.

The Hilltop Branch Library will be closed all day Dec. 24 and 25, and again on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

Westway Post No. 3441, VFW, and its auxiliary had a big Christmas party at club headquarters, 2393½ W. Broad-st, on Friday night for all members and their families. Likewise the West High Band Parents Club entertained more than 500 young musicians and their parents at a party held at the school Wednesday evening.

A big party was put on for boys and girls of all ages at the Glenwood Shelter House Monday afternoon and evening.

Another party for the boys and girls of the community is being planned at the Teen Canteen on the afternoon of Dec. 27, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ray Cave is in charge of the party being put on by the Hilltop Community Council.

Patients Remembered

At the Columbus State Hospital 2600 patients will celebrate the Christmas season with trees and parties in every ward. There will be gifts and candy for every patient. Members of the staff have been busy for days wrapping gifts donated by Columbus residents for more than 1500 of the patients who are otherwise forgotten by friends or relatives. One of the biggest of the parties planned is that for the "workers", those patients who volunteer their services in the various wards, the kitchen, laundry, grounds, etc. This is held today. On Dec. 29 a post-Christmas party and entertainment will be given by the Keith School of Dancing with the Hammond Entertainers.

At the Columbus State School more than 40 Christmas trees are trimmed and ready to help spread joy throughout the grounds that are home to 200 boys, girls and adults. Here again, every patient will get at least one gift. Many of these must be provided from the "industrial amusement fund" or

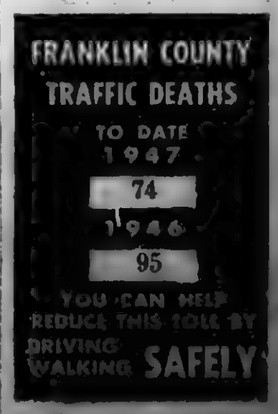
By Casey



The newly elected speakers for the Jan. 28 commencement ceremony to be held at 8 p. m. in West High auditorium are Norris Boothe and Ruth Hoelcher.

Jack Thrush and Alice Mercer will serve as alternates in case of illness to the speakers.

Ruth will speak on "The Next Four Years," and Norris will speak on "The Power of Education." Each speech will be five minutes in length.

Tryouts were held Thursday, Dec. 18, during the third and fourth periods.

The contestants were judged on content and delivery by the following teachers: Lucian Copley, dramatics instructor; Myron T. Seifert, English and journalism teacher; Katherine Gress, English teacher; Mrs. Jane Thomas, English teacher; and Mrs. Mary Dugan, English teacher.

Sneak Thieves Are Lifting Pocketbooks

Police again warned Christmas shoppers last week to watch their pocketbooks after a number of women reported thefts while they were in the downtown area.

Two Hilltop women were among the victims. Mrs. J. J. Reed, 611 Wrexham-av, reported her billfold containing $30 was stolen, while Barbara Tallman, 257 S. Terrace-av, lost $16 to a sneak thief who rifled her shoulder bag as she examined merchandise.

Mildred And Mose Williams Tell Of Interesting Trip

By Libby Downing

Sept. 14 was a "big day" in the lives of the Mose Williams' of 2561 Steele-av, because it meant beginning a trip which they had planned for several years and had even then postponed due to the curtailment of travel during the war.

Better known to Hilltoppers as Mildred and Mose, the Williams' spent nine weeks traveling in all, going north, south and west. At various stops along the way they visited with 10 young men who had served in the armed forces with their late son, Gayle V. Williams, who served during the war as a night fighter on the Independence.

Their first stop was in Indianapolis. They crossed the Mississippi River at Burlington, Ia., and the Missouri just north of Omaha. The "Old Mormon Trail" impressed them with its replicas of covered wagons. Columbus, Grand Island and Kerney, Nebr., followed in rapid succession. Just before reaching Cheyenne, Wyo., where they spent the evening, they visited the home of Buffalo Bill. "In Cheyenne," said Mrs. Williams, "all the street signs read 'boots, saddles, hats'."

Turning south, Denver, Colo., was the next stop. Just outside the city stands a billboard reading, "We Want Your Hide." Crossing the Rockies, they drove 158 miles to reach a point 88 miles from Denver, seeing the Big Thompson Canyon, Roosevelt National Forest, Estes Park, Rocky Mountain Park and Eagle Ridge. Yampa Valley afforded them an evening's lodging.

Frost appeared on the windshield at Steamboat Springs where the thermometer had dropped to 21 degrees (in September). Continuing to Craig, Colo., and through the desert, they arrived in Salt Lake City. Brigham Young and his 10,000 followers settled there after he had remarked, "This is the place!" This saying is on all the license plates. The Mormon Tabernacle was another awe inspiring sight according to the "wandering Williams'".

Ate Elk Steaks

In Pocatello, Idaho, where they visited friends, they enjoyed elk steaks for the first time.

On Sept. 23, they reached Yellowstone National Park, which very definitely was the highlight of their entire trip. They saw the Lower Geyser Basin, the Fountain Paint Pot, Fountain Geyser, Morning Glory Pool, Old Faithful, the Lake Shore Geyser, the Fishing Cone, the Dragon's Mouth (a mud volcano), and the Yellowstone Falls. Janis To Be Soloist With Philharmonic

Izler Solomon, director of the Columbus Philharmonic Orchestra, is announcing the return engagement of Byron Janis, 19-year-old pianist, who will make his third appearance as guest soloist with the Philharmonic on the regular Saturday night "Pop" concert program, Dec. 20, playing "Tschaikowsky's Concert No. 1" for piano and orchestra.

Impressive Christmas Program Is Presented By West Vocal Students

An impressive program interpreting the true spirit of Christmas was presented by the voice students at West High School Thursday night under the direction of Mrs. Colleen Welde, a newcomer to the teaching staff at the local school.

The program was unique for a public school presentation in that the religious atmosphere was maintained throughout without sacrificing entertainment for young and old alike. It was the type of program one would expect to hear from a church choir.

The cantata, "Childe Jesus," by Clokey and Kirk, opened the program. It was done with the stage in total darkness except for light streaming through a beautiful religious window backstage. Soloists were picked up with a weak spotlight upstage.

Richard Bowles sang the baritone recitative and doubled in a tenor role for a trio number. The production could have used several more male voices to good effect but it was nicely presented without a noticeable flaw. Charles W. Bennett accompanied the number at the console of an electric organ. Alice Mercer played the piano accompaniment.

At the end of the cantata, the audience found itself in a position of wanting to express its appreciation but hesitating to applaud for fear of being out of keeping with the religious setting.

The remainder of the program was a dream fantasy as told to two children by their grandfather on Christmas Eve. It was made up of carol selections, a trio and a solo. It ended with the increasingly popular "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," by Moore. This was sung by the massed choir in the background. Choir members were dressed all in white with only small electric candles for light. It presented a beautiful Christmas setting. The program was closed by the choir singing "Silent Night," by Gruber.

High spot of the fantasy numbers was Mary Lou Mangold, dressed as a street urchin while she sang Petro A. Yon's "Jesu Bambino." A trio composed of Alice Mercer, Martha Brown and Lois Stansell gave a fine rendition of "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Bill Hawes was convincing in his role of Grandfather while the two grandchildren were well played by Joe Gossett as Johnnie, and Phillis Hartsock as Susie. Don Eisele was the Santa Claus.

The stage settings, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Hall, were especially appropriate.

Local Deer Hunters Are In Auto Mishap

Four Hilltop men enroute to Pennsylvania on a deer hunting trip were victims of a freak accident at Cambridge last week.

As their auto, driven by Wesley P. Lucas, 21, 2950½ Valleyview-dr, was traveling east through Cambridge, the trailer of a truck owned by Suburban Motor Freight, Inc., broke loose ahead of them and sped down the steep hill at the Wheeling-av viaduct, striking the automobile at the bottom of the hill.

Lucas suffered a fractured left arm, facial cuts, and body bruises. His companions, Walter Mayer, 41, and Frederick Mayer, 21, 2339 Lenore-av, and Paul W. Simpson, 23, of 850 S. Richardson-av, all suffered cuts and bruises.

The men were taken to Swan Hospital in Cambridge and were released after treatment.

BUTTERSCOTCH COOKIES
By MARY BLAKE
Home Service Dept. Carnation Co.

¾ cup shortening (half butter)
2 cups brown sugar
1 egg
3 tbsp. Carnation Milk
1 tsp. vanilla
3½ cups flour
1 tsp. cream of [illegible]
1 tsp. soda
1 cup chopped dates or [illegible]

Cream shortening and sugar. Add egg, Carnation Milk, and vanilla and continue creaming until well blended. Sift flour, then measure. Resift with remaining dry ingredients and add to first mixture. Stir until flour just disappears. Add dates or raisins, which have been washed and dried. Form into rolls 2 inches in diameter and wrap in waxed paper. Chill thoroughly until ready for baking. Slice thin with a sharp knife. Occasionally dipping the knife in cold water aids in cutting. Place on greased baking sheets and bake in a hot oven (375° F.) 8 to 10 minutes.

Serve Your Clan Sausage Surprise

With meat almost worth its weight in gold, what could be more welcome than a way to stretch it? And here it is, for sausage surprise requires only three-quarters of a pound of a pound of meat. To make this dish, whip up some bran biscuits and bake the sausage inside of the biscuits. Then top with cheese sauce. Your tribe will heartily agree that here indeed is an unusual dish—but good! Use the following recipe to make wholesome bran biscuits.

Bran Biscuits

½ cup bran
¾ cup buttermilk
1½ cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup shortening

Soak bran in buttermilk. Sift flour, baking powder, soda, and salt together. Cut in shortening until mixture is like coarse cornmeal. Add soaked bran. Stir until dough follows fork around bowl. Turn on to floured board, knead lightly, and roll thin. Cut with a floured three and one-half inch cutter.

After the biscuits are cut, shape the sausage into six patties. Fry slowly. Place sausage patties on six of the biscuits, cover with remaining biscuits and press edges together with tines of a fork. Prick top of each cake with a fork. Place on a baking sheet and bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees) 15 to 20 minutes. Serve at once with cheese sauce made by adding one-half cup grated cheese to a thin white sauce.

Yield: Six cakes (three and one-half inches in diameter).

Honey Cake Wins The Men Folk

"How to hold a husband" in one easy lesson: Bake him this honey cake.

As the photograph shows, the honey kuchen (that means cake) has a crisp crunchy topping made of 40 per cent bran flakes, flavorings, and shortening. The cake is easy to make and can be made up ahead of time, if desired. It's versatile, too—and can be served for breakfast as coffee cake and for lunch or dinner as a hotbread or as a dessert. And for a late snack—it rates a place of high honor.

Recipe for the honey cake is as follows.

Honey Bran Cake

¾ cup sifted flour
2½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
4 tablespoons honey
1 egg, well beaten
3 tablespoons melted shortening
1½ cups 40% bran flakes or wheat flakes

Topping

4 tablespoons brown sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ to ½ teaspoon nutmeg
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
½ cup 40% bran flakes or wheat flakes

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Combine milk, honey, and egg. Add to flour mixture, add shortening, then mix only enough to dampen flour. Fold in one and a half cups of flakes. Turn into a greased pan, 8x8x2 inches.

Mix together brown sugar, spices, butter, and remaining half cup of flakes. Sprinkle over top of batter and bake in a hot oven (400 degree) 25 minutes, or until done.

Note: If desired, batter may be prepared as directed and stored overnight. Turn batter into a pan, cover closely with a damp cloth, then waxed paped. Tie securely. Before baking, sprinkle with topping and allow to stand while oven is heating. Increase baking time to 30 minutes, or until done.

Prolong Your Youth With Foot Comfort

Give attention to your feet and you virtually prolong your youth. Does that seem like an overstatement? It makes sense. How can you expect to look your best—smiling and vibrant—if your feet burn and ache?

Keep your feet happy and your whole personality responds to this attention. Wear only shoes that are fitted perfectly to your feet. There should be room for your toes to stretch as you walk. Discard old worn-out shoes. No matter how comfortable they may seem, they do your feet more harm than good.

The best shoes to wear for your workaday duties are shoes with medium high heels. Nowadays it is no longer necessary to sacrifice style for comfort. Shoe designers have made it possible for every woman's feet to be stylishly and comfortably shod. Reserve high heel styles for dressy occasions.

And a little extra attention is highly beneficial to your feet. Bathe them nightly. While your feet are in the basin, wiggle your toes and massage your instep. Dry your feet thoroughly. Then for a bit of luxurious comfort, massage your feet with oil. That's the final step toward exquisite foot comfort.

2 tbsp. fat
3 tbsp. flour
½ cup Carnation Milk
½ cup liquid drained from salmon
1 tsp. salt
1 lb. can salmon
1 egg, slightly beaten
Carnation Milk
1½ cups buttered bread crumbs

Prepare a white sauce of the first 5 ingredients. Flake salmon, add egg and white sauce. Shape into croquettes. Dip in crumbs, undiluted Carnation Milk and again in crumbs. Place on a greased pan and brown in a moderate oven (375° F.). Yield: 6 servings, 12 small croquettes.

The youngsters of the Hilltop—twelve years of age and young- —will gather at the Hilltop Teen Canteen Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the Hilltop Community Council's third annual Christmas party.

A number of grade and pa ochial school students will take part in the community-wide event this year. A huge Christmas tree has been decorated by the members of the Teen Canteen, and members of the Camp Fire Girls, under the supervision of Mrs. A. R. Page, 65 N. Powell-av, will assist Santa Claus in passing out the Christmas treat.

Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st, this year's chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av; Mrs. O. E. Bradfute, 345 S. Ogden-av; Mrs. Roy W. Hastilow, 197 Midland-av; Charles P. Maus and Melvin Griggs, of the Canteen.

Mother Receives Son's War Honors

Last week a Hilltop mother received medals commemorating the heroic conduct of her son who was listed as one of the casualties of World War II.

Mrs. Talitha Biggs, 327 Wrexham-av, received the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, awarded posthumously to her son, Cpl. William A. Biggs, for meritorious service from May to July, 1945.

Cpl. Biggs was a radio operator on a B-25 reported missing in action after a bombing raid in July, 1945, against a Japanese-held island in the Pacific.

Mrs. Biggs also received the Good Conduct Medal, Air Crew Member Wings and a radio operator's badge awarded her son.

With only two days remaining before Christmas, the Hilltop prepares to celebrate one of the most sacred of all religious holidays.

While practically all churches and most civic and fraternal groups and schools have already presented programs in keeping with the spirit of Christmas, for most of the residents of the community the material aspects will far outweigh the spiritual observance. Most stores here as in other sections of the city and nation are reporting the largest Christmas buying spree on record.

All schools closed on Friday and will not reopen until Jan. 5, thus providing pupils with a full two weeks of uninterrupted vacation. For the hundreds of employes of the postal service and the retail stores of the city, the holiday can't arrive too soon. All last week the post offices were jammed with persons mailing packages and greeting cards. Coming as it did on top of an already heavy December volume of mail, there was no assurance that all of it could be delivered by Christmas Eve.

Here is the way Christmas is being celebrated in some institutions on the Hilltop.

Schools Have Programs

Every school in the community had some type of sacred observance of the Christmas season before classes were dismissed on Friday. Special assemblies with Christmas trees were the order of the day.

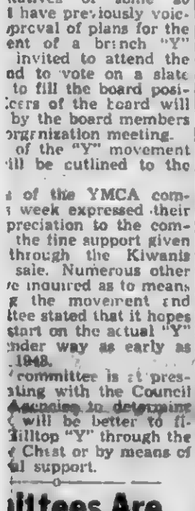
Churches and Sunday Schools in many cases had their programs last week or on Sunday. Several Christmas Eve programs are scheduled and some churches will have services on Christmas morning.

The Hilltop Branch Library will be closed all day Dec. 24 and 25, and again on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

Westway Post No. 3441, VFW, and its auxiliary had a big Christmas party at club headquarters, 2393½ W. Broad-st, on Friday night for all members and their families. Likewise the West High Band Parents Club entertained more than 500 young musicians and their parents at a party held at the school Wednesday evening.

A big party was put on for boys and girls of all ages at the Glenwood Shelter House Monday afternoon and evening.

Another party for the boys and girls of the community is being planned at the Teen Canteen on the afternoon of Dec. 27, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ray Cave is in charge of the party being put on by the Hilltop Community Council.



Patients Remembered

At the Columbus State Hospital 2600 patients will celebrate the Christmas season with trees and parties in every ward. There will be gifts and candy for every patient. Members of the staff have been busy for days wrapping gifts donated by Columbus residents for more than 1500 of the patients who are otherwise forgotten by friends or relatives. One of the biggest of the parties planned is that for the "workers", those patients who volunteer their services in the various wards, the kitchen, laundry, grounds, etc. This is held today. On Dec. 29 a post-Christmas party and entertainment will be given by the Keith School of Dancing with the Hammond Entertainers.

At the Columbus State School more than 40 Christmas trees are trimmed and ready to help spread joy throughout the grounds that are home to 200 boys, girls and adults. Here again, every patient will get at least one gift. Many of these must be provided from the "industrial amusement fund" or

By Casey

The newly elected speakers for the Jan. 28 commencement ceremony to be held at 8 p. m. in West High auditorium are Norris Boothe and Ruth Hoelcher.

Jack Thrush and Alice Mercer will serve as alternates in case of illness to the speakers.

Ruth will speak on "The Next Four Years," and Norris will speak on "The Power of Education." Each speech will be five minutes in length.

Tryouts were held Thursday, Dec. 18, during the third and fourth periods.

The contestants were judged on content and delivery by the following teachers: Lucian Copley, dramatics instructor; Myron F. Seifert, English and journalism teacher; Katherine Gress, English teacher; Mrs. Jane Thomas, English teacher; and Mrs. Mary Dugan, English teacher.

TESTED MEAT RECIPES

HUNGARIAN GOULASH

2 lbs. beef chuck or neck meat
2 onions
2 tablespoons butter
Paprika
½ teaspoon caraway seed (if desired)
½ teaspoon powdered marjoram
2 cloves of garlic
1½ teaspoons salt
1 cup water

Cut meat into 1-inch cubes. Let spices brown in butter, then add meat and let it brown lightly. Add caraway seed, marjoram, chopped garlic, and enough paprika to effect a pleasing red color. Add water and salt, cover and simmer for 1½ hours. Add more water if necessary. Whole potatoes may be added to the goulash ½ hour before done. Some goulash recipes call for the addition of tomatoes. Strained tomatoes may be substituted for water in this recipe. Serves 6.

Sneak Thieves Are Lifting Pocketbooks

Police again warned Christmas shoppers last week to watch their pocketbooks after a number of women reported thefts while they were in the downtown area.

Two Hilltop women were among the victims. Mrs. J. J. Reed, 611 Wrexham-av, reported her billfold containing $30 was stolen, while Barbara Tallman, 257 S. Terrace-av, lost $16 to a sneak thief who rifled her shoulder bag as she examined merchandise.

Mildred And Mose Williams Tell Of Interesting Trip

By Libby Downing

Sept. 14 was a "big day" in the lives of the Mose Williams' of 2561 Steele-av, because it meant beginning a trip which they had planned for several years and had even then postponed due to the curtailment of travel during the war.

Better known to Hilltoppers as Mildred and Mose, the Williams' spent nine weeks traveling in all, going north, south and west. At various stops along the way they visited with 10 young men who had served in the armed forces with their late son, Gayle V. Williams, who served during the war as a night fighter on the Independence.

Their first stop was in Indianapolis. They crossed the Mississippi River at Burlington, Ia., and the Missouri just north of Omaha. The "Old Mormon Trail" impressed them with its replicas of covered wagons. Columbus, Grand Island and Kerney, Nebr., followed in rapid succession. Just before reaching Cheyenne, Wyo., where they spent the evening, they visited the home of Buffalo Bill. "In Cheyenne," said Mrs. Williams, "all the street signs read 'boots, saddles, hats'."

Turning south, Denver, Colo., was the next stop. Just outside the city stands a billboard reading, "We Want Your Hide." Crossing the Rockies, they drove 158 miles to reach a point 88 miles from Denver, seeing the Big Thompson Canyon, Roosevelt National Forest, Estes Park, Rocky Mountain Park and Eagle Ridge. Yampa Valley afforded them an evening's lodging.

Frost appeared on the windshield at Steamboat Springs where the thermometer had dropped to 21 degrees (in September). Continuing to Craig, Colo., and through the desert, they arrived at Salt Lake City. Brigham Young and his 10,000 followers settled there after he had remarked, "This is the place!" This saying is on all the license plates. The Mormon Tabernacle was another awe inspiring sight according to the "wandering Williams'".

Ate Elk Steaks

In Pocatello, Idaho, where they visited friends, they enjoyed elk steaks for the first time.

On Sept. 23, they reached Yellowstone National Park, which very definitely was the highlight of their entire trip. They saw the Lower Geyser Basin, the Fountain Paint Pot, Fountain Geyser, Morning Glory Pool, Old Faithful, the Lake Shore Geyser, the Fishing Cone, the Dragon's Mouth (a mud volcano), and the Yellowstone Falls. They spent [illegible] in the park.

First and second degree burns were suffered Thursday by Arthur Leiberman, 25, when a defective oil furnace exploded. Following the explosion he drove his car to Mt. Carmel Hospital for treatment. He is a part-owner of the A & H Paint Co., [illegible] Brehl-av.

Leather stores now are selling a product which is said to prevent mildew and mold on book covers.

Impressive Christmas Program Is Presented By West Vocal Students

An impressive program interpreting the true spirit of Christmas was presented by the voice students at West High School Thursday night under the direction of Mrs. Colleen Welde, a newcomer to the teaching staff at the local school.

The program was unique for a public school presentation in that the religious atmosphere was maintained throughout without sacrificing entertainment for young and old alike. It was the type of program one would expect to hear from a church choir.

The cantata, "Childe Jesus," by Clokey and Kirk, opened the program. It was done with the stage in total darkness except for light streaming through a beautiful religious window backstage. Soloists were picked up with a weak spotlight upstage.

Richard Bowles sang the baritone recitative and doubled in a tenor role for a trio number. The production could have used several more male voices to good effect but it was nicely presented without a noticeable flaw. Charles W. Bennett accompanied the number at the console of an electric organ. Alice Mercer played the piano accompaniment.

At the end of the cantata, the audience found itself in a position of wanting to express its appreciation but hesitating to applaud for fear of being out of keeping with the religious setting.

The remainder of the program was a dream fantasy as told to two children by their grandfather on Christmas Eve. It was made up of carol selections, a trio and a solo. It ended with the increasingly popular "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," by Moore. This was sung by the massed choir in the background. Choir members were dressed all in white with only small electric candles for light. It presented a beautiful Christmas setting. The program was closed by the choir singing "Silent Night," by Gruber.

High spot of the fantasy numbers was Mary Lou Mangold, dressed as a street urchin while she sang Petro A. Yon's "Jesu Bambino." A trio composed of Alice Mercer, Martha Brown and Lois Stansell gave a fine rendition of "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." Bill Hawes was convincing in his role of Grandfather while the two grandchildren were well played by Joe Gossett as Johnnie, and Phillis Hartsock as Susie. Don Eisele was the Santa Claus.

The stage settings, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Hall, were especially appropriate.

Local Deer Hunters Are In Auto Mishap

Four Hilltop men enroute to Pennsylvania on a deer hunting trip were victims of a freak accident at Cambridge last week.

As their auto, driven by Wesley P. Lucas, 21, 2950½ Valleyview-dr, was traveling east through Cambridge, the trailer of a truck owned by Suburban Motor Freight, Inc., broke loose ahead of them and sped down the steep hill at the Wheeling-av viaduct, striking the automobile at the bottom of the hill.

Lucas suffered a fractured left arm, facial cuts, and body bruises. His compsnions, Walter Mayer, 41, and Frederick Mayer, 21, 2339 Lenore-av, and Paul W. Simpson, 23, of 650 S. Richardson-av, all suffered cuts and bruises.

The men were taken to Swan Hospital in Cambridge and were released after treatment.

Kiwanis Newspaper Sale Goes Over With a Bang

A good time was had by all and a worthy cause was served in a big way in that Hilltop Kiwanis newspaper sale Thursday evening.

The response was most generous and certainly proved one thing conclusively—that the Hilltop wants a YMCA.

The Hilltop Kiwanis Club deserves the highest of praise for its efforts. Other groups may well emulate this fine example of furthering an effort that is for the good of the youth of the Hilltop.

Flowers of the Week

Some choice roses from Rosebud Floral to the 13 Club at their next meeting for their fine support of the Hilltop YMCA as evidenced by their purchase of the first Hilltop Kiwanis Christmas newspaper for $200 last Thursday evening.

Kiwanis Newsie Notes: Jack Shank makes a very good auctioneer . . . he not only sold the first three papers for high prices but likewise sold the last paper . . . and this one was at auction too, nearly 11:30 that nite, and the bidder was Charley Kent at $10 . . . One Boy Scout told Roy McVay of the bargain he gave his customers . . . if the person gave him a quarter he said "Thank you." If he received 50c he said "Thank you and Merry Christmas." If he received a dollar he said "Thank you, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." . . . Mose Williams was unable to be present Thursday evening so he sold papers Friday afternoon . . . Ed Witherspoon, just out of the hospital with a broken foot, was on hand and did a fine job of ballyhooing the sale from the loud speaker car furnished by Lou Manis . . . Joe Agee even sang "Silent Night" to attract customers . . . Bud McVay out to help his dad . . . Bill Krause, Lee Weigand and Jack Shenk sold newspapers over and over to net more than $50 . . . A couple of newsies report piggy banks were broken open to get a contribution for the "Y" . . . And the finest spirit of brotherhood we have ever experienced was present throughout the evening.

Toy Prices Cut At Local Store

Toys and other Christmas merchandise at sale prices this week are certainly news.

And that is just what is being done at the Economy Variety Store, 2402 W. Broad-st. When Fred Raether, 303 S. Huron-av, bought the store almost 30 years ago, its varieties could have been counted on the fingers of two hands.

"The variety business was sort of pushed on me in the first place," he said. "The people who owned the store were getting ready to sell out and preferred to sell to a Hilltopper. I had been employed in the hardware department of the Schoedinger-Marr Company for 17 years at that time, and with a little persuasion, decided to buy my own business."

This week will find prices on dolls, wheel goods and games at greatly reduced prices at the local emporium. The company has odds 'n ends in these lines and wants to sell them out in order to have a clean slate next year.

There will be nine salesmen on hand to take care of the last-minute Christmas rush. This year's business has surpassed that of 1946 to the extent of 10 to 15 per cent. When questioned as to the reason for the increase, the owner replied, "Well, when people come in and ask for something if I don't have it I get it! That's the way I built up my store. Why, when I first came here we didn't have anything in the electrical line, because there wasn't electricity. As times progress so do we."

Mr. Raether has three children and three grandchildren. His three daughters are Mrs. Ray Hill of Canton, O., Mrs. Lucille Wolfe of Columbus, and Mrs. Jack Alkire, 3038 Crescent-dr.

Mrs. Hellma Howell Injured In Crash

Mrs. Hellma Howell, 47, of 138 S. Powell-av, was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital Friday for cuts and bruises suffered when the car in which she was riding was struck by another auto on Town-st and Glenwood-av.

The second car, operated by Orville Kline, 82 Hoffman-av, in turn struck a third car in which Larry Boetcher, 5, of 1520 Brown-rd, was seated. Mrs. Helen Boetcher, mother of the boy, took him to a family physician for treatment.

Mrs. Howell was riding with her husband, Fritz Howell, when the accident occurred.

Kiwanis Christmas Paper Nets $3000 For "Y"

The results of the first Kiwanis Christmas paper sale, conducted last Thursday were definitely satisfactory.

Officials of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club said this week that proceeds from the sale of the special issue of The Hilltop Record would be close to $2500. Some of the money is still to be reported. Revenue from the advertising is expected to net $813, thus making a profit of approximately $3000 on the project.

All proceeds from the paper sale will go into the Hilltop YMCA fund. James Miles, 2586 W. Broad-st, was general chairman of the Christmas paper.

Expressing the appreciation of the Christmas paper committee, Miles made the following statement:

"The committee, on behalf of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, wishes to thank everyone for the fine and unusual support of its first annual Christmas paper. This thanks goes to every advertiser and every Hilltop home that received us so cordially. We regret that limited manpower made it impossible for us to contact every home but we plan to be back next year at the same time."

Miles pointed out that this was strictly a Kiwanis project. The name of The Hilltop Record was used as a medium of publication only and had no part in the project directly.

H. G. Deems, treasurer of the Cramer Memorial Fund, started in memory of the late Dr. C. O. Cramer who headed the YMCA committee, said that a total of $546 had come in voluntarily. This money will likewise be used to help establish a community center here. Any person desiring to give to this fund may send check or money order to Mr. Deems at 3369 W. Broad-st.

Members of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club will meet Wednesday of this week for an informal song fest and party. The meeting will be held at Schmelzer's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st, at 12 o'clock.

Plans are being made for the installation of 1948 Kiwanis officers at a downtown dinner meeting and dance on Dec. 30. Dr. R. J. Miller will succeed Edgar Planck as president of the organization. At this time the annual "man of the year" award will be made.

The dinner will be held at 6:45 p. m. in the Gold Room of the Fort Hayes Hotel. Installing officer will be Robert Hill, Ohio governor of Kiwanis. Charles Welton, home for the Christmas holidays, will play several selections on the piano. The dance is semi-formal.

Burglars Feast On Christmas Goodies

Two youthful burglars entered the home of M. S. Donelan, 72 Eldon-av, Saturday afternoon. They ate food and drank soft drinks which they obtained from the refrigerator, munched on the family's Christmas candy, and ransacked the house apparently in search of money, but found only $2 in change.

Donelan, who spotted the pair, described the youths as "16, or 17, dirty and skinny." Donelan said the pair pried open a rear door to gain entrance to his home.

Dr. Cowles Takes Over Practice Of Dr. Cramer

Dr. D. S. Cowles, who has had his own medical practice on the Hilltop for seven years, has taken over the practice of the late Dr. C. O. Cramer, 3191 W. Broad-st. All personnel of both offices will be retained.

According to the announcement made this week by Dr. Cowles and confirmed by Mrs. Kathryn Cramer, he has leased the medical center and purchased all equipment and will take over Dr. Cramer's work immediately in addition to continuing his own practice. Office hours will be by appointment only between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 m. and 1 and 5 p. m. daily.

Assisting him will be Mrs. Ann Cullen, receptionist-secretary, and Marilyn Reynolds, Mrs. Doris Minor and Mrs. Ruth Bectel, technicians.

Dr. Cowles opened his office with Dr. Cramer in 1940 at the time the new medical center was completed. During that time much of his work has been in fever therapy. Prior to coming to Columbus he had a general practice at Ostrander for 30 years.

He is a graduate of Denison University.

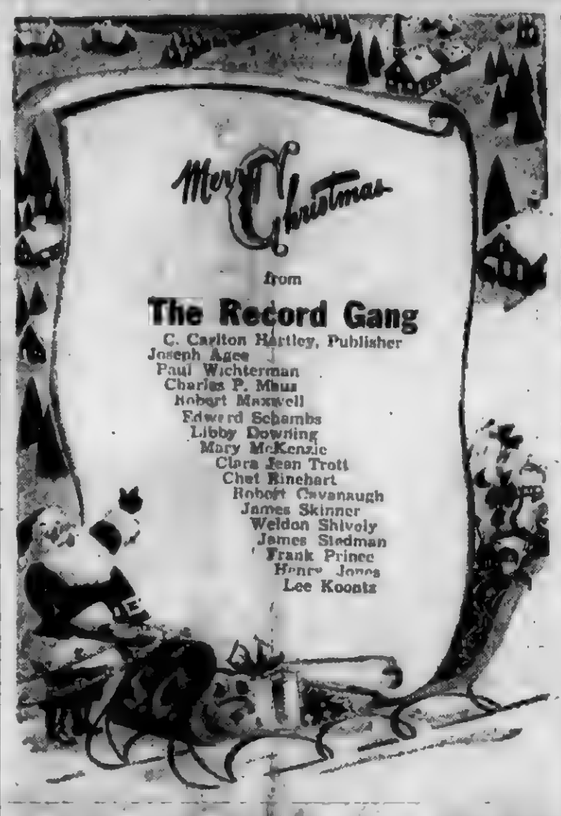
He studied medicine at Yale University and spent two years as in intern at Worcester Mass. He is a member of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and several medical associations, including the Columbus Academy of Medicine, the Ohio State Medical Association and the American Medical Association.

He is also a member of Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion.

Dr. and Mrs. Cowles live at 51 S. Westgate-av with their daughter, Mary Ellen, a student at Miami University, Robert, 16, and Pamela 18 months.

West Defeats Marion 52-38

The West High Cowboys won their sixth game in nine starts at Marion Harding Saturday night by trouncing the Presidents by a 52-38 score.



The team will lay off for the Christmas holidays until Dec. 30, when Coach George Williams will take his team to Marysville. That will be followed by a post-holiday jaunt to Huntington, W. Va., on Jan. 2, playing Chillicothe on the way back on Jan. 3.

Fred Heischman's Reserves annexed another victory Saturday when his boys romped over the Harding Reserves 35 to 19. Chuck Fraser was the leading scorer with nine tallies.

Jack Thrush again led the varsity scoring with eight buckets for a total of 16 points for the evening. Walter Hicks accounted for 14 tallies and Paul Theisen 11. Riddle was high-point man for the losers with 12.

The scoring at the end of each period was as follows:

West	13	30	33	52

1st Paper Brings $200

Bidding was brisk on the first copy of the Kiwanis Christmas edition of The Hilltop Record Thursday night as the Kiwanians opened their sale to raise funds for the Hilltop Branch YMCA.

The first paper went at $200 and was purchased by the 13 Club, a group of men who regularly buy the first copy of the Charity Newsie paper. The successful bid was made by LeRoy Weigand. The second and third copies went to employees of The Hilltop Record and the Jones Lumber and Coal Company for $100 each. The paper sale alone netted about $2000.

Hear ye! Hear ye! All parents of the community who are expecting a visit from old Doc Stork in the near future.

The 11th Annual Hilltop Stork Derby will be held again this year with an impressive list of prizes to go to the first baby (and parents) of 1948 born in the circulating area of The Hilltop Record.

This popular contest started by The Record in 1938 has increased in interest year by year until it has gained city-wide recognition.

Complete information as to the rules and prizes will be carried in next week's paper.

Hilltoppers Prepare For Christmas Observance

Hilltop "Y" Meeting Set For Jan. 2

Plans for the formal organization of a board of directors of the Hilltop YMCA will be presented at a meeting of organizations of the community called for Friday Jan. 2, at 7:30 at West High School.

Representatives of some 20 groups that have previously voiced their approval of plans for the establishment of a branch "Y" have been invited to attend the meeting and to vote on a slate of 11 men to fill the board positions. Officers of the board will be elected by the board members at a later organization meeting.

Progress of the "Y" movement to date will be outlined to the group.

Members of the YMCA committee this week expressed their sincere appreciation to the community for the fine support given the "Y" through the Kiwanis newspaper sale. Numerous other groups have inquired as to means of assisting the movement and the committee stated that it hopes to have a start on the actual "Y" program under way as early as possible in 1948.

The "Y" committee is at present negotiating with the Council of Social Agencies to determine whether it will be better to finance the Hilltop "Y" through the Community Chest or by means of strictly local support.

Committees Are Named By West Senior Class

By Donna Beck

Graduation time is here for the 12A class. Under the leadership of the four class officers, the class is planning its baccalaureate banquet and prom at West High.

The members of the class in charge of the various committees are: Norris Booth, 514 N. Harris-av, baccalaureate; Ruth Hoelcher, 150 S. Westgate-av tickets; Harriet Worthington, 248 N. Ogden-av, and Nancy Gill, 320 N. Ogden, banquet; John Glass 593 Wiltshire-rd, decorations and music for the prom.

CORRECTION

In last week's issue of The Hilltop Record Harvey Binkley, 56 N. Chase-av, was referred to as the 15-month-old brother of Charles Richard Binkley in the baby picture series. Harvey is 15 years of age and no longer believes in Santa Claus. Our apologies, Harvey, and a Merry Christmas. (Ed.)

Record Office To Close Wed. Noon

The Hilltop Record office will close at noon Wednesday for the Christmas holiday and will reopen Friday morning.

Copy deadlines for next week's New Year's issue of The Hilltop Record will be the same as those observed this week. The paper will be published Tuesday morning, Dec. 30.

All church announcements must be in by Saturday noon, Dec. 27. All other news items and display advertising copy will be accepted up until 3 p. m. Saturday. Classified ads will be taken until 9 a. m. Monday.

Children's Party To Be Saturday At Teen Club

The youngsters of the Hilltop—twelve years of age and younger—will gather at the Hilltop Teen Canteen Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock for the Hilltop Community Council's third annual Christmas party.

A number of grade and parochial school students will take part in the community-wide event this year. A huge Christmas tree has been decorated by the members of the Teen Canteen, and members of the Camp Fire Girls, under the supervision of Mrs. A. R. Page, 65 N. Powell-av, will assist Santa Claus in passing out the Christmas treat.

Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st, this year's chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av; Mrs. O. E. Bradford, 345 S. Ogden-av; Mrs. Roy W. Hastilow, 197 Midland-av; Charles P. Maus and Melvin Griggs, of the Canteen.

Mother Receives Son's War Honors

Last week a Hilltop mother received medals commemorating the heroic conduct of her son who was listed as one of the casualties of World War II.

Mrs. Talitha Biggs, 327 Wrexham-av, received the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, awarded posthumously to her son, Cpl. William A. Biggs, for meritorious service from May to July, 1945.

Cpl. Biggs was a radio operator on a B-25 reported missing in action after a bombing raid in July, 1945, against a Japanese-held island in the Pacific.

Mrs. Biggs also received the Good Conduct Medal, Air Crew Member Wings and a radio operator's badge awarded her son.

With only two days remaining before Christmas, the Hilltop prepares to celebrate one of the most sacred of all religious holidays.

While practically all churches and most civic and fraternal groups and schools have already presented programs in keeping with the spirit of Christmas, for most of the residents of the community the material aspects will far outweigh the spiritual observance. Most stores here as in other sections of the city and nation are reporting the largest Christmas buying spree on record.

All schools closed on Friday and will not reopen until Jan. 5, thus providing pupils with a full two weeks of uninterrupted vacation. For the hundreds of employes of the postal service and the retail stores of the city, the holiday can't arrive too soon. All last week the post offices were jammed with persons mailing packages and greeting cards. Coming as it did on top of an already heavy December volume of mail, there was no assurance that all of it could be delivered by Christmas Eve.

Here is the way Christmas is being celebrated in some institutions on the Hilltop.

Schools Have Programs

Every school in the community had some type of sacred observance of the Christmas season before classes were dismissed on Friday. Special assemblies with Christmas trees were the order of the day.

Churches and Sunday Schools in many cases had their programs last week or on Sunday. Several Christmas Eve programs are scheduled and some churches will have services on Christmas morning.

The Hilltop Branch Library will be closed all day Dec. 24 and 25, and again on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

Westway Post No. 3441, VFW, and its auxiliary had a big Christmas party at club headquarters, 2393½ W. Broad-st, on Friday night for all members and their families. Likewise the West High Band Parents Club entertained more than 500 young musicians and their parents at a party held at the school Wednesday evening.

A big party was put on for boys and girls of all ages at the Glenwood Shelter House Monday afternoon and evening.

Another party for the boys and girls of the community is being planned at the Teen Canteen on the afternoon of Dec. 27, starting at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ray Cave is in charge of the party being put on by the Hilltop Community Council.

Patients Remembered

At the Columbus State Hospital 2800 patients will celebrate the Christmas season with trees and parties in every ward. There will be gifts and candy for every patient. Members of the staff have been busy for days wrapping gifts donated by Columbus residents for more than 1500 of the patients who are otherwise forgotten by friends or relatives. One of the biggest of the parties planned is that for the "workers", those patients who volunteer their services in the various wards, the kitchen, laundry, grounds, etc. This is held today. On Dec. 29 a post-Christmas party and entertainment will be given by the Keith School of Dancing with the Hammond Entertainers.

At the Columbus State School more than 40 Christmas trees are trimmed and ready to help spread joy throughout the grounds that are home to 200 boys, girls and adults. Here again, every patient will get at least one gift. Many of these must be provided from the "industrial amusement fund" or

GM Official Pleased With 1st Year Here

By Paul Wichterman

In spite of material shortages and other delays in the automotive industry, the Columbus plant of Fisher Body-Ternstedt now has approximately 2100 employees on its payroll in a little more than one year of plant operation.

"We hope to be going along at a better clip next year," James L. Conlin, resident manager of the factory, said in a recent interview.

"Our employment is on the rise and we expect 1948 to be better than 1947," the executive said.

The local plant, a General Motors Corporation affiliate, started production in a limited way in September, 1946, long before the building was completed. Volume production did not get under way until after the first of the year and the office portion of the huge factory was not ready for occupancy until the spring of 1947.

Mr. Conlon admitted that employment had not increased as rapidly as he had at first expected. Shortages in large sheet steel have slowed down the production of automobile bodies, thus creating less of a demand for automobile hardware, made by the local factory. Material shortages have not hampered local production seriously, he said, but the effect of production lags on the assembly lines has been just as [illegible].

Builds Auto Hardware

The plant fabricates dozens of auto hardware items used on all makes of General Motors vehicles. Garnish moldings, used around doors and windows of GM cars constitute the largest single item turned out by this factory. Other items include stainless steel trim for decorative purposes, door locks, window regulators, door hinges, lid supports and ventilators, to mention only a few.

"It has always been the policy of General Motors to build gradually and securely," Mr. Conlon pointed out. "We try not to put on an additional employee until we know that his job will be as permanent as we can determine that a job can be."

He explained that this had been the rule during the initial year of the Columbus plant's operation and would continue to be the case.

Most of the production workers are employed on the day shift. A partial second shift has been in operation for several months but because of the lag in the production of finished automobiles, it has not been built up to capacity.

Mr. Conlon feels that the housing shortage has created something of a problem for some of the Fisher Body-Ternstedt employees but it has not been as serious as that of transportation. While busses do run past the plant on Georgesville-rd, their schedules are limited and connections with transportation to other parts of the city are not good. Many of the employees still have to rely on share-the-ride arrangements.

Completion of U. S. Route 40 will be some help to employees who drive to work, the resident manager said.

In looking back over the first year's activities Conlon said, "We certainly have enjoyed the associations made in the community. The merchants, other business people and the residents in general have cooperated with us in every way. All of our management personnel who moved here from Detroit have become boosters for Columbus and we're glad we have our homes here," he said.

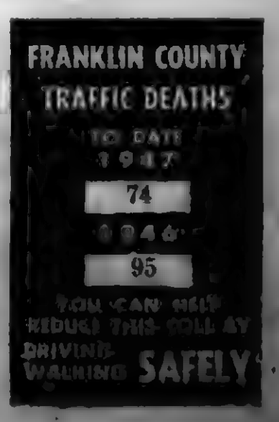
James L. Conlon

While the factory is now complete, all of the floor space is not yet in use. New departments are still being set up as the demand for more parts is felt. There is still work to be done on the outside of the plant, Mr. Conlon said.

"Now that U. S. 40 is completed it will give us an opportunity to do some more landscaping," he said. "We want to keep our property looking nice so that the community will be glad we're here.

Boothe, Hoelcher Are Selected As Class Speakers

By Casey



The newly elected speakers for the Jan. 28 commencement ceremony to be held at 8 p. m. in West High auditorium are Norris Boothe and Ruth Hoelcher.

Jack Thrush and Alice Mercer will serve as alternates in case of illness to the speakers.

Ruth will speak on "The Next Four Years," and Norris will speak on "The Power of Education." Each speech will be five minutes in length.

Tryouts were held Thursday, Dec. 18, during the third and fourth periods.

The contestants were judged on content and delivery by the following teachers: Lucian Copley, dramatics instructor; Myron T. Seifert, English and journalism teacher; Katherine Green, English teacher; Mrs. Jane Thomas, English teacher; and Mrs. Mary Dugan, English teacher.

YFW Auxiliary Has Christmas Party

The Westway Auxiliary, VFW, was entertained at an annual Christmas party Dec. 15, at the home of the president, Mrs. Paul C. Weimer, 442 S. Powell-av.

An exchange of gifts was held and the group played various games. The president presented each officer with a personal gift in appreciation of their cooperation during the past year. Ethel Becker, senior vice-president, gave the president a gift also, from the group as a whole.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Weimer and her entertainment chairman, Virgie Ballanger.

A trimmed Christmas tree, candles and poinsettias were used by the hostess to lend the house a holiday air.

The Hilltop Record can be mailed to a friend. $1.50 per year anywhere in Franklin County.

TWIG 42 OFFICERS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Other officers not present when the picture was taken are: Jean Randall, 88 N. Terrace-av, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Charlie Drake, Jr. 2213 Homestead-dr.

Mildred McDaniel To Marry Cpl. Peeks On Christmas

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. McDaniel, 192 S. Hague-av, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mildred Frances, to Cpl. William D. Peeks, Jr., of Dayton, O.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Columbus West High School and attended Ohio State University and Capital University Conservatory of Music. Cpl. Peeks is a graduate of Roosevelt High School at Dayton and attended the Dayton YMCA College. He is now stationed at Lackbourne Air Base.

The open church ceremony will be an event of Dec. 28, at 12:30 o'clock, at Centenary Methodist Church, 18th and Long-sts. The officiating minister will be Rev. W. H. McCallum.

DINNER PARTY HELD

Twig 77 of Children's Hospital enjoyed a Christmas dinner party at the home of Mrs. Joe Chesser, 2446 Sullivant-av, Wednesday evening, Dec. 17.

The following officers for 1948 were elected: Mrs. Jack Mitchell, chairman; Mrs. Joe Chesser, vice-chairman; and Mrs. Peggy Davis, secretary-treasurer.

Collins-Johnson Vows Exchanged Nov. 26

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Eubanks Johnson, 1678 E. Main-st, and Mr. Thomas G. Collins of 293 Whitethorne-av. The single-ring ceremony took place in New York on Wednesday, Nov. 26, at 3:30 p. m.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert I. Eubanks of Jackson, attended Otterbein College, where she became a member of Tau Delta Sorority, and received her bachelor's degree from Ohio State University, where she was associated with the Pi Lambda Theta. She is now a member of the elementary faculty at the Grove City schools.

Mr. Collins is employed at the main post office. The couple is now at home at 1678 E. Main-st.

West Graduate To Be Married In Feb.

Mrs. Helen Louise Jessup, 398 Carpenter-st, announces the engagement of her daughter, Lois Joan, to Mr. Richard S. Voit, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Voit, 858 Heyl-av.

Miss Jessup is a graduate of West High School and is now employed by Culbertson-Henderson. Mr. Voit attended Aquinas before entering the service and is now employed by his father. The wedding will be an event of early February.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Arrington

White mums, palms and candelabra fashioned the altar background for the double-ring wedding ceremony of Miss Betty Jane Lawhead to Mr. John W. Arrington, performed in Bethlehem Lutheran Church on Nov. 23. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Lawhead, 2671 Whitehead-rd. Mr. Arrington made his home at 814 S. 18th-st.

Rev. E. J. Klamfoth officiated at the 4:30 p. m. service.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, chose a white satin bridal gown featuring a sweetheart neckline and flared peplum trimmed in seed pearls. The long flowing skirt ended in a train. The fitted sleeves came to points over the hands, and her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiny halo. Her bouquet was of white roses centered with a white orchid. Around her neck she wore a single strand of pearls.

Mrs. Richard Dugan of Newark, sister of the bridegroom, served the bride as matron of honor. She was attired in mauve rose taffeta and carried yellow flowers. Her gown was styled with short puffed sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Miss Jean Meservey and Mrs. Herbert Baus were bridesmaids in peacock blue and carried bouquets of salmon colored fall flowers. Little Marlene Horton was the flower girl in baby blue and carried a basket of yellow mums. The attendants' gowns were identical to that of the matron of honor. All wore sterling necklaces, a gift from the bride. The little flower girl received a matching necklace and bracelet.

Mr. Arthur Lawhead, Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man, with Mr. James Vest and Mr. Richard Dugan seating the guests.

A reception was held at the church with Mrs. John McClurg and Mrs. James Esly as senior hostesses and Miss Helen Dunning, Miss Dorothy Henghst and Miss Laura Lawhead as junior hostesses.

Mrs. Lawhead received her guests in a dress of plum crepe with black accessories. She highlighted her costume with a corsage of pink roses.

The bride is a graduate of West High School. She attended Hunter College and Ohio State University and served two years in the WAVES.

Mr. Arrington served three years overseas in the army. He attended Ohio State University.

Before leaving for their trip, the bride changed to a brown dressmakers suit with brown accessories and pinned the orchid from her bouquet at her shoulder.

They spent a week in Chicago, and are now at home at 2671 Whitehead-rd.

Again we take this opportunity to wish you one and all a Happy Christmas holiday season.

St. Nicholas WISHES A MERRY YULETIDE TO ALL

Of Course you believe in Santy! . . . But even if you don't right now, the chances are ten to one that at one time in your career — the short pants or long curls stage — there was no doubt in your mind that there was a Santa Claus. You not only believed in him but you were in awe of him!

Santa Claus was a short roly-poly gentleman habitually clad in red with flowing white beard. He drove through the world Christmas Eve in a heavily-laden sleigh drawn by eight dashing reindeer.

It's a beautiful old myth — as much a part of the joyous Christmas season as is our annual wish for a Merry Yuletide for you and yours!

Local Players Are On Radio Program

Annis Turner, director of the Glenwood Theatre Guild, appeared on a radio dramatization of a Christmas story, "Unto the Least of These," over WCOL-FM Sunday night at 8 o'clock. Pat Aspel is one of the producers and directors of the show.

Columbus Little Theater of the Air will feature a well-known play each Sunday evening at this time. Next Sunday the show will feature "Blot On the Landscape." Tom Bohannan, president of the Glenwood Theatre Guild, and Gene Paul will be in the cast.

Glenwood Unit Visits Veterans Hospital

The Glenwood Unit of the Blue Star Mothers visited the Veterans' Hospital at Chillicothe Sunday, Dec. 14. They provided entertainment and refreshments for the boys.

Frank Ongaro, 59 Letchworth-av, gave several selections on his accordion and Bobbie Johnson entertained with piano selections. The entire group sang Christmas carols, with Mrs. F. Johnson at the piano.

Ice cream bars, candy canes and home made cookies were given 228 men.

While at the hospital they visited two Hilltop boys, Carl Slaughter and Carlos Matheney, and John Burns, also a Columbus man, to whom they presented personal gifts.

The unit left 58 stocking caps for the patients and 75 miscellaneous gifts to be distributed Christmas morning.

Wedemeyer-Beaver Vows Taken In Ky.

Mrs. James J. Carlson, 101 N. Eureka-av, announced this week the marriage of her daughter, Nora L. Beaver, to Mr. Glenn R. Wedemeyer. The bride is the daughter of A. L. Beaver of Chicago and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wedemeyer, 393 Derrer-rd.

The marriage was an event of Dec. 18 in Greenup, Ky.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wedemeyer attended West High School.

On Westmont Christmas Menu

On the trail of a fabulous bandit; known as the Poet, gambler Dennis Morgan queries stagecoach official Bruce Bennett, in the action packed new western-romance, "Cheyenne," opening with a special Christmas Day matinee at the Westmont Theater. Jane Wyman co-stars with Dennis Morgan in "Cheyenne," which will be co-featured with "Home In Indiana," technicolor harness racing picture, starring Jeanne Crain and June Haver.

West Unit Of Blue Star Mothers Has Christmas Party

The West Unit Blue Star Mothers met Monday evening Dec. 15, at the American Legion Hall, Burgess-av, at W. Broad-st.

Mrs. Clifford Thompson, rehabilitation and hospital chairman for West Unit, and several members visited the Chillicothe Veterans Hospital on Dec. 15. Those making the trip included, Mrs. Thomas Sheehy, Mrs Louis Kruczynski, Mrs. Boyd Marmon, Mrs. Shirley Van Gastle, Mrs. J. E. Barlow, Mrs. Harvey Burton, Mrs. Minnie Davis and the guest musician, Mrs. Wilma Johnson.

Two wards, approximately 100 boys, were entertained with music and treats. Sixty-three wrapped gifts were left at the institution to be distributed on Christmas Day.

The newly elected officers of the group are Mrs. Clyde Dennison, chairman; Mrs. Louis Kruczynski, co-chairman; Mrs. Rose Squeo, secretary and Mrs. Harvey Burton, treasurer.

A Christmas party followed the Dec. 15 meeting. Mrs. W. E. Brannan, chaplain, presented a program of readings and music. Carols were sung by the group, there was a gift exchange, and refreshments were served.

S1c—See that sailor over there annoying that girl?

SP—Why, he's not even looking at her.

S2c — That's what's annoying her.

Watchnight Service Planned At Hillcrest

A New Year's Eve social and watchnight service will be held at Hillcrest Baptist Church Dec. 31. The social period will be under the supervision of the Keystone Class of the church and will begin at 9:30 p. m. In addition to the social program, refreshments will be served.

The watchnight service will begin at 11 p. m. and will include a candlelight communion service. The choir of the church will sing special music and the minister, Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, will bring a New Year's message on the subject, "A New Book On The Shelf." All are invited to this service.

Confusion

Working around The Hilltop Record office has its embarrassing moments but last week was the first time Yours Truly was ever involved in a car theft or shall we say a case of mistaken identity.

It all happened when I volunteered to do my "daily good turn" by driving Joe Agee's car down to his home on S. Ogden-av where Mrs. Agee was waiting for it. Was my face red when I discovered I had driven the wrong Chevrolet. A hurried call back to the Record office revealed that the Chevy in question belonged to one Charley Reichelderfer, who at the moment was sitting in the office not knowing that his car was missing.

The thing we haven't been able to figure out yet is why Joe's ignition key would start Charley's car but not vice versa. Now we're considering trying the key on some '47 models.

Anyway Charley should worry about a little thing like a car theft. He writes insurance and could probably have called the insurance company and told them to send him out a new car.

Ours was not the only case of confusion over cars this past week.

Jack Sensenbrenner unlocked someone else's Pontiac and was seated behind the wheel before he realized it wasn't his car.

Then Lou Maish gave his Sporting Goods Store partner, Bob Postle, a scare last week, the day of the Chestnut-st fire.

Lou had driven Bob's Oldsmobile down town to transact some business at the Ohio Farm Bureau. While he was in the office, the fire broke out near the place the car was parked. Realizing the car might be in the way of firemen, he hurriedly moved it to a safer parking place and then called the store to leave word for Bob that his car was parked in front of a burning building.

Of course Bob took the whole story with a grain of salt until minutes later he heard a news flash to the effect that a general alarm fire was in progress. Lou let him sweat until several hours later when he drove the car back, none-the-worse for the experience.

Nice Work

The big cake they had baked special for the West High Band Parents Christmas party was sure a duzy. It was covered with buff colored icing trimmed in brown to carry out the school colors. On the top deck was a director with raised baton and around the side was the musical score of the "West High School Song."

James M. Hesler, 287 N. Algonquin-av, was the decorator.

Well In Advance

Even the ministers of the Hilltop are slightly confused by Christmas, changing copy deadlines, etc. One of the local clergy dropped his church announcement on my desk with the notation: "Announcements for Sunday, Jan. 28, 1947."

3 Are Injured In Sunday Crashes

Charles Hildwein, 73, of 120 Binns-blvd, suffered a head cut and possible fracture of the skull Sunday night when he was struck by an auto driven by Eugene Stewart, 1559 Thomas-av. The accident occurred at W. Broad-st and Rodgers-av. The injured man was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

George Murdock, 18, of 73 W. Park-av, was also injured Sunday morning when the auto he was driving struck a parked truck in the 3200 block of W. Broad-st. His condition was reported as "fair" at Mt. Carmel Hospital, where he was treated for head cuts, a fracture of the right arm and a possible skull fracture.

Thomas Murdock, 21, of New Rome, a passenger in the car, also suffered body bruises. He, too, was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio. No. 122311—Victor Voeller, Administrator, with Will Annexed of the Estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. Margaret Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Victor L. Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney, Mrs. John Coleman, 2648 Tremont Road, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Sadie Young, 287 East Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Buell, 688 High Street, Worthington, Ohio; Mrs. Margaret Russell, Cleveland, Ohio; Frank Snable, whose address is unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, Will Snable, Lima, Ohio, Defendants.

James Courtney and Barbara Courtney, whose last known place of residence is 1357 Lucile Ave., Los Angeles, 26, California, and Frank Snable, whose address is unknown, are hereby notified that on Feb. 10, 1947, Victor Voeller, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio, filed his petition in Cause No. 122311 in the Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio; that they have been made parties defendant in said cause.

Plaintiff further says that on or about the 17th day of January, 1947, Barbara Gray died a resident of Franklin County, Ohio, leaving a Will which was admitted to probate by the Probate Court of said County and State on or about the 10th day of February, 1947, that thereafter administration proceedings were had as to the Estate of the said Barbara Gray, deceased, as more particularly set forth in the proceedings and the records of said Probate Court and that the Inventory and Appraisement has been filed in said Estate. Said Will is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Plaintiff says that the house mentioned in said Will on Linwood Avenue was sold in 1946.

Plaintiff further says that Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney died after the execution of said Will.

Plaintiff further says there was in the safety deposit box in the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch, Four Thousand One Hundred Forty Dollars ($4,140.00), Five (5) One Thousand Dollar ($1000.00) United States, Series G, Bonds and a Postal Savings of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). That there was in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, the sum of Two Hundred One Dollars and fifty-nine cents ($201.59), that Barbara Gray died seized in fee simple of the property located at 1070 City Park Avenue; that the insurance amounted to the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-six Dollars ($356.00) and has been paid to the Administrator herein.

That the said Barbara Gray died, leaving no heirs closer than first cousins; that Margaret Voeller, mentioned in said will, is a first cousin of said Barbara Gray, deceased, and that said Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Sadie Young, Mrs. Anna Buell, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Frank Snable and Will Snable are first cousins of the said Barbara Gray, deceased; that Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney and Victor Voeller are second cousins of said Barbara Gray, deceased.

That besides the property mentioned in said petition there is a diamond ring and household furnishings.

That there are important, difficult and doubtful questions respecting said Will, and the disposition of said property under said Will and that plaintiff is in doubt as to the construction of said Will and as to the rights of parties in the distribution of the property under said Will, that plaintiff is in doubt about the following:

(1) As to whether the insurance is to go to Raymond Ayres, under the provisions of said Will?
(2) That plaintiff is in doubt, since the property on Linwood Avenue was sold prior to the death of said Barbara Gray, whether said devisees mentioned as to receive said property, are entitled to anything under said Will.
(3) That plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the 1070 City Park Avenue is to go to the heirs of Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney, who were deceased prior to Barbara Gray's decease, or to Margaret Voeller or to become a part of the residuary estate and be divided among all the cousins mentioned herein.
(4) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether said insurance is to be paid to Margaret Voeller.
(5) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the $4140.00 in cash, which was in the safety deposit box of the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch; the five $1000.00, Series G United States Bonds, also in said safety deposit box, and the $201.59 in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, after the payment of debts goes to said Victor Voeller.

That if the Court should decide that the five $1000.00 Bonds do not go to Victor Voeller or any other part contained in said safety deposit box; out of which the debts of the estate are to be paid first, and to whom is the balance to go.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will and the disposition of the property under said Will and as to his duties in the premises and especially to the five questions raised in the petition herein and an order as to the duties of the plaintiff in regard to them.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before Jan. 26, 1948 or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

Crowd Greets C and S Store Opening

from outside gifts because there are no close friends or relatives who remember at this season of the year. Selections from Handel's "Messiah" will be sung at a special program today by the girls' chorus. The school orchestra will also play. Carolers will visit every cottage on Christmas Eve and a turkey dinner with all the trimmings will highlight Christmas Day.

A turkey dinner will also be on the menu at the Friends Rescue Home, 245 N. Powell-av, on Christmas Day. In the evening Christian Endeavor groups will present a religious program. Gifts will be exchanged, many of them being provided by ladies' societies of the Friends Church.

Approximately 106 children at the Bureau of Juvenile Research have been getting into the Christmas spirit for more than a week. Last Thursday a magic show was held for the boys and girls followed by a party and dance for the adult workers. On Friday the Chamber of Commerce sent out a Santa Claus with candy for all.

Today the children will present a Christmas play and program. Eleven trees have been decorated in various parts of the grounds. Presents will be given out on Christmas morning. Pupils at Highland Avenue School helped provide some of the presents.

Turkey with all of the trimmings will be served for Christmas dinner.

The Valleyview Literary Guild will meet Dec. 30 at the home of Mrs. P. C. Edwards, 479 N. Hague-av. Mrs. R. C. Cromer will be the assisting hostess. Mrs. Ralph Sharn and Mrs. Charles Meacham will be in charge of the Christmas program. There will be a gift exchange.

Couple Observes 68th Anniversary On Christmas

One Hilltop couple will be celebrating its 68th wedding anniversary on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stoltz of 321 Whitethorne-av, Hilltop residents for the past 28 years, will observe this double celebration quietly at their home. The couple was married in Pickerington, Fairfield County. Mrs. Stoltz is 87. Her husband is 103. They have no children.

Dick Jones To Study At Mexico College Thru Next Quarter

One Hilltop ex-service man will be enjoying all of the comforts of the sunny South this winter while continuing to pursue his university studies.

He is Dick Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Haydn Jones, 190 S. Roys-av, a senior at Ohio State University. He leaves on Dec. 29 with a group of OSU students to spend the winter quarter at the Mexico City College in Mexico City.

A student in fine arts education, Dick will also study social sciences and will graduate following the spring quarter upon his return from Mexico. Approximately 60 students are planning to spend the winter quarter in that way.

While in Mexico City most of them will room in private homes. They will have recess to the facilities of a country club and expect to find time to swim play tennis and engage in other year-round sports typical of that climate.

Jones will travel with a group of 15 students making the trip by Greyhound bus. They expect to spend New Year's Eve in San Antonio, Tex.

Dick graduated from West High School in 1941 and spent three years with a tank destroyer unit. He had completed four quarters at OSU before enlisting.

Mentorwood Lodge To Honor Officers

Mentorwood Lodge, No. 770, Knights of Pythias, will meet Jan. 13, at which time the group will be honored by the entire staff of line officers of the Grand Lodge of Ohio. The organization holds its meetings in the American Legion Hall, W. Broad-st at Burgess-av.

The January meeting will honor former judge, A. W. Weber, 2642 York-rd, former past grand chancellor of the state, who now holds the office of Supreme Representative.

Wilbur Herdman, 255 Arcadia-av, is chancellor of the lodge.

Gob—Would you turn off the lights if we were on that davenport?

Gal—Why, of course not, you lazy thing.

Quick Action Avoids Near Disaster Here

Quick action and calm thinking on the part of an eight-year-old girl and a 13-year-old boy avoided a disaster here last Friday.

The incident happened on the stage of Franklin Heights School during a Christmas program.

Little Martha Petrosio, 8, was singing "Rockabye Baby" in a scene of the play when the sleeve of her chenille robe caught fire from a lighted candle. Jimmie Thompson, 13, the stage manager for the play, dashed from the wings and smothered the flames.

Martha continued her song. As she finished, she placed her doll in the crib on the stage and then walked into the wings where she began to cry. Her mother, Mrs. Frank Petrosio, 3824 W. Broad-st, watched the incident from a seat in the audience. Mrs. Paul N. Thompson, 23 Voiney-av, Jimmie's mother, was also a spectator.

Question and answer from a paper on English: Explain the meaning of "There was no love lost between them." Answer: "They went courting every night."

Across The HILLTOP ALLEYS

By Dick Ardle

Last week the Hilltop section of the fabulous West Side lost one of its greatest bowlers, Charles William (Charlie) Vorce.

Charlie was 71 years old but for the past eight months he had been sick in bed at his home, 109 N. Burgess-av. Even this didn't stop Charlie. He kept right up with his favorite Suburban League, by having one of the league members keep him informed on its doings.

For 16 years he captained the Hilltop Van and Storage team of this league.

He was born in Athens, O., but lived in Columbus 24 years. He threw his first strike in Nelsonville a half century ago. He twice rolled games of 290 and once carried an average of 190.

On behalf of all the bowlers I would like to extend our deepest sympathy and our extreme hope that we will be able to carry on where Charlie left off.

 * Bowler of Week * ***

In place of the bowler of the week I would like to remind the bowlers of the Wednesday night Suburban and Thursday night Business Men's League will observe Christmas and New Year's and will not roll again until Jan. 7. The women of the Wednesday and Thursday leagues will observe the same rule.

 * Bowling Bits * ***

Our bowling gem goes to Carl Breckenridge, whose 646 series was high for this week. Carl started off with a 228 game. His middle game was 178 and then he finished with a grand 247 game. Carl was rolling for Shank & Saunders on Thursday evening when he had his "big" series.

Pirates Rout Cowboys In League Encounter

Central Wins By 45-39 Score

The West High Cowboys found Central a tough customer Friday night as the Pirates turned back George Williams' boys by a score of 45 to 39. It was the third defeat suffered by the Hilltoppers in eight starts and left Central the only undefeated five in the City League.

The Cowboys were scheduled to meet Marion on the Presidents' court Saturday night. (See section A of today's Hilltop Record for an account of this game.)

In a hard fought preliminary game, the Pirate Reserves nosed out Fred Heischman's boys by one point in an exciting contest. The score was 27-26.

Paul Theisen, with 10 points, was high on the scoring list for West but that did not match the 13 tallies credited to Central's John Mixon or the 12 made by Bill Bales.

The game was a see-saw affair throughout the first two quarters with the lead changing hands six times to end in a half time score of 20-20. The Pirates came back in the second half to play an outstanding defensive game while finding the net with increasing accuracy as the game progressed.

Central Takes Lead

Central center, Ralph Readout, tossed in eight points in the second half of the game as the Pirates forged ahead by a 33-24 score. The Cowboys did pull up to within four points of the undefeated Downtowners as the third period ended.

Duffy Burton came through with nine points for the Cowboys, closely followed by Walter Hicks with eight and Captain Jack Thrush with seven.

The score at the end of each period follows:

West	5	20	33	39
Central	8	20	37	45

CITY HI LEAGUE CAGE STANDINGS

Central	5	0	1.000
East	1	1	.500
West	1	1	.500

4 West Players Pick Schools

At least four senior members of the 1947 championship West High football team are more or less settled on schools they will enter next fall.

Bill Buckingham and Curt Westerman both all-city selections, will enroll at Ohio University where they will play under the tutelage of Frank Richey, freshman coach there and former outstanding Cowboy grid star, and Harold Wise, grid mentor who coached West teams to two city championships back during the '30's.

Dick Hershberger and Bob Smith, who saw plenty of action this year, are planning to go to Capital University where Dale Rose, another former West coach, is in charge. Also slated for the Lutheran school is Bob Miles, who played under Rose at West before going into the armed services.

From The Record Files

15 Years Ago

C. H. Campbell, of Campbell's Pharmacy, 2766 W. Broad-st, was elected president of the Hilltop Business Men's Association at its meeting Tuesday evening.

The "Show Boat" minstrel, presented last night and to be shown again this evening, with Capt. John Bachman leading the show, was well received by a sizeable audience. The variety show also features Booth Tarkington's comedy, "The Trysting Place."

All Columbus schools and especially those on the Hilltop have noticed a drastic fall in attendance during the past week due to an influenza epidemic. Not since 1918 has the flu taken such a toll, according to H. H. Keighley, principal of West Junior High School.

Three people were injured, one seriously, early yesterday morning when an interurban car crashed into an auto at Sullivant and Hague, which was driven by Mrs. W. J. Bond, 582 Larcomb-av. In the car with Mrs. Bond were her daughter, Anna, and Dorothea Lawson, 614 S. Eureka-av. The auto driver received severe lacerations on both knees and a deep cut on her forehead.

10 Years Ago

C. Carlton Hartley, publisher of the Hilltop Record, is the newly elected president of the Hilltop Business Men's Association.

Elihu Doddington, 44 N. Warren-av, well known Hilltop figure for many years, died of pneumonia Monday night in a St. Petersburg, Fla., hospital. He was one of the original founders and president of the Doddington Lumber Co. since 1912.

Jeanette Lobin carried the lead role in the recent dramatic success at West High School entitled "Rosalie Runs Riot."

Paley's Drug Store, Sullivant at Whitethorne-avs, has a Christmas special—"Delicious chocolate coated cherries at 29c lb."

Samuel H. Jones Graduates Cum Laude

Samuel Hubbert Jones, 434 S. Eureka-av, received the bachelor of science degree in education with cum laude honors in graduation ceremonies at Ohio State University Friday. He was one of 31 students receiving special honors in the autumn quarter graduating class.

He plans to continue work toward a master's degree next quarter unless a teaching position becomes available at the start of the next school term. A graduate of West High School, Jones served almost four years in the Army Quartermaster Corps. Twenty-nine months were spent in the Pacific Theater. He is married.

To date William Howard Taft is the only president of the U. S. to later become chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coulter (Martha Breckenridge) are home from their wedding trip and are living temporarily with his parents on Pasadena-av.

The falling temperature and rainy evening had no effect on the attendance at the Rome Study Club progressive supper last Monday night. About 30 members were present, and gifts were received for the Detention Home. The regular meeting was held at the home of Mrs. O. G. Riebel. Each member was asked to give an account of some outstanding feature regarding her past Christmases. This was very interesting. It was revealed that families in general have pretty much the same experiences. The membership of this organization is limited, but guests are always made welcome. The guests for this evening were Mrs. English, Mrs. Forest Dougherty, Mrs. Barnecut, Mrs. Richey, Mrs. Shaner and Mrs. Broyles.

The annual Christmas party and regular meeting of the WSCS of Columbia Heights Church was held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Sheets. Twenty-eight members and several visitors were in attendance. It was a pot-luck affair and gifts were received for the Columbus State Hospital.

Friday night the community of New Rome had its first meeting regarding the installation of traffic lights on W. Broad-st. There was good representation, but it was decided to have each street solicited to find out the views of each home. Captains were appointed for each street. During this meeting the fire department received a call. Two of the firemen left immediately. Floyd Armstrong returned and took Dr. Mitchell to the home of Mr. Justice, Gladys-rd. He was overcome with monoxide gas. He had been working in his garage, but noticed no fumes whatever. Dr. Mitchell remained with him for some time.

William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska was nominated for the presidency of the United States three times by the Democratic

In honor of those who made the Supreme Sacrifice for their country, Sunset Cemetery is erecting the beautiful MEMORIAL SHRINE pictured above.

This shrine will be placed in one of the many beautiful sections of what is now acknowledged to be the most attractive cemetery in the Columbus area.

If you are planning to bring a loved one back from overseas, you owe it to him, as well as to yourself, to visit Sunset before making your selection for his final resting place.

Lots in this Memorial Section are now available to all who have been in any branch of our armed services, and to their families. All lots are reasonably priced, and if so desired, may be purchased on a dignified payment plan with no interest charges added.

Finding The Christ of Christmas . . .

By Rev. Chester Stanley
Pres. Hilltop Ministerial Assn.

The spirit of Christmas has taken us. I think that I am safe in saying, it has taken us all. You don't need a minister to announce that the Spirit of Christmas has filled our every mind, but we come to you today asking WHICH SPIRIT of Christmas it is that has taken you? Is it the Spirit of Santa Claus? Is it the Spirit of Merry Making? Is it the Spirit of Giving? Of Receiving? Of Feasting? Or is it the true Spirit, the Spirit of Christ? Are we stirred this Christmas time because of our Great Creator? Or is it just bright bits of His creation? Is it the Gracious Gift of God, or is it but the trifling gifts of men? After all there is but one true Spirit of Christmas—the Spirit of Christ. Find that and you find all. The Poet says:

"Though Christ a thousand times
In Bethlehem be born,
If He's not born in thee
Thy soul is still forlorn."

Some one is saying just what does it mean to find the Christ? In answer, I doubt if any living soul this side of heaven can fully tell. To find the Christ does mean —to sense His wooing spirit; to feel our need of a Saviour; to yield ourselves to Him; to humbly bow at His feet; to know our sins forgiven; and to heed His blessed Word. The song writer says, "It Is Glory Just To Walk With Him."

The story is told of a ship sunken in the sea with its cargo of gold. Divers had labored hard and long without success, until one day the cry came up the wire —"I have found the ship, I have touched the gold." To find the Christ of Christmas and to know His grace is to find the ship and to touch the gold.

The Shepherds found Him. There wasn't a doubt in their minds. There wasn't a worry about their flocks. And when they had found Him they went forth rejoicing.

The Wise Men found Him and at His cradle bowed in worship. They gave Him gifts and then, like the shepherds, went their way rejoicing.

Old Simeon found Him for whom he had waited. His heart rejoiced, he gave praises unto God, and showered blessings on Joseph and Mary.

All down through the centuries since—men, women and young people have found Him and their hearts have been made to rejoice. So at this Christmas time the Saviour stands at the door making it possible for all to find Him. Shop and I have touched the May every reader be able to say gold."

Policaro Operates New Cleaning Plant

A new and modern cleaning establishment was recently opened on the Hilltop at 2437 Sullivant-av by Mr. and Mrs. D. Policaro, 695 S. Eureka-av.

Mr. Policaro had previously operated another plant on the Hilltop before going into the army. During the time he was in service he operated and serviced cleaning plants in Europe for the armed services.

Prizes Worth $125 Await First Arrival

By far the most impressive list of prizes ever offered in a Hilltop Stork Derby will go to the first 1948 arrival and his (or her) parents as The Hilltop Record conducts its eleventh annual event. At least $200 worth of useful gifts await the first baby to be born in the community after the stroke of midnight on Dec. 31.

The winner of the contest will be determined by the time of birth certified by the attending physician. Proof of the time of birth must be established at The Record not later than 12 o'clock noon on Jan. 5. The following information should be included:

1. Date, hour, minute and place of birth.
2. Give parents' full names and address.
3. Give name, sex, weight and color of baby's eyes.
4. Be sure the name and signature of the attending physician is attached.

To be eligible for the prizes the parents must live in the Hilltop area bounded on the east by Central-av, on the west by the western Franklin Township line and including the Rome community, on the north by Trabue Road, on the south by Frank and Clime Roads, or any Hilltop Record subscriber living west of the Scioto River, in Franklin County.

The gifts and their donors are as follows:

A baby scale—Gearhart's Hardware, 2387 Sullivant-av.

Set of eight Evenflo nursery bottles and an electric bottle warmer and vaporizer — Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av.

Charity Newsies Are Open For Business

Applications for aid from the Charity Newsies should be made immediately, Howard F. Foley, 2984 Neil-av, the newly appointed manager of the Charity Newsies' Store, announced last week.

The store was opened last Tuesday in the west basement of Memorial Hall and will remain open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily except Sunday, when the hours will be 12 m. to 5 p. m.

All requests for assistance will be investigated by the Newsies, who financed their program of aid to the needy by receiving more than $25,000 from the sale of the charity newspaper last Saturday.

If you wash your hands frequently during the day, it's a good idea to have a bottle of hand lotion close by. In your desk drawer, if you're an office worker; or near the sink, if you're a homemaker.

Bells Are Universal Symbol Of Christmas Around The World

Each nation has its individual symbols of Christmas: In England there is the Yule log, in France the candles and in Holland the wooden shoe. But throughout the entire world there is one universal symbol, the bells of Christmas.

This is strange because bells were not associated with the church until at least 400 A. D. when Paulinus, an Italian bishop, installed them in his church. Some bell authorities claim that Pope Sabinianus gave us the first church bells in 604.

The custom has grown until there is perhaps no use of church bells so widely known in Christian countries as the ringing of chimes to herald the advent of the birth of Christ. From huge cathedrals to tiny country churches; from the frozen Arctic to the sunny tropics, the bells peal forth each Christmas season an old, old story of "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

America's very national existence is wrapped up in the priceless Liberty Bell at Philadelphia, and certainly no one can say that bell music isn't the most democratic music in the world.

In recent years the ancient bell has "grown up" into the carillon, a highly sensitive instrument on which Christmas carols seem to find their most perfect expression. There are now more than 200 of these instruments, 30 of them in the United States. Similar to the carillon, but differing in the number of bells, tuning and arrangement of keyboard, are chimes. Some of the finest chimes hang in English cathedrals and spread the Christmas message each December.

A chapter in the history of bells may be found in the story of almost any creed of culture. First known in the East, they were used by aboriginal people as ornaments. They came down through Grecian days and called Roman citizens to the forums, later summoning early Christians to worship. In the Middle ages they called people to arise, guided the far-away traveler.

Napoleon loved bells so dearly he would not destroy them, while Henry VIII took fiendish delight in destroying them.

Bells have made people laugh and cry, have stirred them to action and lulled them to sleep. Bells are the simplest, yet the most compelling musical instrument in the world and it is fitting that they should toll the universal message of Christmas, of "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

Hilltop Hymn Sing To Be At Westgate Church On Sunday

The bi-weekly Hilltop Hymn Sing will be held Sunday night at the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church. The community song service follows the evening worship service, starting at 9 o'clock and continuing until 10.

The last service was held in conjunction with the Hilltop Kiwanis Club and featured the singing of carols. It filled Hoge Memorial Church to capacity.

A father was buying a fountain pen for his son's graduation gift.

"It's supposed to be a surprise, I suppose," said the clerk.

"I'll say it is," said the father. "He's expecting a convertible coupe."

St. Nicholas And The Salesgirl

By H. I. Phillips

...the night before Christmas,
when all through the flat
Not a creature was stirrin' (include me in that);
...stockin's, a little the worse for the wear,
Was slung on the back of a three-legged chair;
...tside snow was fallin' in beautiful flakes,
But I didn't care—I was too full of aches;
I'd worked in a store through the holiday strife,
And was plannin' to sleep for the rest of my life.

When up from the airshaft there came a clatter;
I leaped out of bed to see what was the matter;
(I thought at the time 'twas a nut down one flight,
Who starts up his radio late ev'ry night);
So I went to the window and loudly did cry,
"Is this Christmas Eve or the Fourth of July?"

When what to my dead-with-sleep eyes did appear
But a hinky-dinky sleigh and eight tiny reindeer.
And who should be drivin' right up to the door
But one of them masquerade guys from the store.

I said to myself, "What can be this twirp's game?"
When he eluked to his reindeer and called 'em by name;
"Now Dasher! Now Dancer! Now Prancer! Now Vixen!
On Comet! On Olsen! On Johnson and Blitzen!"
An' just as I'm dopin' what next he will do,
Right up to the housetop the whole outfit flew!

And then in a twinklin' I heard on the roof
The prancin' an' pawin' of meat on the hoof;
(Just imagine my feelings with sleep nearly dead
And some sap with an animal ant over-head!)

As I drew in my neck and was turnin' around,
Down the chimney my visitor came with a bound;
A big bag of junk he displayed with a grin,
And he acted to me like he'd like to move in.
He was chubby, good natured and cozin' with glee—
But I ask you, dear reader, what was it to me?
The point that I make is 'twas then 2 o'clock,
And a man in my room without stoppin' to knock.

I was thinkin' how noisy he was and how slick,
When he says to me, "Lady, I'm only St. Nick."
Well, a poor tired store slave in no mood for fun,
I gave him a look and I asked him, "WHICH ONE?"
"As a Christmas rush salesgirl," I said, "you'll agree
That a look at St. Nick is no big treat to me;
This has gone far enough and this bunk's gotta stop—
Take the air with them goats or I'll yell for a cop!"

He spoke not a word but went on with his work;
And filled up my stockin's, then turned with a jerk,
And layin' a finger aside his red nose,
And, givin' a nod, up the airshaft he rose.
He sprang to his sleigh with a shake of his head,
And I pulled the shades down and fell into bed.
"Merry Christmas!" he called as away his deer flew,
And I just gave a yawn and I answers, "Sez you!"

Christmas Seal Sale 10% Ahead Of 1946

The annual sale of Christmas Seals for the fight against tuberculosis is about 10 per cent ahead of last year in Ohio, according to John A. Louis, executive secretary of the Ohio Tuberculosis and Health Association, state headquarters for the annual campaign.

Reports from 77 of the 88 counties, for the first 11 days of the sale, indicate an increase over last year of approximately 10%, or $400,263.36, Mr. Louis reports.

In Ohio, last year, the total sale of Christmas Seals was $1,010,282; of this amount 86% remains in the county where it is raised and is spent by the county associations for local tuberculosis control measures. Of the remaining 14% the state association uses 9% for research, organization, state program development and services to counties. Five per cent is used by the National Tuberculosis Association for national program, research and subsidy for states where populations are scattered and the tuberculosis problem high.

Hush little atom, don't you cry—
You'll be a big shot by and by.

Hilltop Lutheran Candlelight Service Is Christmas Eve

An 11 o'clock Christmas Eve a candlelight service will be held at the Hilltop Lutheran Church, Rev. Russell J. Olson, pastor of the church, will speak on the subject, "For Unto Us."

A half hour of special Christmas music will be presented by Mrs. Helen Plummer, at the organ, with her daughter, Patty Curl, playing the piano. The choir will sing Christmas selections.

Don't forget, please, that people who do as they please, seldom please.

No. 1 Opera Blonde

The No. 1 blonde of opera is what they're calling Dorothy Kirsten now, a title voted her at an international Beauty Show in New York.

Child Service Organization Is Started Here

A new approach to the juvenile delinquency problem in Franklin County was brought into being recently with the formation of Child Service Organization, Inc., a non-profit social service agency to finance the cost of training potentially delinquent children.

The purpose of the group is to make financial provision for special school training for children of junior high age who have become a "problem." Hundreds of such cases develop in the county each year in families where there is not sufficient income to pay for this schooling. Most of these cases at present end up in an industrial school because there is no other course open for the courts.

Contributions or inquiries should be addressed to the Child Service Organization, 50 E. Mound-st, Columbus.

Trustees of the organizati are Dr. Roy A. Burkhart, Noel Greenlee, Robert Holton, C. A fred Pollock and Richard C. M nor.

Fellowship Group In Charge Of Service

The Senior Youth Fellowshi of Westgate Evangelical Unite Brethren Church will sponsor service of carols and candles the church, 59 S. Powell-av, o Christmas Eve.

Holly Now Grown In Many Parts of Land

Grown on the hillsides of the coastal states from Maine to Texas and up the Mississippi valley to Missouri, holly is a pretty but slow-growing plant.

Leaves are evergreen, the margins of which are provided with rather widely separated spines. Weak and close-grained, the wood is exceptionally white, making it highly desirable in the manufacture of woodenware, cabinets and interior finishing.

As a result of scientific discoveries holly cuttings will take root quickly when they are treated with hormonelike substances. Christmas holly has been converted into potted plants. These plants can be set out as a permanent ornament for landscapes.

Growth regulating substances—indole butyric acid and naphthalene acetamide—are on the market in liquid or powdered form under various trade names. The chemicals are applied to plantings of fresh cuttings kept moist, cool and well shaded.

Place Roast Fat Side Up

It is not necessary to baste a roast if it is placed fat side up.

White and shiny as pearls! That's the way you want your teeth to look. But pretty teeth don't just happen. There's plenty of good, thorough brushing behind them.

Dentists advise brushing teeth twice a day with a vertical motion away from the gums. Concentrate on a few teeth at a time, brushing up on the lower teeth and down on the upper teeth.

A good idea is to keep two tooth brushes on hand so you can always brush your teeth with a dry one.

The earliest American dictionary was one published by Noah Webster in 1806.

One man — one of many — created a character who in child-like faith and all-embracing love will live through the centuries as the symbol of Christmas.

The man was Charles Dickens; his character was Tiny Tim, and in the words of Tiny Tim, oft-repeated, we'd like to say:

"A MERRY CHRISTMAS, GOD BLESS US EVERY ONE"

Nazarene Church Program Was Sunday

The annual children's Christmas program at the Walnut Avenue Church of the Nazarene was presented Sunday morning at 9:15. It featured songs, recitations and numbers by the junior department chorus.

Christmas Party Enjoyed By Troop 212

Boy Scouts of Troop 212 were entertained at their annual Christmas party on Dec. 11 by "Menge the Magician."

The party was held at the regular troop meeting. Christmas songs were led by Senior Patrol Leader Earl Cline. The Flying Eagles Patrol under the leadership of Patrol Leader Eugene Hoffman and the Pioneers under Dick Kent entertained with brief stunts and songs. Mr. Menge then amazed the boys with some sleight of hand tricks and some of his famous magic. Karl Kline and Erwin Kuhn were both fooled when they volunteered to help with the magic show.

Star badges were awarded to Earl Cline and Eugene Hoffman. One year perfect attendance bars were awarded to Jim Hallsteine, Eugene Hoffman and Robert Assey. A two year bar went to Earl Cline. Registration cards for 1948 were presented by William Hallsteine, troop committeeman.

Presents which each boy brought were exchanged. Before receiving a present, each Scout had to tell a joke. Harry Crawford, scoutmaster, was presented with a cigarette lighter by Mr. Hallsteine on behalf of the troop and the troop committee for his services.

John Ricker was introduced as the new scoutmaster. He will take over the troop the first of the year when Crawford leaves to take up his duties as an assistant district commissioner.

Ice cream, cookies and hot chocolate were served to the troop by Mr. Hoffman, assistant scoutmaster, and members of the troop committee.

The troop collected food for the needy on Monday night under the direction of William Conrad, troop committeeman.

Some people don't know what they want and won't rest until they get it.

Christmas Morning Service Is Planned

St. John Lutheran Church will observe Christmas with a morning candlelight service starting at 6 o'clock.

The choir will sing the following numbers: "Softly the Stars Were Shining"; "Shepherds Abiding in the Field"; "Jesu Bambino"; and "The Birth of Our Savior."

On Sunday, Dec. 28, at 7:45 p. m., the vested choir will present the cantata, "King of Kings." G. W. Davies, Mrs. Lon Grinstead will direct the choir. Janice Judy is the organist.

Greetings...along with our sincere thanks for your patronage this past year.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

At long last the Canteen has heat. The furnace has been fixed and the coal has come. Even the looks of the place have been improved due to more guys and gals coming around.

Within the next week the Canteen will take on a different and new look (which has nothing at all to do with the new styles). A Christmas tree has been donated by Mr. Colvill to brighten up the looks of the ballroom. We would like to thank Mr. Colville very much for his kindness. We also will have outside lights to trim the Old House.

The plans are still in the making for the New Year's Eve Party, which is definitely going to be a gay event.

The Photography Club held a party Sunday, Dec. 14, at the Canteen. Those present were BOB DICKSON, ROGER GEIST, MARILYN GRIER, PAT HORN, ROYCE and JOYCE HUGELY, PHIL McDONAUGH, JOHNNY FAUTH, WEST DENNIS, JERRY JEWELL and MEL GRIGGS. Each person was given a topic which he or she was to photograph, and believe me it's hard to photograph a topic. The results have not yet been revealed, but everyone is hopeful.

Have you noticed who is home and playing ping-pong as good as ever? It's DICK PALMER, and he's looking as if he could beat anyone who will play him.

How did JANIE PRIOR put her knee out of place? Your guess is as good as mine, but ask JANIE. Maybe she knows by now.

NORM SPELLMAN looks pretty dejected lately, and I can say I don't blame him in the slightest. Better luck next time, that is if he has enough courage to try again.

MARTHA JOHN seems to be quite a good dancer when dancing with BILL HAWES. Ask her about the dancing techniques and especially the dips.

The discussions that go on in front of the fireplace in the ballroom are really hot news or at least are interesting. Come on and join us.

The newest of questions is: Who broke the best record of "Near You," and what was their purpose? Probably some person tired of being near it and just couldn't resist "Temptation."

I know there are a lot of kids staying home nights trying to think of things to do, and a place to have fun. The Canteen should be the place for you. Come down (now that we have heat) and join in on the good times.

CHRISTMAS QUIZ

To test your Christmas spirit and knowledge, the following questions are given. You should answer half of them in order to pass.

1. Who wrote "The Night Before Christmas"?
2. What story contains the following: "a miserly old man"?
3. Where is Christmas Island?
4. Who wrote "White Christmas"?
5. In what country was mistletoe first worn around the neck to prevent sickness?
6. What does the Saxon word "hael" or "be in health" mean in connection with a Christmas custom?
7. An old Christmas superstition starts "A warm Christmas means . . ." How does it end?
8. Who is Quetzalcoatl?
9. What plant, a thorny one, traditionally blooms only at Christmas time?
10. Until her death what song did Mme. Schumann-Heink always sing on Christmas Eve?
11. What is the literal meaning of "Christmas"?
12. Where are the remains of Good St. Nicholas of Myra buried?

We take time out to wish our many patrons a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Prizes Worth $125 Await First Arrival

By far the most impressive list of prizes ever offered in a Hilltop Stork Derby will go to the first 1948 arrival and his (or her) parents as The Hilltop Record conducts its eleventh annual event. At least $200 worth of useful gifts await the first baby to be born in the community after the stroke of midnight on Dec. 31.

The winner of the contest will be determined by the time of birth certified by the attending physician. Proof of the time of birth must be established at The Record not later than 12 o'clock noon on Jan. 5. The following information should be included:

1. Date, hour, minute and place of birth.
2. Give parents' full names and address.
3. Give name, sex, weight and color of baby's eyes.
4. Be sure the name and signature of the attending physician is attached.

To be eligible for the prizes the parents must live in the Hilltop area bounded on the east by Central-av, on the west by the western Franklin Township line and including the Rome community, on the north by Trabue Road, on the south by Frank and Clime Roads, or any Hilltop Record subscriber living west of the Scioto River, in Franklin County.

The gifts and their donors are as follows:

A baby scale—Gearhart's Hardware, 2387 Sullivant-av.

Set of eight Evenflo nursery bottles and an electric bottle warmer and vaporizer — Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av.

Prizes Worth $125 Await First Arrival

By far the most impressive list of prizes ever offered in a Hilltop Stork Derby will go to the first 1948 arrival and his (or her) parents as The Hilltop Record conducts its eleventh annual event. At least $200 worth of useful gifts await the first baby to be born in the community after the stroke of midnight on Dec. 31.

The winner of the contest will be determined by the time of birth certified by the attending physician. Proof of the time of birth must be established at The Record not later than 12 o'clock noon on Jan. 5. The following information should be included:

1. Date, hour, minute and place of birth.
2. Give parents' full names and address.
3. Give name, sex, weight and color of baby's eyes.
4. Be sure the name and signature of the attending physician is attached.

To be eligible for the prizes the parents must live in the Hilltop area bounded on the east by Central-av, on the west by the western Franklin Township line and including the Rome community, on the north by Trabue Road, on the south by Frank and Clime Roads, or any Hilltop Record subscriber living west of the Scioto River, in Franklin County.

The gifts and their donors are as follows:

A baby scale—Gearhart's Hardware, 2387 Sullivant-av.

Set of eight Evenflo nursery bottles and an electric bottle warmer and vaporizer — Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av.

Make It An Old Fashioned Christmas With Turkey And All Of The Trimmings

Christmas, 1947, can truly be one of those old-fashioned affairs. Most of our food shortages have been solved, and the Yuletide table can again be the feast we all cherish.

After a very early breakfast of perhaps country sausage and pancakes, or eggs and holiday coffee cake, the family will be more than ready for the 2 or 3 o'clock feast, whiffs of which have been coming out of the kitchen all morning long while they have been unwrapping presents. Here's a really fine menu:

Christmas Dinner
Mulled Tomato Juice with Crackers
Roast Turkey with Oyster Stuffing
Cranberry-Apple Garnish
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Pink Grapefruit Salad
Assorted Relishes
Buttered Squash
Broccoli with Crumbs
Parkerhouse Rolls
Beverage
Mincemeat Pie with Whipped Cream

Stuff the turkey the day before, keep cool and start roasting it early in the morning, if it's a large bird. Candy the sweet potatoes, mash the potatoes and start broccoli one-half hour before serving. In the meantime, prepare relish tray, salad and set rolls to rise. Mincemeat pie may be made the day before, reheated before serving, but be sure to top it with fluted swirls of whipped cream before bringing it to the table.

We're sending you the best Season's greetings for a gala Yuletide and New Year.

Largest Ohio Network To Carry Ohio Bell Christmas Program

The largest network of Ohio radio stations ever used to broadcast the Ohio Bell Telephone Company's annual program of Christmas carols from the lobby of the company's headquarters building in Cleveland will be employed on Dec. 24 when employees gather for the 20th consecutive year to sing carols.

The network will include 11 stations broadcasting the original program from 11:30 to 12 noon, on Wednesday, Dec. 24, and 19 stations carrying the transcription at various times later in the day.

H. E. Smart, district commercial manager for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., said that radio stations in Columbus will carry the broadcast as follows:

WCOL, 1-1:30 p. m; WHKC, 1-1:30 p. m.; WBNS, 5-5:30 p. m. WRFD, Worthington, will carry the program from 11:30 to 12 noon.

Band Parents Party Enjoyed By Over 500

A gala Christmas party was given Wednesday night by the West High Band Parents' Club for more than 500 members of the senior band, the junior band, the orchestra and their parents.

The evening's program included dancing to the music of the junior high swing band, motion pictures, a visit from Santa Claus and a gift exchange. Ice cream, cake, coffee and fruit punch were served in the cafeteria.

The refreshment table was highlighted by a huge cake trimmed in buff and brown icing in keeping with the school colors. One of the layers had the musical score of the West High School Song written out in brown icing.

The cake was decorated by James M. Hosler, 287 N. Algonquin-av.

Mrs. F. B. McCrady, president of the parents' group, was assisted by the following committees in arranging the party:

Harry Graham, master of ceremonies; invitations, Mrs. Charles W. Bennett, Mrs. E. R. Moone, Mrs. T. Ream, Mrs. Lawrence Proper and Mrs. C. W. Bates.

Decorations, Mrs. Walter Lee, Mrs. Roger W. Geist and Mrs. E. M. Bradfute.

Entertainment, Clarence Smith, Charles W. Bennett and E. B. McCrady.

Refreshments, Mrs. Dennen Leach, Mrs. J. C. Camp, Mrs. M. S. Ross, Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. Fay Smith, Mrs. Cranston M. Williams, Mrs. Clarence Story and Mrs. Herman E. Eisele.

Publicity, Mrs. Dennen Leach.

Cutting Case Pays Off

Take a tip from the style experts and fashion your woolen daytime dresses of simple design. The new full skirts should fall flowingly over your hips in a graceful swirl. To be true, this requires painstaking cutting, but the attractive finished garment will prove worthy of the extra time you put into it.

Susan Fletcher was the 1945 first arrival. Her father, Capt. Edward Fletcher, had returned from overseas only a few days before her birth. The 1946 winner was Richard M. Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Irwin.

Prizes Worth $125 Await First Arrival

By far the most impressive list of prizes ever offered in a Hilltop Stork Derby will go to the first 1948 arrival and his (or her) parents as The Hilltop Record conducts its eleventh annual event. At least $200 worth of useful gifts await the first baby to be born in the community after the stroke of midnight on Dec. 31.

The winner of the contest will be determined by the time of birth certified by the attending physician. Proof of the time of birth must be established at The Record not later than 12 o'clock noon on Jan. 5. The following information should be included:

1. Date, hour, minute and place of birth.
2. Give parents' full names and address.
3. Give name, sex, weight and color of baby's eyes.
4. Be sure the name and signature of the attending physician is attached.

To be eligible for the prizes the parents must live in the Hilltop area bounded on the east by Central-av, on the west by the western Franklin Township line and including the Rome community, on the north by Trabue Road, on the south by Frank and Clime Roads, or any Hilltop Record subscriber living west of the Scioto River, in Franklin County.

The gifts and their donors are as follows:

A baby scale—Gearhart's Hardware, 2387 Sullivant-av.

Set of eight Evenflo nursery bottles and an electric bottle warmer and vaporizer — Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTMAS EVE

Tonight the world is lighted by a star,
Once more, and all the commonplace things are Touched by its light, and outlined with a gleam
Of silver from its rays, until they seem
Raised to celestial heights—love sacrifice
And service have become so small a price
To pay for Your great Gift. As these hours fade,
Dear God, please do not let us be afraid.
Help us to look at life by starlight through
Whatever darkness comes, quite sure that You
Will furnish light enough, although our sight
May be too dim to see Your star each night.
Please let a bit of silver radiance show
Above drab tasks, sometimes, that we may know.

Dorothy P. Albaugh,
in her book,
BY QUILL AND CANDLELIGHT.

YULETIDE

Holly on the windowpane to brighten up the days,
Mistletoe hanging o'er the door, a symbol of love displayed,
Evergreen dressed in candy cane with tinsel as its gown,
Yuletide joy and Christmas lore have bundled up our town.

Santa with his tingling bells who comes on Christmas Eve,
The laughter and the lusty yells for presents they receive,
Friendly chats around the tree with happiness in store,
A yuletide blessing given free, a season we adore.

Thelma Stophlet.

CHRISTMAS

Long, long ago, in dear days past,
My little son made tight and fast
A tinsel angel on our tree,
Tilting it so we could see
At which angle it would show
Its wings, and all its silver glow.
Three times I have written him
"The angel shines." (My eyes were dim.)
This blessed season time rolls back
The bloody curtain. We have no lack
Of Christmas cheer. His hands again
Tie the angel high, and string the "rain."
Happy would I be if I did not know
How many sons lie dead, row after row.

Margaret H. Penick,
in THE STAR GAZER ANTHOLOGY.

PEACE ON EARTH

I, too, would listen for the angel's singing
"Glory to God," in tones so clear and sweet.
I, too, would watch a star and know it would lead me
Where I should go, to worship at His feet.

I, too, would be so filled with Christmas spirit
Of holy love, as were the wise men there,
When long years past, they saw the Baby Jesus
Lying so peaceful—free from every care.

I, too, would come, as Magi came, and shepherds,
To bring myself; (my offering take, I pray)
And ask that peace, which wrapped the tiny Jesus,
May come again and bring good will alway.

Carolyn Arnold Roe,
in THE ANGEL'S TRUMPET.

CHRISTMAS TREE

There is an emptiness against the sky
Where once this tall and stately cedar stood
And there is little left to mark it by
But a small withered stump, choked in the wood.
No more will birds erect their roofless house
Among these branches; squirrels will come no more
To scamper in and out among these boughs—
Only the wind will come, as it did before . . .

The woodman's axe spoke here, but do not mourn;
This emerald cedar plays a special part,
A higher destiny, for it was born
To lift green branches in a young child's heart;
Some child who never saw a cedar grow
Will fondle it with hands of living snow!

Mae Winkler Goodman,
in SINGING QUILL.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Each little one is touched with holy grace
As he beholds the Christ Child's shining tree
Enraptured as he lifts his eager face
The light encircles his expectancy.
The wonder of that sanctifying birth
Where simple faith and love are closely shrined;
Unites the child of God with these on earth
And thus the Christmas message is divined!

Ruth S. Shuey,
in SINGING QUILL.

THE MUSIC OF THE BELLS

Across the distant ages comes
The music of the bells.
Each tone in perfect harmony
A wondrous story tells.

They tell the advent of a King
From the royal throne above
Sent to reign and rule the world
In power, truth and love.

Listen! "Wonderful" and "Counsellor,"
"The Mighty God" and then
"The everlasting Father" and
"The Prince of Peace."—Amen.

Oh that all nations of the earth
Would lift their hearts to Him!
Throw open wide the portals
And let the Christ Child in.

Ethel Titus Worthen.

AMONG OTHER THINGS

I wonder if her hood was really brown,
The hair that peeped beneath it flecked with gold?
Was she a little frightened by the town,
And was the dingy stable very cold?

Sometimes I think her cloak was palest blue,
Holding soft ringlets in their place;
But then, again, it wore a different hue
Reflected from the glory in her face.

Did she ride patiently into the town?
(If tremblingly, then surely no one knew)
Did jostling crowds disperse at Joseph's frown,
Unknowing that her inner terror grew?

Does it seem strange that lowly stables hold
Soft-breathing things and frail cobwebs of lace
Beneath their rafters, yet securely fold
Deep mother-love in such a little space?

Jean Comeans Long,
in her book,
EARTH WOMAN.

ONE CHRISTMAS NIGHT

Through the haze of long years shines a memory of Christmas,
The glory and rapture of one mystic night . . .
The old village church, the music of sleighbells,
And the deep, virgin snow we trudged through with delight.

Appeared there a glory I cannot recapture . . .
A moment when Bethlehem filled the night skies,
Then slowly returned to the infinite spaces . . .
How sure, how believing are innocent eyes!

There are visions of childhood one yearns to recall,
But only the innocent see them at all.

Grace Dickinson Sperling, in ANTHOLOGY OF NEWSPAPER VERSE.

HILL NATIVITY

Brush the bright snow from the tallest hill pine,
Scoop the fanned wing-prints of the wintering grouse—
Scrape the gourd-fiddle with the long horsehair bow,
Make the soft music rise high and fall far.
Lay the old shuck-doll away for a while,
Write her name plainly with red sumac-ink,
Gather the fragrant bayberry and haw,
Cover the doorsill with oakbark and cedar—
Heap high the resin on the wide hearth
With myrrh and fresh frankincense from the dark wood—
Here is no lighted tree spread in His name—
Only a star and a fox's lost crying.

Edythe Hope Genee,
in ADVENTURES IN POETRY.

THESE WILL ABIDE

Men cannot black out stars
Nor still the song
Of angels. There will be
Some things too strong,
Too vast for tyrant hand.
These will abide,
Though carol and candle fail,
This Christmas-tide.
The same stars burn; the same
Song rings.
We walk protected, still,
By angel wings.

CHRISTMAS LULLABY

Little child against my breast,
Pink-nightied body curved to rest,
Tell me, as you go to sleep
Do you count white woolly sheep?
Or do you walk through Sleepy-Town,
Tippy-toe up and tippy-toe down,
Where shops are filled with teddy-bears
And cuddly dolls and small red chairs?
Or do you see tall, lighted pines
And dream of how one bright star shines
Above the Christ Child on the hay
Where shepherds kneel on Christmas day?

Anobel Armour,
in her book,
DOWN QUIET LANES.

The 1948 budget for new equipment for the army and navy is $710,000,000. This is considerably less than the $1,239,000,000 we spent for jewelry last year.

Prizes Worth $125 Await First Arrival

By far the most impressive list of prizes ever offered in a Hilltop Stork Derby will go to the first 1948 arrival and his (or her) parents as The Hilltop Record conducts its eleventh annual event. At least $200 worth of useful gifts await the first baby to be born in the community after the stroke of midnight on Dec. 31.

The winner of the contest will be determined by the time of birth certified by the attending physician. Proof of the time of birth must be established at The Record not later than 12 o'clock noon on Jan. 5. The following information should be included:

1. Date, hour, minute and place of birth.
2. Give parents' full names and address.
3. Give name, sex, weight and color of baby's eyes.
4. Be sure the name and signature of the attending physician is attached.

To be eligible for the prizes the parents must live in the Hilltop area bounded on the east by Central-av, on the west by the western Franklin Township line and including the Rome community, on the north by Trabue Road, on the south by Frank and Clime Roads, or any Hilltop Record subscriber living west of the Scioto River, in Franklin County.

The gifts and their donors are as follows:

A baby scale—Gearhart's Hardware, 2387 Sullivant-av.

Set of eight Evenflo nursery bottles and an electric bottle warmer and vaporizer — Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2773 Sullivant-av.

Decorations At Christmas Long In Use

Christmas trees and cribs, within respective spheres of influence, provide focal points for observance of the season.

Various legends claim to tell the story of the first Christmas tree; actually, evergreen decorations were so closely associated with pagan celebrations that they were banned by many ecclesiastics of the early church.

According to literature, the first Christmas tree was set up at Strasbourg, Germany, in 1604; even then, the cry rose against the heathen customs and, as late as 1851, Rev. Henry Schwan was severely criticized for setting up a Christmas tree in his church in Cleveland, Ohio.

St. Francis of Assisi received special permission from the pope to present a tableau of the nativity scene. This first crib, set up at Greccio, Italy, in 1223, was an immediate sensation; the renaissance endowed the cribs with ornate pageantry and, modernly, the crib is to southern Europe and Catholic countries what the tree is to America and northern lands.

Eighteenth century Italians were fond of a fantastic decoration called the Ceppo. Pyramidical in construction, the Ceppi were made on a framework of lathes with transverse shelves rising to three or four stories, depending on the over-all size of the Ceppo.

The whole thing was covered with colored paper, tufts, tassels, fringes, tiny pine cones, and little flags; a manger scene was represented on the lowest shelf, while the upper ones were covered with small gifts, etc.; wax tapers were placed along the sides and a large gilt cone ornamented the top. Although the original designer probably never saw a Christmas tree, the Ceppo—aided by a little imagination — bridges the gap between Christmas cribs and trees.

To our countless friends we wish to send Christmas and New Year's greetings, and sincere thanks to our many patrons.

Prenatal Classes Are Offered At City Hall

The Columbus Health Department is offering a series of prenatal classes to prepare expectant mothers for their new responsibility. The course consists of eight lessons with a two-hour session at each meeting. One hour is devoted to formal class teaching and one hour to discussion. The class meets every Tuesday afternoon from two until four in Room 14, city hall.

The eight lessons cover everything from the hygiene of pregnancy to the child as a person. The expectant mother will learn how to prepare for the baby's arrival, and how to safeguard her health and the health of the baby during her pregnancy. The lesson describing the birth of the baby is followed by a discussion of the needs of the new mother and baby. The child as an individual is discussed in another lesson.

At the final meeting, a motion picture entitled "Care of the Newborn Baby," is presented along with a summary of the entire course.

An interesting feature of the course is that it is possible to begin the course at any one of the eight lessons and complete it by attending until all of the subjects have been covered. In other words, it isn't necessary to begin when the class begins.

The classes are open to any adult person who may be responsible for the welfare of the new mother and baby. This means, of course, that all prospective fathers and grandparents are invited to attend with the expectant mothers.

Good Return.

A Scotsman, leaving his friend's house where he had been visiting, held out to his host's small son a nickel and a dime, saying, "Now, Sandy, which one will ye hae?"

Young Sandy said, "Ach, Mr. MacTavish, I was always taught not to be greedy, so I'll have the wee one."

MacTavish replied: "Well, noo, Sandy, for being a good bairn, and no greedy, I'll give the big one to ye."

A diner ordered and ate four poached eggs, a dozen oysters, a huge steak, and all the extras. After wading through these he finished off with three pieces of pie and four cups of coffee.

"You must enjoy your meals," remarked the waiter.

"Far from it. As a matter of fact, I hate 'em—but I'm nuts about bicarbonate of soda."

Irate Neighbor: "Did you reprimand your youngster for mimicking me?"

Mother: "Yes; I told him to stop acting like a fool."

Prizes Worth $125 Await First Arrival

By far the most impressive list of prizes ever offered in a Hilltop Stork Derby will go to the first 1948 arrival and his (or her) parents as The Hilltop Record conducts its eleventh annual event. At least $200 worth of useful gifts await the first baby to be born in the community after the stroke of midnight on Dec. 31.

The winner of the contest will be determined by the time of birth certified by the attending physician. Proof of the time of birth must be established at The Record not later than 12 o'clock noon on Jan. 5. The following information should be included:

1. Date, hour, minute and place of birth.
2. Give parents' full names and address.
3. Give name, sex, weight and color of baby's eyes.
4. Be sure the name and signature of the attending physician is attached.

To be eligible for the prizes the parents must live in the Hilltop area bounded on the east by Central-av, on the west by the western Franklin Township line and including the Rome community, on the north by Trabue Road, on the south by Frank and Cline Roads, or any Hilltop Record subscriber living west of the Scioto River, in Franklin County.

The gifts and their donors are as follows:

Anniversary Party Attracts 2500

More than 2500 people thronged through the Superior Drug Store, W. Broad-st at Whitethorne-av, December 11, between 2 and 10 p. m. during the third anniversary party of the store. The above Record photo shows a small part of the crowd. Special prizes were handed out to 125 ladies in the first 15 minutes after the store opened. A total of 1971 bars of ice cream were given out during the afternoon and evening, to say nothing of hundreds of other gifts and favors for men, women and children. Larger door prizes were also given away.

Marj and Bob Henery, owners of the store, were so well pleased with the response that they are already looking forward to next year's party. The event was advertised exclusively in The Hilltop Record.

Cotton Is Accepted As 4-Seasonal Material By Ladies' Designers

Look at the well-dressed women who know smart winter fashions, and chances are they'll be wearing cotton—glamorously treated by high style designers to make its winter debut with new elegance. Four-seasonal though it has been for years, it suddenly has become a much-talked about, much-photographed fabric that welcomes and enhances the designs of the "new look."

Designers, who are using it as a new medium for their creations, are finding their "brain children" sweeping the country. What's more, the cottons are being grabbed up by fashion-seeking women. Velveteen and corduroy are continuing to be favorites—in new styles that are assured of success for winter holidays. Fine broadcloths interpret the new blouses, and heavy twills and poplins are being used for all types of sportswear, cut in feminine versions of the more tailored types of the past.

For the round of parties and dances, both at Thanksgiving and Christmas, cottons — particularly velveteens and corduroys — will be whirling beauties, with their full skirts, tiny waists, and fitted bodices. The luxurious quality and lush color of the velveteens have ample opportunity to exhibit themselves in the floor length formals that will go to dinner parties or serve as hostess gowns. One designer used deep purple velveteen, simply cut, highlighted by an off-the-shoulder neckline and a full skirt with a scalloped hemline, to add a regal air.

Ballerina length formals will find themselves the most popular dance frocks with the younger set. Many of them are shown with tiny basque jackets which cover strapless gowns beneath—thus making them serve a double purpose, dinner in the jacket, dancing without it.

Less formal dances or after-five parties are perfect holiday settings for the ballerina length skirts with cotton blouses. Lovely fine-combed broadcloths which have a luxurious sheen are styled in the Gibson Girl manner with lovely bibs treated to fine tucking and trimmed with ruffles. Collars and cuffs are ruffled, too, in the dressier styles. Their crisp, neat look, accented by the lustrous cotton fabric, makes them glamorous complements for swirling circular skirts.

Suits in cotton corduroy and velveteen have a "new look" that's adapted to all occasions. They vary from the more tailored designs with long torso and slim skirt that are nice for traveling home for Christmas to the very sophisticated styles with deep peplums, padded hips, or tiny basque jackets — the cocktail type. A stunning bottle green velveteen suit fashioned with a snug-fitting jacket with rolled collar is accented with mink tails by one designer. Little velveteen hats that hug the head are smart to match the suits. Larger ones with bloused crowns, often combined with felt, are more reminiscent of the Gibson Girl era.

Paper Stops Browning

When the new cake you are baking seems to brown before it is done, reduce the heat and cover the cake with a piece of brown paper. Continue the baking and the cake will not brown any more.

Flowers of The Week

This week we can think of no finer selection for the flowers of the week than jolly old Santa Claus. He did a swell job on the Hilltop and we're sure he deserves the thanks of all.

Clark Named To Head Pharmacy Group

Woody Clark, owner of the Westgate Pharmacy, 3089 W. Broad-st, has been elected president of the Central Ohio Academy of Pharmacy. Renamed secretary of the organization for 1948 was C. H. (Doc) Campbell of Campbell's Pharmacy, 2766 W. Broad-st.

Clark has operated his store on the Hilltop for four years. He has been a member of the pharmacy group since 1943. He is also active in Hilltop Kiwanis Club and the Hilltop Business Association. He and his family live at 2823 Ridge-av.

Installation of officers will take place in connection with a dinner dance at the Deshler Wallick Hotel on Jan. 28.

Guy Miller Joins New Barber Staff Here

Guy Miller, barber with the former Whitlow Barber Shop at 2820 W. Broad-st, is back with the new Whitlow & Groves shop at 2417 W. Broad-st, after an eight-month stay in Los Angeles, Calif.

Miller, who formerly lived at 391 S. Terrace-av, arrived back in Columbus last Sunday and now resides with his family at 426 Hanford-st. While in sunny California he followed his barbering trade.

Kiwanis Club To Install New Officers Tonight

The Hilltop Kiwanis Club will install officers for the new year in special services to be held tonight in the Gold Room of the Fort Hayes Hotel. The meeting will start with a dinner at 6:45 o'clock and will be followed by a semiformal dance. Wives of members will be guests for the evening.

Robert (Bob) Hill, the new Ohio govenor of Kiwanis, will be the installing officer.

Heading the list of 1948 officers is Dr. R. J. Miller, 2493 W. Broad-st. He is just completing a year as president of the Hilltop Business Association and has been active in many community projects in recent years.

Other officers to be inducted are M. E. (Jack) Sonsentrenner, first vice president; Phillip Stout, second vice president; Curtis Wilcox, treasurer, and George T. Tarbutton, secretary. Trustees to be installed are J. B. Merriman, John Apel, Noble Miller, H. G. Deems, Harold Fox and Charles Reicheldorfer.

During the dinner hour Charles Walton, 39 Eldon-av, will play several piano selections. Walton is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Walton, during the holidays. He has been studying in New York City.

Attendance pins will be given out to the members with perfect attendance records during the year just ending. Another feature of the evening's program will be the announcement of the "Hilltop man of the year" selection for 1947. This honor goes to some Hilltopper who has done outstanding community work in the year just now drawing to a close. It is sponsored by Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, in conjunction with Kiwanis and the Hilltop Business Association.

Mrs. Hyer to Head March Of Dimes

Mrs. John M. Hyer, 604 Columbian-av, has been appointed chairman of solicitations in the Hilltop and Westgate residential districts, for the March of Dimes which will open in Franklin County on Jan. 5.

Tom Sebrey, chairman of the Franklin County March of Dimes drive, announced that 30 of the 118 victims of the polio epidemic in 1947 are still receiving treatment in Children's Hospital. The local hospital is the only polio center in Central Ohio and was authorized to spend $40,000 last June for the treatment of its patients, 80 per cent of whom are under the age of 12.

Funds must be raised in the coming drive to provide approximately $75,000 in order to continue the care of 1947 victims and to have a reserve for the cases which will arise in the coming year.

"Y" Committee To Meet Friday

Progress of the Hilltop YMCA movement and plans for the formal organization of a board of directors will be outlined at a meeting of community-organization representatives called for Friday night at West High School. The meeting will get under way at 7:30 o'clock.

Representatives of approximately 20 groups that have previously voiced their approval of plans for a local branch "Y" have been invited to attend the meeting and to vote on a slate of 11 men to fill the board positions. An organization meeting of the board itself will be held at a later time.

Emmett Milligan Retired From City Fire Department

Fireman Emmett Milligan, 56, 674 S. Ogden-av, was honorably discharged from the Columbus Fire Department last week because of a disability, it was announced by Safety Director C. C. Cole.

Milligan entered the division on May 5, 1917.

Induction Of Officers Set For Jan. 8th

Installation of newly elected officers for the coming year of the Hilltop Community Council, now starting its sixth year, will take place at the regular monthly meeting Jan. 8 at the Teen Canteen, 2585 W. Broad-st, at 8 o'clock.

Jerry Speers, Hilltop funeral director, who served as the president of the organization during its first year in existence, will officiate as installing officer.

The new officers are Cyrus O. Rawlings, 621 Chestershire-rd, president; Leonard Echols, 291 S. Richardson, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av, corresponding secretary; Frank Mason, 1308 W. Third-av, recording secretary; Charles P. Maus, 70 N. Westgate-av, treasurer.

Plans for the coming year will be announced by Mr. Rawlings, with special emphasis on cooperation between all organizations on the Hilltop. Future activity of the Teen Canteen will also be discussed.

Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st, will report on the Christmas party for the Hilltop youngsters held Saturday at the Teen Canteen.

Stoll Is President Of Retail Grocers

Several West Side and Hilltop grocers will hold down official positions in the Columbus Retail Grocers' Association for the new year as a result of an election held last week.

Slated as president of the group is Guy Stoll, proprietor of Stoll's Food Market, 1306 W. Broad-st. Harry A. Nation was renamed executive secretary.

The grocers also elected Franklin Sparks, first vice president; Frank Rader, second vice president, and M. S. Harper, treasurer.

Elected to serve as directors for the next two years were Earl Ballou, C. E. Distelhorst, Fred Dunlap, R. E. Litzinger, G. H. Lenhart, J. V. Lortz and J. F. Nichols. Other directors are Homer Barton, B. A. Crego, Charles Davis, Harold Fox, E. J. Litzinger, A. Rosatti, C. Spindler and C. B. Callaway.

Hilltopper Files $75,000 Damage Suit

A $75,000 damage suit was filed in Common Pleas Court last week by Patricia McComb, 19, of 176 N. Powell-av, against Dwight C. Borror and Stella Borror of Jackson-pk.

According to the petition, she lost the sight of one eye and suffered other serious injuries in an accident in which a car struck a horse belonging to the Borrors. Mrs. Leo McComb, mother-in-law of the plaintiff, was killed as a result of the same accident and two others were seriously hurt.

The accident happened on Sept. 16.

Jahn To Head K. of P. Lodge

Elmer Jahn

Elmer Jahn, 675 Brown-rd, will be installed as chancellor commander of Mentorwood Lodge No. 770, Knights of Pythias, in special services to be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 6.

Other officers to be installed at that time include Jesse Schaller, vice chancellor; Harry Hoffhines, prelate; George Rings, master of work; O. E. Spencer, secretary; E. L. Dunavent, financial secretary; Ralph Beaver, treasurer; Robert Muncie, master at arms; Robert Hern, inner guard; Edward Gleeson, outer guard; and Harry Salzgaber, trustee for three-year term.

Carl Birle will be the installing officer. On Jan. 13 the entire staff of grand lodge officers will visit Mentorwood Lodge. All members are invited to be present on this event.

Holding down the chancellor commander's chair will not be a new experience for Jahn. He has twice occupied that position previously during his 20-year connection with the local lodge.

In addition to his K of P affiliations, he is also a member of the Masons, Scottish Rite, Shrine, 13 Club and Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion. He is route supervisor for the Allen Milk Company, 1709 Frank-rd. He has been with that firm for more than 25 years.

Work Started On 54 Homes On W. Mound

Trappe's vegetable gardens at Whitethorne-av and Mound-st will produce no more cabbages, sweet corn and tomatoes as they did last summer, for this very minute steam shovels are busy at digging sewers and excavating foundations to start an ambitious subdivision project of some 50 homes on the site.

To be known as Trappe's Subdivision, a new street running parallel with Mound-st will extend from Whitethorne-av to Highland-av, cutting the plot into 54 building sites. The new street, Trappe-av, will have 36 houses, and along Mound-st 18 more will be erected.

Thirty-seven of the homes will be one and one-half stories, with the third bedroom completed except for plaster and trim. The balance of the houses will be one story, some with dining rooms, others without. The one-story houses will all have two bedrooms. All houses will have full basements, will be insulated and double constructed, and heated with gas furnaces. Side drives and sidewalks, curbs, streets and gutters will be provided on all building lots.

Ken Dickerson, president of Ken Dickerson, Inc., 2345 W. Broad-st, developers of the subdivision, stated today that all houses have been approved by FHA and will be eligible for FHA financing. Prices will range in the $9000 bracket for most types, and Mr. Dickerson says down payments will range between $1000 and $1500, with monthly payments approximating $55. This monthly payment will include all charges such as fire insurance and taxes.

The first five units will be under roof by Jan. 15, and others will follow at the rate of three or four a week. The company anticipates no delays on the project as all scarce materials such as plumbing and electric supplies, sheetrock and interior trim and doors are on hand and in a warehouse ready for use.

The first group of homes will be ready for occupancy by the middle of February, according to Dewey H. Boggs, realtor, who is handling sales for Ken Dickerson, Inc. A number of contracts have already been signed for homes in the development, Mr. Boggs stated. Mr. Boggs maintains offices at 2345 W. Broad-st.

West Seniors Plan Graduation

This group of 12A students at West High School is looking forward to graduation early in 1948. They are members of the senior committee in charge of mid-year graduation affairs.

From left to right are John Glass, decorations; Ruth Hoelcher, tickets; Nancy Gill and Harriet Worthington, banquet, and Norris Boothe, baccalaureate.

Miss Hoelcher and Mr. Boothe have also been selected as class speakers.

Winner Of 11th Annual Stork Derby Awaited

'48 To Break Tie -- The '47 Winner

The law of nature that says for every male of the species there must also be a female has certainly held true in the number of boy and girl babies who have won the annual Hilltop Stork Derby. With 10 such events having been staged, the score is now tied at five each. Barring twins, this the 11th annual contest, should break the existing tie.

Judith Marie Caldwell, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Caldwell, now live at 270 Southhampton-av, was the winner of last year's contest. Arriving at 3:42 a. m. on New Year's Day 1947 at five pounds and six ounces, Judith now tips the scales at 25 pounds.

She has five teeth, crawls all over the house and can carry on a conversation in such terms as "baby," "mama," and "dada". Judith and her parents, who then lived at 148 N. Eureka-av, were the recipients of 30 gifts.

First Winner

Frederick Eugene Cunningham, son of Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Cunningham, was the first derby winner back in 1938. The next year a girl, Linda Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Myers, claimed the prizes.

In 1940 Donald Frazier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Frazier, was the first arrival. The fourth winner was a girl—Bonnie Janet Warsmith. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warsmith. In 1942 another girl was declared the winner. (It was the first time that two of the same sex had followed one another.) She was Mary Lou Sowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sowers.

James Robert Ginther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ginther, was the sixth contest winner. He was followed in 1944 by another boy—Daniel Paul Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder.

Susan Fletcher was the 1945 first arrival. Her father, Capt. Edward Fletcher, had returned from overseas only a few days before her birth. The 1946 winner was Richard M. Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Irwin.

Judith Caldwell

Prizes Worth $125 Await First Arrival

By far the most impressive list of prizes ever offered in a Hilltop Stork Derby will go to the first 1948 arrival and his (or her) parents as The Hilltop Record conducts its eleventh annual event. At least $200 worth of useful gifts await the first baby to be born in the community after the stroke of midnight on Dec. 31.

The winner of the contest will be determined by the time of birth certified by the attending physician. Proof of the time of birth must be established at The Record not later than 12 o'clock noon on Jan. 5. The following information should be included:

1. Date, hour, minute and place of birth.
2. Give parents' full names and address.
3. Give name, sex, weight and color of baby's eyes.
4. Be sure the name and signature of the attending physician is attached.

To be eligible for the prizes the parents must live in the Hilltop area bounded on the east by Central-av, on the west by the western Franklin Township line and including the Rome community, on the north by Trabue Road, on the south by Frank and Clime Roads, or any Hilltop Record subscriber living west of the Scioto River, in Franklin County.

The gifts and their donors are as follows:

A baby scale—Gearhart's Hardware, 2387 Sullivant-av.

Set of eight Evenflo nursery bottles and an electric bottle warmer and vaporizer — Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2773 Sullivant-av.

Diaper hamper — West Hill Furniture Co., 2364 W. Broad-st.

Four 8x10 pictures of baby, taken at three month intervals—J. Curtis Allen, 221 N. Ogden-av.

Baby blanket—C & S Dime Stores, three Hilltop locations.

Coupon good for $5 at grill—Superior Drug, Whitethorne-av and W. Broad-st.

Two gallons BOS Cleanser—BOS Chemical Co., 3274 W. Broad-st.

Ton of Black Andy coal—Lewis & Noon Coal Co., 74 N. Sylvan-av.

Dry cleaning order good for $2—Riepenhoff Cleaning Service, 2530 Sullivant-av.

One dozen Birds Eye diapers—Economy Variety Store, 2402 W. Broad-st.

Sanitary bottle sterilizer—Erlenbach Hardware, 2409 W. Broad-st.

About Folks You Know

BOLA A. SKIPPER, a third year student at Bob Jones University, Greenville, S. C., arrived home Dec. 20 to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr and Mrs. W. A. Skipper, 143 N. Burgess-av. She returned to the university Dec. 27.

DR AND MRS. R. J. MILLER, 119 Binns-blvd, were hosts at a family reunion of their children and grandchildren on Christmas Day. It was the first time the family had been together as a group. Present were Dr. and Mrs. Tom Miller and son, Jim, of Ashland, Me.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henretty and daughters, Linda Lee and Carol, of Warren, Ohio; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Miller and children, Bob, Terri Ann and Tameles, 143 N. Bovs-av.

MARILYN MATHEWS, 3080 Fremont-st, is spending four days in New York City and Philadelphia this week.

MRS. VIOLA RITZMANN, 135 N. Oakley-av, is now recovering at her home, after breaking her ankle in a fall in her kitchen, Dec. 17. She was treated in Grant Hospital where she was confined for three days.

Junior High Girls Have Party Dec. 17

The Junior High Girls of Hope Memorial Church were entertained at a Christmas party in the home of their teacher, Mrs Grover Woodin, 2911 W. Broad-st, on Wednesday, Dec. 17

Doris Thomas and Diane Fulton were in charge of the arrangements.

Games were played, there was a gift exchange, and refreshments were served.

Members of the class include Margaret Hall, Donna Blila, Shirley McCarley, JoAnne Stevens, Jobyanna Pitt, Sarah McFadden, Natalie Skinner, Mona Sue Gary, Martha Spankler and Vivian Hall.

Wed In Impressive Ceremony

Mrs. Joseph C. Havranek

Glenwood Methodist Church was softly lighted with candelabra for the wedding at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 15, of Miss Marian Irene Miller, daughter of Mrs. Mabel P. Miller, 46 N. Westmoorav, to Mr. Joseph C. Havranek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Havranek, 316 S. Richardson-av. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas before a palm and floral banked altar.

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride chose a gown of traditional white duchess satin fashioned with a sheer yoke outlined with a bertha collar of slenCon lace, long tightly fitted sleeves ending in a point over the wrists, slim fitted bodice, the full skirt formed a bustle back and terminated into a long train. The finger-tip veil of candlelight illusion was caught by a bonnet of white satin. The veil was custom made for the gown. She carried a bouquet of white roses with a center orchid.

Miss Marjorie East served as maid-of-honor and wore a gown of powder blue taffeta. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Eldred Miller, jr., and Mrs. Dean Fenner, who wore identical gowns of dusty rose taffeta. Junior bridesmaid and cousin of the bride was Miss Anne Burnett who wore a pink taffeta gown. All of the attendants carried bouquets of American beauty roses and wore coronets of the same flowers.

Mr. William Lind served Mr. Havranek as best man. Ushers were Mr. John Naddy, Mr. John Maxwell, and Mr. James Womeldorff.

The bride's mother chose a street length black dress with gold trim and black accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a street length blue dress with grey accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the new home of the bride and groom at 66 Sharon Springs-dr, in Worthington.

Before leaving on her honeymoon, the bride changed to a black crepe dress with a side drape and jewelry neckline and black accessories.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of West High School and Mr. Havranek is associated in business with his father.

Hurd-MacMillan Vows Are Exchanged At Glenwood Church

Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas officiated at the double ring ceremony on Nov. 29, in Glenwood Methodist Church which united in marriage, Miss Louise MacMillan and Mr. Robert E. Hurd.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. MacMillan, 2260 Indianola-av, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart H. Hurd, 351 Binns-blvd.

Mrs. W. M. Clark of Monroe, Mich., was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Catherine Amann was brideamaid. Louis MacMillan, Jr., twin brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Richard Bolin and Herry Hopwood.

A graduate of North High School, the bride is associated with the Ohio State Life Insurance Co.

Mr. Hurd attended Ohio State University where he became affiliated with Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity and now is with the C. & O. Railroad.

Following a trip to Jacksonville, Fla., the new Mr. and Mrs. Hurd are making their home at 339 Algonquin-av.

In the back row are Mrs. Marie Ross, Mrs. C. B. Story, Mrs. James C. Camp, Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. E. R. Moore and Mrs. E. S. McCrady, president of the organization.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

DON'T FORGET THE DATE OF THE VOLUNTEER FIREMEN'S DANCE, JAN. 8, 1948, GALLOWAY HALL.

The Rhoda Guild of St. Paul's Lutheran Church was well represented on the air recently. It was the "Housewives I. Q." program. Each member who spoke brought out an important activity of the guild. Those who were on the program were Mrs. Freda Anderson, Mrs. Beulah Kaderly, Mrs. Nellie May Klise, Mrs. Dorothy Hoy, Mrs. Martha K. Weber, Mrs. Martha Belle Leonhardt, Mrs. Bee Kaderly and Mrs. Riesmiller, who is the wife of Rev. Riesmiller, pastor of the church. They were also given household gifts. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Martha Kuhn Weber. There were 42 present, who were anxious to find out who their secret pal was for the past year, and perhaps get new ones for the coming year. The guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Edward Hakola, 136 S. Richardson-av.

The Monitors of Columbia Heights Church (Young Adult Class) had their Christmas meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Richey, Pasadena-av.

Saturday afternoon the young classes of the Columbia Heights Sunday School were entertained with a party by their teachers, who are Mrs. Robert Denman, Mrs. Frank Calland, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Griggs, Mrs. Henry Warner and Mrs. Shonts. Mrs. Ernest Schroeder is superintendent of the Basement School. They were kept busy making chains, stringing popcorn and cranberries for the Christmas tree and rehearsing for the Sunday night Christmas program. Refreshments were hot cocoa and Christmas cookies suitable for little folks. Their take-home favors were mint sticks in bright red stockings.

The Denmans of the Hilltop had their Christmas and family party Sunday, Dec. 21, in order that their son, Charles, his wife and baby, could get an early start to spend Christmas with her parents in the southern part of Georgia. There were 20 members of the family present.

Last week Rev. Elwood Rose was called home to Piqua on account of the death of his maternal grandfather, who made his home with Rev. Rose's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Rose. On Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Rose were here to attend the candlelight services at the church. They then returned home to celebrate Christmas.

Mrs. Edward Sheets, Jr., Buena Vista-av, entertained the Ladies' Class of Columbia Heights Church last Monday night. This was the annual gift exchange from the "silent sister." Thirty-six persons responded to roll call. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants, Mrs. W. G. Lamb and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut.

Mrs. Richard Glass of Nortonrd. who has been visiting her mother in Saratoga, Okla., for some time, finds her visit will be prolonged. Her mother became ill soon after her arrival home. Mr. Glass has gone to spend the holidays with his wife, but they may make plans to stay indefinitely. John Glass, who went West with his son, will return the first of the week.

The many friends of Douglas Stauch will be glad to know that he was able to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stauch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Craigie of Detroit spent the week-end visiting their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. English and Tommy, Pasadena-av. The G. T. English family has just recently moved to Rome from Detroit. Mr. English is with General Motors Corp.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Sumpson (Ladonna Coulter) have returned from their wedding trip, which took them to Cincinnati, Kentucky and Indianapolis, then home by way of Spencerville, Ohio. They are now located on their farm west of Hilliards.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert French nd family, 5467 W. Broad-st, spent Christmas afternoon and evening at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Heinzelman and family, 3027 Crescent-dr. Just before they left, they had an unexpected caller, Cpl. Lewis Heimmerl, from Japan. He is on the States on leave due to the illness of his mother, who lives in Columbus. Cpl. Heimmerl is a "buddy" of Bill Rodgers, Mrs. French's son. They are both stationed in Tokyo.

Down at the Beacon Light Golf Course, as many of the Kidwell family as possible reported home for Christmas. The son in Texas could not get home but telephoned greetings to the family. Lt. Col. John Regan came up from Panama City, Fla., to visit with his wife, Betty (Kidwell), who has been here for some time. Commander S. E. Hernden, British R. A. F., a personal friend of Mr. Regan, was on hand for the Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Barnecut of Maple-dr, were entertained in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Knisley, Worthington, for Christmas dinner. In the evening they were back in Rome to enjoy the Christmas party with the Sheets family on Pasadena-av.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKenzie and daughter, Darlene, of Norton-rd, and Wilbur Grimm, wife and daughter, Linda Jean, spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Grimm, Lennox-av. The Wilbur Grimm family has just recently moved into a new home on Pontiac-st.

The J. L. Coulters of Pasadena-av had their annual Christmas family party.

Although many of the Breckenridge family of Maple-dr are home quite often, at Christmas time it is really a celebration.

Herbert Riebel and his wife went to Virginia to visit with her relatives, but several of the children were home with Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Riebel for that day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Darden (Dorcas Tope) were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Tope, Lennox-av, over Christmas. Dorcas is living on the campus of the College of North Carolina, where her husband is in school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Snyder and family of Maple-dr were in Zanesville for Christmas at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snyder, where the Snyder families spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Johnson, Lennox-av, also had a family dinner, but their son, Lawrence (Jack) could not make the trip from Cleveland on account of bad roads.

Mrs. Grace Lamb entertained as usual with a family dinner at her home on Lennox-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and son, Robert, of Canal Winchester, spent Friday evening with the Barnecuts on Maple-dr.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner and family are at home after spending Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Courtright, of Peoria, Ill.

DEATHS

Albert E. Edwards

Funeral services for Albert E. Edwards, 84, formerly of 115 N. Wheatland-av, who died Wednesday at his home in Pomona, Calif., will be held at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday in the D. Harvey Davis Funeral Home. Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas will officiate and burial will be in Sunset Cemetery. The body will arrive here Tuesday evening.

Mr. Edwards, a retired employe of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., moved from Columbus four years ago to make his home with a son, Clyde Edwards, in Pomona.

He is survived also by three other sons, Wayne Edwards, Bryan, O., Carl Edwards, North Hollywood, Calif., and Ralph Edwards, Chino, Calif.; a brother, Thomas Edwards, Jackson, O.; three grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Anna Pusecker

Anna Margaret Pusecker, 72, of Geyer-Pk., Alton, died Friday in St. Francis Hospital after a short illness.

Miss Pusecker, a member of St. James Lutheran Church at Hilliards, is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lena Friend, 44 N. Eureka-av, and Mrs. Elizabeth Cowgill, 158 N. Ogden-av; a brother, August Pusecker, Plain City, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. Monday in St. James Lutheran Church. Burial was in the adjoining cemetery by Jerry Spears.

Donna Lee Scott

Funeral services for Donna Lee Scott, 8-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Scott, 267 S. Cypress-av, who died Thursday in Children's Hospital, were held at 1 p. m. Monday in the Jerry Spears Funeral Home. Burial was in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

The child is survived also by a sister, Linda Lou Scott, at home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Scott, Pomeroy; maternal grandparents, Mrs. Jerry Williamson, Westerville, and D. L. Mercer, Cincinnati; and great-grandparents.

Mrs. Carolyn T. Alford

Mrs. Carolyn Tweed Alford, 60, of 45 S. Richardson-av, died Tuesday at her home.

She was the widow of John K. Alford, and a member of the Robert Morris Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star and the Hilltop Lutheran Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Lutz of Freeport, N. Y., two sisters, Miss Edna Nelson and Mrs. Fannie Saxton, both of the Richardson-av address, and a brother, Harry Nelson, 219 N. Powell-av.

Services were held Friday. Burial was in Sunset Cemetery by Wylie S. Shroyer.

Anna Prall Mott

Funeral services were conducted at 7 p. m. Sunday for Mrs. Mott, 86, of 18 West Park-av, who died Friday. Additional services were held at the grave in the Beech Grove Cemetery, Pomeroy, Monday morning. Burial was by Wylie S. Shroyer. She is survived by a daughter, Winifred Mott, two nieces and four nephews.

Kenneth Canada

Funeral services for Kenneth Canada, 62, of 23 Wisconsin-av, who was found dead Wednesday in his room were held at 9 a. m. Monday in St. Aloysius Church. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery.

Death apparently was due to a heart attack.

A conductor for the New York Central Railroad for 26 years, Mr. Canada was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen No. 72 and St. Aloysius Church.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Canada, and a brother, Maurice Canada, both of Sacramento, Calif., and a brother-in-law, Andrew J. Schlereth, 274 S. Terrace-av.

Sylvester James Williams

Mr. Williams, 129 Hayden-av, died Friday at Grant Hospital. He was 68. He was a sheet metal worker at the Curtiss-Wright Corp. and a member of the Chicago Avenue Church of Christ. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Mabel Williams; a daughter, Mrs. Ray Lenihan, Columbus, and six grandchildren. Services will be in Green Lawn Cemetery.

John A. Birlinger

Funeral services for John A. Birlinger, 77, of 1551 Thomas-av, who died Saturday in St. Francis Hospital after a short illness, will be held at 3 p. m. Tuesday in the Avondale EUB Church. Rev. Delbert S. Mills will officiate and burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Birlinger retired in 1937 as a conductor with the Pennsylvania Railroad, after 45 years' service. He was a member of Avondale EUB Church, Magnolia Lodge, F&AM, Aladdin Temple of Shrine and Scottish Rite.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mattie G. Birlinger; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

Local boys in the service who spent the holidays with their families include Bucky Hawe, 56 S. Sylvan-av.

From The Record Files

15 Years Ago Today

The West High Cowboys lost their basketball game with Greenfield High Wednesday evening by a 38 to 14 count.

Aside from the usual Christmas programs, pageants, etc. the Hilltop churches are featuring programs of relief for the needy of the community.

Miss Bobs Jenny, 2666 W. Broad-st, and Mrs. L. C. Haldy, 48 Elden-av, left Tuesday morning for Oregon and California.

Miss Edna Ruth Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Randall, 66 N. Terrace-av, is home from Ohio Wesleyan University for the Christmas holidays.

10 Years Ago Today

Mrs. Grover Amrine, 190 Binns-blvd, underwent surgery in Mt. Carmel Hospital last Friday. She is recovering nicely.

John L. Morris, 70, father of Mrs. Floyd Green, 3046 Crescent-dr, was fatally injured Wednesday when he was struck by an auto on Spring-st.

Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Fox, 2646 W. Broad-st, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Dec. 25. More than 100 friends called at their home.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Violet Moss, 30 N. Harris-av, to Newton Thatcher, 2930 Crescent-dr.

Elmer Jones, 17, 88 Belvidon-av, won a second prize of $10 in a contest sponsored by the Saturday Evening Post.

Six 9A's Receive Excelsior Pins

On Tuesday, December 16, there was an Excelsior assembly to honor the six 9A's who had made a 3.5 average in grades, since they had come to West Junior. The honored pupils were presented their Excelsior pins by Mr. Young. Phyllis Lowery was the speaker for the group. Mr. Homer Kottermas, head of the Teachers Training School at Capital University was the speaker of the morning. The six students were Phyllis Lowery, Shirley Truitt, James Hall, Walter Nickens, Joe Petitti, and John Rockwell.

This is the first time in the history of West Junior that there has been such a small number of Excelsior students and it is also the first time there has been twice as many boys as girls. In previous years, girls have always out-numbered the boys.

Fenstermacher Will Present Pupils In Recital On Saturday

The following students will appear in a recital Saturday evening at the Fenstermacher Studio of Musical Expression, 1616 Walsh-av:

Carol Cooper, Joan Jenny, William Ramaley, Doris Friend, Anna Mae Cooper, Mary Lou Yerke, Marjorie Belt, Jerry Anderson.

Glenwood WSCS Will Meet Here Jan. 8

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Glenwood Methodist Church will hold its January meeting in the church parlor Thursday, Jan. 8. The morning meeting will open at 10 o'clock with devotions and the study book, "Great Prayers of the Bible," will be conducted by Mrs. L. B. Gatlen.

Luncheon will be served at noon by Circle 4 with Mrs. W. E. Duesnbery, chairman. The afternoon program and business meeting will begin at 12:45 p. m. and will be in charge of Mrs. P. C. Edwards.

NORTHLAND CALLS

Tall pines are calling from a rugged shore rich with legend of Indian lore.
Some day I'll answer

Cubs Spread Christmas Cheer

These Cub Scouts brought a bit of Christmas sunshine to the bedside of Mrs. Alice Dilsaver, 149 S. Westgate-av, just before the holiday.

The boys are members of Den 2, Pack 88, sponsored by the John Burroughs PTA.

Eagles Entertain Children With Party

Members of Aquila Aerie, No. 2209, F. O. E., entertained a capacity crowd of more than 250 children at a Christmas party at the Aerie home, 2858 W. Broad-st, Sunday, Dec. 21.

The presence of John Arnold, dressed as Santa Claus, a huge Christmas tree and a number of appropriate decorations previously placed throughout the room by women of the club, added to the holiday spirit of the affair.

"Stormy" Strapp, eight-year-old entertainer, and her small brother entertained with Christmas carols and an acrobatic show. The group later enjoyed games, for which numerous prizes were awarded, and comedy motion pictures. Refreshments were served in conclusion.

Organizations

On Thursday, Jan. 8, the Woman's Society of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church will hold a luncheon meeting at 12 o'clock at the church. Mrs. W. H. Jones and Mrs. L. B. Roberts are co-chairmen in charge of planning the luncheon. Reservations must be in by Wednesday, Jan. 7.

Eureka Guild of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church will meet Tuesday, Jan. 6 at the home of Mrs. Grover Woodin, 2911 W. Broad-st. Mrs. James Beaver will be assisting hostess. Mrs. Charles Bennett and Mrs. A. J. Wold are in charge of the program.

The Oriental Missionary Society Prayer Circle will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brock, 2356 Sullivant-av. Mrs. J. L. Dean will be in charge.

West Alumnae Enjoy Pot Luck Dinner

The West High Alumnae, January class of 1943, met at the home of Mrs. James R. Jackson, 215 N. Harris-av, for a pot luck supper on Saturday, Dec. 6.

Those present were Mrs. Richard Dubro (Doris Dawson), Mrs. Edward Price (Jean Young), Mrs. Jack Hager (Rue Ann Lutz), Mrs. Delmer Hornesby (Betty Bowers), and daughter, Brenda, Mrs. Eugene Wilford (Georgie Neff), Mrs. Cliff Lovan (Frankie Williams), Mrs. Robert Clark (Carol Gumpp), Mrs. Robert Morgan (Ruth Friedly), Mrs. Joe McDonough (B. Jay Somers), Mrs. James Jackson (Eleanor Baumen), Dorothy Gill, Phyllis Austin, Peggy Foster and Peggy Rees.

Games were played and plans formed for another get together in the near future. Any girl wishing information concerning the meetings may call the chairman of the telephone committee, Miss Rees, at Re. 9710, or Mrs. Hornesby, Mrs. McDonough, Mrs. Jackson, Miss Austin and Mrs. Morgan, other committee members.

Mormons in the state of Utah were the first Anglo-Saxons to practice irrigation on a large scale.

When you hear this young man's horn blast . . . you'll hear our wishes for a happy and resultful New Year.

Post-Christmas Notes

Four Record employees reported difficulty in getting to work for one reason or other in the first half hour the office was open on Friday morning . . . No, P. W. was not one of them . . . They should furnish a free course in engineering with some of these new fangled mechanical toys. Getting so the fathers have difficulty in operating them . . . Some of the Christmas light decorations on Hilltop homes were beautiful again this year. More lights in evidence than any year since before the war . . . One Hilltop family got a new electric range installed in time to test it out on a 30-pound turkey for the Christmas dinner. By mistake the clock regulator was set for three hours instead of 10 as called for. The family went visiting and returned shortly before the bird was to be removed from the oven. Twenty guests stood around and chewed their nails instead of the "rare" bird.

Looking Back

A glance at some of the accomplishments on the Hilltop the past year provides much for which to be thankful. There are the lights, scoreboard and other improvements at Maple Field, to say nothing of an unbeateated football championship at the school. U. S. Route 40 was completed practically on schedule, providing suitable access to the city from the west. Virtual assurance that a branch YMCA will be in operation in a few months is certainly a big step forward for the community as a whole.

These are only a few of the tangible evidences of progress as a community. Bigger and better things should be accomplished in the New Year just ahead.

Happy New Year

We've had a lot of fun reporting the news of the Hilltop during the past 52 weeks. There have been few dull moments during that time and that's the way we like it. We're looking forward to a more interesting year in 1948.

To those who have followed this column during the past several months, may we say your longsuffering is deeply appreciated. If we have been able to evoke an occasional chuckle, we feel the effort has been worth while.

May we take this opportunity of wishing you and yours a HAPPY NEW YEAR all through '48.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION
It's Yours For The Asking
FREE OF CHARGE

Did you know it is possible to investigate Catholic faith and worship by mail in the privacy of your home? A short, yet complete and interesting course of instruction, which can be fitted into the busiest life, is yours for the asking.

The book is written in conversational form, and there are six test sheets to be filled out. These will be competently corrected, enabling you to determine how well you understood the religious instruction, and on what points you may require further explanation by mail.

This involves no cost or obligation on your part.

Across The HILLTOP ALLEYS

By Dick Ardle

One of the more recent leagues to be formed at the Hilltop Recreation Alleys is the St. Aloysius Mothers' Club Bowling League. This league is composed of eight teams which roll on Tuesday afternoons. This is the second year of competition and they are doing quite well.

Dick Ardle

Pure Oil and Cowley Roofing are leading the league with 30 wins and 18 losses. Pure Oil has an average of 587 while Cowley Roofing owns a 512 average.

Marie Balthaser leads the league with a 149 average, followed by Mary Ryan with 139.

Capretta Market holds the high single team game of 613 and Pure Oil the high series, 1787.

Doris Sweeney holds both individual honors with 157, 434.

The league standings are as follows:

Team	W	L
Pure Oil	30	18
Cowley Roofing	30	18
Keith's	26	22
Esterbrook	26	22
Riepenhoff Cleaners	23	25
Capretta Market	20	28
Schaefer Recorders	19	29
Midland Market	19	29

Bowling Bits

How about a slam at the guys who "live" their bowling with petty gripes about this and that instead of admitting that their bowling is the reason for bad games . . . I'd much rather hear a fellow complain at his own inability to throw a live ball, play alleys, possess correct timing, etc. . . . you're either a good or a poor bowler and for my dough a good bowler should never gripe.

Honor Roll

Women 500 or over:
Marge Liston, Rausch Bros., 522
Men 600 or over:
Richard Knipfer, Ben Brew, 629
Walt Thrailkill, Seiller's, 649.
Paul Kauderer, Spears, 612.

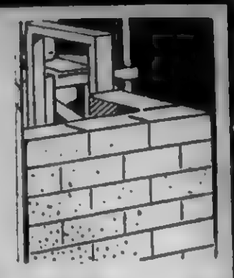
Sullivant Friends Win Hymn Sing Banner

Members of the Sullivant Avenue Friends Church were winners of the attendance banner at the bi-weekly Hilltop Hymn Sing held at Westgate Evangelical and United Brethren Church Sunday evening.

Represented at the sing were eight churches, with a total of 123 persons present.

The first Hymn Sing of the new year will be held Jan. 11 at the Edgewood Chapel on S. Wheatland-av.

Quiet Week-end Is Reported On Hilltop



Hilltoppers fortunately passed a reasonably uneventful Christmas holiday, with no serious accidents yet reported up until Monday morning.

A few minor burglaries were reported to police from West Side residents but none was listed from this immediate area.

Cowboys To See Action At Marysville

Coach George Williams is not permitting his basketball players any extended Christmas vacation this year. Practice was scheduled up until Tuesday of last week and was resumed yesterday at the West High Gym.

The team will get down to work in earnest starting with a game at Marysville tonight. This will be followed by games at Huntington and Chillicothe on Jan. 2 and 3.

Williams

The most important part of the City League play yet remains and of course the tournament playoffs at Delaware.

Jack Thrush, who is captain of this year's team and the city's leading scorer last season, has topped the scoring column for his team three times and tied for top honors in the Newark game. Paul Theisen has piled up 103 points thus far to trail by 12 for all nine games played. Walter Hicks is third with 80, or a little less than 9 points per game. Chuck Weeks is next in line with 53 tallies. Thrush graduates at the end of January.

A fifth man to come through with his share of the scoring has yet to be discovered. Don Speakman, playing in parts of eight games, has scored only 27 points as has Duffy Burton with the same number of tallies in a like number of contests.

In addition to losing scoring punch, Coach Williams will also be losing a No. 1 defensive player. Jack is usually at his best when the going gets tough and seems to have the same stabalizing influence on the team that a good quarterback has on a football eleven.

Won 8 Out of 9

To date the Cowboys have not fared too badly. They have won six out of nine contests, one being a victory over the highly-rated Newark team. Wins have been scored over Grandview, Logan, Linden, Newark, Alumni and Marion. Defeats have been suffered at the hands of Springfield, Portsmouth and Central.

The Springfield defeat was by a two-point margin (43-41), while the Portsmouth loss was by a single tally (44-43). The Central defeat was more emphatic, the Downtowners led 48 to 39 as the final gun sounded.

WHO'S WHO AMONG BABIES OF THE HILLTOP

John David Hallsteine, 3 years of age on Nov. 10, is the younger of two sons in the family of Mr. and Mrs. William Hallsteine, 96 S. Warren-av. Jimmy, 13, is a student at West. The father is an engineer for the Ohio Fuel Gas Co.

John Warren Hilbert II is just 15 months of age. He has an older sister, Joanne, 10. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hilbert, 162 S. Southampton-rd. Mr. Hilbert is an auditor for the Commercial Paste Company.

Joseph B. Bellamy, Jr., was just seven months when the above picture was taken by The Record photographer. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Bellamy, live at 370 S. Burgess-av. The father is a teller for the Ohio National Bank.

John Clinton Hutchinson is the only child in the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchinson, 2685½ W. Broad-st. He was just 16 months when this picture was taken. His father is a clerk in the U. S. Postal Service.

Karen Kay Martin, was born on June 19, 1945. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, 272 S. Terrace-av. Her father is an accountant for the Kroger Grocery and Baking Company.

Rita Ann Flugge, 16 months, is the younger of two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Flugge, 46 N. Harris-av. The older sister is Roberta, 7. Mr. Flugge is a fireman for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Barbara Kay Garrett was 2 in November of this year. She is the only child in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garrett, 137 S. Burgess-av. Her grandfather is Battalion Chief Garrett of the Fire Department. Her father is employed at the Jeffrey Manufacturing Co.

Paul Allen Faisch was 18 months of age when this picture was taken. He has an older brother Eugene, 7. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Faisch, 2710 Palmetto-st. Mr. Faisch is a supervisor for Case Crane.

West Junior To Lose First Five By Graduation

By Dave Miller

After mid-term, Jan. 22, the West Junior High Basketball squad will lose five players in graduation. The players are captain Clarence Potts, Paul Thompson, Dave Caton, George Crissinger, and Paul Ellingsworth.

Coach Red Lehman reports that this will be a grave loss to the squad as all of these boys are regulars. Ellingsworth, a perfect ball handler and carrier, will probably be the biggest loss as he at the moment leads the Junior High loop in scoring by tallying 18 points in the Starling game. He was ill for the Crestview contest. Big, tall, 6 foot 3 inch center, George Crissinger, will be a tough loss also as he is considered tall for Jr. High. Clarence (Wimpy) Potts, captain of the won-one and lost-one team, is known for his fast breaks and alert shooting. Caton and Thompson are also serious threats on the ball court.

The team will be left with Ray Wakeman and Bill South, the most dangerous of the remaining 10 boys. Remaining are Jerry Johnson, Eugene Thompson, Ron McElwee, Ken Anderson, Irvin Denuine, Warren Stephens, Dick Wray, John Chesher.

Eight games are remaining on the Junior schedule and the next game will pit the Juniors against Everett on the latter's floor. Everett has lost to Crestview, 23-16, and Roosevelt, 32-29. Crestview, Franklin and Barrett lead the loop with two victories with no setbacks.

In 1890 Yosemite, Sequoia and General Grant National Parks were established in California.

Neil Mowrey Slated To Enter Capital U.

Neil Mowrey, 2935 Crescent-dr, ex-West High football player and former Muskingum College student, will enroll at Capital University at the start of the second semester. He will be on the grid squad that reports to Coach Dale Rose next September.

Warren G. Harding is the only journalist to become president of the United States.

Fellowship Plans Watch Night Service

The Youth Fellowship of the Evangelical United Brethren Churches in Franklin County will hold a special New Year's watch night service at the Washington Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church at 9 p. m.

The program will consist of games, refreshments, music, short talks by young people and a communion service. All of the young people are invited.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio, No. 122211 - Victor Voeller, Administrator, with Will Annexed of the Estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. Margaret Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Victor L. Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney, Mrs. John Coleman, 2648 Tremont Road, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Sadie Young, 167 East Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Buell, 486 Birch Street, Worthington, Ohio; Mrs. Margaret Russell, Cleveland, Ohio; Frank Snable, whose address is unknown to plaintiff and cannot, with reasonable diligence be ascertained, Will Snable, Lima, Ohio, Defendants.

James Courtney and Barbara Courtney, whose last known place of residence is 1347 Lucile Ave., Los Angeles, 26, California, and Frank Snable, whose address is unknown, are hereby notified that on Feb. 10, 1947, Victor Voeller, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio, filed his petition in Cause No. 122211 in the Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio; that they have been made parties defendant in said cause.

Plaintiff further says that on or about the 17th day of January, 1947, Barbara Gray died a resident of Franklin County, Ohio, leaving a Will which was admitted to probate by the Probate Court of said County and State on or about the 10th day of February, 1947, that thereafter administration proceedings were had as to the Estate of the said Barbara Gray, deceased, as more particularly set forth in the proceedings and the records of said Probate Court and that the Inventory and Appraisement has been filed in said Estate. Said Will is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Plaintiff says that the house mentioned in said Will on Linwood Avenue was sold in 1946.

Plaintiff further says that Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney died after the execution of said Will.

Plaintiff further says there was in the safety deposit box in the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch, Four Thousand One Hundred Forty Dollars ($4,140.00), Five (5) One Thousand Dollar ($1000.00) United States Series G, Bonds and a Postal Savings of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). That there was in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, the sum of Two Hundred One Dollars and fifty-nine cents ($201.59), that Barbara Gray died seized in fee simple of the property located at 1070 City Park Avenue; that the insurance amounted to the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-six Dollars ($356.00) and has been paid to the Administrator herein.

That the said Barbara Gray died, leaving no heirs closer than first cousins; that Margaret Voeller, mentioned in said will, is a first cousin of said Barbara Gray, deceased, and that said Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Sadie Young, Mrs. Anna Buell, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Frank Snable and Will Snable are first cousins of the said Barbara Gray, deceased; that Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney and Victor Voeller are second cousins of said Barbara Gray, deceased.

That besides the property mentioned in said petition there is a diamond ring and household furnishings.

That there are important, difficult and doubtful questions respecting said Will and the disposition of said property under said Will and that plaintiff is in doubt as to the construction of said Will and as to the rights of parties in the distribution of the property under said Will, that plaintiff is in doubt about the following:

(1) As to whether the insurance is to go to Raymond Ayres, under the provisions of said Will?

(2) That plaintiff is in doubt, since the property on Linwood Avenue was sold prior to the death of said Barbara Gray, whether said devisees mentioned as to receive said property, are entitled to anything under said Will.

(3) That plaintiff is in doubt as to whether 1070 City Park Avenue is to go to the heirs of Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney, who were deceased prior to Barbara Gray's decease, or to Margaret Voeller or to become a part of the residuary estate and be divided among all the cousins mentioned herein.

(4) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether said insurance is to be paid to Margaret Voeller.

(5) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the $4140.00 in cash, which was in the safety deposit box of the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch; the five $1000.00, Series G, United States Bonds, also in said safety deposit box, the $500.00 Postal Savings, also in said safety deposit box, and the $201.59 in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, after the payment of debts goes to said Victor Voeller.

That if the Court should decide that the five $1000.00 Bonds do not go to Victor Voeller or any other part contained in said safety deposit box, out of which the debts of the estate are to be paid first, and to whom in the balance to go.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will and the disposition of the property under said Will and as to his duties in the premises and especially to the five questions raised in the petition herein and an order as to the duties of the plaintiff in regard to them.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before Jan. 24, 1948 or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

Vol. XXXI, No. 36 — The Hilltop, Columbus, Ohio, Thursday, January 8, 1948 — Entered as second class matter Jan. 21 1943, at the Post Office at Columbus, Ohio under the act of March 3, 1879. — Total No. 2043

The Spectator
by C.C. Hartley

Short, Sharp News Items: W. Haydn Jones and Jim Miles have been nominated as candidates for member of the Hilltop Kiwanis board of directors to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. C. O. Cramer . . . The Joe Goodwins have returned from a trip east, during which time they experienced considerable snow . . . Ed Witherspoon will return to the hospital for removal of his appendix, etc., in another week . . . Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewis have just returned orange laden from Florida . . . Jim Ward and Pat Lee Ohler will middle aisle it comes Feb. 28 . . . The Hilltop Minstrel dates have been tentatively set for March 31 and April 1 and 2 . . . A big pat on the back to Jack Sherrick for that fine party before Christmas at which time he entertained some 180 orphans . . . Understand Bill Stokos was so desperate to find some extra Christmas tree lights that he even inquired down at Southworth Poultry if the lights from a chicken could be used on a tree . . . Catherine McKenzie of the Shank & Saunders staff is taking a rest cure for a couple of months and will be much missed in that organization during that time . . . Understand Carl Schmelzer will join his dad in the Daugherty Shade business soon . . . Something new has been added to the take out money in the pay envelope: the city income tax.

Coming Events: Figures have recently been released showing that the U. S. birthrate last year was 26.5 per 1000 population. This is the highest birthrate on record. And this year is predicted to show a high increase in the population, too. All of which means every wide awake community must be alert to looking ahead some six years when these children go to school. Will our schools be adequate? Will our recreation facilities be adequate? Is our community ready to provide these future young citizens with their requirements?

And speaking of coming events, these Hilltoppers will be contributing to the growth of the community in coming months: Jerry and Gracebelle Spears, Dorothy and Bob Shannon, Bob and Ellen Rose, George and Margaret Tarbutton, Paul and Eileen Lugger, Paul and Alice MacDonald, Bill and Lu[illegible], Phillips, D[illegible] Cowles.

Flowers of the Week

Flowers of the week from Rosebud Floral to Jack Sensenbrenner, selected as the Hilltop Man of the Year. We are agreed that this is a popular selection and that Jack has done much to deserve this honor.

Taint Funny

An epidemic of flat tires has been reported in the community. One local service station operator advises that he had 11 calls from Whittehorne-av, four from N. Burgess, two from Ridge-av, and some from Lechner-av, all in one morning and in each case it was a matter of removed or loosened valve cores.

Such play on the part of someone is far from being funny and should have some attention from police. A little side street cruising by the police cars would no doubt put a stop to it.

Murder-Suicide Verdict Returned In Couple's Death

A verdict of murder and suicide was returned Tuesday in the deaths of a 60-year-old laundry superintendent at the Columbus State School and his 56-year-old wife, who were found dead at the school Monday morning.

Otis J. Lawwell and his wife, Estelle, were found in their two-room apartment in the laundry. The bodies were discovered by Guy Cook, school superintendent, and Thomas Gardner, a laundry employe, who forced their way into the apartment after the couple failed to report for work Monday morning.

Mrs. Lawwell had been shot through the head by a .32 caliber pistol while her husband died from slashing his wrists. Mrs. Lawwell's body was taken to the Denton, Donaldson & Kuhn Funeral Home and her husband's to the Jerry Spears Funeral Home following an autopsy at University Hospital.

Surviving are a son, Frank P. Minnelli of Long Island, N. Y.; a brother, Charles Miesse, 32 W. Tompkins-st, and a sister, Mrs. Ina Arbogast of Reynoldsburg.

Private funeral services for Mrs. Lawwell were held Wednesday. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Funeral services for Mr. Lawwell will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Spears Funeral Funeral Home. Burial will be in Union Cemetery.

Wilson Heights Group To Meet

The January meeting of the Wilson Heights Civic Association will be held at the Wilson School Monday night. The meeting is scheduled to start at 8 p. m.

Judge Randall To Install HBA Officers

The January meeting of the Hilltop Business Association to be held next Tuesday evening will feature the installation of new officers and the naming of committees to serve for the coming year.

The meeting will start with a dinner at the Westgate Methodist Church, 845 S. Brinker-av, at 6:45 p. m. Judge Cecil J. Randall, 1989 W. Broad-st, a member of the Common Pleas Court of Franklin County, will be the installing officer. R. P. Barthalow, city auditor, will explain the application of the new city payroll tax.

Joe Goodwin, owner of Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av, will take over as president of the organization, replacing Dr. R. J. Miller, chiropractor at 2493 W. Broad-st.

Other new officers are Franklin Sparks, first vice-president; Delbert Pack, second vice-president; J. P. Merriman, treasurer, and Ira Claggett and Lowell Sullivant, trustees.

Treatment For Rabies Is Given Local Families

Several Hilltop and Grandview families were receiving treatment for rabies this week as their pets died from rabies or showed signs of having the disease early this week. Meanwhile Dr. Ollie M. Goodloe, city health commissioner, urged dog owners to notify the board of health immediately if their dog show signs of being ill.

A strict quarantine on all dogs was ordered in an effort to stop the spread of the disease.

Known to be receiving treatment as The Hilltop Record went to press this week were the following families: Arthur J. Parrett, 98 Campbell-av; Earl Lewwe 2250 Safford-av; Carl Gray, 255 Safford-av; Viola Penrod, 2100 Rankin-av; the six members of the John [illegible] family, [illegible] Dr. [illegible] that during the 30-day quarantine stray dogs will be taken to the animal shelter while licensed pets running at large will be returned to their owners who will be warned. Owners are subject to prosecution, he said.

Wolfe Re-elected Rea-Bow Pres.

George Wolfe was re-elected president of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association for another term at an election of officers held by that group Tuesday night.

Other officers named were E. B. Kidd, vice-president; LeRoy Green, secretary; Louise Richardson, treasurer, and Mrs. Alice Brokampt, safety director.

West High Teacher Dies During Holidays

Students and faculty members at West High School were saddened during the holiday season at news of the death of Leslie E. Burba, 45, an industrial arts teacher at the school during the past three years. He died last Thursday while making repairs on his car in the garage at his home, 1362 Oakwood-av, believed to have been the victim of carbon monoxide poisoning.

A silent tribute was paid to Mr. Burba Monday as the students came back to school. At a given signal three trumpet players in various parts of the building sounded taps as all students stood in their class rooms with bowed heads in memory of their departed teacher. A wreath was hung on the door of the industrial arts room where Mr. Burba taught.

Irvin F. Young, principal of the school, said that for the time being other shop instructors would carry on with his work. A new man to take his place may not be named until the end of the current semester.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon. He is survived by a son, Leland Burba; his wife, Mrs. Nellie S. Burba; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Burba of Wilmington, and two brothers, Arthur Burba of Easton, Ohio, and Ray Burba, an engineer at Saudi, Arabia.

Hilltopper Is Given State Health Post

A Hilltopper, Dr. Paul O. Peterson, 557 S. Harris-av, is chief of the new bureau of direct services in the State Health Department, it was announced Monday.

Dr. Peterson, 35, will receive base pay of $6350 per year. This appointment is termed the first step toward reorganizing the department.

Cabbages Give Way To Cottages Here - - -

This field that grew cabbages and other garden vegetables last summer is giving way for much-needed homes such as the one shown at the right (above). The picture upper left was taken a few days ago as shovels started moving earth for basements of homes in a tract of land just north of W. Mound-st and west of Whittehorne-av.

Ken Dickerson, Inc., 2345 W. Broad-st, is the developer of the subdivision that is soon to see 54 new homes under construction. Work has already started on some of them and when the project gets in full swing, homes are to be completed at the rate of two per day. It is expected that the first five units will be completed by the middle of January. Dewey H. Boggs, realtor, is handling the sales for Dickerson. The home shown at upper right was recently completed by Dickerson at 469 Eldon-av. It was purchased and is now occupied by Gil Bolin, field executive for the Boy Scouts of America.

Dr. Rohr Named To Health Post

Dr. Lovell W. Rohr, 291 S. Brinker-av, has been appointed to the Columbus Board of Health to fill the vacancy created by the death of Dr. C. O. Cramer. Announcement of the appointment was made today by Mayor James Rhodes.

Dr. Rohr has offices at 1251 W. Broad-st, is a graduate of the College of Medicine at Ohio State in 1929, had interne work at Grant Hospital and was a major in World War II. He was an all-high football player in his senior year at West High.

He is active in affairs of the Columbus Academy of Medicine and has the endorsement of the academy for the position.

Eagles Lodge Will Celebrate 12th Year Here

Members of Aguila Aerie No. 2209, F. O. E., 2358 W. Broad-st, will commemorate their 12th anniversary as a group in a four-day celebration, Jan. 9, 10, 11 and 12, at Aerie headquarters.

Door prizes donated by Hilltop merchants will be awarded during the first three nights. A district meeting has been planned for the afternoon of Sunday, Jan. 11, followed by a dinner from 6 to 8 p. m. Dancing and a floor show will conclude the evening's entertainment.

Monday, Jan. 12, will be devoted to regular lodge and business meetings for Eagles only.

The lodge was organized by Charles W. Snyder, 619 S. Eureka-av, and instituted at Grocers' Hall, 527½ W. Broad-st Jan. 12, 1938. The group received its charter Oct. 20, 1936, and for several months held meetings in Pat Policaro's Barber Shop at 2586 Sullivant-av. During the autumn of that year quarters were moved to 2855 W. Broad-st, where they were maintained until Jan. 16, 1940. On that date the lodge was moved to its present location.

There were approximately 50 charter members, but the organization has grown to its present number of 784 within the past 12 years.

Past worthy presidents include Charles Hughes, 1936-37; Alva Nofziger, 1937-38; L. W. Wells, 1938-39; Gerald Wallace, 1939-40; Claude Fox, 1940-41; Guy Peden, 1941-42; Ralph Loemelle, 1942-43; William Bates, 1943-44, Ralph Lanigan, 1944-45; Loren Smith, 1945-46; Virgil Conrad, 1946-47; and James Stockdale, 1947-48.

West Boosters' Club To Meet Tonight

There will be a meeting of the West High Boosters Club tonight at Room 101 at the school. All Booster members are invited to attend. It is scheduled to start at 7 o'clock. Gilbert Buckingham, president of the club, said.

Penelope Johnson To Appear In Concert

A former Hilltop girl [illegible] uate of West High School who [illegible] since gone far in music [illegible] a violinist, will return to [illegible] bus for a concert on Thursday evening, Jan. 29, at Central High School auditorium.

She is Penelope Johnson [illegible] uate of West in 1930 who left the city that year to study at the Juilliard School of Music.

She will be assisted in the concert by Elizabeth Foster, dramatic soprano, Marian Anderson award winner, and Irwin Weaver, harpist, of Cleveland.

They are being presented by Edward [illegible] Association with the National Association of Negro Musicians. Tickets may be secured at [illegible]s, and the Spring Street [illegible]

Gordon Armbrust Has Grueling Experience Adrift In The Pacific

Gordon Armbrust, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Armbrust, 805 S. Burgess-av, suffered a particularly grueling experience a month ago while serving with the U. S. Coast Guard off the Oregon coast, his parents learned recently.

Young Armbrust was the sole passenger on the Partridge, one of three 110-foot patrol boats being towed by a coast guard tender, the Bramble, to Seattle. During a severe gale tow lines between the Bramble and two of the patrol boats were broken, and the helpless vessels were left to [illegible]tumbler alone, remaining [illegible]sighted for 16 hours. He was adrift for a total of four days.

The unusual and dangerous incident was written about in considerable detail by a marine editor, Walter Mattila of the Astoria, Oregon, Budget. Excerpts from his account follow:

"The two patrol boats, cast adrift Tuesday night, were not taken in tow until Thursday night. Armbrust set off Very flares shortly after he realized that the Bramble's tow line had parted.

"The young coast guardsman was not certain that the Bramble would learn soon that the two patrol craft had broken away. Visibility was bad and a gale blustered from the south."

According to the account given his parents, young Armbrust was knocked to the deck of the vessel and pinned down by the tow line in an effort to hitch on to it. Only the quick action of the master of Mallow, the rescue ship, prevented his almost certain death. Despite his injuries, Armbrust was able to make the tow line fast and the rescue was accomplished.

Armbrust

The former West High School student enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard following his graduation in January, 1946, and has never been home since then. He was in Honolulu, Guam and other Pacific stations and returned to the States in July, 1947. He will complete his enlistment and is expected home about the middle of February.

Meet Hilltop's "Man Of The Year"

Jack Sensenbrenner Is Recognized As Energetic Community Leader

Sensenbrenner

The Hilltop's "Man of the Year" for 1947 needs no introduction to most residents of the community. He has often been in print in recent years because his activities have been many and varied. All who know him are impressed with his overflowing enthusiasm and abundance of energy to get things done.

He is M. E. (Jack) Sensenbrenner of 335 Guernsey-av.

The "Man of the Year" selection was announced Dec. 30 at the annual installation of officers of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club of which he is first vice-president. The recognition for outstanding community service is sponsored by Camp Chase Post No. 98, American Legion, in cooperation with the Hilltop Business Association and the Hilltop Kiwanis Club.

In addition to his Kiwanis work, the new "Man of the Year" is district chairman of the Southwest District Boy Scouts of America, a director of the West High Boosters Club and one of the school's outstanding boosters, and teacher of what is perhaps the largest Bible class on the Hilltop.

Sensenbrenner, who is 45, was born and raised in Circleville. He went to California at the age of 21, where he worked at various times for the Los Angeles Times, Westinghouse Electric, Shell Oil Company, and became a district manager for the Fuller Brush Company. While there he attended the Bible Institute of Los Angeles and did mission work in the slums of L. A. This zeal for Christian service has remained an important factor in his life.

Came To Columbus In 1934

He and his family came to Columbus in 1934 and for the past 10 years he has taught the Fidelis Class at Ridge Memorial Presbyterian Church. During the past year the class has averaged 118 per Sunday. A high in attendance was reached last Easter, when there were 262 present. In addition to his Sunday School work he is also an elder of the church and a trustee of the Bible Meditation League. He is frequently called upon to serve as guest teacher or give talks before Protestant, Catholic and Jewish groups all over central Ohio.

Perhaps his outstanding contribution is the way of community service during the past year has been his work with the West High Boosters. Calv[illegible]

Hilltop 'Y' Board Is Elected Friday

Hartley Named Chairman of Group

The election and organization of a permanent YMCA Board to take over the planning and execution of a "Y" program for the Hilltop was accomplished during the past week.

At a meeting of representatives of many Hilltop groups and organizations held in West High School Friday evening, the following board was named:

Irvin F. Young, principal of West High School; Dr. R. J. Miller, 2493 W. Broad-st, president of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club, Charles P. Maus, 70 N. Westgate-av, former president of the Hilltop Community Council; Mose Williams, 2581 Steele-av, insurance man, Leo Uridil, 106 Binns-blvd, secy. Bd. of Health; Ira Claggett, 2026 W. Broad-st, realtor; Ralph Jeeks, 2914 Crescent-dr, bus line operator; H. G. Deems, 2389 W. Broad-st, secretary of First Federal Savings and Loan Association; Jerry Spears, Sr., 2899 W. Broad-st, funeral director; Rev. A. J. Wold, 2503 W. Broad-st, pastor of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, and C. Carlton Hartley, publisher of The Hilltop Record.

Members of the new board met Tuesday evening and elected officers as follows: C. C. Hartley, chairman; Jerry Spears, vice-chairman; C. P. Maus, secretary, H. G. Deems, treasurer. These men will serve as an executive committee of the board, with the addition of Mose Williams as elected member.

Election of a twelfth member will complete formal organization of the board. Adoption of by-laws and further appointment of committees along with progress of the program will be announced within a short time.

Deems, Spears, Rev. Wold and Hartley were members of the temporary committee that has been carrying on the negotiations for a local YMCA branch.

Flasher Light Going In At Wilson Road

Work of installing flasher warning signal lights at the Wilson Road crossing of the Pennsylvania Railroad is approximately 50 per cent complete, according to S. J. King, superintendent of the signal department of the company.

The lights are expected to be in operation by the latter part of this month, he said.

The crossing has long been considered a dangerous one by an increasing number of persons using that road. One fatal accident occurred there and two or three narrow escapes are known to have been experienced at the double-track crossing. A brick building on the south side of the tracks, east of Wilson-rd, partly obscures vision of persons driving north.

The work was started in December.

Mulholland To Head West Side Board

John Mulholland will head the West Side Board of Trade for the year 1948 following an election of officers held at Grocers' Hall, 527½ W. Broad-st, Tuesday night.

At the meeting Sam Selby of the Ohio State University coaching staff showed pictures of the OSU grid games. Players and coaches from Central High School were guests.

Other officers named for the new year include William Mawhirter, first vice-president; John Enders, second vice-president; John Thomas, secretary, and William Ewald, treasurer.

New members of the board of directors are Stanley Smith, Harry Mock, Ray Eyerman, L. P. Beall, William Moler and Roy Keller.

Moler is the retiring president of the West Side Board of Trade.

Permanent Place For License Sale Will Open Here

A year-round office where auto, truck and trailer license plates, driver's licenses, chauffer's license and temporary driving permits can be purchased will be opened on the Hilltop March 1.

Russell Henry, manager of Robinson Electric, 2403 W. Broad-st, has been named deputy registrar with authority to operate the year-round license service. Headquarters will be set up in the appliance store and all net profits from the sale will go to the Hilltop Kiwanis Club of which Henry is a member. Sale of the license has been handled on a year-to-year basis for the benefit of the local club in the past. The office is one of two new permanent ones being set up. It will be under the supervision of Fred E. Jones, traveling auditor for the state.

Henry said that the 1948 auto tags will be $10 for all makes of cars instead of graduated rates in keeping with horse power rating as in the past. One person will devote full time to handling the license business with another part time helper.

K. of P. Lodge Will Entertain Grand Officers

Mentorwood Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be host to the Grand Lodge officers, Domain of Ohio, Tuesday evening, Jan. 13.

The Hilltop Lodge has been honored in the past by having one of its members, August W. Weber, well-known local attorney, serve as grand chancellor of the state organization. Mr. Weber will be honored on this occasion.

On Jan. 20 all lodges of Franklin County will meet at Mentorwood Lodge for their county deputy meeting. Oscar Evans, member of Crestview Lodge, is the county deputy.

Kiwanis Committees To Make Reports

Reports on the plans of committees for the new year will be heard today at the luncheon meeting of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club. The group will meet at Schuler's Restaurant, 3178 W. Broad-st.

Diets, city forestry superintendent, will have a place on [illegible]

Raymond G. Hill To Head Huston YMCA Branch

A former Hilltopper who has made YMCA work a career will be deserting the Buckeye state to take up new duties in Houston, Tex., effective Feb. 1.

He is Raymond G. Hill, a graduate of West High School in 1924. He is the son of Mrs. James A. Hill, 2849 W. Broad-st. His wife is the former Elizabeth Raether, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raether, 203 S. Huron-av.

During the past three years Hill has been boys' work secretary of the Canton YMCA. His new assignment will be executive secretary of the Northwest Branch YMCA in Houston. The branch, similar in function to the one proposed for the Hilltop, is in the midst of plans calling for erection of a new building and other phases of development.

Before going to Canton he served as city boys' work secretary at Quincy, Ill., young men's secretary at Norfolk, Va., and general secretary of YMCA work at Lexington, Ky., and Huntington, W. Va. He attended Ohio State University and then finished his college training at the YMCA Graduate School at Nashville, Tenn.

He is a member of Kiwanis International, the American Camping Association, and is on the board of directors of the Ohio and West Virginia Association of Boys' Work Secretaries.

The Hills spent the holidays visiting friends and relatives on the Hilltop. They have a daughter, Diane, 8.

Arthur Baas, 5, Shows Improvement After Accident On Monday

The condition of five-year-old Arthur E. Baas, injured Monday when he was struck by a car at the corner of Burgess and Sullivant-avs, was reported "satisfactory" at Children's Hospital Wednesday.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Baas, 510 S. Harris-av, was struck when he ran out into the street to look for a bus. He is a kindergarten pupil at John Burroughs School. [illegible]'s to the hospital, he [illegible] to have suffered a concussion in addition to [illegible] the face and head. [illegible] car was William [illegible] Thomas-av, police.

McGarvey-Primmer Vows Are Exchanged Here On December 26

Only immediate friends and relatives were present at the double ring ceremony when Miss Thelma Primmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Primmer of Logan, O., became the bride of Mr. John Paul McGarvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McGarvey, 57 S. Wheatland-av, Dec. 26, in the Friends Church. Rev. Chester Stanley officiated.

Mrs. David McGarvey, matron of honor, wore a street-length beige faille dress with v-neckline and long sleeves, complemented with a corsage of red roses.

The bride was costumed in an ivory satin street-length gown with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. In her hair, a bandeaux of white roses was placed to match her corsage. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone bracelet, gift of the bridegroom.

Ushers for the ceremony were Mr. William Moon and Mr. Donald Drake. Mr. Robert Brown served as best man.

A reception was held at the bridegroom's home immediately following the ceremony, at which mothers of the couple were hostesses. Mrs. Primmer wore navy blue faille while the mother of the bridegroom was dressed in navy blue crepe. Both wore light blue accessories and gardenia corsages.

The new Mrs. McGarvey is a graduate of Logan High School and attended Ohio State University. The bridegroom is at present attending the American Television School, Chicago. The couple will reside at 2111 Fremont-st, Chicago, Ill.

Broadway Shoe Store Adds X-Ray Machine

The Broadway Shoe Store, 2390 W. Broad-st, has added a new, modern X-ray machine to its equipment. This machine reveals any deformity of the bone structure of the foot and not only helps to select the proper shape shoe but it also determines if the shoe fits properly as to width and length. The machine is adjusted for three degrees of penetration, low for children; medium for women; and high for men. In this new X-ray machine the flesh as well as the bone is shown eliminating the possibility of fitting shoes too short.

This is especially important to children, because short or improperly fitted shoes can greatly damage the soft, pliable bones of a child's foot. It eliminates guessing when fitting children's soft feet for it is well known that youngsters may not know "how the shoes feel" nor be able to express their opinions. This X-ray machine permits the customer to see the fit of shoes before they are purchased and worn.

CORRECTION

Idea for Baby Bonnet

Ribbon strings on baby bonnets are bound to get in the baby's mouth sooner or later. To avoid this, cut a piece of ribbon just long enough to reach from side to side under the chin and attach this with snaps at each side. This way there is nothing dangling to attract the baby, and the ribbon can be removed conveniently each time the bonnet is

Harry L. Anthony

Harry L. Anthony, 61, of 158 N. Powell-av, veteran teller at the Hi-Town office of the Ohio National Bank, died Dec. 29 at his home after a year's illness with leukemia.

A native of Columbus, Mr. Anthony joined the bank staff in December, 1905, and had served continuously until illness forced his retirement in January, 1946.

He was a member of St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church; Humboldt Lodge, F&AM, Aladdin Temple of the Shrine, Scottish Rite, the Quarter Century Club of the Wolfe Industries, and Camp Chase Post, American Legion. He was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Laurabelle; three sons, Harry L., Jr., and Richard Anthony, both of Columbus, and Robert Anthony, at home; a sister, Mrs. Albert Moekel, and a brother, Charles Anthony, both of Columbus.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday in St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church. Burial was in Sunset Cemetery.

Back To Normal

That fairyland snowfall Tuesday morning seemed to be just what the doctor ordered to restore normality to a hectic time in three weeks the routine of daily chores falls back into a familiar pattern. It's a good thing that Christmas comes but once a year.

Post Holiday Notes

The boys at Engine House No. 17 were just sitting down to their annual holiday feast of roast turkey and all the trimmings when in comes a call to put out a fire. So, grabbing their helmets in one hand and a drum stick in the other, the smoke eaters roared out of the station to do their duty.

One of the oddest New Year's resolutions we've heard of is that of Mary Ryerson—to drink two glasses of water each day all through the New Year.

Today is the last endless Thursday to be observed in the "save the grain" program. Our chickens have observed the day to the letter and almost as faithfully the other six days of the week.

Over She Goes

This story is sent in by our Rome correspondent, Mrs. E. C. Sheets.

Some of the boys of her neighborhood were playing in front of their beautiful Christmas tree complete with all the decorations while their mother was visiting. All of a sudden the tree and all its beautiful baubles toppled over on the floor.

But boys are not easily discouraged and, despite the fact that many of the ornaments were broken in the fall, they set up the tree again and decided to trim at least one side of the tree with the trinkets that were left. But hardly had they completed the task the second time when over she went again.

That was enough. Christmas was past anyway. The boys decided to put away the few remaining unbroken ornaments and call it a day. But soon mother returned with some smaller guests for a post-Christmas party.

"What's the idea of taking down the tree when I am planning a party for the children," she said. "Go right out and get the tree and put it up again."

So, five days after Christmas, the boys went back to the task of trimming the Christmas tree for the fourth time.

Mrs. H. F. Volz, 3010 Hamilton-av, received minor injuries last Thursday afternoon when her husband's car dropped into an excavation at the rear of 2004 Fremont-av. She suffered back and arm injuries. The excavation had apparently been filled with loose dirt.

Other persons reported receiving minor injuries in traffic accidents included William Hankins, 64, rear of 42 Hawkes-av, and Mrs. Betty Cupoli, 29, of 1341 Sullivant-av.

"Black Narcissus" To Open Wednesday

In line with a policy of occasionally presenting first-run attractions, the Academy Theatres announce the booking of "Black Narcissus," for a full week starting Wednesday at the Westmont Theatre.

Picked by Life Magazine as the "Picture of the Week" on Sept. 1, "Black Narcissus" is the much-heralded technicolor picture currently enjoying record breaking engagements in New York and Chicago.

In preparing concrete remember that the sand should be hard and free from such things as fine dust, clay and vegetable matter. The presence of foreign matter will prevent a good bond between the cement and the sand. All materials, including the water, should be carefully measured.

Church Leagues See Action Here

By Dave Miller

Four games were played in the Intermediate Church League at the Glenwood gym on Tuesday evening.

The first game was full of fouls and fights to add to the color of the game. In this contest, Riverside dropped a 24 to 16 decision to a tough Glenwood five. Bill Elliott of Glenwood dumped in 12 points to top the scorers for this game.

"Red" Cunningham of Salvation Army led the second game scoring and all games with nine buckets and one free throw for a total of 19 markers. His team, Salvation Army, beat a slow starting Westgate Evangelical quintet by a 37 to 12 count.

Burgess E. U. B. defeated West Park by a 23 to 20 score in a very close battle of two well balanced teams. Bob Kuntzi and "Skip" Skipper got six a piece for Burgess and Bob Horch and Bill Dennis got six between them for West Park.

In the fourth game of the night, Hoge Memorial defeated St. Aloysius by a 30 to 14 score in a rough game.

In the West Church Senior League that played on Monday night, Westgate defeated Ho[illegible] 30 to 27; Glenwood dow[illegible] Avondale E. U. B., 30 to 25, [illegible] Holy Family trounced West [illegible], 27 to 15.

Boys Are Enrolled In Scouting Southwest District This Year

The new year starts off with a bang as more than 1,000 boys in the various phases of scouting in the Southwest District. It also sees several new faces connected with the program, including several district officers and a new field executive, Cliff Matthews, who has taken over the duties of Gil Bain.

According to a recent list issued by Boy Scout headquarters here, there are 957 boys enrolled in some phase of scouting in the Southwest District. That number is made up of 526 Boy Scouts, 324 Cub Scouts and 67 Senior Scouts.

One of the first big events on the 1948 calendar will be the Eagle Court of Honor to be held on the afternoon of Feb. 15. The place is yet to be determined.

Hilltop Women Post Top Scores In Tourney

Several Hilltop women bowlers rolled enviable scores in the Cincinnati Times Star Bowling Tournament now in progress at the Queen City.

High team score posted thus far is that of Stewart Black Top's 2910. This team is made up of Frances Patridge, Genevieve Graham, Ruth Perry, Irene Shepard and Helen Neeshan. Helen posted a three-game 575 and a single game of 222. The latter figure is the actual score without handicap. It stands as the high single to date.

Other Columbus teams on which local women keglers have been outstanding are the fourth place Kauffman Aluminum Storm Window captained by Bessie McCoy. The team posted a 2856. Billie Warden is a member of the team.

In fifth place at the present time is Standard Savings and Loan captained by Florence Schuls. High doubles score was set by Billie Warden and Iva Longerbone with a 1207.

A 1107 tally was rolled by Genevieve Graham and Frances Patridge for eighth place. Genevieve Graham's 628 ranked about fifth in the singles while Frances Patridge posted a 573 for three games.

Lutheran Quints Open Season

By Dave Miller

The Hilltop Lutheran League started off with four pairings at the John Burroughs gym Monday evening.

The last game, Hilltop Church vs. Grove City, turned out to be the most thrilling of all. Grove City went on to a 25 to 19 win over the Lutherans from the Hill. Leading scorer of the game was Bill Diecly of the losers with two free throws and four field goals for 10 points.

In the first game, Hilltop Intermediate beat a fighting St. John Intermediate five by an 18 to 13 count. Dave Lazenby of the winners took high scoring honors with four buckets and two free throws for 10 points, Ted Fladt, center for St. John, got five points, and in the most crucial moments.

In the second game St. Matthew swamped a weak Bethlehem five by the overwhelming score of 34 to 4. Every Bethlehem point was made on free throws, three by Jim Ealy, and one by Norm Ealy. Bill Ott of St. Matthew was top scorer with four goals and one foul shot. Ott missed three free throws.

In the third contest, the St. John Juniors lost to Hope Juniors by a 40 to 22 score, in a rough-shod, drag-out battle between two fighting little quintets. Leading scorer of the day was Bill Bentz of Hope with eight baskets and 16 points.

Boy-Girl Relations To Be Discussed

A conference on boy-girl relations, sponsored by the Y-Teen and Hi-Y Clubs of Columbus and Franklin County and open to all high school students, is being planned for Sunday, Jan. 18, from 2:15 to 5:00 p. m. at the Young Women's Christian Association, 65 S. 4th. St.

Resource leader will be Dr. Roy E. Dickerson, author and executive secretary of the Social Hygiene Society, Cincinnati. He will speak on "Getting Ready to Fall in Love," and after a brief intermission for sociability and refreshments, will conduct a question period. He will also be available for personal conference after the close of the session.

Tickets are available through Hi-Y and Y-Teen officers in each high school, and from Peg Calbeck, director for Teen-Age program at the YWCA, and Harold Hess, Hi-Y director, YWCA, 40 W. Long-st.

Ferdinand — All right, if you want to break off our engagement, but I'll have to ask you to return my ring.

Parachute Jumping Part Of Day's Work For Dave Binns

Dave Binns, 734 Harrisburg-pk, widely-known parachute jumper, calls this his "Flight of Yesteryear." That's Dave at the controls of a 1910 Curtiss Pusher. It's one of the featured acts put on by National Air Shows of which the local man is a member.

By Paul Wichterman

Bailing out of an airplane at an altitude of 10,000 feet is "just part of the day's work" for Dave Binns, 734 Harrisburg-pk, one of the country's best-known aerial performers.

Dave, who last summer gave up a good job as superintendent of the Machine Products Division of the Armstrong Furnace Company to devote full time to aerial shows, has a total of 311 jumps to his credit. And to hear him tell it they were all uneventful although he does recall the time back in 1937 when he was yanked unceremoniously out of his plane in mid-air when his chute opened prematurely as he rose from his seat to prepare for a jump.

The plane crash landed from about 1200 feet altitude with Dave and his opened chute dangling from a guy wire on the tail structure. When he came to, he was a patient in a local hospital, considerably bruised but without a single broken bone. The accident happened while he was "doing a show" at the Gahanna Fair. Another time he tore the cartilage in his right knee when he came down a little too hard. That necessitated surgery. Last summer he cracked a couple of ribs following a jump at Hope, Ark., but that didn't keep him out of action very long.

Not a Daredevil

The local man does not consider his work in the "daredevil" class in the least. As a featured performer with National Air Shows, he stresses the fact that it is the safest air show in the business as borne out by Civil Aeronautics Authority blanket approval granted for the entire season.

"Although we are constantly checked by CAA men while putting on our show, we have never been in difficulty with them for reckless performance," he said.

This year the outfit put on 22 shows all over the Midwest and the southern states. They performed every day during the National Air Races at Cleveland and expect to appear at a big show being planned for Miami, Fla., some time in January and again at a show preceding the New Orleans Mardi Gras.

Bill Sweet, a Columbus resident, does the announcing, handles all promotion and publicity and serves as business manager for the five-man troupe. Other members are Clem Honkamp of Cincinnati, who flew for the British for a number of years before serving with the ATC for the "duration"; Joe Call, a cotton plantation owner from Leland, Miss., who served as a basic instructor for the AAF; and Ted Schmuck of Atlanta, Ga., who as a B-17 pilot was shot down over Berlin on his 13th mission and was a prisoner of war.

Binns says that his outfit is very proud of the fact that they have not had a serious accident since going into the business. Next year promises to be an even bigger season with bookings already to run from January through to next November. Right now is a slack season and Dave is "taking it easy" at home, getting acquainted with his three youngsters.

National Air Shows collect from $2300 to $3500 for their performances, depending upon the length of entertainment desired.

In Aerial Salute

The show opening features Dave in an aerial salute to the crowd. In this act he makes a jump from approximately 1500 feet. After the chute is opened he unfurls a large American flag below him as the band strikes up "The Star Spangled Banner." During the descent, Clem Honkamp, in a red and white North American Special, spirals him at high rate of speed, laying a beautiful smoke trail. At the same time, a barrage of powerful aerial bombs is fired into the air.

Dave is again featured in a number tagged "Flight of Yesteryear." In this number he takes to the air in a 1910 model Curtiss Pusher, sitting at the controls, he is dressed in the clothes of the period, complete with derby hat, false mustache and loud checkered suit.

Delayed Jump

His other number is the delayed parachute drop. In this number he bails out at approximately 10,000 feet with a four trail to mark his descent. At about 1500 feet he opens his chute—approximately nine seconds before hitting the ground.

"To get my bearings, I always pick out the main hangar or some other building when I bail out," he explained.

"I keep watching the ground and soon I can make out automobiles. After that people begin to take shape. When I can clearly make out the figure of 'people,' I pull the cord."

Dave admits that he doesn't always land exactly where he plans. Changes in wind direction, human error and other factors sometimes work to throw a fellow off course.

"I've been in more corn fields than most farmers," he recalls jokingly.

Dave grew up in Columbus. He attended the Fifth Avenue Elementary School and graduated from the YMCA High School in 1931. He got his first taste of airplanes out at the Columbus Airport where he started as a "grease monkey" for John T. Carrodi, Inc. He started jumping some time in 1935, later doing "barn storming" on a part-time basis.

Asked how he reacted to the first jump, he said: "I felt awfully foolish leaving a perfectly good airplane to jump out into space."

"After the first couple of seasons it becomes just part of the day's work," the airman recalls.

Binns, who is 38 years of age, married the former Ota Shull. They have three children—Rebecca, 3, Barbara Ann, 4, and Tommy, 9.

Mrs. Binns is not "crazy" about the flying and jumping but she does go to see some of the shows. Tommy can "take it or leave it" but has not yet shown any keen interest in the hazardous occupation of his dad.

School groups from Columbus and other parts of the state brought 25,131 students to the museum. Loan collections were used by 136,817 students from 75 counties and interest in the radio program "Once Upon a Time in Ohio" grew by leaps and bounds as indicated by requests for programs and teachers' manuals.

Scholarship Test Will Be Given To Upper 40% In Feb.

By Casey

On Friday or Saturday, February 6 or 7, 1948, at Columbus, a general scholarship test will be given to any student in the upper 40 per cent of the 1947-1948 graduating class.

The test will be objective and will cover essentials of the high school academic course of study. There are five subject groups, including English, history, mathematics, science and reading. Each group counts 60 points, making a total of 300 points for the complete test. One-half hour is allowed for taking each subject and two and one-half hours for the complete test.

Every student has an equal opportunity. General scholarship implies an acquaintance with the fundamentals in the five fields tested. Few high-schoolers have had all of the subjects. Because of this the test will be as fair for one as for another.

The names of the high ranking students and their scholarship scores will be sent with a letter of recommendation to all colleges and universities or technical training centers in Ohio, as well as to numerous out of state schools. In addition, the individual personnel record card of each of these students will be sent to the institution of training center indicated as the one he desires to attend. Likewise, the personnel record cards of all other contestants regardless of what they do on the test will be sent to the institutions they desire to attend.

A local place certificate of award will be presented to the students who rank among the first ten. All others in the upper 25 per cent group will receive honorable mention certificates.

The 25 boys and 25 girls who place highest in their district will each receive a certificate of rank.

The high 25 boys and the high 25 girls in the state will each receive a state certificate of rank.

The district-state scholarship tests for all senior highs are to be held on April 9, 1948, here at West.

On February 6 or 7, the Ohio State University Agricultural Scholarship examination will be held, for high school seniors, by arrangement with the Ohio Scholarship tests which are to be presented at the same time.

Mr. Neeb, senior advisor, said last week that any senior interested in any of the scholarship tests offered should see him immediately so that arrangements could be made.

upon to head a paper drive to raise funds to help pay for an electric scoreboard for Magly Field. Bensenbrenner shocked some of the members by setting a goal of $1,000 for the one-day drive. To the surprise of some and to the satisfaction of all, the project netted $1,025.84. An earlier drive and a Hilltop Record subscription campaign had brought in almost $1400.

Later he was called upon to head the 1947 membership campaign for the organization. He set up a goal of 1,000 and at last report the membership had gone over the 1,100 mark. To make sure the group did not miss its goal, Jack went out and sold 300 of the memberships, himself.

Taking part in the play "Home To The Wars," to be presented at Glenwood Methodist Church, 64 Highland-av, Friday night are the following local players:

Phillip Edwards, 479 N. Hague-av (in front); second row, Beverly Phillips, 388 S. Ogden-av, and John Brown, 2709 Elliott-av; third row, George Brown, 2709 Elliott-av, and Ruth Gildersleeve, 238 N. Ogden-av.

The play to be given was written by Roger Miller, 143 Haldy-av.

C. A. Wiseman Seriously Hurt In Auto Crash

Chester A. Wiseman, 83 Powhatan-av, suffered a compound fracture of the left leg and a fracture of the right leg in a freak accident early Monday morning as police reported numerous accidents caused by icy streets.

Mr. Wiseman, 67, was traveling east on E. Broad-st when his car was struck in the rear by a car driven by John Gorman of 679 Fairwood-av. Neither man was injured, and both left their autos to view the damage.

As Wiseman stepped between the two cars to inspect the damage, a car driven by James Emig, 1276 Jackson-pk, skidded into the Gorman car, pinning Wiseman between the autos. He was taken to St. Francis Hospital.

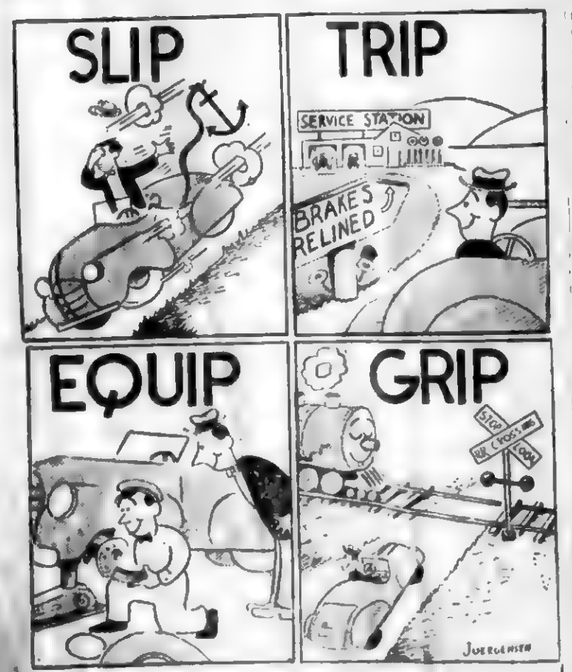
George Burnett, 48, of 436 S. Warren-av, suffered lacerations of the face and a chest injury Sunday night when his car skidded in the 1100 block of Cleveland-av and crashed into a utility pole, police said. He was taken to White Cross Hospital.

The same night two persons were injured when an auto driven by Edwin L. Tracy, 543 Ryan-av, skidded on the icy pavement of W. Broad-st at the New York Central Railroad overhead crossing at the western city limits and collided with a car driven by Edgar Blue of Westerville. Mrs. Emma Blue, a passenger in her husband's car, was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital for back and leg injuries. Tracy was treated for minor cuts.

Cub Officials Plan District Pow-Wow

Chairmen of the various committees to develop final plans for the Southwest District Cub Pow-wow met Dec. 30 at Westgate Methodist Church. The program will be presented Jan. 17 to an anticipated 200 parents of Cub Scouts.

Afternoon sessions will include classes in cubbing work, climaxed by a blue and gold banquet held in the dining room of the Westgate Methodist Church.



Youth Presbytery To Meet Here Sun.

The Columbus Youth Presbytery will hold its winter conference at the Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, Sunday, Jan. 11. The session will begin at 1 o'clock, with registration. Tom Greene, 281 Southampton-av, is moderator of the Youth Presbytery.

Young People To Present Play Friday

The Senior Youth and Young Adults' League of Glenwood Methodist Church are presenting an original two-act comedy, "Home to the Wars," by Roger Miller, in Motter Hall, Friday evening, Jan. 9, at 8:15 p. m.

The play centers around an army veteran returning home from war and occupational duty in the fall of 1947 and of the characteristic changes in himself and in his wife and the children, who have to be readjusted to one another after four years of separation. Expecting to have a few quiet months of rest, the father arrives home amidst a bedlam, later finds a strange telegraph messenger wandering familiarly about his living room and undergoes some blackface trickery from a neighbor's practical joking. Each of his three children promptly presents a staggering problem to be solved, especially the youngest boy, whose girls' name of Florence has launched him on an inglorious career of never ending fights. How father faces mother's opposition to changing his name to a "manly one he'd be proud to fight for" supplies material for several humorous sequences.

John Brown plays Master Sergeant Roy Fawcett, the father; Beverly Phillips is Marilyn, the mother; Barbara Harper is Pat, the daughter; George Brown is Davy, the oldest son. Phillip Edwards is "Fly," the feminine named boy with the adventurous imagination; Ned Moore is the wandering telegraph messenger; Bob Laird is Sam Pringle, the practical joker; Betty Worrell is the gossiping Mrs. Pringle; Ed Busch is Lt. Winhurst; Ruth Gildersleeve is Mrs. Winhurst; Bob Pike is Buster, a friend of Davy; Ted Coburn is Policeman Shawn, and Kenneth Evans, Wilford Evans and Bobby Johnson are the three Winhurst sons.

The play is under the direction of Annis Turner and the special music before and between acts is under the direction of Mrs. C. W. Walton.

Proceeds of this play are intended to benefit an "adopted" child in the Methodist Children's Home at Worthington. Adult tickets are 80c, children 25c. Tickets can be bought from any of the members or at the door.

Rawlings Heads Community Group

Cyrus O. Rawlings, 621 Chestershire-rd, is scheduled to be installed as president of the Hilltop Community Council at a meeting of that group at the Teen Canteen, 2585 W. Broad-st, tonight. Jerry Spears, Sr., is to be the installing officer.

Other officers are Leonard Echols, 291 S. Richardson-av, vice president; Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron, corresponding secretary; Charles P. Maus, 70 N. Westgate-av, treasurer.

Dale Dawson, a ministerial student at Otterbein College, will preach Sunday night at the Westgate Evangelical United Brethren Church. Dale lives with his parents at 480 N. Hague-av. He attended West High School. All are invited to the special service Sunday night at 7:30 p. m.

2 Workmen Hurt When Scaffold Falls

Two workmen were injured Friday when a scaffold on which they were standing collapsed, throwing them 20 feet to the ground. The men were applying shingles to the residence of Hexford Jones, 786 E. Richardson-av, when a ladder supporting the scaffold gave way.

Hurt in the fall were Warren Rhode, 26, of 403 E. Fulton-st, who suffered a possible skull fracture, and Charles Jaxtheimer, 17, of 328 E. Fourth-st, who suffered a broken wrist.

Both men were taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Timlin Brothers Open New Market

Charles and Thomas Timlin have opened a new super market at 1270 W. Broad-st. They plan to specialize in fine meats, poultry and groceries.

Both men are experienced in the food business. Charles has been a butcher for 10 years while Thomas follows closely behind with seven years experience as a meat cutter.

The new store will be known as Timlin Brothers Market.

Cowboys Lose 1 Win 2 On Holiday Card; To Face Bulldogs On West Court Friday

Win 8, Lose 4 In First 12 Games

The West High Cowbdys batted .666 in a three-game post-Christmas basketball schedule played on foreign soil last week. Coach George William's boys rang up victories over Marysville and Chillicothe while dropping a game to Huntington, W. Va., by a two-point margin.

West resumes play in the City League when the basketeers from South come to the local gym for a game Friday night. The next regularly scheduled game takes the Cowboys to East the following Friday night before going back on a two-per-week basis.

The holiday play gives West a record of eight wins against four defeats. Of the four loses, only one (the Central contest) was by more than a two-point margin. One game was lost by a single point. West has 13 regularly scheduled games to be played before the end of the season in March.

The [illegible] opened the holiday season with a 44-38 win over Marysville Dec. 30. A tight defense held the Cowboys to 4 points in the second period. The host team taking the lead in the game, 16-14. West was not denied, however, and Paul Theisen and Bill Walker dropped in 11 points respectively to lead the scoring.

There was a perfect night at the free throw line as he chalked up seven tosses.

Huntington

Huntington [illegible] the way to eke out a 5[illegible] over the Cowboys. The Cowboys, playing the services of Chuck [illegible] closed at a fast pace but whittle down the Wo[illegible]s' lead.

Jack[illegible] led the West scoring [illegible] points while Crum accounted for 20 of Huntington's points. The home team led 34-21 at the half.

West outclassed Chillicothe on the latter's enlarged gym floor by taking the long end of a 69-44 score Saturday night. Thrush was in good form as he took scoring honors with nine field goals and a free throw. Weeks resumed the squad that night to tally 13 points—his best scoring effort so far this season.

The Cowboys had a 16-9 lead at the end of the first period and were never seriously threatened from then on to the final whistle.

150 Girl Scouts To Be Invested In Sunday Service

Six Brownie and Girl Scout troops with 150 girls already registered will be presented to St. Mary Magdalene Church in special investiture services Sunday night.

Rev. Raymond Bauschard, pastor of the church, will conduct the service, the first of its kind to be held in any Catholic church in Columbus. The public is invited.

The Girl Scout work was started here in October of last year. Brownie leaders include Mrs. Eugene Halley, Mrs. George Koyro, Mrs. Ralph Fischer, Mrs. Jack Gompers, Mrs. Ray Eyerman, Mrs. William Kelly and Mrs. Jack Hoelcher.

Girl Scout leaders are Mrs. E M. Grady, Mrs. William Warren, Mrs. E. W. Bergstaller, Mrs. R. Russell, Mrs. Lewis Lannon and Helen McDaniels.

Silver Horseshoe Riding Club Formed

A western riding club, to be known as the Silver Horseshoe, has been started at the Hilltop Riding Academy. It was organized at a waffle fry and party held Jan. 3.

Temporary officers are Bob Grey, president, Ethel McKinley, secretary, Betty Roederer, treasurer. Meetings are held every first and third Saturday of each month.

Pack 214 Holds Christmas Party

A Christmas party was held for the Cubs of Pack 214 and their parents on Sunday, Dec. 28, from 3 to 5 p. m. at St. Mary Magdalene School. The attendance was well over 100.

The program was centered around the trimming of a Christmas tree by each Den contributing its share of the decorations, all of which were of original designs.

The decorations consisted of popcorn, paper ring chains, decorated tin can lids, paper stars and used electric light bulbs painted in Christmas colors.

The musical solos by Tommy Howell on his accordion, Jimmy Waters on the piano and Jack Lawler on his trumpet helped to make the party most enjoyable.

At the close of the party Cubmaster Tom Howell presented each Cub with a candy cane.

Rainfair vs. Curlee

The two top teams in the Seiller's Boys' Brand Boosters League will battle it out for first place next Saturday morning.

Rainfair, boasting a won and lost record of 28 and 14, will take on the second place team Curlee, which has a record of 27 and 15. These two teams are composed of teen age boys, most of whom are in their first or second year of high school. Of the two teams Rainfair holds the best average, 715 to Curlee's 703.

Dick Ardle

These two teams have met only once before this season, at which time Curlee took the series, two games to one. In order to win the one game, Rainfair had to roll its highest game of the year, 857.

Should Rainfair take all three of the games it would put the team ahead by four games and, with the season half over, would make it very difficult for Curlee to overtake them. On the other hand, if Curlee can take the series it will put them two games ahead. A split of the series would keep the teams virtually where they are.

Another interesting sidelight to the games will be the battle between the two highest averagers in the league, Eddie Harold, who captains the Curlee team, and myself. I captain the Rainfair team. Eddie is sporting a 168 average while I stand three pins lower, with 165.

Here's wishing both teams the best of luck but of course I'll be hoping for my team to come out on top.

Bowler of the Week

Our bowler this week is Gene Urban, 14-year-old West High student, who rolled 111 in the headpin tournament at the Linden alleys. Gene bowls on Saturday mornings in the boys' league for Stetson Hats, where he carries an average of 135. This is Gene's second year in the league and he is doing quite well. Nice going, Gene. Keep up the good work.

West Junior Plays Everett Friday

By Dave Miller

The City Junior High Basketball season, idle during the vacation period, will resume play Friday with five games. These are West Junior at Everett; Indianola at Roosevelt; Champion at Crestview; Linden Junior at Franklin and Barrett at Starling.

To date Crestview, Franklin and Barrett are in a three-way tie for first place with each quintet having two wins and no setbacks. At this same period last year these same squads led the loop. West Junior will be highly touted to win over a weak Everett five which has lost twice. West Junior has a won one and lost one standing.

Chester Jones, forward for the tough Franklin team, leads the loop in scoring with a total of 32 points in just the two games the loop has played.

In the Jan. 13 games, the Red and White will travel up to the North Side for the third consecutive week when the West Junior five will meet Indianola. On Jan. 16, the Friday following, the West Junior team will play host to Barrett.

Better Go Out With The Boys

Rev. L. E. Rush, pastor of the Mt. Gilead Methodist Church, addressing the annual dinner meeting of the Southwest District Boy Scouts of America here recently, offered this bit of advice that ought to be considered seriously by every father living in the community: "You better go out with your boys rather than out hunting for your boys."

The same advice could just as well apply to every mother concerning her daughter..

Juvenile authorities know all too well that in many cases involving juvenile delinquency, the parents were very much in the dark concerning the activities of their offsprings.

Scouting and its companion organizations, the Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, is not a panacea for all of the problems involving the youth of today but it is a known fact that boys and girls who are active in these programs are rarely involved in law infractions.

Both the Boy Scouts and the two organizations for girls are doing good work in their fields but each is limited in its scope because too few parents are concerned enough to give their time to this work with their own children. It's fine to be able to turn your boy or girl over to some competent youth leader for the proper type of training but have you ever considered the helpless position of one person attempting to direct the energies of 25 or 30 boys or girls without help. That's what is happening in many a scout troop today.

During the past year sponsoring institutions have had to admit failure in not being able to muster sufficient interest on the part of parents to even keep a troop committee alive. The scout officials have had no alternative but discontinue the troop in the absence of this backing. Right today on the Hilltop and surrounding areas there is a job for every parent who is willing to give some time in this worthwhile program of giving proper direction to the lives of our boys and girls. There is capable leadership in this work but there is far from satisfactory response on the part of the parents who ought to be concerned with what their boy or girl is doing.

The juvenile court room is no place to try to effect the reclamation of a boy or girl who has gotten started with the wrong crowd. The place to do the work is in the existing agencies who have a constructive program to offer.

The rise of juvenile deliquency on the Hilltop during the past couple of years is a serious problem—more serious than many parents are prone to believe. It is not going to right itself by wishful thinking. It's going to take the concerted efforts of every parent teacher, Sunday School teacher, minister and youth worker to turn the tide. Police officers and juvenile authorities are concerned over the present trend. It's time for more parents to demonstrate their concern by volunteering their services in their own church, school or other community group that deals with these boys and girls.

TRIVI-ALLEY

by Don Wilson

Believing that satire is one of the best ways to get a chuckle out of our present-day highly specialized, highly mechanized life, we offer this first in a series of discussions on every-day problems as they appear to a would-be columnist—Don Wilson. Don is a former Hilltop boy, now studying art in Chicago. His self-penned biography that follows is self explanatory.

We sincerely believe you will be amused each week with this original column. (The Editor)

P. S. The sketch in the adjoining column was done from a photograph of the author by the author as is also the heading above.

DON WILSON—Born March 4, 1925, in Gary, Ind., to Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Wilson, the youngest of three sons. Family moved to 299 S. Burgess in Columbus, 1927. Brothers Stanley and Herschel, Jr., preceded me thru John Burroughs Elementary and West High Schools. Drawing Mickey Mouses on Burgess pavement and exchanging tall tales with small fry chums, Emmett Smith, Bob Riggs, Allan McFarland and Jack Underman, whiled away the waking hours of my childhood.

In 1938 my brother, Stanley, was killed in a plane crash at Sullivant Airport. Life then began to show its more serious side.

After two and a half years in the army engineers I returned to start my G. I. education. At present I'm enrolled at the school of the Chicago Art Institute.

Okay, mom, you too, dad, drop your cooking and mending and breadwinning for a minute. Let's cluster around and listen to the latest dope on how to be a parent. You know, of course, that it isn't enough just to provide for your child's physical and moral welfare. Today's offspring is a maze of complexities, each to be handled with patience and understanding. And, from a report I've just read, it's obvious that you're bungling the job terribly. You're inhibiting the little rascal with rules of fair play. You're weighting him down with a conscience, and, worst of all, you're trying to make him conform to society while, according to this NEW theory, society should adjust to him.

Not to be stopped by challenges like "Make it work!" the author of the report claims he already has.

It seems that as a youth, his father hadn't spared the rod and, being the sensitive type (whatever that is) his dignity's wounds never healed. He vowed to rid the world of delinquent parents and after acquiring his doctor's degree he saw the opportunity for this in the establishment of a children's camp. Here restless little souls from 6 to 18 are allowed absolute freedom from responsibility and discipline. In the doctor's words, "We (he and his wife) don't believe there IS such a thing as a bad child." No matter what the little monsters do, it's okay with him. To date, his patience and understanding have cost him roughly $1,500 in furniture alone. And he's kept no account of his and his wife's bruises. But then, money and personal safety are secondary when you've got a point to prove. So he just charges it up to "letting off steam."

The law, which our friend considers an even worse influence than parents, requires that formal education be foisted upon his little brood. However, he makes this as painless as possible by ignoring attendance records. His wife says the little dears are so interested in their own little lives that they have no time for things like school. The kids are just as happy and interested in life as a bunch of baby rattlesnakes. In fact, the only fly in the doctor's ointment is the attitude of outsiders. About twice a week he has to barricade the place against lynching mobs. Otherwise his plan is working out perfectly. There isn't an inhibition to be found.

So there it is, mom and dad, the very latest on how to rear your child. Don't scold or correct or send him to school. Don't repress him. NO! Just leave him to his own devices and when he reaches 18, SHOOT HIM!!

Modern Poetry

By Esther Weakley

THE LUNCH BOX

Often I think of school days,
School days of long ago:
The waning heat of summer,
The winter ice and snow;
The spring with all its beauty;
The welcome sun that beamed;
Long hours of tiresome study
To youthful minds it seemed.

The tin box that we carried
Was filled each day anew
By mother's busy hands
And breathless love for you.
Much fine food have I tasted
And sandwiches, so thin!
But never like the lunches
In the little box of tin.

M. Maria

VISION

Not your destructive words,
Nor your unkindness,
Shall touch this white-hot core,
This heavenly blindness.

The fire is all my own,
I paid more dearly,
Gone blind to see the sun;
I saw him clearly.

Believe me not bemused,
Or overfond—
I look you in the eyes,
But see beyond.

News of Rome

By Mrs. E. C. Sheets

It was a gala house-warming and New Year's watch party that took place at the home of the Ree Moores on Norton-rd. As the guests are pretty well acquainted, it was decided among them to each bring the hostess a plate. Now many beautiful plates adorn the plate rail that is around her dining room. Those who attended the affair were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs E. C. Sheets, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs Jack Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Butin, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barret, Mr. and Mrs. Russel and Mr. and Mrs. James Whalen. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by the guests, who departed at a late hour, voting Mr. and Mrs. Moore ideal host and hostess.

Jan.'24 is the next family night at the Columbia Heights Church. A play will be put on by the junior class taught by Henry Warmer. This is a potluck affair.

While Dick Glass, scoutmaster for Troop 131 of Rome, is in Arkansas for an indefinite stay, Keith Montague, assistant scoutmaster, is taking his place with the troop.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnecut, Maple-dr, were in Canal Winchester at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Joes, for a spaghetti supper.

On Tuesday following Christmas Mrs. Lamb, entertained her little nieces and nephews for the pleasure of her own little boys. Those in the party, who put in the day just playing away from home, were Gale Lamb, Sylvan-av, Caroline, Robert and Rebecca Kaderly, Fairacres, Galloway, and Tim, Rex and Tad Lamb, the hosts.

The boys and girls who have returned to college after spending the Christmas vacation with their parents are Priscilla Warner, Clyde and Jean Wycker and Lee Mitchell, who have gone back to Otterbein, and Gerald Ball and Jim Snyder, Jr., who have returned to OSU.

The new baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. Robert South (Virginia Clements) has been named Pamela Lee. As the baby arrived on the 43rd wedding anniversary of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Squire Lee, Lawrence-av, it was quite the natural thing to do, to give the baby at least part of their name.

Mrs. John Regan (Betty Kidwell), who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kidwell, Beacon Light Golf Course, for the past several weeks while her husband was in school in Panama City, Fla., and awaiting another transfer, is now at Langley Field, Va., where her husband, Captain Regan, is stationed temporarily.

The Lutheran Ladies of St. Paul's Church will have their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Caroline Becker, Trabue-rd. At this meeting the new officers will preside. They are Mrs. Haueisen, president; Mrs. Forest Daugherty, secretary; and Mrs. Renner, Hilliards-rd, treasurer. The organization has finished several quilts and have one in now, in the church basement, but during the winter their meetings are held at homes and the quilting is at a lull. Before Christmas they sent several wool comforters up north.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Walz, S. Richardson-av, entertained Sunday with dinner for Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Riebel, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walz and Stewart Walz.

Eloise Jackson, sister of Mrs. Ernest Schroeder, spent Christmas with the Schroeder family. The Sunday after Christmas they all went back to the Jackson home, in Decatur, Ind. The Schroeders had a short visit before returning home. The children arrived back in Rome Sunday afternoon with their uncle, Mr. Jackson, who will make an indefinite stay with his sister, as he is attending school.

Mrs. Harvey J. Coss of Detroit is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. T. Inglish, Pasadena-av. Mr. and Mrs. Inglish are also former residents of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Richey spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. Richey's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Phillips, Canal Winchester.

A beautiful metal cross was presented to Columbia Heights Church for the altar by Harold Hart's Class recently.

Shirley McCarley was the weekend guest of Elizabeth French, 5467 W. Broad-st.

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Allan Burns, Pasadena-av, attended a euchre party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hickel, on 22nd-av.

Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weber, Columbus, had dinner with the Burns family and New Year's Day Mrs. Burns' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ditmer, and family, visited the Burns'.

Mrs. Edwin Young (Jean Bowman) has received word that her husband is in the United States and is expected home this week.

By LOUIE D. NEWTON, D. D.

SCRIPTURE: Isaiah 40:28-31; Matthew 6:9; John 14:8-14; Acts 17:22-31.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 23.

What We Know of God

Lesson for January 11, 1948

THE Scripture for Sunday's lesson is Isaiah 40:28-31, Matthew 6:9, John 14:8-14, and Acts 17:22-31, with Psalm 23 as the devotional reading.

Dr. Newton

"Hast thou not known? Hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? There is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint, and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. . . . They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

That is the passage from Isaiah. What a promise! In this hour when men are bending beneath the burden of a war-weary world, how it gives lift to one's soul to contemplate the words of this great and blessed promise.

God Our Maker

"HE GIVES to all men life and breath and everything," Acts 17:25. One of our daily prayers should be to thank God that he has let us open our eyes to the beauty of another dawn. We must not take it for granted. It is the goodness and mercy of God that permits us to open our eyes, to breathe, to have food, to think. He gives us life and breath and everything.

He causes the sun to shine and the tides to ebb and flow. He causes the rain to fall and the winds to bear their blessings. He holds the earth in its course. God is the maker of every good thing.

And He Is Our Father

NOT only is God the Creator and Sustainer of the physical universe; but he is also our Father. He knows us each by name. He cares for the sparrows, simply because they are sparrows. He cares for us because we are his children, made in his image, capable of fellowship with him. The end of man, as the Catechism clearly teaches, is to enjoy God and glorify him forever.

Read again the passage that describes Paul's visit to Athens, and how he observed that the people, though quite intelligent, were worshipping many different gods. Paul summoned them to worship the one true and living God.

When we acknowledge God as Maker and Father, we are then enable to serve him in conscious assurance of his love and care for us as his adopted children.

Show Us the Father

READ again John 14:8-14, and join with Philip in the prayer, "Show us the Father," Jesus answered Philip, saying, "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." We come to know God as Father through Jesus Christ, and only through Jesus Christ.

Jesus goes on to say to Philip, "If ye shall ask anything in my name, I will do it." The greatest need of our day and generation is a fresh understanding of God—his nature and his will. We can know him through Jesus Christ. And we come to know him through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Enoch walked with God. Abraham was the friend of God. David was a man after God's own heart. And Jesus came to perfectly reveal the Father. The determining factor in knowing God as Father is our willingness to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Belief in God Today

THE Bible is a Book for today—any day, every day. It reveals the purpose of creation, both of the universe and man himself. It reveals the loving concern of God for every soul. It portrays his forbearance and his mercy and his exceeding kindness, even to sinful men and women who reject his love.

Best of all, the Bible tells us the sweetest story ever told — the story of how God gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Religion, the Christian religion, is the most practical proposition in the world. Every man is constantly in reach of God, if only he will believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. God is yonder in the loneliest watchtower of the timberlands. He is yonder on the storm-tossed ship at sea. He is everywhere, waiting to own and bless any and all who will come to him through Jesus Christ.

Evangelists

Rev. and Mrs. Nelson

Special services will continue nightly (except Saturday) at the Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church through Jan. 18. Rev. and Mrs. Raymond O. Nelson of the Moody Bible Institute are in charge.

In addition to the sermons and object lesons brought by Rev. Nelson, the couple com[bine] musical talents in solos, duets and instrumental numbers. Rev. Nelson is a baritone soloist while Mrs. Nelson sings as well as plays piano accompaniment. Her special selections are played on the piano with solo vox attachment. She also plays the guitar and tiple.

Children's meetings will be held immediately after school starting on Monday afternoon and continuing through Friday. Rev. Nelson will be heard twice on Sunday—at 10:30 a. m. and again at 7:30 p. m. Rev. C. F. Lutz is the pastor.

Rev. Witherspoon Accepts Church Of Late Father

Rev. Arthur Witherspoon was installed as new pastor of the Apostolic Gospel Church in special ceremonies Sunday, Dec. 28, thus assuming the pastorate of the church his own father, the late W. T. Witherspoon, founded 30 years ago.

The new minister returns to Columbus with his family after an absence of four years, during which time he was pastor of the Apostolic Gospel Church in Madison, Wisconsin.

The Rev. George C. Chambers, associate pastor, presided at installation services, when Rev. O. F. Fauss of Huston, Texas, delivered an address.

Rev. and Mrs. Witherspoon will occupy the new parsonage at 2988 Wicklow-rd with their two sons, Jerry and David.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION
It's Yours For The Asking
FREE OF CHARGE

Did you know it is possible to investigate Catholic faith and worship by mail in the privacy of your home? A short, yet complete and interesting course of instruction, which can be fitted into the busiest life, is yours for the asking.

The book is written in conversational form, and there are six test sheets to be filled out. These will be competently corrected, enabling you to determine how well you understood the religious instruction, and on what points you may require further explanation by mail.

This involves no cost or obligation on your part.

ET CETERA

In so many instances "et cetera" means little when tacked onto a phrase or conversation. But it's definitely not the case when you are talking about Cavalier Coal. Not on your life!

It says a lot. In fact three or four paragraphs full are packed into the two words. They mean that Cavalier Coal gives you even heat in the coldest weather; they mean there is no waste, no clinkers; they mean less work on your part — and that's important — and ultimately they mean more for your money.

So now you see what

really means.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

With all the kids on a 16-day vacation from school a lot of them showed up at the Canteen most every evening. Everything was going in full swing, but now school has started and we're back to studying every evening (I hope).

Have you noticed the line forming at the photography room? They're all waiting for Mel Griggs to take those graduation pictures. They really turn out good; ask Marilyn Bonnet to see her pictures.

We have had a hard time catching up with Bill Arledge, but we finally succeeded Friday night. Where did we find him? At the Canteen, trying to play the piano. Does pretty good too.

Did you take notice of the Canteen Christmas tree? It was really sharp, and was enjoyed by all. Even the kids who took it down had a fine time.

I have come to one decision—the record player is run by a secret operation, and I can't seem to find the secret. Does someone want to tell me all about it?

Check, check, Hmm! You would think there would be a lot of money floating around, but it's really just a chess game. They are really interesting and sometimes last a whole evening. Jimmie Hill and Roy Ziegler were playing last Monday and I found them still playing Friday night. They claim it wasn't the same chess game, but you couldn't prove it by me.

Did Eddie Adams and Phil McDonaugh find pond frozen enough to skate on? Seems they tried everywhere Saturday night. If you're still looking, get in touch with Pat LaValle. She seems to know all the places to go.

Sid Major hasn't been around lately; something or someone must be keeping him mighty busy.

Marilyn Bonnet seemed to enjoy Friday night. If you want any details, ask her or Bill Arledge.

You know you're all invited to join in the fun and good times, but with school starting it will keep you busy, so come around for the Friday and Saturday dancing sessions and recreation. Hope to see you soon.

Rev. Lutz To Address Community Churches

Rev. C. F. Lutz, pastor of Burgess Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, will be the speaker at a mass meeting of Community Churches to be held in the Hilltop Community Church, 179 N. Huron-av, Sunday, Jan. 11, at 2:30 p. m. Co-operating churches are Brown Road, Morse Road, Dover Chapel, Englewood and Wonderland.

The public is invited to this service. Rev. J. L. Dean is pastor of the Hilltop Church.

New Church School Officers Installed

New officers of the Church School of Hilltop Lutheran Church have been installed by Rev. Russell J. Olson, pastor.

They are J. B. Lowry, superintendent; B. L. Emrich and Francis Harvey, assistant superintendents; Jean Ett, secretary; Betty Gardner and Helen Grenell, assistant secretaries; Mrs. W. B. Dilsavor, treasurer; Mrs. M. Marcia, primary superintendent, and Mrs. Francis Harvey and Mrs. B. S. Swisher, assistant primary superintendents.

THOUGHT

When I shall free my thoughts of all
Save bright and lovely things
And pluck the music of my mind
From none but golden strings,

When I can weave a mask of words
To camouflage the scars,
Then I shall be kin to the birds,
And sister to the stars.

Marian Martin.

LEGAL NOTICES

PUBLIC NOTICE

Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio, No. 122211—Victor Voeller, Administrator, with Will Annexed of the Estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. Margaret Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Victor L. Voeller, 358 Wilson Avenue, Columbus, Ohio; Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney, Mrs. John Coleman, 2848 Fremont Road, Columbus Ohio; Mrs. Sadie Young, 247 East Mound Street, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Buell, 685 High Street, Worthington, Ohio; Mrs. Margaret Russell, Cleveland, Ohio; Frank Snable, whose address is unknown to plaintiff and cannot with reasonable diligence be ascertained, Will Snable, Lima, Ohio, Defendants.

James Courtney and Barbara Courtney, whose last known place of residence is 1357 Lucile Ave., Los Angeles, 26, California, and Frank Snable, whose address is unknown, are hereby notified that on Feb. 16, 1947, Victor Voeller, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Barbara Gray, deceased, 358 Wilson Ave., Columbus, Ohio, filed his petition in Cause No. 122211 in the Probate Court, Franklin County, Ohio, that they have been made parties defendant in said cause.

Plaintiff further says that on or about the 17th day of January, 1947, Barbara Gray died a resident of Franklin County, Ohio, leaving a Will which was admitted to probate by the Probate Court of said County and State on or about the 10th day of February, 1947, that thereafter administration proceedings were had as to the Estate of the said Barbara Gray, deceased, as more particularly set forth in the proceedings and the records of said Probate Court and that the Inventory and Appraisement has been filed in said Estate. Said Will is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Plaintiff says that the house mentioned in said Will on Linwood Avenue was sold in 1946.

Plaintiff further says that Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney died after the execution of said Will.

Plaintiff further says there was in the safety deposit box in the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch, Four Thousand One Hundred Forty Dollars ($4,140.00), Five (5) One Thousand Dollar United States Savings Bonds, Series G, and a Postal Savings of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). That there was in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, the sum of Two Hundred One Dollars and fifty-nine cents ($201.59), that Barbara Gray died seized in fee simple of the property located at 1070 City Park Avenue; that the insurance amounted to the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-six Dollars ($356.00) and has been paid to the Administrator herein.

That the said Barbara Gray died, leaving no heirs closer than first cousins; that Margaret Voeller, mentioned in said will, is a first cousin of said Barbara Gray, deceased, and that said Mrs. John Coleman, Mrs. Sadie Young, Mrs. Anna Buell, Mrs. Margaret Russell, Frank Snable and Will Snable are first cousins of the said Barbara Gray, deceased; that Raymond Ayres, William Ayres, Glenna Ayres, James Courtney, Barbara Courtney and Victor Voeller are second cousins of said Barbara Gray, deceased.

That besides the property mentioned in said petition, there is a diamond ring and household furnishings.

That there are important, difficult and doubtful questions respecting said Will and the disposition of said property under said Will and that plaintiff is in doubt as to the construction of said Will and as to the rights of parties to the distribution of the property under said Will, that plaintiff is in doubt about the following:

(1) As to whether the insurance is to go to Raymond Ayres, under the provisions of said Will?

(2) That plaintiff is in doubt, since the property on Linwood Avenue was sold prior to the death of said Barbara Gray, whether said devisees mentioned as to receive said property, are entitled to anything under said Will.

(3) That plaintiff is in doubt as to whether 1070 City Park Avenue is to go to the heirs of Ida Courtney and Howard Courtney, who were deceased prior to Barbara Gray's decease, or to Margaret Voeller or to become a part of the residuary estate and be divided among all the cousins mentioned herein.

(4) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether said insurance is to be paid to Margaret Voeller.

(5) The plaintiff is in doubt as to whether the $4146.00 in cash, which was in the safety deposit box of the Ohio National Bank, Town and High Branch; the five $1000.00, Series G United States Bonds, also in said safety deposit box, the $500.00 Postal Savings, also in said safety deposit box, and the $241.59 in the Ohio National Bank, Gay and High Branch, after the payment of debts goes to said Victor Voeller.

That if the Court should decide that the five $1000.00 Bonds do not go to Victor Voeller or any other part contained in said safety deposit box, out of which the debts of the estate are to be paid first, and to whom is the balance to go.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays that judgment and direction of the Court in regard to the true construction of said Will and the disposition of the property under said Will and as to his duties in the premises and especially to the five questions raised in the petition herein and an order as to the duties of the plaintiff in regard to them.

Said defendants are further notified that they are required to answer said petition on or before Jan. 26, 1948 or judgment may be rendered as prayed for therein.

Response To Y Program Forecasts Success

Those who have had the opportunity to work for the new Hilltop YMCA are most enthused over the response of the public to the appeal for support.

A few weeks back the Hilltop Kiwanis Club sponsored a newspaper sale that netted over $3000 for the project. Now today the Hilltop Business Association is announcing that it will sponsor a concert of the Columbus Civic Concert Orchestra and the net proceeds of the affair will be given to the Y work here.

Still other groups have indicated a desire to be of help and numerous individuals have responded with contributions and offers of their services.

This is certainly an indication of a definite success for the program. Already the Y board has decided that it is best to have the budget of the Hilltop Branch Y raised entirely in this community rather than make any appeal for aid thrcugh the Community Chest. Soon the Hilltop Y Board will launch a big membership drive with an appeal for individual memberships from as many Hilltoppers as possible and larger contributions from sustaining memberships.

A large amount of money will be needed to realize the best possible Y nrogram for the Hilltop. During the first few years it is anticipated that the yearly budget will run well beyond $10,000 per year.

In its initial stages the Y will of necessity have to be operated from some temporary headquarters in the community. But the board hopes that within a period of a few years sufficient funds will have been raised to make it possible to proceed with a building program that will provide the community with the finest recreation center in the city.

Final realization of a fine building where various groups of the Hilltop can have their meetings, where whole families of the community can meet for wholesome recreation, depends upon the foresight of the leadership of the board today, and the continued willingness of the people of the Hilltop to respond to such a fine endeavor.

Flowers of the Week

To Dr. R. J. Miller, a nice bouquet from Rosebud Floral on the completion of a very successful year as president of the Hilltop Business Association. His leadership has been attested by the widespread cooperation he has had from a large membership during the year.

Legion To Initiate 40 Friday Night

Initiation of a class of about 40 new members will take place at the meeting of Camp Chase Post of the American Legion Friday evening at 8:15 at Burgess and Broad.

The World War II degree team will have charge of the ceremony. The team is headed by Elmer A. Young and made up of William E. Boothe, Thomas L. Huffman, John E. Martindale, Donald A. Novak, Charles E. Weaver and Vincent D. Welker.

Similar work will be put on for the Bexley Post on Jan. 26.

Josephine-av Sewer Project To Start Soon

An eight-inch sanitary sewer will be installed on Josephine-av, just west of the Columbus western corporation line, in the very near future, George Matson, 87 N. Warren-av, a member of the county commissioners, said this week.

Paper work on the project is almost completed and bids for the work will be advertised shortly. Matson estimated that the board would be ready to open bids within five weeks.

The improvement to the property owners will cost approximately $3 per foot. The sewer line will drain south and connect into the main trunk line there. Installation of the sewer will eliminate pollution that is getting into the lake in Westgate Park, the county official said. Eighty-seven per cent of the residents of Josephine-av have signed for the improvement.

Broader Plan Abandoned

A broader plan to drain the Broadlawn Addition and other improved properties along W. Broad-st, west of the city, was abandoned when it was learned that costs would be prohibitive at this time because of the limited number of property owners who would have to pay for it.

The commissioners have just completed a survey of that area. Their first thought was to install a larger sewer on Josephine-av, thus providing facilities for draining the Broad-st area. However, construction costs at this time would make the cost run excessively high.

Install Rawlings As Council Prexy

At its first regular monthly meeting of the new year, held Thursday at the Teen Canteen, the Hilltop Community Council's newly elected officers were installed by Jerry Spears, first president of the group.

Mr. Spears charged the new officers with their responsibility and urged them to carry on to a greater degree the work started by their predecessors.

Those installed: Cyrus Rawlings, 621 Chestershire-rd, president; Leonard Echols, 291 S. Richardson-av, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Abram, 100 N. Huron-av, corresponding secretary; Frank Mason, 1308 W. Third-av, recording secretary; Charles P. Maus, 70 N. Westgate-av, treasurer.

Mr. Rawlings, upon taking office, asked for the cocperation of all organizations on the Hilltop, and promised his wholehearted endeavor to carry on the work. Appointment of various committees will be made at the February meeting, to be held at the Canteen Thursday, Feb. 12.

Mrs. Ray Cave, 2936 Olive-st, chairman of the Children's Christmas Party, reported on the very successful event held.

The matter of the West Mound Street bus extension was discussed, and left in the hands of the executive committee.

Improvements To City Parks Outlined By Dietz

Today's Hilltop Kiwanis program will center about "Anniversary Week" with the main course to be served up by past presidents Jim Miles, Herbert Deems and Ed Planck.

Last Thursday following reports of committees there was a short address by Ray Deitz, superintendent of parks, who pointed to needs of improvements in local parks and stated that he has asked that a new shelter house be built in the lower section of Glenwood Park and another shelter house erected south of the lake in Westgate Park as well as proper picnic facilities provided in each case. Improved sanitation of the lake in Westgate Park has also been asked.

Deitz also stated he was advocating establishment of a park and recreation center for the colored section of the Hilltop.

Next week's program will be provided by Rev. Floyd Faust.

CENTRAL ALUMNI GROUP SEEKS NEW MEMBERS

The Central High Alumni Association is launching a membership campaign the week of Jan. 19, when a concerted effort will be made to enlist all alumni of the school into the organization. Membership dues of $1.00 per year may be sent to Harold Stegmiller, Central High School.

A year's program is being prepared and will be announced in the near future.

Son Is Born

Word was received this week of the birth of a son to Lt. and Mrs. David R. Shiflet Sunday at Camp Kilmer, New Jersey. Lt. Shiflet was formerly an employe of The Hilltop Record, was in service all through World War II and re-enlisted following his discharge.

Nationally-known Boychoir To Sing

The Concert Choir of the Columbus Boychoir School as they appear in vestments. They will present a concert at West High School Feb. 4.

The nationally-known Columbus Boychoir (shown above) will present a concert at West High School on February 4. It is being sponsored by the Fidelis Class of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church. This is the first time that the Boychoir has made an appearance on the Hilltop and it is the only local concert to be given this year except the downtown concerts.

It has several tours to various parts of the United States each season and spends the summer months at Lake Chautauqua in New York State.

The program will include 75 or more boys, at least 12 of whom are residents of the community. Mozart's delightful comic opera, "Bastien and Bastienne" will be one of the featured parts of the program. This is done in colorful costume and is one of the high points of the program.

The choir was organized several yesars ago by Herbert Huffman in connection with the Broad Street Presbyterian Church, but soon outgrew its quarters and now has a separate building at 812 E. Broad-st. The Boychoir School is not a part time proposition, for the 50 boys that comprise the chorus, because the boys attend school full time from the 5th through the 8th grades. The faculty of the school is a select group of instructors who are able to give the boys the correct educational requirements as well as musical training.

Nationally Known

The Boychoir has gained national recognition by appearing frequently on the national radio networks and by their tours in the east and middle west.

The Columbus Boychoir is a non-profit interdenominational organization open to all boys who can qualify. They work, play and study toward the school ideal, to build character, using music as a means to that end. The comradship, travel and specialized training combine to give the boys a training that can not be matched for boys of that age.

Tickets for the concert are now on sale by members of the Fidelis Class, the church office and the Hilltop Record. 2465 W. Broad-st.

Tickets are $1.10 per person, including tax.

The ticket committee is headed by Delbert Pack, assisted by Norman Edberg, Carl Kuntz, Harold Greene and Oscar Meson. On the publicity committee are Glenn Barr, chairman, W. E. James, William E. Bright, Sheldon Pitt and George Bukey. Ushers will be Jack Hostetter chairman, Ralph Duncan, Leo Hulls and C. H. Myton.

CANDIDATE

Thatcher

Newton A. Thatcher, 2986 Crescent-dr, will be a candidate for the office of county treasurer in the May primary election, he told The Hilltop Record this week. His petitions are already in circulation.

A well known figure in Democratic political circles, Thatcher served in the county auditor's office under his father from 1923 to 1935. Following the death of the late Arthur A. Thatcher, he was elected to that office and served from 1936 to 1943. He was defeated for the same post in last year's primary election.

At present he is connected with the office of State Auditor Joseph Ferguson. He first worked in that office under the late Vic Donahey.

Thatcher is a member of the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Martin Buys Grocery On Sullivant Avenue

The Westgate Grocery located at 3058 Sullivant-av, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McCleaster for the past five years, has been purchased by Marvin L. Martin. The new owner owned and operated a store at 2669 Sullivant-av.

F. Roy Miller and Co., business and real estate brokers of 972 N. High-st, handled the sale. The store will be closed for two weeks for redecoration and alterations.

"Woody" Clark To Head Pharmacists

W. R. "Woody" Clark, 2528 Ridge-av, proprietor of the Westgate Pharmacy, will be installed as president of the Central Ohio Academy of Pharmacy at the annual semi-formal dinner-dance in the main ballroom of the Deshler-Wallick Hotel next Wednesday.

Other newly elected officers, who will be installed by Dr. Harve M. Clodfelter, president of the Columbus Academy of Medicine, are: Harold Davis, vice-president; Don Browne, treasurer; Charles Henry, trustee, and C. H. "Doc" Campbell, 91 S. Westmoor-av, for his fourth year as secretary.

Dinner is scheduled for 7 p. m., which will be followed by dancing from 10 to 1 to the music of Mac Troill and his orchestra. The Ohio State University Glee Club will provide further entertainment for the evening.

Booster Club Paper Drive Set For Feb. 8

The Boosters are at it again!

Yes sir, it's time for another of those big West High Booster Paper Drives and this time the committee is headed by Richard Francis, 370 S. Richardson-av, and Gene Burr, 34 Stevens-av.

The date has been set for Sunday, Feb. 8, with a Saturday afternoon pickup scheduled for business firms.

"More than ever" is the statement of Francis when asked what he hoped to be able to collect this time. The Boosters have a reputation of putting over gigantic paper drives and in view of past experiences it means a whale of a lot of paper if they exceed past performances.

With paper prices down about 30c per 100 pounds, it means more paper must be collected in order to reach a goal of $1000.

As in the past the money derived from the sale will be used exclusively for improvements at West High. Included in the program is the erection of a press box on the stadium, and development of two outside blacktop basketball courts.

Already the organization has lined up 17 trucks and will need 50 Boosters and 200 students to put the drive over. Food for the group is being supplied by Jack Sensenbrenner.

Editor's Father Taken By Death

Albert C. Wichterman, 69, father of Paul Wichterman, editor of The Hilltop Record, died at his home at Powhatan Point, Ohio, Saturday afternoon following an illness of about 10 years.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the home. He is survived by four sons and one daughter.

Linton Child Dies At Home In Calif.

Word has been received here of death by suffocation of Kenny, three-year-old son of Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Linton of Yreka, Calif., on Jan. 2. Rev. Linton is a former Hilltop resident. Services were held at Urbana, home of Mrs. Linton, Jan. 12. Also surviving is a younger child, Larry.

New Member Of City Health Board

Dr. L. W. Rohr Grew Up On West Side

To many Hilltoppers the name of Dr. Lovell W. Rohr suggests the nickname "Tiny", a monicker he has carried ever since he played football for West High School back around 1915.

As a matter of fact Dr. Rohr, who lives at 291 S. Brinker-av, would rather talk about those football days than about his recent appointment to the City Board of Health.

The appointment, made by Mayor James A. Rhodes last week, was approved by action of City Council Monday. He takes the place of the late Dr. C. O. Cramer, and has been appointed to a full four-year term, starting Feb. 1.

"Tiny" Rohr, who weighed around 186 pounds in his playing days, filled the left tackle position on West High School's first city championship team in 1915. Coach Lee Leahy gave him the nickname because of his size which was not unusual on the team that averaged 185 pounds per man.

Often Carried The Ball

Although he played left tackle, "Tiny" often dropped back into the fullback slot to take his turn at carrying the ball. He was city all-high for three years and rated all-state recognition during his junior and senior years.

He graduated from West in 1917 and immediately enlisted his services in World War I. It was while serving as an ambulance driver in France that he made up his mind to become a doctor.

After getting his discharge from service he enrolled at Ohio State University in 1919. Because he worked part of the time and took his BA degree before entering the medical college, it was 1929 before he graduated.

Served Overseas

During World War I he had served with the 37th Division in Scotland, England, Belgium and France. While in service he played some football with the 37th Division and played freshman football at Ohio State University but a physical disability kept him from trying out for the varsity squad.

Although he was forced to sign three waviers because of physical disabilities, Dr. Rohr volunteered his services again early in World War II. As a major in the Army Air Corps he was assigned to eight different bases in the United States but was not permitted to see overseas service. He was executive officer over a hospital at Richmond Army Air Base and served as base surgeon at two other stations before leaving the service in April of 1946.

Before World War II he was active in the Columbus Academy of Medicine, serving on the council for three years. He was also president of the Columbus Bureau of Medical Economics and served as a trustee for several years.

Although he opened his office at 1251 W. Broad-st in 1930 for the general practice of medicine he soon became interested in the field of obstetrics and has since limited his practice to that work alone.

He is a member of the Columbus No. 30 Blue Lodge and Chapter of the Masonic Lodge; a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, social fraternity, and Alpha Kappa Kappa, medical fraternity. While an intern at Grant Hospital he met and later married the former Marie Kashner who was then surgical supervisor of the hospital. The Rohrs have three daughters, Joan, a sophomore at West High School, Sharon, 9, and Diana, 6, pupils at West Broad Street School.

Dr. Rohr was born and raised at 61 West Park-av, within sight of his present office. As a boy he helped his father in the Schneider and Rohr Grocery Store further down the street. He recalls the time when he knew personally every family on the Hilltop and most of the West Side, and often hunted rabbits in the vicinity of Brehl and Central-avs.

BOY HURT IN FALL

Gary Sherman, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sherman, 85 S. Oakley-av, suffered a mouth laceration Monday afternoon when he fell down a stairway at his home, police said. He was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Enlargement of the offices of Shank & Saunders, real estate, rentals, insurance, 2459 W. Broad-st, in order to give increased service, is being announced this week. The firm has taken over two more rooms in its building just vacated by Arden Beauty Salon. The beauty salon has moved one door east.

PROMOTED

Wilcox

Curtis G. Wilcox, 2997 Palmetto-av, manager of the Hilltop office of the Ohio National Bank since 1930, has been promoted to the position of assistant vice-president. He started his career with the Ohio National Bank organization at the local office in 1924.

Taking his place as manager of the Hilltop office is Elmer Hegenberger, 648 S. Hague-av, with the bank for 20 years. He has served as assistant manager of this office for 10 years.

The new assistant manager here is Robert L. Kneisley, 481 W. Sixth-av. He was transferred here from the West Side office and has been with the firm for about 13 years.

Re-named as manager of the West Side office was Ray Eyerman, 2970 Parkside-dr. All appointments were effective as of Jan. 1.

Graduation Plans Made For 115 Here

Graduation for 115 West High School seniors is now only a matter of days as plans are being completed for the annual mid-year graduation on Jan. 28.

In the junior high school 122 students will get certificates permitting them to be enrolled in the senior division. Graduation for them will be at 2:30 p. m., Jan. 28, while senior commencement will take place at 8 o'clock that evening.

The number of graduates is just slightly under the 1947 January class. At that time 118 seniors and 126 junior high students received diplomas.

Baccalaureate Jan. 25

Baccalaureate services for the graduating seniors will be held at Glenwood Methodist Church on the evening of Jan. 25. Dr. Joseph Shellhaas will deliver the sermon.

Pre-graduation activities during the next couple of weeks will include the 9A party on the evening of Jan. 16 and the 12A dinner and dance at the cafeteria on Jan. 22.

Class speakers for the senior high class are Ruth Ann Hoelcher and Norris Boothe. Miss Hoelcher will speak on the subject: "Green Light Years." Boothe will use the topic: "The Power of Education."

Junior high speakers will be Joe Petitti talking on "The American Youth—Who Are We?" and Dolores Shrum, using as her topic: "Women of Tomorrow."

Following reports of the past year's activities by various committees, the following were installed: Joe Goodwin, president; Franklin Sparks, first vice-president; Delbert Pack, second vice-president; J. P. Merriman, treasurer; Ira Claggett, Lowell Sullivan and Gus Johnson, trustees.

Goodwin succeeds Dr. R. J. Miller as president.

Membership in the organization was voted to Dr. D. S. Cowles.

A clear-cut presentation of the new city income tax was made by City Auditor R. P. Barthalow, followed by a question period.

Mr. Barthalow pointed out several reasons why the city income tax had become necessary in Columbus. That the tax in itself is not a sure panacea for the city's financial ills was shown by the speaker by citing the following bills that must be faced:

1. Back pay suits against the city must be settled this year in the amount of $1,387,917.13. Failure to do so would cost another $1,047,776.53 in accrued interest.

2. River pollution suits against the city (now pending) total $873,470. In all probability these suits will be reduced to judgments in favor of the plaintiffs as soon as funds become available in the city treasury.

3. An additional $963,889 will be needed this year to pay for the cost of the 40-hour week for the city's firemen.

Memorial Has $758 In Fund

While contributions continue to come in, it was announced this week by H. G. Deems, treasurer of the Hilltop YMCA, that a total of $758.50 had been received to date in the Dr. C. O. Cramer Memorial Fund.

Numerous contributions have been received in this fund from all over the city and several individuals have indicated their desire to add to the fund that will be used in the building program of the new Hilltop YMCA. Contributions will continue to be received by the Y treasurer and may be sent to the First Federal Savings & Loan Association office, 2369 W. Broad-st.

Until the time of his death Dr. Cramer was chairman of the YMCA committee on the Hilltop and the establishment of this memorial fund followed a suggestion of some of his friends who knew of his great interest in the project.

Civic Orch. Plans Concert Here Feb. 26

A concert by the Columbus Civic Concert Orchestra, made up of 75 Columbus musicians, will be presented at West High Auditorium Thursday, Feb. 26, at 8:15 p. m.

This affair is being sponsored by the Hilltop Business Association and the net proceeds will be given to the Hilltop YMCA Board to assist in their operating expenses when this program gets under way soon.

Tickets will go on sale soon in local business houses and numerous other civic groups.

Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for children up through high school age.

The committee from the HBA in charge of the event is made up of C. C. Hartley, Ralston Westlake, Don Rice, Jerry Spears and Ira Claggett.

Undergoes Operation

Ellis A. Jones, 87, of 3779 Sullivant-av, oldest active milk producer in central Ohio, underwent an appendicitis operation Monday, in Mt. Carmel Hospital. His condition is fair.

Hilltop Record Gave Readers 18½ Pages, 22 Pictures Per Issue In '47

Readers of the Hilltop Record received more pages per issue during the year 1947 than at any time during the 31 years that the paper has been published.

A check through last year's files reveals that The Record averaged 18½ pages per issue for the 52 weeks.

Along with increased number of pages has gone a substantial increase in the number of pictures used. A survey shows that 1124 photographs or other types of news and feature illustrations were used. This averages out to a fraction less than 22 illustration per week.

It is believed that the number of illustrations far exceeds any other weekly newspaper in the state regardless of price or size. While comparative statistics are not available, it is doubtful if the number of pages of reading material and advertisements is exceeded by any other Ohio weekly newspaper.

The Record is mailed anywhere in Franklin County for $1.50 per year, a rate lower than most other papers of much smaller size.

Jewell-Bing Vows Exchanged Here

Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas read the ceremony when Miss Barbara Bing became the bride of Mr. Eugene Jewell, Nov. 2, at 4:30 p. m., in the sanctuary of Glenwood Methodist Church. The altar was decorated with white gladioli stalks and white tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Max Stuckey, Valparaiso, Ind., and Mr. D. L. Bing, 196 Eldon-av. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jewell, 176 S. Terrace-av.

For her wedding the bride chose an aqua suit with black accessories, and carried an orchid on a prayer book.

The couple was attended by Miss Dorothy Neer, who wore a gray suit with black accessories and carried pink tinted gardenias. Mr. Donald Jewell, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, while the ushers were Mr. Gerald Jewell and Mr. Joseph Struble.

A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. Mrs. Bing greeted her daughter in a black suit with a corsage of white roses while the bridegroom's mother chose a green dress with white gardenias at the shoulder.

The bride is a graduate of Valparaiso High School, Valparaiso, Ind., and of the Office Training School. She is employed at the Mason Supply Co. The bridegroom is a graduate of West High School and attended Ohio State University. He is employed at the F. and R. Lazarus & Co.

The couple resides at 186 W. Ninth-av.

Young-Johnston Wedding of Nov. 20 Is Announced

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Isabelle Young, daughter of Mrs. William Judy, Leadmine, W. Va., and the late William Young, to Dr. Charles Erie Johnston of Parsons, W. Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnston, 196 Binns-blvd.

The single ring ceremony was solemnized Nov. 20, in the Glenwood Methodist Church parlor, Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas officiating.

The bride was attractive in a two-piece, street-length frock of black moire taffeta trimmed in gold with matching accessories. She carried a white prayer book and two orchids.

Mrs. Gerald Johnston, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served as matron of honor and wore a two-piece dress of beige wool with brown accessories. Her costume was complemented with a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums and yellow rosebuds.

Best man was Mr. Gerald Johnston, brother of the bridegroom.

Dinner was served at the Marmor for the wedding party and a few close relatives following the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Johnston is a graduate of Parsons High School and the Women's Hospital School of Nursing in Baltimore, Md. She is a member of the American Nurses' Association and the West Virginia Nurses' Association.

Dr. Johnston is a graduate of West High School and received his medical degree from Ohio State University. He completed his internship at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati. During World War II he served in the Army Medical Corps for 28 months. He is now a member of the West Virginia State Medical Association and the Tri-County Medical Society. Since November, 1946, he has been a practicing physician in Parsons, where the couple now lives.

Women's Chorus To Have Party Jan. 21

The Hilltop Women's Chorus will be entertained with a dinner party Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 6:30 p. m. at the Hughes-Four Restaurant, 2725 W. Broad-st. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Wilma McDonald, Mrs. S. F. Burch, Catherine Hughes, Mrs. Jerry Spears, Sr., Mrs. Darl Stewart, Mrs. Harry Masters, Mrs. Harvey Houch and Mrs. Howard Hagans.

On Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 7, the chorus was heard over WHKC on the Housewives' IQ program. They sang two selections and six of the women were interviewed. After the broadcast, the women went to Marzetti's for lunch.

Plastic Diaper Cover Cuts Baby's Washing

Home-made plastic diaper covers fashioned out of the same kind of material used in shower curtains can save young mothers an endless amount of washing, Mrs. Robert C. Miller points out in a leading farm magazine.

Mrs. Miller says that before she thought of this idea, everything in her young son Clee's bed had to be changed as often as his diaper.

"I tried rubber pants," she writes, "but they cut his fat little legs.

"So I bought three-fourths of a yard of plastic material! The 40-inch fabric was cut in half lengthwise. Each 20x27 inch piece was doubled to a 20x13½ size and sewed together at the edge opposite the fold. The narrow seam was turned to the inside. Then a three-quarter inch hem was stitched at each end. Through these turn-downs I threaded cotton tape.

"Each of the two finished articles measured about 13 inches wide and 18½ inches long. After I pin the diaper on the baby, I put the cover on and tie at each side. The material is soft and folds between the legs. The extra width is gathered in at the top by the draw-strings. The covering is no more binding than the diaper yet it keeps his sleepers and bed dry at night and his rompers clean during the day.

This simple device, writes Mrs. Miller, has greatly reduced washing.

Alcide de Gasperi, Italian premier: "I have confidence in the people of America. Their war was the war for freedom and for the independence of all nations, large and small."

Hilltop Downs Rome Lutheran

By Dave Miller

The Hilltop Lutheran League started off with its second set of games this year at the John Burroughs gym Monday evening, Jan. 12.

As usual the last game, the senior game, was the most thrilling and tense of all. In the meeting, Hilltop edged out a close and good contender for the flag, Rome Lutheran, by a 23-22 count in the closest game recorded this season. Stan Dichely raised his point total of the year to 25 markers as he counted seven goals and one free throw. Leading scorer for the losers was Bill Price with seven points. Hilltop enjoyed a comfortable lead of 16 to 7 at the half-time intermission.

The third game was another thriller-diller of a ball game, as St. John Intermediate squeezed past a stubborn Bethlehem five, 24 to 23. Lanky Harry Bradley of the winners tossed in five buckets with three free throws to give him top scoring honors of the game with 13 tallies. Ronnie James of Bethlehem collected three goals for a six-point total to lead his team. St. John was leading 14 to 12 when the final gun sounded ending the half.

In the second pairing, Center Intermediate beat St. John Juniors by an overwhelming score of 50 to 28 in the highest score recorded this year. Bob Wright of the winners plunked in 13 baskets for 26 points. Bill Garber led the losing five with eight points. The first game saw St. Matthew beat Hilltop Intermediate by a 20 to 10 count. Bill Ott raised his point total of the season to 21 markers as he tallied 12 in this game to top the scorers. Dave Lazenby led Hilltop as he scored four times.

West Juniors Beat Indianola In Close Game

By Dave Miller

West Junior High's basketball quintet downed a very stubborn Indianola five by a close 29 to 27 count on the Indianola hardwood Tuesday.

The Junior Broncos were again led by their alert center, Paul Ellingsworth, who tossed in six goals and four free throws for a 16-point total. He was closely pressed by Ronald Sprouse of the losers with 12, and by Donald Forsyth, also of the Indianola, who hit for 11. This total for Ellingsworth brought his season's count to 48 points in just three games, an average of 16 markers a game.

The score was knotted at 8 all when the first quarter ended. Don Forsyth got seven of his team's eight points in this one period. A goal by Bob Self of the host team gave Indianola a 10 to 8 lead early in the second quarter. The Junior Cowboys never came within a point of tying Indianola in this canto. At the half-time intermission, the Indians of the North End were leading easily by a 19 to 14 count.

And then, West Junior, rated a second half ball club, came out like a house afire. They went to a 22 to 19 lead before a free throw by Joe Spain, Indianola's center, and two more by teammate Sprouse, gave the visitors of West a one point 23-22 lead at the last period began.

With West leading 29 to 23 in the finale, two quick long shots by Sprouse made it the final score in one of the most thrilling battles of the day in the Junior High Loop.

The next pairing for the West Junior five will be against Barrett this Friday afternoon on the former's court. And then, the last game before graduation will be at home also. This game will be against Linden Junior, a tough quintet this year.

At a wedding breakfast little Eric was given a seat near his adoring aunt.

"Well," said the lady, "what kind of a wedding will you have, Eric?"

"I'm never going to get married."

"But why won't you ever get married?"

Eric was silent for a few minutes as he gazed across the table at his admiring parents. Then he answered very positively: "Because, Auntie, I've lived with married people too long already!"

Calling all outdoorsmen

By JIM MITCHELL

We'd like to be thinking about the pleasant side of the great outdoors at this time, but a headline we saw a month or so back keeps casting a dark shadow. It read: "Five Hunters Die As Minnesota Opens Season."

That, in a few words, tells today's horrible story of carelessness by hunters. We had hoped this season would be different, that hunters at last realized that firearms are deadly weapons. But from the opening day figures, it's apparently going to be the same old story. In 1946 Minnesota reported 31 hunting deaths; Michigan showed 24, Ohio 29. These are only examples, for deaths were reported in most states.

It is time we started treating our guns as the death-dealing pieces they are so we can eliminate the "stray bullet" deaths that counted three victims in Minnesota opening day. And, let's not take unnecessary risks afield to avoid a duplication of the drownings that accounted for the other two deaths. We can learn—and follow—the rules of safety, and we can teach our youngsters the proper methods of handling firearms. That's not too much to ask in making the outdoors a sane and safe playground.

TIP OF THE WEEK: Most of us enjoy gunning for rabbits, for it is great sport whether you jump-shoot the cottontails or follow the trail with the beagle. But we don't want to overlook the danger of tularemia. Never shoot a rabbit that is listless and inactive. That's a sign of the disease. And be sure to wear rubber gloves when cleaning the animals to avoid contact with the blood that might be infected.

FACTS 'N' FIGURES: "We've heard of tagging pheasants, quail, waterfowl and fish, but here's a new one. Scientists of the Department of Interior have put metal tags on the flippers of nearly 20,000 seal pups in the north Pacific in their investigation of the migration routes and food habits of the Alaskan fur seal herd . . . Here's a change-of-pace from the over-gunning reports. Michigan says that not enough of the abundant crop of raccoons are being taken. Too few good coon dogs, not the price of skins, is given as the answer . . . From Michigan, also, comes a release which refutes that deer were larger in the "good old days" as the saying goes. A check of records at a cold storage plant disclosed the deer average about the same as a decade ago . . . In 1938 they averaged, dressed and ready for storage, 116 pounds; the 1940 average was 112 pounds, and 113 pounds in 1943 . . . Nearly 3,000 elk were killed during the first half of the season in the St. Joe, Clearwater, and Selway areas of Idaho. About 9,000 hunters were reported in the area . . . A few guides in British Columbia will take you on a spring grizzly hunt on a "no bear—no pay" basis. Spring hunting in B. C. is the best. Pelts, also, are better then.

ON THE CONSERVATION FRONT: Enforcing the regulations that protect our waterfowl resources is a tough problem. Upping the federal duck stamp to $2, with the extra dollar going to enforcement agencies, would help. Another method might be the expansion of a program recently launched in the Chesapeake Bay area. A new Piper Cub Cruiser seaplane has been given the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service by the Wildlife Management Institute for use in the Chesapeake area for apprehending waterfowl trappers, poachers and other violators. Funds for the plane were contributed by citizens interested in the future of American Waterfowl.

Local Townsend Club Claims 1600 Members Here

By Libby Downing

The sight of two elderly ladies rummaging through garbage cans in search of food was the factor which prompted Dr. Francis E. Townsend to start a movement over 14 years ago for the benefit of the aged. His proposed plan is now in the bill stage and is in Congress, where it will either be rejected or become a law.

The above incident happened in San Francisco. It led to the founding of a group known as a Townsend Club, and as the years passed and more clubs were founded throughout the nation, the sponsoring groups revised their plan so that it might also aid the blind, crippled, widowed, and dependent children.

Townsend Club, No. 7, the Hilltop branch of this ever-widening circle, was founded in 1938, just three years after the first club was begun in California. This is typical of the speed with which the popularity of the groups spread from one state to another. Marion Rose, 44 S. Richardson-av. is the president of the Hilltop group, and has held that office for the past seven years.

The first four presidents were Will Seiter, Noah Riggle, Floyd Born and W. E. Davis. Riggle and Seiter are now deceased.

The club has an annual election which is held in October. Twenty names are suggested for officers of the group. Balloting is held and the top 12 comprise the "club council." The officers are then chosen from these 12 members, each councilor receiving a definite office.

The purpose of the "club council" is to review any matter that may arise, test its importance and, if worthy of attention, present it to the entire body of members.

A state conference is held semi-annually in Columbus, because it is the state capitol. The most recent meeting was held Nov. 22 and 23.

Open To All

Membership in this organization is open to any desirable citizen of the United States, regardless of race or color. The Negroes have a separate club, but according to Mr. Rose, the inter-club cooperation is wonderful. The groups always keep in mind the fact that they are all working toward a common goal.

Marion Rose

Townsend, No. 7, has at present 1600 members' names on the books. Some of these persons are delinquent in payment of dues, however. The membership list stood at 600 when Marion Rose first accepted the position as president. In the past seven years 1000 people have been successfully contacted and have become members.

The main-spring of all Townsend Clubs is Dr. Townsend's proposed plan, whereby all persons drawing a salary would pay a 3% gross income tax on all earnings over the first $1200 exemption. This tax would include factories, railroads, all companies, etc. No one would be exempt. In its present form the proposal would allot $91.60 per month (to be spent within 30 days) to all persons over 60 years of age, or any other of the eligibles. It is suggested that each person benefitting would donate 10% to his church, however this is optional. Another measure states that if the recipient so desires, he may turn his allotted check over to a relative who is in need.

This plan would definitely benefit all if passed. Now before the body of men responsible for making our laws, the bill is said to have progressed in popularity recently. Mr. Rose remarked that the "moneyed class" is against the plan because they would never need its benefits. He said that this class has hired lobbyists to work against the bill now before Congress.

The national convention of the group was held in Washington, D. C., for the first time last year. Washington will again be the site of the yearly meeting next May. The Hilltop branch sent five delegates to Washington last May with all expenses paid. Three other members attended the meeting also. The entire Townsend band met with favoring Congressmen and had their pictures taken on the Capitol steps. "Even the hotels and taxis reduced their rates to visiting Townsend members," Mr. Rose said.

Townsend No. 7, one of 13,000 clubs of its kind throughout the United States, holds two meetings per month. It meets in the VFW Hall, corner of Wayne-av and W. Broad-st, the second and fourth Fridays of the month. The first meeting is a supper meeting followed by a business session. The second is strictly for matters of a business nature.

Supervises 12th District

Mr. Rose is supervisor of the 12th district. This includes nine clubs. He is also a member of the regional board, made up of four states, which held a meeting recently. Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Kentucky make up the local four-state board. There are 28 districts and they are represented by one delegate from each district.

Present officers of the Hilltop Townsend Club are Mr. Rose, president; Mrs. Charles Dunn, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Dixon, second vice-president; W. K. Davis, secretary-treasurer; J. A. Rhoades, membership; Mrs. Will Koehler, finance; Mrs. Charles Manson, programs; Mrs. W. E. Davis, publicity; Mrs. Harry Davisson, public relations; Mrs. Marion Rose, sect. I; Mrs. J. A. Rhoades, women's auxiliary; and Mrs. Virginia Umbernour, youth relations.

Worth 'Jingling' For

How would you like this in your kitchen — the range, that is? Pretty Shirley Monohon hopes she sees good fortune reflected in the crystal clear surface of this most recent type of electric range she wants for her dream home. The range, a nutrutoliner with built-in pressure cooker, is part of a completely engineered kitchen, designed and decorated according to personal taste, that is available to dream home planners in a jingle contest now being sponsored by Swift's Premier. It is only one of 1151 electric appliances to be awarded for originality and cleverness of thought during the contest.

Accidents Will Increase With Snow And Ice

Pointing to huge increases in traffic death rates during winter over other seasons of the year, Chief of Police Lester W. Merica today warned motorists to prepare for hazardous winter weather and road conditions ahead.

"Drive slowly in rain, sleet or snow, because traffic accident rates increase 21 to 53 per cent during snow and ice months," Chief Merica said. "And, with more vehicles operating this winter than ever before, every driver must ready his seasonal safety equipment and be on the double alert."

In cooperation with the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the chief urged study of proven methods which will help reduce the toll of deaths, accidents and traffic tieups caused by disregard for snow, ice and poor visibility.

"Only serious consideration of these fundamental rules, based on scientific research and tests by the National Safety Council, will save drivers and pedestrians a lot of unnecessary trouble and sorrow," Chief Merica added.

The rules are:

1. Get the "feel" of the road surface when you start out. Test braking and acceleration ability when no other cars are near and before you are faced with an emergency.

2. Reduce speed when road surfaces are snowy or icy so you can stop in time. Remember at only 20 miles per hour it takes four to 12 times more distance to stop on snow or ice as on dry concrete.

3. Keep windshield and windows clear of snow and ice on the outside, fog and frost inside. Check your defroster and wipers.

4. Use steel tire chains when snow or ice conditions generally prevail. They reduce braking distances for cars and trucks from 40 to 70 per cent, and provide "go" traction often needed to start or climb hills.

5. Carbon monoxide poisoning is dangerous! Never warm up your car in a closed garage. Check exhaust system and floor boards for leaks. Old manifold type heaters should not be used unless frequently examined for leaks and other defects.

6. Good tire treads are desirable because they improve stopping on wet pavement, but do not depend on even new treads or rubber chains to help on ice or packed snow. Tests showed "rubber tire chains," while nice and quiet, actually skid further than bare tires on packed snow or ice.

Baked Onions Stuffed With Mashed Potatoes

4 large onions
1 cup consommee
3 potatoes
Hot milk
Salt
Freshly ground black pepper
Butter or margarine
Buttered crumbs

Remove skins from onions and parboil for 10 minutes in boiling salted water. Drain and remove centers. Place in a baking dish and pour the cup of consommee over them. Bake until tender, basting frequently.

Peel and boil potatoes. Mash. Add hot milk, salt, pepper, and butter or margarine. Beat until fluffy. Chop that portion of the onion removed very fine and fold into the mashed potato. Fill center of onions and sprinkle with buttered crumbs over top. Bake in a slow even until crumbs are nicely browned.

Baked Corn With Green Pepper

1 can cream-style corn
1 finely chopped green pepper
2 egg yolks, well beaten
½ cup butter or margarine
Season to taste with salt and pepper

Melt butter or margarine and combine all ingredients. Stir until well blended. Pour into a baking dish and bake in a moderate oven until browned.

After a few words, mostly spoken by the young wife, her hubby sprang to his feet.

"You've gone too far!" he explained angrily. "This is our last quarrel. I'm going right out of your life."

"Oh, Henry, darling, where are you going?" she cried.

"Where I'll never trouble you again," he replied as he started to open the door. "I'll find a place where wild adventure will wipe out the memories of this moment—perhaps in the jungle—or on the stormy seas—"

As he spoke he opened the door, then closed it again and turned sternly to his wife.

"It's lucky for you it's raining," he said.

Cubbers To "Pow Wow" On January 17

An adult Cubbers "Pow-wow" is scheduled for Jan. 17 at Westgate Methodist Church and all men interested in the welfare of boys between the ages of nine and 12 are invited to attend.

Although "Cubbing" is not a new orgnaization, being more than 17 years old, it is just beginning to take its place in the scouting family. At the present time there are 12 packs in the Southwest Boy Scout District.

These packs are under the council leadership of Cliff Mathews, field executive; Jack Sensbrenner, district chairman of Boy Scouts; Thomas Howells, district chairman of Cub Scouting, and his committee on Cubbing, composed of the following men: C. A. Minor, Elmer Howard, Robert Reeves, Richard Lloyd, Wendell Rector, William Davis.

The committee and the other Cub leaders are putting on the "pow-wow" to give training to all adults interested in Cubbing.

There will be a three-hour training course in the afternoon, beginning at 1, to be followed by a get-together dinner in the evening.

Every one is invited, especially those who are parents of boys now in Cub Packs, as it is felt that their presence at the meeting will help the advancement of their individual Cub Pack.

Any organization desiring to sponsor a Cub Pack should send a group to these classes and then get in touch with one of the following: Thomas Howells, 1084 Whitethorne-av, JO. 1255; C. A. Minor, 277 S. Westgate-av, RA. 5167; E. Howard, 346 Guernsey-av, RA. 0774; R. Lloyd, 155 S. Terrace-av, RA. 22551.

Brendan Bracken, member, British Parliament: "I have rarely met a politician in office who liked press criticism. I'm not sure I like it myself."

Circus Day Set For Youngsters

The circus will come to town Saturday, Jan. 24, at 10 a. m., at Memorial Hall, with a blaring circus band leading the grand parade of more than 100 clowns, Indians, acrobats, ponies, dogs and toreadors. Circus Day, a spectacular entertainment planned especially for children, is the second performance of the 1947-'48 Community Junior Theater.

Buck Baynard's famous trained ponies, the world's largest clown act with 30 clowns performing simultaneously, Indian dances led by a full-blooded Sioux Indian, a thrilling bull fight with 30 toreadors, and many other exciting and hilarious acts will be featured in the gala Circus Day.

This colorful entertainment is being produced by the Recreation Department under the direction of Robert Verbeck, who will serve as ring master. Many of the acts have been brought to Columbus especially for this performance. Assisting in the production will be children from the city recreational centers and community houses.

Season tickets for the five remaining productions are $1 for children and adults. Tickets for individual entertainments are 25c for children and 35c for adults. Season tickets are on sale at the following locations: Campbell's Drug Store, 2786 W. Broad-st; Goodwin's Pharmacy, 2772 Sullivant-av; The Hilltop Record, 2405 W. Broad-st; Superior Drug, 2109 W. Broad; Essex Pharmacy, 363 S. Central-av; and downtown at June Schaaf Florist, 8 N. High-st, and Heaton's Music Store, 50 N. High-st.

What promises to be another "thriller" in the torrid City League cage battle is set for Friday night when the West High Cowboys invade the lair of the East Tigers out on E. Broad-st. George Williams' boys drew the bye and were idle on Tuesday night in preparation for the important contest tomorrow night.

Last Friday West dropped a close one to the South High Bulldogs on the West court. The final count was 65 to 61. Central and East staged the featured attraction of the loop, however, as the Tigers knocked off the previously undefeated Pirates by a score of 34 to 33.

Chet Dewey set the scoring pace for the visiting Bulldogs with 24 points, closely followed by Jack Thrush with 23. Chuck Weeks played a bang up game all evening as he dropped in 14 points, his best scoring effort thus far.

The game started off at a fast pace with the Cowboys setting the tempo and holding a two-point margin up until near the end, when South knotted the count, and then trailed by two tallies as the quarter ended 20-18. An unusual display of sharp shooting was staged by both teams for several minutes as six buckets were made without a miss—all of them distance or difficult shots.

South Ahead At Half

The visitors again knotted the count at 28 points in the second canto and then went ahead to lead by a count of 31-30 as the half ended. At no time during the first half did either team lead by more than three points.

In the third period the score was tied four times as the Bulldogs showed an advantage in making good on a high percentage of their shots. The quarter ended with the score 46-43 in favor of the visitors. South continued to lead all the way through the final canto and at one time had a 10-point advantage with less than two minutes to play. West was not out of the running, however, as the Cowboys pulled to within two points with only 25 seconds remaining. South's Marshall dumped in the final bucket, however, just seconds before the final whistle sounded.

Chuck Frasher took scoring honors in the preliminary game as he accounted for 11 tallies as the Buckaroos won 38 to 29. It was the sixth win for Fred Heischman and his boys in eight starts.

'Bambino' Is Honored By Eagles

George Herman (Babe) Ruth, former New York home run slugger and the idol of millions of youngsters, has been awarded the National Civic Service Award of the Fraternal Order of Eagles for the month of November, according to Organizer M. L. Brown of Springfield, who presented the award.

The Eagles have established as a slogan a "chance at real childhood for every child" and with their youth guidance programs strive to make that goal a reality. Sports heroes such as Ruth, through example and deed, help to attain that objective.

This national civic service award is presented each month by the Grand Aerie of Eagles, representing 1,400,000 members, to outstanding national leaders for distinguished service in a field of interest of human betterment.

Among the past recipients of the Eagles civic award are Prime Minister MacKenzie King of Canada; J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Catherine Lenroot of the U. S. Child Welfare Bureau; J. Hormel, president of the Hormel Packing Co.; Bishop Bernard J. Sheil and General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

W. Juniors Lose To Everett

By Dave Miller

West Junior High's basketball squad, which in its last two outings has defeated Starling and lost to Crestview, lost a very close game to Everett Junior on the Everett court, 37 to 35.

The West Siders, coached by Red Lehman, started out very badly but if time hadn't run out on them they might have won or gone into an overtime in the game. The Juniors trailed by five markers in the first quarter and by 13 at the half time intermission.

Everett led throughout and was never headed once since a bucket by Howard Shivers and a free throw by Bill Brant gave the victors a lead of 3-0, which was never topped by the Red and White.

With seven seconds remaining and the score tied for the first time, little 5-foot, 2-inch Lennie Jones of Everett came directly to the middle of the floor and stripped a one handed push-hook to give the Blue and Gold from the North End its first win this season in three outings.

The second quarter was a completely different game from the first, as the Buckaroos tallied 14 points to Everett's seven in the third canto. And in the final, the Junior Cowboys outscored their competitors 13 to 10.

Paul Ellingsworth, West Junior star, led the scoring with 13 markers, 12 in the second half. This boosted Ellingsworth's total for the season to 31 points. Ray Wakeman, West Junior, left forward, came in second with 11 tallies, and he scored eight of them in the second half. Howard Shivers of Everett came in behind Wakeman as he scored nine points to aid Everett's cause. He had six points at halftime.

Jeffrey Post Dance Set For Jan. 31

The annual birthday dance of the Malcolm D. Jeffrey American Legion Post No. 465 will be held in the main ballroom of the Deshler Wallick Hotel Saturday evening, Jan. 31, from 10 until 1. Proceeds from the dance will benefit the Columbus Boys' Trade School.

The dance is held in commemoration of the birthday of Malcolm D. Jeffrey, founder of the post. Music will be by Howdy Gorman and his orchestra, and the committee on arrangements includes Robert D. Prushing, chairman, Robert S. Caldwell, L. H. McReynolds, Ralph McMillan, Burd Miller, R. D. Watson and Russell Knode.

STARLING WINS SECOND
By DeLoris Dennis

On Jan. 3, at the YMCA, a swimming meet was held by the Hi-Y. Representatives from all the junior high schools were present. Starling Junior High came in second place. The two representatives were Charles Merritt and Charles Martin. The Hi-Y boys of Starling Junior High School are under the supervision of John Pittenger.

S. C. Stewart Black Toppers

One of the best women's teams to roll at the Hilltop alleys is the S. C. Stewart Black Top Drivers. This team rolls on Wednesday nights at 6:30. The Black Toppers hold first place in their respective league with a 43 and 8 record, which is far out in front of their nearest opponent, Seiller's Department Store. They also hold an average of 771, one of the best womens' averages at the Recreation alleys.

Last week this same team, along with two other women's teams from Columbus, went to Cincinnati to roll in the Times-Star tournament and came out with a blazing 2915, which was good for first place up to this date.

The other two teams, Riverview Standard Savings & Loan and Kaufman Storm Windows also did quite well as Standard landed in fifth place with 2824 and Kaufman in fourth place with 2856.

Not only did these ladies do well in team events but also came through with good scores in the individual events too. In the singles Gen Graham (who rolled the 600 series a few weeks back at the Hilltop alleys) had 628, Bessie McCoy 604 and Margaret Stewart 603. Billie Warden and Iva Longerbone rolled 1207 in the doubles while the Merrick twins, Marge and Elizabeth, came through with 1178. Congratulations on your good work and good luck to all the rest of the teams that go to roll in this tournament.

 * Bowling Gem * ***

Our bowling gem goes to Joe Kennedy, who rolls for Shank and Saunders on Thursday nights. Last Thursday night Joe rolled one of those once-in-a-lifetime "sandwich" games, that is a 200 game consisting of alternate strikes and spares. Nice going, Joe.

 * Bowler of the Week * ***

Our bowler is Kaye Seitz, daughter of Hube Seitz, well known bowler around the Hilltop alleys. This is Kaye's second year in an organized league and she is going quite well. She rolls for General Hotel Supplies and carries a 137 average. Last week Kaye had a 191 game, which was the highest game rolled in the league that evening. Nice going, Kaye, but don't forget those two cokes you owe me!

Nothing to it, my boy. The arrangements I've made with the SUN LIFE OF CANADA will clear the mortgage in the event of my untimely death.

I never thought of that. What about the cost?

Insignificant! In fact, it adds very little to the carrying charge of the mortgage.

Can We Sell The Parents?

Last week's editorial "Better Go Out With The Boys" has brought forth a number of favorable comments. Among them is the letter appearing elsewhere on this page written by Mrs. Lucille Brady pointing out some of the problems of sponsoring groups to enlist the interest of parents in youth work.

The question can logically be asked, "What if anything can be done to change this situation of parental indifference?"

Our answer to that question is that something can be done and is being done by some wide-awake groups—a few of them right here on the Hilltop.

Scouting for girls and boys, Camp Fire work and other related youth programs need to be sold to the parents of our boys and girls. While we will agree that in spite of all that leaders can do in some cases, there are some parents who are not concerned enough to lend a hand in the promotion of this work, we believe they are much in the minority.

An intelligent job of public relations would go far toward reaching the parents of boys and girls who are ready to enter this work. Surveys have shown that far more boys are interested in scouting than can be accommodated because of inadequate sponsorship. What must be done then is to sell scouting to the adults.

A regular plan of reporting youth activities through the press would help to make the public more aware of the importance of such work. Some groups have a regular reporter who does a good job of supplying news to the papers. In most cases it is done on a more or less hit and miss basis. Scout news, intelligently reported is news in any paper. This newspaper and most of those we know welcome copy of this kind when it is brought down to the local level.

Too many publicity persons feel they have done their job when they hand the editor some "canned" copy put out by national headquarters when what he wants is the doings of the people right in his own neighborhood. Names make the news. What Johnny Jones or Betty Smith did at the summer camp are more important to the editor than what some publicist has written in New York to be handed out to every paper in the country. Subscribers of this paper and every paper like to read what their friends and neighbors are doing. That's the biggest thing any weekly and most daily papers have to sell.

We know that it is a job to send a news story in to your paper every week but that regularity is the thing that makes an impression on the reading public if the group that is written about is doing something to make news.

This is only one way in which we feel that the youth programs could be more effectively sold to the parents. It is a job that requires selling as does every other worthwhile program. We Americans are for the most part busy individuals. We are impressed by the program that seems to have something to offer and that does a reasonably good job of selling its services. Scouting is no exception. No doubt other f our readers have their own ideas on this subject. Send them on in and we will be glad to air your views. That is one of the services a newspaper has to offer.

Society News

Today's piece is devoted to the gentle art of society writing and editing. It grows out of experience (?) gained these past two weeks as a result of the enforced vacation (doctor's orders) of Libby Downing who regularly handles this chore.

Let it be said here and now that this is not an attempt to ridicule the ladies (bless 'em). Far be it from this reporter, who has to deal with 'em every day, to stir up righteous indignation of the fair sex. This is merely an attempt to analyze the wedding or engagement story as it sounds to the male readers who of course have no business reading the ladies' page anyhow.

In the well written wedding story the sun must always stream through the varied-color church windows to create a magic spell of some kind over the audience. If the wedding is at night you can always have the candles create the same or better effect. The time element is very important. Even though the wedding being reported may have taken place six months ago, don't fail to state that the organ started playing precisely on the hour, the half hour or somewhere in between.

The bridegroom, the best man and the minister always appear first in the service, in order to create confusion for of course every one was expecting to see the bride. The wearing apparel of the bride is always good for a half column of description at least. Starting with the wedding gown itself, one can go the limit in flowery adjectives telling of the type of material, the color, the style, the type of sleeves, the fullness of the skirt, the jewelry worn, the long flowing train, the finger-tip veil of candlelight illusion (whatever that is. I just copied it word for word), and so on from head to foot. It's always in good taste to tell what kind of slippers she wore even though no one ever sees 'em.

Then there's the bridal bouquet. So much for the bride herself. The discreet social writer goes no further in her description than the outer garments of course. After you have worn out two typewriter ribbons in describing the dress of the bride, her bridesmaids, flower girls, ring bearer, etc., there is always the bride's and the bridegroom's mothers. Each one is good for 50 or so words of fashion copy.

If the story is complete in every detail it may get around to telling the name of the bridegroom and what his occupation has been. That isn't too important. It's the bride that counts. If you do mention his line of work he is always "associated" with his employes. Never say he "works" for a certain firm. Bridegrooms always have "positions," not jobs.

No one is never concerned about what the bridegroom wears even if he did spend his last dollor to buy that new suit. He can always get his money's worth out of it by wearing it for the next six or seven years. The bride's gown is worn only once, so if the public is to be sufficiently impressed, the social writer must "pour it on."

Then by all means don't fail to describe the bride's going-away apparel. Heaven forbid that the public should get the idea that she didn't change before going on her honeymoon.

Even though the bridegroom's name may not appear until near the end of the story, never refer to him as the groom. Webster describes a groom as one who looks after horses. The public might get the wrong impression.

So there, gentle readers, are a few simple rules to follow just in case you are considering the job of becoming a social writer. So hurry up and get well, Libby, my supply of adjectives is running low.

Home, Screech, Home

"TONIGHT!" or tomorrow for sure!" "TONIGHT!" or tomorrow for sure!" Even the way it strikes the cardrums KA-WHAM! deedee deedle dee DOO! Excitement! Urgency! HURRY, HURRY, HURRY, MUST! MUST, MUST, MUST!

The voice in the radio, not always the same voice, not always the same words. But the force, the nerve shattering repetition never varies. HIT 'em! HIT 'EM! LOOK. STOP. BIG. BIGGER!! DO IT!! DO IT! ON and ON! MORE! MORE! WHEN DOES IT STOP!!

That's it, turn the radio off. It's quiet. You can concentrate. You can concentrate. You can sit back and read that magazine. You are at home—a man in his castle. This is sanctuary. This is . . . "JOHN!" (the wife).

Wilson

Well, where did ya put 'em! (the neighbors). T - Wee-umm! (the refrigerator). KWUMP, KWUMP, BUMPLE UM-DUM! (those little feet pattering in from play).

Sanctuary? Rest? Oh yes. We have that in two sizes. Look for it in your nearest sanitarium.

Seriously, isn't this what you wanted? Our customer research department tells us you prefer the color red. So you get it. RED lipstick. RED packages. RED convertibles. BRIGHT red! FLAME red! RED red! And you HATE to waste time: MOVE OVER! LOOK OUT THERE! LET ME THROUGH, please!" You like convenience. NOW, THIS SWITCH ROLLS THE WINDOWS UP. THIS ONE WORKS THE TOP. THIS ONE IS FOR THE FOG LIGHTS: THIS . . . And you're willing to pay for it. LET'S SEE, WITH DIRECTION SIGNALS, THAT'S TWO 'LEVEN TIMES FIF . . . THAT'LL BE $3,989.84. CASH, OF COURSE."

And you like NEW things, too. Science and industry work night and day to satiate your appetite for the unique, and sometimes foolish. PLASTIC BUBBLES, PHOSPHORESCENT NECKTIES. DRINKING PENGUINS.

YES, we've given you just what you asked for. You're LIVING, in CAPITAL letters! NO PACKAGE TO UNWRAP. NOTHING TO MIX—TO STIR. JUST TAKE IT HOME AND EAT IT! BREATHE IT! AND SLEEP IT!

"And now thru the courtesy of Super-sonic Mattresses, we bring you 30 seconds of fitful silence."

Our Readers Say

Editor, Hilltop Record:

Your editorial on scouting this week was greatly appreciated by SOME of the folks in our pack. I have to underscore SOME because, as you so ably stated, there are those in our organization who sit back with the attitude of "let George do it."

As secretary of a Cub Scout Pack I know whereof I speak. It's been my duty to contact the parents for their cooperation in some function of the organization, and while for the most part there has been a splendid response, there are those for whom it isn't even enough to get down on one's knees and beg!

I can't understand this attitude. When a committee of a few people can put hours of planning and work and more hours of thought on some worthwhile cause such as these organizations, why can't they get WILLING and even ENTHUSIASTIC help from the parents? Parents who can get enthusiastic over bridge clubs, parties and other social functions surely put their children's interests ahead of these things.

Don't you agree that a surge of parent participation in youth organizations would not only solve the problem of juvenile delinquency, but also that of ADULT delinquency?

Sincerely,
Lucille Brady, Secretary
Cub Scout Pack 86 of John Burroughs School.

Dear Sir:

The men of Glenwood Men's Council are to be highly commended on their progressive spirit in providing not only interesting and very instructive programs, but if all their future meetings are to be of such a practical character as that of last Tuesday evening, then their members will have aided in one of the most progressive movements of this decade in this section of the country.

Charles F. Lucks of Battelle Memorial Institute gave his lecture on "Research in Action" and did a magnificent job of illustrating the march of science during the past 20 centuries in that most common of our blessings, "light," right on from the torch of antiquity right up to date as shown by our present fluorescent lighting systems.

There were of course more technical and instructing items which Mr. Lucks illustrated, but his mathematical science was too fast for most of us, including myself, yet we could see from our knowledge of the minor mathematical calculations of addition, multiplication and subtraction and of simple fractions, that he had his algebra on his mental finger tips, and what to us would be an awfully tough problem was child's play to him.

I happen to know that Mr. Lucks is vice-president of Columbus Technical Council, and that his lecture is a part of the program of that fine body of men of the 12 technical societies who compose the C. T. C. and it is their aim to give to the public somewhat of an education upon the achievements of technical men, and what is more important, to stress the importance of attracting youth into the field of science, so that industry may be able to have more technical men and women trained to meet the need of such technicians in the industrial life of this nation and particularly of this community. This fine body of technical men anticipates that by this program more high school graduates and college men and women will be steered into the field of science.

Thomas A. Edison stated during the late years of his life that the great need of America was for the study of "pure science," and that is still true. Some time back I stressed the need for our youth for more knowledge of our public institutions, and of our arts and sciences and also of our music and literature, in all of which Ohio is rich and particularly is Columbus and this section. What an outlook there is before us. Will we take advantage of it and go forward, or just sit around and suffer with the "old armchair habit of old age"? Heaven forbid that we should dry up.

Twenty firemen of the Prairie Township Fire Department have completed the training course put on by Kent State University and State Board of Vocational Education. Their instructor was Chief Walter J. Lauter, former fire chief of Portsmouth. The Fire Department expects to be in the new fire station on Maple-dr about Feb. 1. Following are the firemen: Joe Lamb, fire chief, W. G. Lamb, M. A. Howell, Grover Kaderly, Harold Hyland, L. Karnes, Ed Spring, C. D. Lavely, D. E. Smith, Jack Elliott, Carl and Don Dellinger, M. F. Stillings, George Cardosi, Eugene Higgins, Ed Lavely, C. W. Busick, Elam Carter and Floyd Armstrong.

The firemen were called out early Sunday morning to the home of Mrs. O'Harra in Alton, whose barn was on fire.

Again the firemen extend their thanks to the many who attended the dance at Galloway Hall.

Regular members of the Rome Card Club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Maple-dr. They included Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Roe Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denman, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Butin, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Calland, and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snyder and family visited with her sister, Mrs. Copely, and Mr. Copely, at Mansfield Sunday afternoon.

Martha Suver, Buena Vista, was the lucky one to receive the door prize at the Firemen's Dance, Thursday night. It was a large box of chocolates.

The Galloway School can now boast of a cafeteria that is just getting started. It is in the basement of the school and the children as well as the mothers, appreciate very much the effort that is being put forth by Mrs. Jemima Lavely and her workers, to make it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Running of Detroit are now located in their home at 246 Hilliards-Romeo-rd. He is with the G. M. Plant. Their daughter, who is living with her grandmother in Detroit, will return home after graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaner, daughter, Cookie, with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Running, started out for a short drive Sunday and had supper in Kentucky.

Mrs. Russel Broyles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McConnis, and brother, Ovel, and Eva Riley of Detroit spent Sunday with the Broyles family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sheets of Chillicothe and daughter, who is a student at OSU, visited with his brother, E. C. Sheets, Sr., Pasadena-av, Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Stormont attended the pot-luck supper of the Friendship Circle of West Jefferson Eastern Star, at the home of Mrs. Monford Smith, W. Broad-st. There were about 30 persons present.

Mr. and Mrs Mike Baer of Grove City visited with her brother, Howard Breckenridge, and family, Maple-dr, Sunday.

They are Barbara Adams, John Allen, Russell Bishop, Mary Boring, Jean Burris, Kenneth Calendine, Patricia Caldwell, Phyllis Dann, Charlotte Davy, Mirian Demos, Freda DeVore, Theda DeVore, Doris DeWeese, Margaret Drummons, Ruth Evans, Donald Farrell, Phyllis Geho, Delores Gomez, Arlena Hargis, Irene Hargis, Ned Hawley, William Henthorne, Diane Hilf, John Holt, Gloria Lou Kamer, Beverly Kindall, Thomas Klett, Norma Lacey, Paul Landenberger, Hazel Lewis, Don Long, Richard Maynard, Clifton McLain, Marilyn Peak, Marjorie Bambo, Barbara Jean Sharkey, Ella Mae Sharp, Lela Sheets, Patricia Sheridan, Nancy Slagle, Norma Sparks, Jane Lee Story, Mary Sullivan, Nancy Timmons, Eda Vannicelle, Verna Voss, Hazel Lewis, Joanne Watson, Joyce Wiget, Ina Willis, Jessie Wilson, Robert Wittkamp, Selma Wolfe and Doris Yseldyke.

The 30 esquires who received no D's or E's in their 8B and 8A term grades are Ronald Adams, Robert Bell, Elizabeth Braskett, Ralph Bruckman, Robert Caldwell, Thomas Condos, DeLoris Dennis, Rush Duty, Harold Doust, Barbara Emmitt, Patricia Fast, Vernon Feen, Paul Finney, Colleen Hartman, James Keller, Evelyn Lewis, Donna Jean Loudermilk, Charles Merritt, Robert Morgan, Nancy Pavey, Duane Saunders, Weltha Schreiner, Shirley Shell, Mary Louise Snyder, William Terry, Carol Thrush, Jack Upperman, Ralph VanAtta, Patricia Winer and Ruth Wright.

The seven knights who did outstanding work in the ninth grade are Michelina Antolina, Patricia Hawley, Lola Long, Normajean Puckett, Virginia Southard, Bona Stimmel and Joanne Ward.

What is your dog's I.Q.

"Most bird dogs are NOT as brainy as Professor Einstein. Fact is, in many ways they're pretty dumb!" writes Mabry Anderson, veteran sportsman and dog-lover, in the current OUTDOORSMAN magazine.

The average hunter places too much confidence in his dog, according to Anderson, whose article tells hunters how to help their dogs by doing some of the "head work."

HILLTOP WOMEN'S CHORUS IS DIVERSIFIED GROUP

Second row—Bertha Woodin, accompanist, Emma Goulding, Effie Barnhart, Edna Gubsch, Clara May Sharkey, Elizabeth Barch, Wilma McDonald, Anita Hagens, Dorothy Young, Katherine Hamilton, Bertha Masters, director.

Third row—Violet Baas, Dorothy Laucherty, Ruth Decker, Betty Gilmore, Edna Campbell, Cornelia Boyer, Winifred Camp, Helen Hauck and Helen Foerst.

Other members of the chorus not in the above picture are Mildred Spears, Charlotte Kloss, Sarah Huffman, Ruth Patterson and Ruby Kearns.

By Bob Wiener

One of the outstanding musical organizations on the Hilltop is the Hilltop Women's Chorus, an unaffiliated group of women singers under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Masters of 428 S. Powell-av.

This group sings mainly religious and classical music and most of its 36 members sing in church choirs on the Hilltop. Mrs. Masters has been director of the chorus since it was organized in October, 1946. She is also director of music, and organist, at the Avondale Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Included in the chorus are school teachers, trained nurses, business women and office workers, as well as housewives. Very few have had formal voice training and Mrs. Masters, herself points out that she received all her music education from private teachers and not at music conservatories. At one time or another she has studied violin, piano, organ and voice.

The chorus has sung in public about 11 times in the past year. Last summer they sang over WCOL and another radio appearance is scheduled for Jan. 7 over WHKC. This will be a half-hour program at a time to be announced later.

Their main appearances, however, have been at churches and lodges, mostly on the Hilltop. On Nov. 23 they presented a full-length concert at the Avondale E. U. B. Church. On Sunday, Dec. 7, they sang at the sixth anniversary celebration of the founding of the Westgate Methodist Church.

Use 4-Part Music

For the most part the chorus sings four-part music which includes soprano, second soprano, first alto and second alto voices. Besides Mrs. Young, solo parts are also sung by Mrs. Garnet Menge. The vocal group is accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Bertha Woodin.

Another performance by the Hilltop Women's Chorus will take place Jan. 23 at the E. T. King Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Masters says the chorus gets many invitations to sing before churches and lodges but is impossible to accept them all. She would like to limit the group's appearances to about one a month in view of the time involved in preparing a program and the fact that most of the members lead busy lives taking care of their families and their business. They will sing Feb. 10 at the Southern Way Chapter. They broadcast Jan. 7 over WHKC.

Mrs. Masters said the chorus will soon have uniform dress when it appears in public. This will consist of floor-length black skirts and white satin blouses. They hope to have them when they sing for the Eastern Star group in January.

Mrs. Masters is rather proud of the fact that the group has no organization backing it, being held together solely by the spirit of its members who enjoy group singing. Each member buys her own music and each will buy her own uniform. In addition, each member pays dues of 20 cents a month into a "sunshine fund" to buy flowers for sick or deceased members or their close relatives.

Eight New Members

The makeup of the chorus today is virtually the same as when the vocal group was organized a little over a year ago. There have been no resignations and during the year eight new members have been added. Mrs. Masters hopes to enlarge the chorus by about eight more members after the first of the year. There have been many requests asking to join the group, she said, but it is impractical to accept them all. Still, she hates to be the only one who has to turn down those requests.

The chorus rehearses on three Monday nights each month at the Westgate Methodist Church. On the fourth Monday, a social and get-together is held at the home of one of the members.

Mrs. Masters has had wide experience with choral and other music groups on the Hilltop. She was the first organist at the Westgate E. U. B. Church. She directed the choir at the Burgess Avenue E. U. B. Church for eight years and was director of the John Burroughs School Mother Singers for a similar period. In addition to these positions she taught piano on the Hilltop for many years. At present she is organist at the Jerry Spears Funeral Home.

When the Hilltop Women's Chorus was organized in October, 1946, they elected officers for two-year terms. They are Mrs. Winifred Camp, president; Mrs. Mildred Bell, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Cornelia Boyer, chairman of the social committee.

The chorus will be entertained at t dinner party at the Hughes Four Restaurant, Jan. 21.

Rea-Bow

Mr. and Mrs. Fullenkamp of Dayton were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brokamp, 939 Clarendon-av. They are the parents of Mrs. Brokamp.

Mrs. Ralph Kidd and children spent Saturday with Mrs. Kidd's mother, Mrs. Helm, 994 Campbell-av.

Joan Mayer of Etna is visiting with Louise Richardson of Whitethorne-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrow and family, 556 W. Second-av, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jordon and family, 2279 Vadis-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox of Clarendon-av are spending a few days in Washington C. H. with relatives.

Marion Brandenberger of Whitehead-av has been confined to his home with flu.

A large crowd attended the community social at Rea-Bow Hall Saturday night. Emmett Seeley was the M. C., assisted by Mrs. Eva Seeley. Little Frances Taner was presented in a tap dance routine. The Rea-Bow News was sung by Everett Gallagher and brought much applause. Mrs. Alice Brokamp and JoAnn Kidd entertained by singing. Music for the square dancing was played by the Gallagher brothers. Callers were Dixon, Brokamp and Wolfe.

The Rea-Bow Rangers drill every Monday, 7:30 to 9. At present there are 21 boys signed in this unit. Two of these rangers are assigned to duty each Saturday night at Rea-Bow Hall.

The board of trustees of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association will meet tonight at Rea-Bow Hall, 7:30 o'clock, in a special session. It is expected that gas mains will be laid in this community soon. The residents of this community are expecting a final decision from the county commissioners this month in regard to their petition for drainage.

Norman Brokamp, Charles Slain and Tillman Adkins have been appointed a committee to install the officers of the Rea-Bow Improvement Association at the regular monthly meeting, Tuesday, Feb. 3.

Mrs. Hilda Miller Files $87,500 Suit

A suit for $87,500 was filed in Common Pleas Court last week against the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. by Mrs. Hilda Miller. It grows out of the traffic death, Nov. 25, 1946, of her husband, Paul Miller, 25, of 2738 Sullivant-av.

Mrs. Miller contends that a trolley coach operated by the company was responsible for the accident in which her husband was fatally injured and others badly hurt. The accident happened at the corner of W. Broad-st and Algonquin-av as Mr. Miller and six other passengers were enroute to work at the Fisher Body Ternstedt Plant on Georgesville-rd.

Miller's car crashed head-on with a tractor trailer that was attempting to pass the bus traveling east on W. Broad-st.

Memo Title Needed On Mortgaged Cars To Get License Plate

William F. Berkhemer, county clerk of courts, stated that each year hundreds of people get caught in the rush because they do not have a title to get license plates. When a car is mortgaged, the finance company keeps the title and you must have a "memorandum title" in order to secure license plates. The cost of the memo title is 25c.

Check and see if you have a memo title and, if not, secure one in the clerk of courts office, second floor, court house.

Our Relationship to God

Lesson for January 18, 1948

THE Scripture lesson for Sunday is John 4:5-26 and Romans 8:12-17 and 31-39, with the 103rd Psalm as the devotional reading.

Dr. Newton

The passage in John presents the dramatic story of Jesus meeting with the woman from Sychar at Jacob's well, and of her discovery of the Water of Life.

There is no more convincing evidence anywhere in the Bible of Jesus as the one and only approach to God. He is the Door through which one must pass into the Kingdom, whether bond or free, rich or poor, ignorant or learned, high or low. "I am the truth and the life and the way."

Jesus Teaches About God

IN THIS great story we see Jesus, wearied from the day's arduous tasks, sitting on the curb of Jacob's well, resting. The disciples had gone across the valley to the village to buy food. The woman comes to draw water from the historic well. She did not notice Jesus until he spoke to her. He is never too busy, never too weary, to seek to bring all men to a knowledge of God's love.

He asked for a drink of water. That was his way of making contact with her. She drew back, wondering why a Jew would speak to a woman in public. But Jesus got past the immediate wall which she threw up between herself and him, and soon was teaching her the way of everlasting life, to which she responded with gratitude.

How We Worship God

READ John 4:5-26 and see how Jesus led the woman of Sychar to understand true worship. Strangely enough, she knew a good deal about Jewish rites and ceremonies, but she had never known the basic truth that "God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

Included in the record of how Jesus taught the woman to worship was the necessity of confessing her sin, having five husbands, and living at the moment with still another man. We cannot worship God if there is unconfessed sin in our hearts.

We often miss the joy of true worship because we fail to confess our sins. God looketh upon the heart. If there is sin in our hearts, it must be forgiven.

Our Need of God

"IF YE live after the flesh, ye shall die," Romans 8:13. Here is a solemn truth that many seem to forget — apart from God we are dead. The young person who undertakes to live with eating food will soon discover that his body is wasting away and his mind is broken and dissipated. Just so with the spirit of man. We are spiritual creatures, made in the image of God. If we live by the flesh, we die spiritually.

In the preceding chapters in Romans, Paul has shown how sin worketh death. He sets forth the penalties that result from carnal thinking and behavior. But in the 16th verse he comes on to say:

"It is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are the sons of God, or children of God," Romans 8:16.

Strong in the Lord

OUR age has made much of might — might that expresses itself in speed. We think in terms of atomic power. This lesson would help us to understand that we may be strong in the Lord. All power is with him. "All power hath been given me in heaven and on earth," said Jesus.

And this leads us to the climax of Sunday's lesson, when Paul declares:

"For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:38, 39.

Satan had the woman of Sychar completely in his power until the grace of God lifted her feet upon the Rock of Ages. She could then stand in the midst of the people of Sychar and declare that she had met One who had released her from the bondage of sin. That is what will happen in every heart that comes to God through Jesus Christ.

Colu. Presbyterial To Meet Here Jan. 21

The mid-winter meeting of the Columbus Presbyterial will be held at Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church Jan. 21. Mrs. M. E. Foltz will preside. Registration will begin at 9:30 a. m. and the morning session will begin at 10 o'clock with Mrs. A. J. Weld of the hosters church welcoming the visitors. Rev. F. Gerald Ensley, pastor of North Broadway Methodist Church, will address the Presbyterial in the morning.

The afternoon session will convene at 1 o'clock, following a noon luncheon, and Mrs. Myron E. Terry, missionary to China, will bring a "Missionary Message."

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. H. W. Langhorst, Jo. 16083, on or before Jan. 14.

Overseas Veterans May Select Division

Captain Thomas J. Madigan, Jr., local army and air force recruiting officer, announced this week that authority has been granted to enlist men with prior overseas service for three-year assignment to any of the eight famous divisions now stationed in the United States.

Former service men, with service outside the continental United States since Sept. 2, 1945, may enlist for three, four or five-year terms, and serve a minimum of three years with the unit of their choice.

The eight divisions open for qualified applicants are 2nd Inf. Div., Ft. Lewis, Wash.; 3nd Armored Div., Camp Hood, Tex.; 2nd Engr. Special Brigade, Ft. Worden, Wash.; 3rd Armored Div., Ft. Knox, Ky.; 82nd Airborne Div., Ft. Bragg, N. C.; 4th Inf. Div., Ft. Ord, Calif.; 5th Inf. Div., Ft. Jackson, S. C.; and 9th Inf. Div., Ft. Dix, N. J.

Nurses' Aides Are Badly Needed In Hospitals Here

Following a survey made last spring by Columbus hospital nursing staffs and the Red Cross, it was revealed that 500 Red Cross volunteer nurses' aides are still needed because of the shortage of nurses and overcrowded hospital conditions.

Besides calling in volunteer nurses' aides who were trained and served during the war, a new training class of 36 volunteers was begun at Mt. Carmel Hospital, the first since the end of the war. This class, having completed its classroom instruction, is now in hospital training and will be "capped" on completion of 45 hours of floor duty, late in February.

A new daytime Red Cross nurse's aide class will start Tuesday, Feb. 10, it is announced today by Mrs. George C. McConnaughey, 2382 Club-rd, chairman of the Franklin County Red Cross Nurse's Aide Committee. The class will meet two mornings each week, 9 a. m. to 12 m. The course consists of 35 hours of classroom instruction and 48 hours of hospital training. On completion of the course each volunteer is required to give a minimum 75 hours of volunteer hospital service per year. The training is invaluable to the volunteer and women are needed for daytime training for this community service.

Applicants for Red Cross Volunteer Nurse's Aide Service must be over 18 years of age and have a high school education. Application may be made each Thursday through January, 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., at Red Cross Headquarters, third floor, 74 E. Gay st. Chairman of the service will interview applicants.

Troop 45 Has Annual Winter Camp Period

West High School Troop 45 had its annual winter camp at "Journey's End." This is a cabin located in the hills south of Lancaster. Although attendance was small, the troop has hopes of having more scouts there next time.

A new scout, George Marzlauf, 216 S. Harris-av, was selected honor camper by the troop members. Those included were Dick Turner, Dick Pendell, Charles Ringer, Paul Smith and Bill Hill.

Ed Van Allen, counselor this last summer at Camp Wilson, greatly aided the West teachers who supervised the affair.

Hoge Church School Elects New Officers

Church School officers for 1948 at Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church were elected last Sunday. They are as follows: Superintendent, Herbert Thomas; assistant superintendent, Jack Hostetter; treasurer, Jean Armour; secretary, Paul Hess, and assistant secretaries, C. D. Casselman and Lawrence Proper.

Westmoor Beauty Salon Has New Owner

Arthur L. Mohler has recently taken over the former Westmoor Beauty Salon, 3093 W. Broad-st, and will operate it as Mohler's Westmoor Beauty Salon.

The shop has been completely redecorated in a light cream. It has a new lighting system and complete new equipment. It has individual operating units for shampooing. These are separated by Venetian blinds.

Three experienced operators are on duty. One of them was formerly associated with a noted Philadelphia hair styling salon. Mohler himself has had many years experience in several prominent downtown shops. He formerly operated the Mohler Hair Stylist located in the Beggs Building.

Father - Daughter Banquet To Be Held

The Men's Brotherhood of the Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church will meet in the church dining rooms Friday, Jan. 16, at 6:30 p. m. A feminine touch will be added to the meeting this month with the fathers entertaining their daughters. President Herbert Deems will preside and a full evening's entertainment has been planned.

Dr. Gerald F. Ensley, pastor of the North Broadway Methodist Church, will be the speaker of the evening.

Judge Bell To Address Brotherhood

Judge James F. Bell, Jr., will address the Community Brotherhood of Hillcrest Baptist Church Tuesday, Jan. 20, following a dinner meeting at 6:30 p. m. His subject will be "The Work of Your FBI."

Judge Bell is Common Pleas Judge of Madison County. He was graduated from OSU in 1939, practiced law until 1942 in London and later spent four years with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He returned to law practice in 1946 and was appointed judge to succeed his father, the late Judge James F. Bell.

FIDELIS CLASS TO HAVE POTLUCK JANUARY 23

On Friday night, Jan. 23, Fidelis Class of Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church will hold a potluck supper at the church, at 6:30 o'clock.

Members are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service. Beverage, rolls and dessert will be furnished by the committee, made up of the newly elected officers.

Class officers for 1948 are Wesley Ellerton, president; Dale Park, vice president; Madge Pepper, secretary; Mrs. H. W. Thurman, assistant secretary; K. U. Bischead, treasurer; Rudy Schmelzer, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Harold Mielke, class historian.

Spears Team Is Winner In Opener Of Ind. League

Play in the Glenwood Independent League got under way at Glenwood Shelter House Friday night with several Hilltop teams and local players in action.

VFW got the best of Hilltop Kiwanis by a slim two points as the game ended $7 to 35. Spears Funeral Home downed J & J Grill, 39 to 19; High Buttles bested Hilltop Van & Storage, 29 to 27, and Mellman Corner scored a 31 to 24 win over Standard Oil.

The schedule for this week is as follows:

Hi-Buttles vs. Standard Oil.
Hilltop Van vs. Mellman's Corner.
Hilltop Kiwanis vs. Wile Motors.
Olentangy Post vs. J & J Grill.

Patrolman Collins' Resignation Accepted

Safety Director C. C. Cole last week accepted the resignation of Patrolman William E. Collins, 1054½ Sullivant-av. It was effective on Jan. 5.

Director Cole also issued a four-day suspension against Fireman William J. Kirwin, 287 Wrexham-av. The disciplinary action was taken after Kirwin reported late for duty at No. 17 Engine House four times within the past year.

Winkler Is Renamed To Head FB Council

John Wrinkler, 2411 Lane-rd, formerly of 52 Eldon-av, has been re-elected to an eighth term as president of the Farm Bureau Employes Council. The council is composed of 2500 employes of the Farm Bureau's home office, 246 N. High-st.

Wrinkler is an attorney in the automotibile insurance department.

"I'll have to have a raise, sir," said the bookkeeper. "There are three companies after me."

"What three?" demanded his boss.

"Light, telephone and water," was the reply.

Representing The Younger Set

Michele Lee Conrad (left) will celebrate her first birthday Feb. 26 together with her twin brother, Michel Paul. To their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conrad, 666 Butler-av, they are Mike and Mickey. Their father is a salesman at the Union Company. Their mother is the former Shirley Ries.

Mary Jane Harper (right), age 2, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Harper, 1891 Fairmont-av. She has two older brothers, Larry, 10, and James, 8. Mr. Harper is a barber employed at the Reynolds Barber Shop, 2169 Sullivant-av.

Physical Handicap Doesn't Prevent Rome Man From Entering Business

A large assortment of greeting cards and gifts is available to residents of New Rome and vicinity at Earl Lee's Card and Gift Shop in Columbia Heights Township. The shop is located at 164 Lawrence-av, just a few blocks north of the New Rome corporation line.

Earl, who is 36, has built his card and gift business despite a serious physical handicap. He has been confined to a wheelchair all his life. About nine years ago he decided to go into business for himself to "pay my own way," as he puts it. He chose selling greeting cards as his business. His handicap permits him only a limited use of his hands so his mother assists him in making sales. The business was conducted in the family living room until about 10 months ago, when Earl took over a separate room for the shop and had a special entrance constructed.

Earl's biggest enjoyment is listening to the radio. It has served as an important means of his getting an education as well as being a primary entertainment medium. Although he is unable to read because of his handicap, he has a remarkable knowledge of current events which he obtained through listening to the radio.

In addition to greeting cards and small gifts, Earl sells candy and bubble gum to the many neighborhood children who stop by after school.

For a fine assortment of cards and gifts, residents living west of the Hilltop would do well to drop by Earl's Card and Gift Shop to make their selection.

School News

John Burroughs

Three of our teachers spent the holidays in Florida—Misses Grace Smith, Grace Anderson and Nellie Andrix. They visited many points of interest and brought home many interesting souvenirs to show their classes.

Miss Jessie Fern Gloyd, sixth grade teacher, was married to Mr. Everett Ferguson, Dec. 31, 1947, at the Hope Lutheran Church by Rev. Werner Stuck.

Many boys and girls had out of the city vacations during the holidays but we heard that Evelyn Brofford went to Florida, and Garry Dowler to Chicago.

Two 5A boys have their own art exhibit in Miss Smith's room 212. Lloyd Williams and Laurence Thompson are the artists. Forty of their drawings are on display. Some are cartoons and other selections from children's stories and funny books. Before Christmas every child in room 212 displayed his art also.

Two of our boys were injured in accidents this past week. Arthur Bass, 510 S. Harris-av, a five-year-old kindergartener, was hit by a truck at Burgess and Sullivant-avs as he stepped from the curb to sight a bus. He was taken to the Children's Hospital in the emergency squad car. He is in fair condition. Loren Galloway received a hip injury on the playground and was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital in the emergency squad car also. He is now at home and will return to school in about two weeks.

Two new pupils entered 7th grade this past week, Garry Dowler from Jeffersonville High School and Betty Matheny from Roosevelt Junior High School.

Miss Butler, school nurse, will be busy with registration of beginners on Tuesdays from 2 to 3:15 p. m.

Edgar Stump is our new janitor, Glendon Wiggins resigned.

The City Recreation Department is using the auditorium every evening from 7 to 10 except when it is being used for Cub Pack or PTA meetings.

Little Theatre On Air Sunday

Columbus Little Theatre of the Air will present "What's Your Name, Dear?" on WCOL FM, Sunday at 8 p. m. Included in the cast will be Betty Moon from the Glenwood Players Guild. The show is directed by Pat Aspel, Hilltopper, with Florence Jones as producer.

Shortly after Arizona became a state a certain bank president there made away with all the money entrusted to his care, leaving on the door of his institution the notice: "Bank Suspended."

That night, according to the story, there was a hasty meeting of "busted" depositors, followed by the fading sound of many hoofbeats.

The following morning, about sunrise, a bowlegged cowboy ambled up to the bank, took out his pencil and added one word to the notice. Amended, it read: "Bank President Suspended."

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

What has been happening around the Canteen? Well, these are the latest accounts of the goings on.

There will be an open election of officers for the Canteen Monday night. Those to be voted on for president are Guy Celli, Bob Oldfield and Bob J. Smith. The one with second highest vote will be made vice-president. For secretary are Janie Prior, Marilyn Bonnet and Virginia Jones.

There is a rumor around that there is going to be a fine dance, with band and all. It will take place late this month. Sounds pretty good, for all these kids who have been wanting something extra special.

The usual crowd is still backing up the Canteen, but we have some helpful girls who bring their boyfriends. I wonder who they are.

The library room at the Canteen is getting much use lately. I found a checkers game in full swing the other day. There seemed to be a little cheating, which made the game very interesting. Marilyn Bonnet, with the help of five other people, beat Bob Smith. They always did say girls are better at that kind of a game.

Pat LaValle claims she never does take a good picture, but has anyone seen her graduation pictures? They really are mella, and it's not just because Mel took them.

Friday night I found Mary Kline and Eddie Adams dancing together, and they do pretty good too.

Ask Norm Spellman to whom he is always writing letters. He says they are private, but they don't look very interesting.

What is this trouble we hear Marilyn Bonnet talking about? Well, I agree with her mother—she'll learn some day (Marilyn, that is).

The members of the board are asked to turn in the membership cards, for which they have been collecting dues, to Mel Griggs as soon as possible.

What did Charlie Maus have to pay 5c for the other day? Now aren't you ashamed, Charlie?

Well, kids, I'll know more about that fine dance by next week. I know you are all interested, so keep watching.

The girls have the new pleasure of having a powder room which really is classy. It will be appreciated by all the girls, and the thanks go to the boys who worked so hard for us.

Hope to see you around soon. Where? At the Canteen, of course.

Five Generations

From left to right are Mrs. Katherine Livingston, 389 S. Harris-av, 87; Mrs. Grover C. Amrine, 180 Binns-blvd, Mrs. Robert A. Shipley, 34 Hawks-av, Jack and son, Bobby Shipley, 973 W. Broad-st.

Mrs. Shipley was hostess at the dinner.

McMILLEN INSTALLED AS TROOP COMMITTEE CH'RMAN

Neil McMillen, 202 Demorest-rd, was installed as chairman of the Boy Scout Committee for Troop 212 of Hilltop Lutheran Church at Sunday morning's service in the church.

Other officers who were inducted by Rev. Russell J. Olson are William Hallsteinc, vice-chairman; William Conrad, secretary, and John Ricker, treasurer.

Injured By Auto

Mrs. Ruby Pierson, 2256 Homewood-av, was knocked down when she walked into the side of an auto at Whitethorne and Sullivant-avs Saturday afternoon.

Taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital by the emergency squad, she was found to have suffered injuries to both legs. The auto was driven by Thomas Wightman, 598 Buttles-av.

The Briggsdale Mothers' Club will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Homer Grant, 3196 Big Run-rd. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Joanne Lewie and Mrs. Louise Cox. A Stanley party will be held at 11 a. m. with Mrs. Sam Martin as demonstrator. The business meeting will follow a noon luncheon.

Pupils of the Johnny Murphy studio furnished the program Tuesday evening at the Briggsdale PTA meeting.

Mrs. Jean Suver, 785 S. High-st, and Mrs. Patty Flemming, 2290 Big Run-rd, will entertain in honor of Miss Ruth Temple, whose marriage will be an event of Feb. 4. The miscellaneous shower will be held tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Flemming. Miss Temple and Thomas Davis of Florida will be married in the Glenwood Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Temple, 1789 Harrisburg-pk, are the parents of the bride-to-be and Mr. Davis is the son of Mrs. Grace E. Davis of De Land, Fla.

Mrs. Julia House Keek, Gantz-rd, a teacher at Wilson, is ill at her home. Her mother, Mrs. Eliza House, 1819 Harrisburg-pk, is in a serious condition at home.

Nanette Gibson, Briggsdale, spent last Saturday with Mary Lee Downing, 2050 Eakin-rd.

Genevieve Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, 997 Harrisburg-pk, is confined to her home with chickenpox.

Mrs. A. E. Anderson, 1046 Harrisburg-pk, would like to find good homes for three kittens, about three months old. Anyone interested may call in the evening at the Anderson home.

Mrs. George Goodrich, Mrs. Walter Spanable, Mrs. Walter Poenisch, Mrs. Paul Wichterman and Mrs. Oscar Seeger were Wilson representatives at the Columbus and Franklin County Council of PTA held Thursday afternoon at Central High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dyer, 1671 Dyer-rd, were attendants Monday evening at the wedding of Mrs. Dyer's sister, Mary Louetta Cooley, and Robert McKenzie. Members of the immediate families were guests at the ceremony, which took place at 7:30 in the Glenwood Church parsonage, with Rev. J. B. Shellhaas officiating. Miss Cooley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cooley, 608 S. Richardson-av, and Mr. McKenzie's home is in Pomeroy, Ohio.

Mrs. Charles Martin, 1865 Harrisburg-pk, Mrs. Lloyd Cox, Alkire-rd, Mrs. George Adams, 1870 Harrisburg-pk, and Mrs. Lillian McNabb, 2510 Home-rd, were guests at the Camera Club luncheon in Grove City last Wednesday. Mrs. Cox is the new treasurer of the club and was installed along with other newly elected officers at Wednesday's meeting.

Need Representation On Planning Commission

The Hilltop is most grateful to Mayor Jim Rhodes for his appointments of Hilltop persons on various city boards. Most recent appointment of Dr. Lovell Rohr assures us continued representation on the city board of health.

Some time back the mayor discussed a proposal to have a Hilltopper on the city and county planning commission. In view of rapid growth in this community we urgently request the mayor to give this matter his renewed consideration.

McDonald Purchases Sapp Confectionery

Change of ownership of the Sapp Confectionery, 2432 Sullivant-av, was announced this week by Harley Sapp, owner of the business for the past two years. New owner is Cornelius McDonald, former Hilltopper, now of Marietta. The transaction included real estate, business and fixtures.

McDonald will assume active management of the firm about Feb. 1 and will move his family back to the Hilltop. He formerly lived at 2999 Fremont-st, while he was employed as manager of local A. & P. stores. He had been with that firm since 1939.

Sapp will open the new Harley Sapp Drive-In Tray Service, a modern restaurant, at 3689 W. Broad-st, about Feb. 16. The building is now being completed by Krause and Pagura, general contractors, and is being built so it may be enlarged when building conditions are improved. Plenty of parking space will be available. The building will be an attractive one of modern design. Details of the opening will be carried in later issues of the Record.

Mrs. Balzer To Serve In License Office Here

Mrs. Louise Balzer, 212 N. Terrace-av, will serve as chief clerk in the permanent license headquarters to be set up in Robinson Electric Store, W. Broad-st and Wayne-av, March 1.

The new office will handle all types of auto and truck license plates, drivers' and chauffeurs' driving permits and temporary driving permits on a year-round basis. Russell Henry, manager of the store, will serve as a deputy registrar. All proceeds from the sale of licenses will go into the treasury of the Hilltop Kiwanis Club for use in its community betterment program.

Boosters Have Done Much For School Athletic Program

Irvin F. Young

Some of the things the West High Boosters Club has done for West High School during the past couple of years were outlined this week by Irvin F. Young, principal of the school. The club will stage another Hilltop-wide paper drive Feb. 8, proceeds to be used to further develop the athletic program at West.

The following statement by Mr Young is self explanatory:

"I want to encourage the residents of the Hilltop to cooperate with the West High Boosters Club in its scrap drive Feb. 8.

"Our Booster Club has been most cooperative with us at West High. The members have always worked with us and have not tried in any way to formulate athletic policy.

"In the constitution we find:

ARTICLE 2—PURPOSE

1. To promote and advance the interests of athletic activities at West High School.
2. To assist and cooperate at all times with the West High School authorities to accomplish the aims outlined in the above Section 1 of Article 2.

Proud of Boosters

"That is as it should be and we are proud of the fine work the Booster Club has helped in at West High School. Many times I have been asked, 'What does the West High Booster Club do?' May I list some of the important things the club has helped to promote, financially and otherwise:

1. Presented West High with the finest football scoreboard available—cost $1300.
2. Took movies of most of the games in 1946 season to be used by coaches and team.
3. Paid for insurance of players for 1947 season.
4. Took movies of two important games in 1947 season.
5. Bought lighting effects for the band in 1947.
6. Provide a fine banquet for basketball squad each year.
7. Assisted in Hilltop Record subscription campaign — proceeds going into the regular fund.
8. Booster members assisted with supervision at games, encouraging good sportsmanship, etc.

"What about the immediate future? Our Booster Club is inter-

Save That Telephone Directory For The Booster Paper Drive

The issuing of new telephone directories this week without picking up the old books gives almost every Hilltop family an opportunity to "add weight" to the coming Booster paper drive. The books are heavy and soon add up to a lot of weight when accumulated.

It is pointed out by Booster officers that thousands of extra pounds of paper could be added to the drive in this way.

Hilltop YMCA Plans Drive To Finance Operation

Plans for launching a finance campaign for the Hilltop Branch YMCA are expected to be made public in a few days, it was learned from members of the Hilltop YMCA Board this week. Membership fees for the maintance of the organization as well as contributions to the building program will be solicited at that time it was said.

The recently elected YMCA board has already decided to finance its own local program rather than seeking support of the Community Chest. Board members felt that adequate support could be had to carry the community program planned.

Membership of the local board was completed last week with the selection of Carl Turner, 3039 Crescent-dr. A practicing attorney, he fills the vacancy created by the death of Dr. C. O. Cramer last month.

In a meeting held at the C. Carlton Hartley residence, 1370 Wilson-rd, last Thursday, the various types of membership were decided upon. A purpose membership will be available to children and teen-agers (10 to 19 years) for $1.00 per year. Membership carrying voting privileges will be sold to all persons over 16 years of age at $5.00 per year. All contributions in excess of $5.00 will go into the building program.

Volunteers Needed

Volunteer solicitors are invited to help put over the campaign. Persons desiring to help are invited to contact any of the board members. The finance committee of the executive board is made up of Jerry Spears, sr., chairman, H. G. Deems, Ira Claggett, Mose Williams, Ralph Jacobs and C. C. Hartley.

Other board members include Turner, Irvin F. Young, Dr. R. J. Miller, Charles P. Maus, Leo Uridil and Rev. A. J. Wold. Three-year terms on the board were awarded to Hartley, chairman of the group, Spears, Maus and Deems. Two-year terms went to Wold, Williams, Claggett and Miller, while Jacobs, Uridil, Young and Turner were selected for one-year tenures.

Hartley said this week that the board hopes to be in a position to interview applicants for the position of executive secretary within a short time.

Also present at the meeting last week were Harry Spyker, general secretary of the Central YMCA, and M. W. Seiller and W. E. Ferguson, members of the central board.

Invitational Dance To Be Held At Canteen

Ziggy Coyle and his orchestra will play for the second invitational dance to be held at the Teen Canteen Jan. 31.

Invitations are being extended to the present membership and the young people who were members at the time of the inception of the Canteen a year and a half ago. Admittance to the dance will be by invitation only. There will be no charge for the affair.

Fox Drive Planned By Conservationists

The Hilltop Conservation Club will sponsor a fox drive Feb. 21, it was announced this week. The drive will be held west of Koebel-rd between Broad-st and Georgesville.

Hunting licenses will not be required by those taking part. Clubs or shotguns may be used. Walter Phillips is chairman of the drive.

Game protectors from Franklin and Madison Counties will be present.

Nominations for officers of the Hilltop Conservation Club will be voted on at the February meeting of the group.

Slated for offices are J. P. Ellinger and D. W. Stephenson, president; Walter Phillips and Gilbert Miller, first vice-president; D. E. Jackson and Lou Maish, second vice-president; Robert McClain and Robert Postle, treasurer; Hershel Bishop and E. J. Colbeck, Sr., secretary. Two trustees will be elected from three candidates nominated. They are W. E. Saint, Henry Martin and Ted Webb.

Shellhaas To Preach Baccalaureate Sermon

Rev. J. Shellhaas

Sunday evening, Jan. 25, the baccalaureate service for the mid-winter graduating class of West High School will be held at Glenwood Methodist Church. Rev. Joseph B. Shellhaas, pastor of the church, will give the address. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Charles W. Walton, will render special music, with Mrs. Clyde D. Moore, organist. Various members of the class will take part in the service.

Hurt In Fall

Phillip Kabler, 71, of 28 Wisconsin-av, was injured early Sunday when he fell on a stairway at his home. Emergency firemen took him to Mt. Carmel Hospital where his condition was reported as "fair" early this week. He suffered injuries to his back, head and knees.

Brown Is Honored By Eagles

The first in a series of meritorious service plaques was awarded Jan. 11 to Elden Brown, 1273 Broadview-av, by members of Aguila Aerie of the Eagles. Other awards will recognize similar community service accomplishments from time to time.

The plan, just inaugurated by the local chapter, will operate as follows:

Each member will have the right to submit the name of a merchant, or resident of the Hilltop, together with the history of the services performed, such as charity, youth guidance, civic activity, etc.

The committee, composed of Dr. Guy S. Hulett, chairman, 2413 W. Broad-st, Joseph Benedetto, 83 S. Brinker-av, and Charles Meyers, 519 S. Hague-av, after careful consideration, will select the one rating the most merit. The one selected will be notified to present himself at a regular meeting of Aguila Aerie, 2358 W. Broad-st, where the presentation will be made in the presence of the entire membership.

Anyone residing on the Hilltop may send in the name of any Hilltop merchant, or resident, who he thinks may be entitled to this honor. The name will be considered by the committee.

Address all communications to Clyde Ogdin, secretary, Aguila Aerie, F. O. E., 2358 W. Broad-st.

Park Site Still No. 1 Choice Of City Officials

A site in Westgate Park on the Wicklow-rd side, near Westgate-av, is still considered the No. 1 choice of city officials for the location of the Hilltop's second fire house, it was learned this week.

City Attorney Richard Gordon said that he is at present preparing a resolution to submit to council to renew efforts to obtain sites for six of the city's seven proposed additional fire houses.

Following unsuccessful attempts to purchase a site on Sullivant-av and Roys-av (southeast corner) last year, fire department officials were then instructed by council to prepare three alternate possible sites. The other location being considered is the east side of Westmoor-av at Wicklow.

Gordon said that the owner of the Sullivant-av site asked more than three times the appraised evaluation of the property and that city council had turned down all offers where the asking price was out of line. Only one of the seven purchases was completed.

So after more than a year of negotiating, the park site (first proposed by the late Chief Ed Welch) is still getting serious consideration from the standpoint of economy in the fire house expansion program. A 1945 bond levy provided $500,000 for the purchase of sites and construction of the seven new houses.

Property owners in the vicinity of the park had protested when the park site proposal was first made public.

Robert Konkler Will Speak Before Legion, Auxiliary Groups

Robert Konkler, a former Hilltopper, now serving as American Legion service officer at Dayton and Chillicothe hospitals, will be the guest speaker at a joint legislative meeting to be held at Camp Chase Headquarters, Burgess-av and Broad-st, Friday evening. Mrs. Harriette Brown, auxiliary chairman, will be in charge of the meeting of post and auxiliary members.

The meeting will start with a pot-luck dinner at 6:30 p. m. Legion members and their wives are invited to attend.

Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, 220 N. Oakley-av, chairman of the ways and means committee, announces another bake sale to be held at Seiller's Department Store, 2404 W. Broad-st, Saturday, Jan. 26. Members and friends of the post and auxiliary are invited to assist by donations and patronage.

The post degree team, made up of veterans of World War II, will initiate new members into the Bexley Post Monday evening. The induction takes place at Hoffman's Garden, 3015 E. Main-st.

3 Churches To Protest D-5 Permit

Three Hilltop churches will file formal protests to the issuing of a D-5 night club permit to a Broad Street restaurant owner.

The Hilltop Record learned this week that action would be taken by Hege Memorial Presbyterian, Hillcrest Baptist and the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Churches to try to block an application for the liquor permit filed by James Phillips, owner of two local restaurants. The pastors of the churches stated that action was being taken after formal notice from the liquor department had been served that Phillips sought the granting of the permit to be used for operation within 500 feet of the church sanctuaries.

A check with the Department of Liquor Control revealed that the restaurant operator had filed an application for the permit on Sept. 3, 1947. Phillips operates the Biltmore Restaurant at 2414 W. Broad-st and the Broad-Hague Restaurant at 2762 W. Broad-st.

Rev. A. J. Wold, pastor of the Hoge Memorial Church, told the Record Tuesday that he was filing a formal protest in the name of his church following a visit by a liquor department investigator that day. Rev. J. Herbert Goewey, pastor of the Hillcrest Baptist Church, said that he would likewise protest the granting of such a permit.

Rev. Russell J. Olson, pastor of the Hilltop Evangelical Lutheran Church, was out of town and could not be reached for a statement. Mrs. Olson, however, explained that the pastor had known of the move before leaving the city and she was satisfied that

Matson To File For Commissioner

What has all the earmarks of a first class political fight is developing in Franklin County Republican ranks as the Feb. 4 filing deadline nears.

Joseph C. Nailor, 109 N. Burgess-av, said this week that he will be a candidate for re-election to the Ohio General Assembly in the May primary election in spite of orders from the Republican County Central Committee not to run.

Nailor told The Hilltop Record that his petitions are in circulation and would be filed shortly before the Feb. 4 deadline. He has served in the legislature for 12 years and was previously in city council for a like period of time. In the 1946 primary election he ran third on the Republican ticket and was fourth in a field of six successful GOP candidates in the general election.

The local attorney made it clear that he was not fighting with the Republican county organization but felt no obligation to that group when he was asked not to file as a candidate. Presumably the GOP party strategists will back a younger man for the legislative post.

Kline L. Roberts, 32, an attorney, now serving as parliamentarian in the legislature, admitted that he would be a candidate on the Republican ticket and that he had asked for endorsement of the Republican central committee. That endorsement had not been promised, according to Roberts, early this week.

Matson Seeks Re-election

Hilltopper George Matson, 87 N. Warren-av, began circulating petitions on Monday to have his name placed on the May primary ballot. He and his running mate, C. P. (Chuck) Lauderbaugh, another Republican incumbent, will each be seeking their third term in the office of county commissioner.

Another Hilltop Republican office seeker is Emile Reiss, local attorney, who will be a candidate for Franklin County sheriff. Reiss declared his intention to be a candidate for that office as early as May 29, 1947. He was one of several who unsuccessfully sought appointment to the vacancy created by the death of the late Jacob Sandusky.

Democratic office seekers were conspicuous by their absence this week. At least a number of prom-

Talent Hunt For 19th Minstrel Is Under Way

Attention, all amateur talent on the Hilltop.

The annual Hilltop Minstrel talent hunt is again under way. If you warble, dance, play a squeeze box or pull rabbits out of hats, use the coupon appearing at the bottom of this page and put in your bid for a spot in this year's Hilltop Business Association show scheduled to be put on at West High School Auditorium March 31 and April 1 and 2. Address all entries to C. C. Hartley, 2465 W. Broad-st. You will be notified when an appointment for a tryout can be arranged.

A deviation in ticket sale policy will go into effect this year. All seats will be reserved for all three nights, thus for the first time eliminating the general admission section. Tickets will sell for 85c, including the cost of reservation.

Watch The Hilltop Record for information as to the exact time and place of the ticket sale. Tickets will be available about 15 days prior to the show.

Tenor, bass and baritone voices are needed by the Hilltop Male Chorus for regular concert work and to fill out a complete chorus to be used in the 19th annual Hilltop Minstrel. Any man interested in joining this singing group either for the minstrel show or on a regular basis is invited to report to a rehearsal to be held at Glenwood Methodist Church Monday at 8 p. m.

Pictured are the new Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Wagner, whose marriage took place in the sanctuary of St. Aloysius Church Jan. 3. The bride, formerly Miss Joan Karl, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Karl, 503 S. Oakley-av. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Nick Gatterdam, 684 S. Eureka-av.

Poinsettas with greenery formed the background for the candlelight wedding ceremony of Miss Joan Karl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Karl of 503 S. Oakley-av, to Mr. Carl J. Wagner, son of Mrs. Nick Gatterdam, 684 S. Eureka-av, which took place at 9 a. m., January 3, in the sanctuary of St. Aloysius Church. Rev. Father Schorr officiated at the ceremony attended by Monsignor Burkley.

Mrs. Phyllis Elder, friend of the bride, presented a program of vocal selections preceding the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of heavy white satin with a sheer yoke edged in a deep fold of satin and lace. The tight-fitting bodice had long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The full skirt was fashioned with a bustle, falling over a crinoline hoop in a circular train. Her full-length veil of illusion edged in Chantilly lace was held in place by a lace tiara, and she carried a bouquet of white net clustered with stephanitis and white roses centered around a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Dorrian, who acted as maid of honor, wore turquoise taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice, full draped skirt and matching mitts. Her French bouquet contained celebrity roses edged in dusty rose satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Josephine Eramo, Miss Helen Wagner, Miss Dora Nini and Miss Wanda Wagner, sister of the bridegroom. All wore dusty rose taffeta gowns styled along the same lines as that worn by the maid of honor. Their bouquets were of shattered pink carnations edged in turquoise satin ribbon. They wore taffeta headpieces with matching plumes, and necklaces, gifts of the bride.

Mrs. Karl, the bride's mother, wore a dress of winter green crepe, a matching hat and black accessories. Mrs. Gatterdam chose a frock of beige crepe with matching hat and brown accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

Cpl. George Karl, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers included Herman Karl, Richard Trappe, William McCarrick, Fred Elder and Jack Belli.

Immediately following a reception at the K of C ballroom the bride changed to a winter green wool crepe suit and beige gabardine hooded coat with brown accessories, pinning the white orchid from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

The newlyweds are spending a month motoring through the south, visiting Miami, Fla., and New Orleans. They will reside in their new home at 3280 Wicklow-rd, upon their return.

The bride is a graduate of Holy Family High School and was associated formerly with Traveler's Insurance Company. Mr. Wagner is a graduate of Aquinas College and is employed with the August Wagner Breweries, Inc.

Teen Talk

By Virginia Jones

Hi, kids, here we are back again to bring you all the latest news and doings around the Canteen.

The big thing in talk right now is that mella dance that is going to be at the Canteen Jan. 31. It's going to be semi-formal, and just think, we'll also have a fine band to play for us. If you're, wondering about the admission, it's going to be by invitation only, but I'll let you know more about that next week.

Did you know there is going to be a pool contest soon with a prize of $5.00. All you boys had better be practicing to win. If you are interested in the contest, see Mr. Griggs for information.

There is also going to be a ping-pong contest soon. That's why we find so many kids practicing—it's really going to be a battle.

Guess who showed up at the Canteen Wednesday night! Maybe you know; it was Chuck Watts and Ed Sparks.

There is still going to be an Art Club as soon as enough kids sign in with Mel. The Club will be headed by Ned Moore.

We're wondering whom Bruce Langton comes to the Canteen to see. I'm sure it's no boy. Is it, Bruce?

I found a lot of boys in the photography room the other night and in the middle of the crowd was Lois Williams. She's really the life of the place.

Lyle Hoffman seems to be mighty interested in cameras lately. I wonder whose picture he intends to take.

Nancy Merrick wants to see her name in print, so I thought I would do her the honor. Here it is. Nancy. NANCY MERRICK.

Pat La Valle hasn't been around lately. Could there be a good reason?

Martha John and Bill Arledge seemed to enjoy themselves. We found them dancing Wednesday night and they had the ballroom all to themselves.

Larry Oliver, Dick Palmer, and Pinky Thompson gave the public a break the other night by showing up at the Canteen.

Well, kids, for more about the dance look for this column next week.

Yes! They're Twins

No, this is not two poses of the same baby. It's Mike and Mickey, twins of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conrad of 666 Butler-av. (Mickey is the one on the left.)

Last week the Record editor ran Mike's picture over Mickey's name so you can see it's all a bit confusing. Their real names are Michel Paul and Michele Lee and there will be a big birthday celebration when they become one year of age on Feb. 28.

"Cap" Amarine Will Be Octogenarian Tomorrow; Retired From RR In '36

L. A. (Cap) Amarine, 52 Eldon-av, will be 80 years "young" tomorrow.

The octogenarian, employed in the men's clothing department of Seiller's Department Store, 2404 W. Broad-st, plans to celebrate the occasion by working as usual.

"Why should I do anything else?" he asked when questioned on his plans.

"I work by the hour here. I come and go as I please. Everyone here is wonderful to me," he said.

Despite his years, "Cap," as he is known to his hundreds of Hilltop friends, stands and walks erect and could easily pass for a man of considerably fewer years. The nickname goes back to his former position as captain of the Pennsylvania Railroad Police. He retired from that job in 1936 after 37 years with the concern. ("Cap" doesn't believe in changing jobs often.)

He came to Seiller's soon after his retirement "just so I could have something to do."

"Cap" almost lost both legs in a head-on train collision at Hartford City, Ind., back in his early railroad days. When a freight and a passenger train collided, he was one of 34 injured. The accident kept him in a hospital for three months.

Captain In 1903

Starting with the Chicago and Logansport, Ind., division in 1899, he was transferred to the Columbus in 1904. He became a captain one year prior to that time.

The ex-railroader was born and raised at Marysville. He was married to Miriam M. Rhoades of Delaware. Mrs. Amarine passed away six years ago. He has two daughters, Eulala, the wife of Col. S. J. Randall, a retired army officer, now living on a farm near Delaware; and Helen, the wife of W. B. Bartells, residents of the Beechwold area. (Col. Randall is of the Hilltop.)

The Amarine family came to the Hilltop in 1912.

Sacred Lilies Are Now In Bloom At R. E. Alspach Home

R. E. Alspach, 53 S. Eureka-av, is watching with much interest the development of his two Sacred Lilies of India, now both in bloom.

The larger of the two plants (now over seven feet in height) has bloomed for about 14 years. The smaller one (about five feet high) is blooming for the second time.

The plants have been growing from eight to 10 inches per day since they were started from the bulbs a couple of weeks ago. The larger plant will begin to wilt by about the end of the week.

Local Persons Involved In Auto Accidents Here

Traffic mishaps involved several Hilltoppers during the past week, but in at least two of the cases local people escaped injury.

Harry H. Bausch, 60, of 503 Hilltonia-av, received nose injuries Monday when the trolley bus on which he was a passenger was involved in a wreck with a street car and an auto.

Ralph Byers, 33 Eldon-av, was involved in a three-car crash at Skidmore and West Broad-st on Monday but escaped uninjured. Elias Quinn, chief of police at Fairfield, Ohio, received back injuries in the crash.

In a two-car crash at W. Broad-st and Yale-av the same day, Orville Milton, 220 Schultz-av, driver of one of the autos escaped injury.

C. A. Wiseman Shows Improvement After Leg Amputation

C. A. Wiseman, 83 Powhatan-av, is reported to be recovering satisfactorily in St. Francis Hospital following the amputation of his right leg last week. The operation was performed 10 days ago following an auto accident in which he received double fractures of that leg and knee and a compound fracture of the left leg.

At present the left leg is in a cast up to the hip.

He was pinned between the bumpers of two cars when a car skidded on the icy pavement following a minor auto accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Confined To Home

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jacques, 74 S. Terrace-av, are both confined to their home by illness this week. Mrs. Jacques is showing some improvement from an attack of coronary thrombosis suffered almost two weeks ago. She is still under the constant care of a nurse.

Mr. Jacques collapsed at his home last Saturday following a siege of flu that dates back several weeks. He was able to be up and around the house this week. He is engaged in the real estate business.

Scouts And Scouters To Meet Monday

A "one-for-one" party will be held by scouts and scouters of the Southwest District at the Glenwood Methodist Church Monday night, starting at 7:30 o'clock. The party is held to honor boys who have recruited another scout during recent months.

Both the recruiter and the new scout will be guests of the scout officials.

A district scouters' meeting will be held during the evening.

FEATURED ON RADIO

Howard C. Moon, 203 S. Westmoor-av, a member of the Glenwood Players, will be featured in a Columbus Little Theater of the Air production over WCOL-FM Sunday night at 8 o'clock. The play is entitled "Uncle Fred Flits By."

Mrs. William Feeman Active In Germany With Youth Groups

Included among photographs in a recent copy of "Stars and Stripes," was a picture of Mrs. William E. Feeman, daughter of Mrs. Ira Seely, 23 Wisconsin-av, who is seen extending a cup of hot cocoa to a shy German girl in Russelsheim, Germany.

Mrs. Feeman and her four children left with Mrs. Seely for Russelsheim, Oct. 30, where they joined the former's husband, a lieutenant colonel at Russelsheim.

Mrs. Seely, owner of Seely's Hardware, 1185 W. Broad-st, has since been touring Europe through Switzerland, Germany and France. Her daughter and family, Billy, 4, twins Bobby and Buddy, 3, and Jackie, 1, live in Russelsheim, where Mrs. Feeman is active in a German Youth Association group. The GYA organization has given two parties for more than 700 German children.

3 Churches

he too would protest the issuing of a night club permit in the neighborhood.

"I am sure that Pastor Olson will object," she said.

A state law regulates the granting of a liquor permit within a 500-foot radius of churches or schools. All three churches fall within that radius.

The subject was discussed by local pastors at the Monday morning meeting of the Hilltop Ministerial Association and the circulation of petitions was considered. However, Rev. Wold said that following his conversation with the state liquor official Tuesday, the petitions would be held up.

Several West Broad Street property owners in the victnity of the proposed liquor site also voiced opposition to such a move, it was learned.

Charlie Weber Started As Milk Man To Earn Extra Money 27 Years Ago

Twenty-six years ago a light-hearted trumpet player named Charlie Weber found he could use some extra "shekels" and earned them by accepting a midnight milk run on a horse-drawn carriage.

Clumpety-clumping through the streets until four in the morning held a strange fascination for the young man, and when he was later assigned a route on the West Side he decided to make it his life work.

Today, the trumpet player-milkman nears the beginning of his 27th year at delivering milk to a sleepy-eyed population, and he hasn't had an accident with his truck or wagon in the more than a quarter century he's been at it.

That is indeed an enviable record, and Moore's and Ross, the company for which he has worked continuously, has rewarded his careful ability with numerous gold pins and certificates as small tokens from the company for each year of safe and efficient delivery.

Charlie, who lives at 370 S. Burgess-av, has been plagued with burglars, discouraged persons and the Broad Street bridge during his adventures on the milk route.

On one occasion, a burglar jumped out of a window just as Weber rounded the corner. Two staccato shots rang out and the burglar fled, as did Weber with his horse-drawn carriage.

Stopped a Suicide

A few weeks ago, Charlie stopped a discouraged man from jumping from the Broad Street bridge and on one occasion he carried a desperate customer into her home and waited for a doctor after she slipped on her icy porch when she came to get the milk.

Dogs with bad tempers have not been a particular menace to Weber, but he does know where they are located and maps out the dangerous spots for his substitute.

His "day" has changed hours as completely as his truck has changed style. Twenty-six years ago he began working at midnight. He now starts at 7 a. m. When he first began, his wagon was one in which there was no heat but a lantern, and the driver was unprotected from snow and rain. The clean, modern trucks have heaters, are as closed as a private room in a hotel, and are loaded with iced milk when the milkman reports for work.

The extra service which Charlie has often given to customers who preferred their milk hidden behind doors, or put into their refrigerator or "even buried in the ground," have not gone unnoticed. Each Christmas time he is remembered with ties, handkerchiefs, socks and other gifts to show that his customers appreciate his service.

You'll find the best buys in the Record ads every week.

18 Seniors Merit Honor Roll; Mann Has Perfect Record

By Westkamp

Eighteen seniors at West High School bid a triumphant farewell to their high school career by making the final honor roll.

Kathryn Mann has made good use of her opportunities by making all A's in her major subjects during high school days. Two B's in her electives were the only black marks (if you could call them black) against her excellent record during her high school years.

Donna Holmes and Harriet Worthington also have made fine records with only 7 and 4 B's respectively against them; otherwise making perfect scores.

Eighteen pupils established A and B records in the final grading period. Stars indicate all A's.

The list includes Norris Boothe, Alice Mercer, Maryann Mitchell, Pat Perry, Zoe Skipper, Mary Willer Joan Williams, Rosemary McDowell, Bill Brawn, Nancy Gill, Louise Weaver, Beverly Cramer, JoAnn Griffiths, Joann Hartung, Frances McDaniel, Kathryn, Mann*, Donna Holmes*, Harriet Worthington*.

Beautification Program Is Still Progressing Here

By Ruth Platt

West High School has entered the third year of its beautification program. In September 1945, Irvin F. Young became principal of the Senior and Junior High Schools and immediately inaugurated a plan for making West High the "School Beautiful."

The program was officially opened on September 28, 1945, when a group of botany students planted 300 chrysanthemums, donated by the Rosebud Floral Company, around Mugly Field and the building proper.

On November 20 of that first year, a paper drive was sponsored to raise funds for the purchasing of two memorial trees to be placed at the main entrance to the building. These trees were formally dedicated to George Collins, a former coach who died in the service, and the 2800 students and 21 teachers who served in the armed forces during World War II.

In 1946, the beautification program was continued with the planting of 1000 more chrysanthemums, narcissus, crocuses and tulips.

Bicycle racks were erected, too, to help the appearance of the school grounds.

A beautification program is, of necessity, a long range program and plans for the future beautification of West High are not being neglected, Principal Young said.

Shrubbery will be placed along the fences of the athletic field, more flowers will be planted at intervals and trees will be set out.

Yes, West High will be the "School Beautiful."

Appointments Are Being Taken For Baby Pictures

Mothers and fathers of Hilltop babies are again invited to have their youngsters' pictures taken for publication in The Hilltop Record, free of charge.

The series of pictures of Hilltop babies has been running for several months. More than 100 pictures have already appeared and at least 30 more are already scheduled for later publication. (Turn to Page 2B of today's Hilltop Record for this baby picture layout.)

The only condition required on the part of the parents is that they must be subscribers of the paper. (The Record is mailed every week for $1.50 per year.) Just telephone the Record office, HA. 1125, and list your child's name, age and other information. An appointment will then be made at a later time by the photographer, J. Curtis Allen, 281 N. Ogden-av.

The MISSES ELIZABETH JONES 3068 W. Broad-st, Evelyn Lahar, 3066 W. Broad-st, and Susan Colaw, 185 Midland-av, all of the Petite Beauty Salon, 11 N. Westmoor-av, will leave this week for a three-weeks' vacation trip through Florida. The beauty salon will be closed from Jan. 26 to Feb. 12.

Calling all outdoorsmen

By JIM MITCHELL

We may be accused of partaking of the old adage about "sour grapes" but, nonetheless, we are launching a campaign to have the name of the Kamloops Rainbow Trout in Idaho's famed Lake Pend Oreille changed. And the reason for suggesting a change is simple. Every time we read about another giant rainbow of 30-odd pounds being hoisted from this western paradise it makes us a little ashamed of the two and three-pounders that we've been able to coax onto our...

We're open to suggestion on an appropriate name, but it should be a name that throws the Kamloops into a category where it will compete with the muskie or northern pike for weight honors. Do we hear any seconds for the campaign?

For the record, here are the latest facts on Lake Pend Oreille During 1947, 366 rainbows were entered in the Pend Oreille Derby for awards. They ranged in weight from two to 37 pounds, with a gross weight of 8,165 pounds for an average of 22½ pounds per trout. Seven of the trout exceeded the former world record of 32½ pounds, with the 37-pounder, caught in the last week of the season, establishing the high mark and the new world's record.

We can't even catch a muskie that large, let alone a rainbow trout!

COOPERATION NEEDED: Before forgetting about the hunting season, dig up one of those blank forms on waterfowl (all the outdoor magazines published it) for reporting the number of ducks and geese you killed, the number of waterfowl you saw, etc. The form was designed by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service for collecting much-needed data on the total kill, spots where waterfowl concentrate and other information essential in better waterfowl management.

And, if you happened to have killed a banded goose or duck, be sure and report it to the Wildlife Service, Washington 25, D. C. The bureau will appreciate your cooperation and you will be playing a part in protecting our future gunning for waterfowl.

• • •

OLD ARGUMENT: We've heard sportsmen for many years argue the question: "How fast does a fish grow?" We don't profess to be an expert on this subject, but recently we ran across a report on the growth of a bluegill in an experimental lake in Ohio. This bluegill measured 1.1 inches in the first year, 2.9 inches in the second year, 4.4 inches in the third year and 5.2 inches the fourth year. The growth of the fish's scales was used to determine the age of the bluegill and, according to the guys in the know, the scale-growth method is accurate in determining ages of fish.

Andrew J. Burget, County's Second Traffic Victim

Andrew J. Burget, 73, who made his home with a sister at 981 Harrisburg-pk, became the county's second traffic victim of 1948. He was struck by an auto and killed instantly as he walked in the road near his home last Wednesday night.

The driver of the car, Harry H Haines, 25, of 278 S. Ohio-av, was exonerated of blame after the accident. He was quoted as saying he swerved his auto in an effort to avoid striking the man. Mr. Burget, an old age pensioner, was on his way to the home of his sister Mrs. Emma Hull at the Harrisburg-pk address. The body lay at the Floyd Born Funeral Home for several hours before being identified.

Funeral services were held in Grove City Saturday morning with burial in Green Lawn Cemetery.

Cowboys Have Tough Evening In Getting By Aquinas Terriers; West Reserves Win

Nailor

inent Democrats contacted this week had little to say on the subject. George Tarbutton, 2917 Crescent-dr, unsuccessful in his race for a seat in city council last fall, denied any political aspirations in the forthcoming primary. His name had been mentioned for at least two different offices.

In the ward committeeman posts all seemed quiet on the GOP front but there was some talk of a "harmony" candidate in 11th Ward Democratic ranks. Henry Fagan, 308 S. Algonquin-av, an attorney, two years ago unseated Grover Amrine, the Heer-endorsed candidate. Fagan said this week that he had not made up his mind whether or not to become a candidate.

In the 10th Ward Oscar Dildine, 31 S. Wheatland-av, organization-endorsed incumbent, said he would be in the race. Petitions are already in circulation. At this writing no other candidate was known to be considering the post.

George Sinclair, 109 Powhatan-av, 11th Ward GOP committeeman, said this week that he would have his petitions in circulation soon. Henry Koontz, 485 Hilltonia-av, said early this week that he would "probably" file although he has taken no action as yet. He is a member of city council and has held the 10th Ward committee post for a number of years.

A determined Aquinas quintet gave the West High Cowboys some bad moments on the Hilltop court Tuesday night as the Williams-coached boys barely squeezed by with a 38-36 victory. The crowd was one of the smallest seen in the local gym in recent years. A few seats were available throughout the evening.

West goes to North tomorrow night, entertains Logan here on Tuesday and then visits Linden McKinley Thursday.

Showing a decided letdown from the fast pace set in the East game (won by West 64 to 55) last Friday night, the Cowboys started off slow and had trouble stripping the nets all evening. The Aquinas defense kept the guards back near the center line most of the evening but even when the West players did get the ball through, they had trouble making their shots stick. Walter Hicks and Jack Thrush both kept the ball spinning around the hoop but failed to hit their usual scoring strides.

Poliseno, DeCarlo Tie

Captain Tom Poliseno and Joe DeCarlo of the Terriers led the scoring with four buckets and seven charity tosses for a total of 15 points each. Thrush was high for the home team with four two-pointers and a pair of free throws for 10 tallies.

Coach Val Boehm's boys came to within two points of knotting the count with only 45 seconds remaining but time ran out without the tieing bucket. Poliseno chalked up six points in the closing minutes of the game.

The Cowboys led 8-5 at the end of the first period and enjoyed a 17 to 11 advantage at the half-time. By the start of the fourth period they had increased that lead by one point as the score stood 31 to 24.

The Terriers picked up 16 of their points via the free-throw mark. West was able to score only 15 buckets from the floor.

The West Reserves held the Terrier Reserves to three field goals all evening as the Cowboys won 17 to 14. High score man for the evening was Adams with six tallies.

Across The HILLTOP ALLEYS

By Dick Ardle

Bob Fischer Rolls 680

The highest series to be rolled at the Hilltop Alleys was rolled last Friday night in the Knights of Columbus League. Bob Fischer was the man to do it as he put together games of 232, 254 and 194 for a grand 680 total.

Bob is the leadoff man on the Finneran and Fischer team which is now tied for the lead in this league, and his average going into this series was 175. Bob was bowling on alleys 1-2 when he came through with his big games.

Dick Ardle

He started the evening off as if he meant business as he rolled five strikes in a row. He then had four spares (one of which was a nine pin count and the others eight pin counts) and finished with a strike and spare for 232. In his big game of the evening he started with a spare. Then came a double, followed by another spare, and he finished the game with six strikes in a row for a beautiful 254 score. In his third game "lady luck" caught up with him when, in the ninth frame, he missed his third strike in a row by one pin (this strike would have given him a 700 series) and then failed to pick up the spare. This didn't bother Bob much as he struck in the 10 frame and just to top off the evening he turned in the 4-10 split. Besides his miss in the ninth he had two split, one in the third frame of the last game, and one in the ten which he turned in. His first two games were unblemished. Nice going Bob.

Bowling Bits

Marie Balthaser rolled into 12th place in the singles of the Women's City Tournament with 544 and Billie Warden ninth place with 554 . . . Dorothy Amore and Ruth Perry paced the Hilltoppers in the doubles with 1057, which was good for seventh place . . . Seiller's landed in ninth place in the team events with 2539 and S. C. Stewart Black Top sixth place with 2563 . . . Rita Dawson (formerly Rita Wolfe) helped her First National Cleaners team to third place with 496.

You had better watch your step this week. Fred Wolfe tells me there will be "new wood" on the alleys and it is mighty flat on the bottom . . . Gary Swisher had another 100 game this week (He is the little boy who uses the four pound ball.) which included two spares and a strike.

Burgess Downs Riverside Meth. In Church Loop

By Dave Miller

In West Church Interchurch basketball games played at Glenwood gym Tuesday, the feature game saw Burgess Avenue EUB core a 29-10 victory over Riverside Methodist. The score does not in any manner show how close the game was throughout. It was Burgess' third win in as many games, and Riverside's third setback.

In the other top contest, undefeated Glenwood Methodist put the skids under twice-beaten Hoge Memorial in the finale of the day, 32 to 17.

In other games, Salvation Army beat St. Aloysius, 21-12, and West Park Methodist downed Westgate Evangelical five, 51 to 19.

The standings in this league are:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Burgess Ave. EUB	3	0	1.000
Glenwood	3	0	1.000
Salvation Army	3	0	1.000
West Park Methodist	2	1	.666
Hoge Memorial	2	1	.666
Riverside	0	3	.000
St. Aloysius	0	3	.000
Westgate E. U. B.	0	3	.000

The schedule for next week is as follows:

Riverside Methodist vs. St. Aloysius
Glenwood Methodist vs. West Park
Westgate EUB vs. Hoge Memorial
Salvation Army vs. Burgess EUB

Olentangy VFW, High Buttles Lead In Independent League

By Bob Humphries

Olentangy VFW Post No. 4615 and High-Buttles will be battling for big stakes when the two teams meet in the feature attraction of the third set of Glenwood Indepenent Basketball League games Friday at 6:30 p. m. at Glenwood Park gym. The winner of the game will take undisputed possession of first place in the league standing. At the present time, both teams are undefeated in two games.

In other games on Friday's program, Spears Funeral Home takes on Hilltop Van and Storage at 7 p. m., South-East A. C. faces Mellman Corner at 7:45 and in the final game of the evening, at 9:15, Hilltop Kiwanis Club engages Standard Oil.

The second set of games last Friday at Glenwood gym was featured by three closely contested frays. Hilltop Kiwanis Club nosed out Jerry Spears Funeral Home, 36 to 34; Hilltop Van and Storage trimmed Mellman Corner, 26 to 23, and High-Buttles turned back Standard Oil, 26 to 23.

In the lone one-sided game of the evening, Olentangy Post coasted to an easy 40 to 16 win over South-East A. C.

The Hilltop Kiwanis-Jerry Spears game was nip and tuck throughout, with the Kiwanians holding a slender 17 to 13 lead at the half. Tom Arnold of Spears took scoring honors of the game and also of the evening, connecting with 16 points, while Don Borror and Dick Layne, both of Kiwanis, registered 12 points each.

Stinson Stars

Ray Stinson, a Hilltop athlete, turned in his usual steller performance for Standard Oil. Although his team went down in defeat, Stinson hit the net for 12 points. Harvey Eader chalked up nine points for the High-Buttles squad.

Hilltop Van and Storage was forced to go on the defensive in the last quarter to protect a slim lead. Ray Grable's seven points were high for Van and Storage, while Bill Allman accounted for nine points for losing Mellman Corner.

With Jack Bennett leading the way with 11 points, Olentangy Post piled up a commanding lead early in tht game and enlarged the margin in the third and fourth quarters.

Coached by Jerry Geroux, the Mellman Corner team is composed entirely of Hilltop boys. They are Don Ijams, Don Sweeney, Morris Trant, Joe Williams, Dick Laemmle, Tom Curtis, Bill Allman, Jack Leveile, Bill Blackburn, Dick Davis, Bill Lewis, Dick Underhill, Ernie Spencer, Jack Vincent and "Blackie" Spillman.

Bob Schlegel is coach and manager of the Hilltop Kiwanis team. His players are Don Borror, Sammy Sahr, Wally Watkins, Jack Hammett, Dick Layne, Jack Buckingham, Bill Buckingham, Noble Allen, Jr., Tom Vincent and Jack Woodruff.

Hilltop Van and Storage has the services of Bill Link, Bill Dawson, Dick Hall, Joe Case, Bill Sapp, Jack McHale, Ray Grable and Dick Gordon.

Honored Coach

Coach Glass

R. C. (Rufe) Glass, 172 Guernsey-av, coach of cross-country and track at West High School, was listed recently as one of the Ohio Honor Roll Coaches of 1947.

Glass has also been named chairman of the seventh annual OATC Clinic to be held at Ohio State University April 10.

The subject of the essays for this year is to be: "How Can Tht United Nations Become More Effective?" They should be limited to 600 words or less.

The essay contest committee for Camp Chase Post No. 98 is composed of Guy A. Martin, C. C. Hartley, M. P. Hain, B. S. Swisher and E. B. Graham, chairman.

An all-expense trip to Washington D. C. will be awarded to 12 state winners.

Boys Of Troop 214 Are Entertained

By Bob Mone

Troop 214 had a party at the last meeting. The Scoutmaster, J. Martin, his assistants and the troop committee put on the affair. Movies of the summer camp were shown by Mr. O'Brian. Refreshments were served, and they soon disappeared. No 214 is now a complete troop for the first time. All boys were present at the party.

Hicks Accounts For 20 Points To Lead

The Cowboys from the Hilltop rode roughshod over East's Tiger quintet on the E. Broad-st court Friday night, knocking them out of a tie for the top position in the league at least temporarily. The 64-55 win over Coach Ralph Webster's boys was definitely an upset victory for West but Central was the one that really cashed in on the spoils. It left the Pirates in undisputed first place.

The Cowboys were to play host to Aquinas on the home floor on Tuesday of this week. (See section A of today's Hilltop Record for an account of this game.) The torrid city loop schedule takes West to North on Friday. Next Monday night, Logan pays a visit to the Hilltop for a return engagement, followed by a visit to Linden McKinley on Tuesday. Marion Harding comes to the Hilltop next Thursday night.

Walter Hicks hit his best scoring stride of the season as he racked up 20 points to take honors for the evening. Jack Thrush, who was not afforded too many tries at the bucket, came up with 15 tallies. L. Towers lead the attack for the Bengals with 13 points, 11 of them coming in the final period after Coach George Williams was using his second team.

The height advantage was used to good advantage by the Cowboys, particularly in controlling rebounds. Chuck Weeks eluded his guard several times to break under the basket for effective shots. He scored five times from the floor and made good on three out of five free throws for a total of 13 points.

West Led At Half

West held a slight edge through the first period and began to pull out in front as the second canto unfolded. They enjoyed a 33-22 halftime lead. Following the rest period, they came out to burn the nets to the tune of 24 more points while the hapless Bengals were getting seven tallies.

Coach Williams started the final period with a 56-29 advantage and pulled all but Paul Theisen from his starting lineup. Theisen, incidentally, accounted for five buckets during the evening.

East tried desperately to whittle down the Cowboy lead during the final quarter, hitting the nets for 26 points and coming within nine tallies of doing the trick.

The tiger Reserves handed their guests a 41 to 25 trimming in the preliminary game.

West Junior Drops 34-19 Contest To Barrett Friday

By Dave Miller

An alert, fast-stepping Barrett basketball five downed West Junior by a 34 to 19 score in a game played Friday on the losers' court.

For the first time, Paul Ellingsworth, star West Junior center, was topped in individual scoring in the four games he has played this year. In the opener, the Starling game, the pivot man of the Broncos topped the scoring with 18 tallies. Being ill for the Crestview game, Ellingsworth tallied 13 times in the Everett game. He then scored a total of 16 markers as West beat Indianola. This brought the dead-eye shooting ace a total of 55 points in all these pairings—average of 13.7 game. However, the Juniors will lose this individual top scorer in graduation, following this Friday's game with Linden Junior. As of yesterday, Ellingsworth came in with a third place tie in scoring as did Dick Young of the Barrett visitors, who copped honors with 11 points, followed by team-mate Dick Stutler, who counted nine times. Bob Strawster of Barrett and Ellingsworth each got eight points.

Only one starter, Ray Wakeman, will not graduate. However, Bill South, who has played only two games this year, will be a very serious threat. South was out three games with a sprained ankle.

Friday, Barrett was just too much for the host. West Junior. A free throw by Paul Thompson was the first and only time the Broncos ever led. Two quick buckets by Stutler gave Barrett a 4 to 1 lead.

Fast breaks, alert ball, etc., paid off for the winners as they made West Junior look bad before the very eyes of their faithful backers. Barrett held a 9 to 5 lead as the second period began. Stutler and Young of Barrett made it 13 to 5, and then Wakeman of West sank a one-handed push-hook to make it 13 to 7 with George Crissinger of West converting on a free throw. Two quick fake-hooks by Strawster made it the final score of the half 19 to 8.

Barrett then scored nine to West's six points in the third quarter and six to the host team's five in the finale.

Barrett sank 15 out of 37 field goal attempts and West eight out of 33.

Local Parks Will Benefit From City Recreation Fund

Local parks will come in for a share of the $775,000 bond money to be spent by the city during coming months. Bids have been asked for a second time on improvements to include the following:

McKinley playground is to have toilet facilities installed and Holton and Westgate are to have toilets overhauled.

A wading pool is to be installed at Glenwood Park along with other extensive repairs to the shelterhouse and grounds.

The wading pools at Westgate, McKinley and Sunshine are to be repaired.

Hope Is Victor Over Rome 36-13 In Lutheran Loop

By Dave Miller

Featuring city and Hilltop Lutheran Church League games at John Burroughs gym Monday evening, Hope Senior beat Rome Senior by a 36 to 13 score in the final game of the day.

Led by Jack Chambers, the Hope quintet's center, who racked in five goals and a duo of free throws for 12 markers, they were never headed throughout the game except when a free throw by Emilhentz gave the losers their first and only lead. The teamwork and passing of Hope, defending champions in the loop, paid off indefinitely as the scorekeeper went mad racking goals in the opening moments of the second half. Bill Berhlor, former Capital cage star and leading scorer of the Senior League, could gather only five points. A halftime lead of 19 to 7 was enjoyed by Hope.

In the first game of the evening, Bethlehem downed a fighting Center Intermediate team by a 37 to 24 count. Andrews, of the winners, got six buckets for 12 points. He was followed by team-mate Jim Ealy with four buskets and two out of three free throws, for a total of 10. Bethlehem almost scored as many in the first half as their opponents scored all night. They enjoyed a 21 to 8 lead.

The second game was "somewhat of a runaway" as St. John Intermediate swarmed over St. John No. 2, 58 to 11. Harry Bradley ran wild for the winners as he plunked in 11 field goals and sank one free throw to lead the individuals of the day with 23 tallies. Ted Fladt, Dick Briggs and Bill Turner tallied 12, nine and six points, respectively, for the winners. Jim Garber led the losing team as he scored twice from the field and once on a free throw. The winners relaxed with a 22 to 6 halftime lead over their competitors.

The AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION
PURPOSES—ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Your family physician is a member of the American Medical Association, and helps to make its policies.

The American Medical Association was organized in its present form in 1902 for the purpose of:

Raising the standard of requirements for practice of medicine; raising the efficiency of Medical Schools and Hospitals.

Protecting the public against gross and harmful medicine; protecting the public as regards pure food and drugs; cooperation between Pharmacy and Medicine for public protection.

Keeping alive an intensive search for more effective methods of prevention, treatment and cure of illness; furnishing the public with information regarding health and disease prevention; distributing medical knowledge for service to mankind, as soon as confirmed as sound.

Promoting preventive medicine and public health through professional channels.

Guarding public by enforcing a strict code of principles, ethical practice and behavior of its members; working out social and economic problems affecting the public and practice of medicine; maintaining ethics, fairness and conscientious scientific service through unified effort.

For the collection of biographical material concerning the educational and practical qualifications of all the physicians of America, for public information.

For publication of a quarterly Index of world-wide medical and scientific articles and research, as a constant aid to physicians in extending the benefits of medical knowledge to all mankind.

STUDENTS RECEIVE LEGION AWARDS
By Barbara Emmitt

Michelina Antolino and Willis Kern received American Legion School Awards for being the two most outstanding 9A students of Starling. The awards were presented by William C. Bryant of the American Legion. The presentation was made Thursday at 1:30 in the auditorium.

The characteristics on which the awards for girls are based are courage, companionship, character, service and scholarship. The characteristics for boys are honor, courage, scholarship, leadership and service.

Michelina Antolino and Willis Kern were chosen by the 9A home room teachers.

9A PARTY PLANNED
By Barbara Baumgardner

On Friday, Jan. 23, in the gymnasium at Starling High School, a party will be given for the 9A students. First, the pupils will enjoy a program featuring 9A talent. Then, games under the supervision of Mr. Sheatsley, the physical education director of the city, will follow. After the refreshments the students will enjoy dancing.

The pupils who will serve on the decorating committee are Claire Ashton, Patricia Hawley, Willis Kern, Nancy Koch, James Lewis, Virginia Southard, Ruth Sparks and Gary Stoll.

Don Tucker was chosen as master of ceremonies.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS ARE SELECTED
By Pat Blair

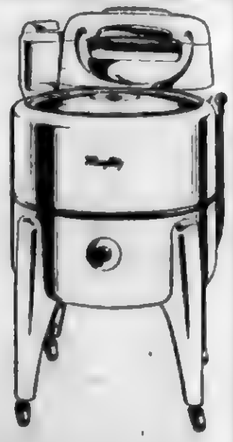
James Fenstemaker and Bonna Stimmel were chosen as commencement speakers from a group of six 9A students recently at Starling Junior High School.

James Fenstemaker chose for his subject, "Choosing My Profession," and Bonna Stimmel will speak on "Opportunity, the Path to Success."

Patricia Hawley and Lola Long were selected as alternates. Patricia will speak on "The Golden Hinge of Life," and Lola will discuss "Practicing Democracy In School."

The six students who competed for class speakers were James Fenstemaker, Patricia Hawley, Nancy Koch, Dorothy Kuntz, and Lola Long.

The teachers who served as judges were Miss Francis L. Forbes, Miss Emma E. Layner and W. B. Walsh.



Ham and Potatoes en Casserole

Peel 2 medium-sized Irish potatoes and slice thin. Take one slice cured ham and fry till brown and cut in serving slices. Now take baking dish and butter. Cover bottom with layer potatoes, pepper and a little flour. No salt, as ham is usually salty enough to flavor. Then lay several pieces of ham. Next another layer of potatoes, etc. Continue until all is used and cover with sweet milk. Bake in slow oven.

John Burroughs News

John Burroughs PTA held open House on Tuesday, Jan. 13, from 7 p. m. until 9:30 p. m. Nearly 500 parents, teachers and children attended. Parents visited the teachers in their rooms from 7 to 8 before the regular meeting and program. The safety patrol boys led the group in the pledge to the flag and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." Invocation was given by Rev. Howard Schoof. The band rendered several fine selections and the 6th grade chorus sang a group of songs. Both the band and the chorus were directed by Mrs. Koontz, the music teacher.

The sales tax drive from the 14 through the 16th was the news of the week. The first day reaped us nearly $20 cash.

A noon time movie was held in the auditorium Wednesday at 12:45 p. m. Door charge was one thin dime.

Seventh grade received through the Castle Film Company a splendid picture on roller bearings—carefully illustrating all the fine details on this [illegible] product.

Why College?

Soon 115 West High School seniors will have completed their secondary education and like thousands of other graduates will be seeking an answer to the problem, "Why go to college?"

We will not take the position we have heard championed by some educators in assuming that every high school graduate should go to college, but we will say that many persons never go further with their formal education who should have gone to college. Well do we realize what sacrifices must be made in many cases to continue one's education, but in few cases that have really given up something to go to college are there regrets today that they did see it through. Some of the most successful persons we know, and that not measured in dollars and cents alone, are those who found it a real hardship to go to college.

The world today is becoming more and more competitive. The requirements expected of any young person starting out in life to look for a job is becoming more difficult to satisfy. In many office jobs today, a college education is almost essential in order to get consideration. While we feel that in some cases this aspect of one's qualifications is over emphasized, the employer can afford to be selective for the sake of prestige in his organization.

The four years required to get a bachelor's degree in liberal arts or commerce today will scarcely be missed in the lives of most young people. The associations and contacts developed there are valuable in many ways in addition to the academic qualifications one possesses upon obtaining a degree.

There are of course many high school graduates who because of native abilities have definitely made up their minds to go into other types of work where college training is of little value. The boy who wants to become a carpenter, electrician, plumber or machinist can learn far more by apprenticing himself to a worker in the trade than by learning it through continued formal education.

Every young person today should definitely know that college will be of little help in his life's work before he rules out college as a possibility. Even then he may find that evening school will offer him many worthwhile background courses. In that way he can finance himself while getting his college training by a slower but none-the-less effective way.

The world today is looking for college trained men and women.

Circus Day Set For Youngsters

Indian dances led by Robert C. Gillespie, a full-blooded Sioux Indian, will be featured at the Community Junior Theater Circus Day Jan. 24 at 10 a. m. at Memorial Hall. This affair is filled with star-studded acts planned especially for the delight of children. Admission is only 25c for children, 35c for adults.

Starred in this show will be the world's largest clown act, Faith King's famous performing dogs and ponies, comedy tumblers, bull-fighting toreadors, western cowboys, a real circus band and all of the thrilling circus regalia.

Circus Day is being produced by the recreation department, under the direction of Robert Verbeck, who will serve as ring master. It is the second of six performances of the 1947-'48 Community Junior Theater, a non-profit civic organization. Tickets for the entire series are $1.

MY BANKER FRIEND

It has been said that mathematician Albert Einstein is more proud of his fiddle playing than of his reputation as a scientist. The significance of this seemingly misplaced pride is that the famous physicist, like all really great men, isn't stuffy.

Wilson

I always suspect the supposedly "Big" man until, in some way, he proves himself to be a human being. This was the case with a business acquaintance of mine. Chairman of the board at the bank I was considering for my $32.51 deposit, he wooed my confidence through constant winings and dinings at his country estate. He seemed to be doing his level best to impress me but for all his sincere efforts, he left me cold. That he was trustworthy was beyond question and perhaps that was it. He seemed so blasted honest that it made me uncomfortable. At any rate, I resisted his sales routine for several weeks and the poor fellow was getting desperate. He put me up as a house guest and dedicated himself entirely to making me feel at home. He even asked me to call him "Dad." Still I wasn't sold and my $32.51 remained tucked in my shoe.

Finally, however, he met success. During one of his strictly confidential chats, he referred vaguely to his "trophy." Knowing that hunting was not among his many hobbies, I asked him what this trophy was and for the first time since he'd begun his little good will campaign, he clammed up. He sputtered and blushed and tried to change the subject. My curiosity was aroused, though, and I insisted that he tell me more about it. At length he gave in and with an air of secrecy he bid me follow him. He took me to his library and after closing the drapes and checking behind chairs for possible spies he advanced to his wall safe and twisted the combination. Again he turned to look for intruders and then pulled out a small steel box. He laid it on his desk and hesitatingly lifted the lid. Then with a flair he stood back beaming proudly and hooking his thumbs in his vest arm-holes. Peering into the box, I saw what was nearest and dearest to the old boy's heart—his trophy—a shiny ring and tear drop hood ornament.

"From the governor's Buick," he bragged. "All I actually wanted was the ring but in my haste, I pulled off the whole darned thing."

With tears of admiration in my eyes, I reached into my shoe and handed my new-found friend $32.51.

Kittens Will Purr, Cats Will Meow At Annual Cat Show

The Ohio State Persian Club will hold its 27th annual championship cat show and exhibition at the Southern Hotel Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 24 and 25. The show will be staged for the benefit of the Humane Society of Columbus and Franklin County.

The largest premium list in the history of the local club, and one of the largest in the country, has been posted for the coming show. It includes 145 cash prizes in addition to loving cups, medals, satin-streamered rosettes and ribbons and other trophies. Top cash prizes are $25 for best cat in the show and $20 for best cat in show of opposite sex. Blue bloods of the cat world from 15 states, from many cities in Ohio as well as local cat thoroughbreds, have been entered in the show. Approximately 200 cats and kittens are expected to be on hand when the show opens for its two-day run. The number will include a great variety of colors, breeds and ages, with both pedigreed royalty and plain household pets and alley cats. Mrs. Dorothy Diebel Keller of Toledo, widely known cat breeder and exhibitor, will be the judge of the show. The show is sanctioned by the Cat Fanciers' Association of America, of which the Ohio State Persian Club is a member, and CFA rules will be followed.

Mrs. Alice Hostetter Murnane, 242 N. Burgess-av, is an assistant manager of the show.

The state of New Mexico boasts more than 10,000 miles of highways, and enjoys a large tourist travel.

HILL TOPICS —By PW—

When You Need a Friend

It isn't often that I delve into the serious side of life in this column but the last few days have brought home a thought or two that keep turning over in mind. It's about something we many times feel is lacking in our modern pattern of life.

Last Tuesday afternoon we buried my father in a little country churchyard down in the hills of Switzer Township in Monroe County. The folks down there proudly call it the "Switzerland of America." A beautiful white blanket of snow covered the hills last week but before many months the warm winds of spring will bring to life all the velvety green that makes it one of the beauty spots of Ohio.

The death of my father was no more tragic than most deaths since he had been ill for several years. It was the thoughtfulness of friends and neighbors during the illness and at the time of his death that will always be stamped indelibly on my memory. The folks in Switzer Township are almost all farmers. They are good farmers although not quite so mechanized as "flat land" farmers around here. Their many little acts of kindness will ever be remembered.

After they brought my father's body back to the home, most of the neighbors came to pay their respects. Few of them came empty handed. Most of the women brought a cake, pies, cookies or other things to help feed those who would come to the funeral. And that wasn't anything new either. Most of the farmers around there had remembered dad every fall when they butchered with a fresh "mess" of sausage or some other cuts of fresh meat. It's their way to express their concern over a friend or neighbor. They've been doing it that way all their lives.

It wasn't surprising when a goodly number of them turned out to attend the funeral on a cold wintry day. The thing that did touch me most, however, was when both rural mail carriers (their routes overlap at that point) stopped long enough that morning to pay their respects in person. Neither of them had known dad personally (He had lived there only a few years.) but both had exchanged greetings many times as he sat in the swing on the front porch during the summer months.

Yes. There are still those who remember their neighbors when there is a need. It makes one feel good to know that when a fellow needs a friend, there's someone standing by.

Can I Breathe Now, Daddy?

It was one of those near-zero mornings early this week when Bob Maxwell and sons were starting out in the family car and as was to be expected Bob was having his hands full keeping the windshield from frosting over before the heater started to do its work.

"Stop breathing for a while, boys," Bob said jokingly to his offsprings.

Several minutes passed in silence, then 4-year-old Billie spoke up:

"Can I breathe now, Daddy?"

Hold That Tiger

There's nothing out of date about the East High School band.

Many West visitors there Friday night attending the basketball game raised their eyebrows slightly when the school band broke forth with "Hold That Tiger." The West Cowboys took the song literally and did just that, wijning the game by a 64-58 score.

The band did another "jump and jive" number or two and then led out with "Peg of My Heart" as the audience joined in the vocals.

SMILES

Two Irishmen were in the mountains hunting. The one carrying the gun saw a grouse and carefully took aim.

Pat, shouting — Mike, don't shoot! The gun ain't loaded!

Mike, yelling — I've got to; the bird will niver wait!

A bashful young Negro had not the courage to pop the question. Finally, one Sunday night—

Negro—Mandy, yo' remembers that I was heah Monday night?

Mandy—Yes.

Negro — An' dat I was heah Wednesday an' Thursday?

Mandy—Yes.

Negro—An' once mo' on Friday, an' again las' night?.

Mandy—Sho yo' was.

Negro—An' I is heah tonight.

Mandy—Yo' sho is.

Negro, in desperation — Say, woman, doesn't yo' smell a rat?

Due to the frequent bombings, there was a time when civilian casualties were heavier in England than in the armed service. On one occasion rescuers spent several hours digging out the occupants of a bombed household. When finally a mother and several children were carried to safety, the air raid warden looked anxiously back at the wrecked home and turned to the rescued woman.

He — Was your husband in there?

Woman — My husband? Oh, he's safe all right. He's enlisted.
